(3) To the legal custodian of a beneficiary (§ 13.58);

(4) To the guardian of a beneficiary (§ 13.59);

(5) To the Chief Officer of the institution in which the veteran is receiving care and treatment (§ 13.61);

(6) To the bonded officer of an Indian reservation (§ 13.62);

(7) To a custodian-in-fact of the beneficiary (§ 13.63);

(8) By apportionment to dependents of the veteran (§ 13.70).

(b) A fiduciary will not be required, for Veterans Administration purposes, when:

(1) The Chief Attorney recommends payment directly to the veteran;

(2) The beneficiary's only legal disability is minority and he or she is in active military, naval or air service, or a veteran, or the widow of a veteran, or a minor who has entered into a program of education or training under 38 U.S.C. Ch. 35, as amended, and has been designated by the Manager under § 21.3051(c) of this chapter to receive payments directly.

(c) The Chief Attorney's certification is sufficient authority to make payments to the person designated therein upon behalf of the beneficiary.

§ 13.56 Direct payment to veteran.

Veterans Administration benefits payable to a veteran who is rated incompetent by the Veterans Administration but has not been adjudged insane and has no guardian may be paid directly to the veteran when he is rated as competent because the Chief Attorney finds as fact and submits evidence that the veteran has demonstrated ability to handle the amount payable with reasonable prudence.

§ 13.57 Payment to the wife of incompetent veteran.

Compensation, pension or emergency officers' retirement pay of an incompetent veteran having no guardian may be paid to his wife for the use of the veteran and his dependents, provided she is qualified to administer the benefits payable and will agree to use the amounts paid for that purpose.

§ 13.58 Legal custodian.

(a) Authority. The Chief Attorney is authorized to make determinations as to the person or legal entity legally vested with the care of the person or estate of a beneficiary who has no guardian and who is mentally ill or under legal disability by reason of minority or action of a court of competent jurisdiction. The person or legal entity so recognized will be termed a legal custodian.

(b) Payment to. Veterans Administration benefits may be paid to a legal custodian subject to the following conditions:

(1) The beneficiary is not under a guardianship of the person and estate or of the estate.

(2) The proposed legal custodian is qualified to administer the benefits payable and will agree to:

(i) Apply the benefits paid for the sole use of the beneficiary,

(ii) Disburse the benefits paid only as authorized by the Chief Attorney,

(iii) Invest surplus funds as provided by Veterans Administration regulations,

(iv) Provide adequate safeguards for the estate, and

(v) Account for the Veterans Administration benefits received.

(3) All or most of the benefits payable will be required for the support, care or education of the beneficiary so that a substantial estate will not be accumulated.

§ 13.59 Guardian.

(a) Payment to. Any Veterans Administration benefit may be paid to the guardian appointed by a State court for a beneficiary who is a minor, or incompetent or under other legal disability adjudged by a court of competent jurisdiction.

(b) Chief Attorney's authority. The Chief Attorney shall:

(1) Determine and recommend to the court the person or legal entity best fitted for appointment as guardian for the particular beneficiary.

(2) Upon request, represent the petitioner in the appointment proceedings when the Veterans Administration payments are not sufficient to justify employment of counsel.

(3) Sign certifications of need for a guardian and of minority or of rating of incompetency by the Veterans Administration of the beneficiary required by the Uniform Veterans Guardianship Act or similar State legislation.

(4) Upon request, represent the guardian in guardianship proceedings when the estate is not sufficient to justify employment of counsel.

(5) Appear in State trial courts as attorney for the Administrator of Veterans Affairs in all guardianship matters and in appellate courts when authorized.

(6) Require accountings, formal or informal, of guardians with or without judicial proceedings.

(7) Take such other action, including institution of appropriate legal proceedings, as may be necessary, to assure that the needs of the beneficiary are provided for and Veterans Administration benefits are prudently administered and adequately protected.

(8) To direct the suspension of payments in fiduciary matters.

§ 13.60 Authority to file petitions for appointment of guardians.

(a) Adult beneficiary. The Chief Attorney is authorized to file or cause to be filed a petition for the appointment of a guardian for an adult beneficiary only when he has determined that alternative methods of payment would not be to the best interests of the beneficiary and when he has obtained the written consent of:

(1) The beneficiary (if he is capable of understanding the consequences of his act).

(2) The beneficiary's spouse if he is incapable of consenting or refusing.

(3) The beneficiary's adult child, parent, adult brother or sister if the beneficiary is unmarried or consent of the spouse is immaterial because of estrangement or mental incapacity or refusal to consent coupled with failure to offer adequate alternative means for providing for the beneficiary's needs.

(4) A civil official or representative of a cooperating agency when consent of one of the relatives listed in subparagraphs (2) and (3) of this paragraph cannot be obtained because none can be located after reasonable inquiry or those located are not mentally competent to consent or refuse without offering adequate alternative means for providing for the needs of the beneficiary.

(b) Minor beneficiaries. The Chief Attorney is authorized to file or cause to be filed a petition for the appointment of a guardian of a minor, if permissible under the law of the jurisdiction concerned when he determines the protection of the minor's rights under laws administered by the Veterans Administration requires the appointment provided: He has obtained the written consent of the minor's natural or adoptive parent or parents or the person or persons occupying the relationship of "in loco parentis" as defined by the law of the jurisdiction in which they reside. The Chief Attorney will not institute a guardianship proceeding over the objections of such parent or parents if they are sui juris unless:

(1) The parents have abandoned the minor or otherwise refused to meet their parental obligations toward the minor or they have previously been appointed or recognized as the minor's fiduciary and failed to properly execute the duties of their trust;

(2) The minor has no parent or the parent or parents are not sui juris, in either of which case the Chief Attorney may file the petition without the consent of any relative.

§ 13.61 Payment to Chief Officer of institution.

The Chief Attorney may recommend the payment of all or part of the pension, compensation or emergency officers' retirement pay payable in behalf of a veteran rated incompetent by the Veterans Administration to the Chief Officer of the institution wherein the veteran is being furnished hospital treatment, institutional or domiciliary care, for his use and benefit, when the Chief Attorney has determined such payment (called an institutional award) will adequately provide for the needs of the veteran and obviate need for appointment of a guardian.

§ 13.62 Payment to bonded officer of Indian reservation.

Any benefits due an incompetent adult or minor Indian, who is a recognized ward of the Government and for whom no guardian has been appointed, may be awarded to the superintendent or other bonded officer designated by the Secretary of the Interior to receive funds under 25 U.S.C. 14.

§ 13.63 Payment to custodian-in-fact.

Any Veterans Administration benefit due a beneficiary who is a minor, or is mentally ill, or under other legal disability adjudged by a court of competent jurisdiction, and who has a fiduciary to whom payments may not properly be made, may be paid temporarily to the person having custody and control of the beneficiary and who will agree to account for the funds paid and expend such funds solely for the use of the beneficiary.

§ 13.64 Natural guardians.

Chief Attorneys may authorize the payment of Veterans Administration benefits payable in behalf of minors to natural guardians when such persons are constituted guardians of the person and estate of the minor in the territory or insular possession of the United States or foreign country in which they reside.

§ 13.65 Legal services.

(a) Chief Attorneys may furnish legal services in behalf of minor and incompetent beneficiaries of the Veterans Administration in guardianship matters when the beneficiary's estate or income is not sufficient to justify the employment of an attorney.

(b) Where the guardian does not in due course institute the necessary action to terminate the guardianship and the beneficiary requests the Chief Attorney to represent him, or in any such case where there is in question the proper administration of the estate, the Chief Attorney may file the necessary action and supply legal services. Costs, unless assessed against the guardian, should be charged to the estate of the beneficiary.

§ 13.66 Legal custodian and custodian-in-fact may be required to furnish bond.

(a) The Chief Attorney may require the person who is to be or has been recognized as legal custodian or as custodian-in-fact, to furnish a corporate surety bond in an amount sufficient to protect the estate of the beneficiary. Such bond may be required as a condition to initial or continued payment to such person.

(b) For purposes of this section, estate shall mean the total value of accumulated Veterans Administration benefits and increments derived therefrom plus the net anticipated increase (receipts less authorized expenditures) for the following year or in the case of a custodian-in-fact during the authorized duration of the fiduciary relationship.

§ 13.67 Authorization of transportation of a veteran beneficiary for appointment of a guardian.

When the appointment of a guardian is required for an incompetent veteran hospitalized by the Veterans Administration and under the law of the State wherein the hospital is located the appointment cannot be had locally, the veteran may be returned temporarily to the jurisdiction of the appropriate court in order that the appointment can be accomplished. If the veteran is in a Veterans Administration hospital, the Manager of the hospital may authorize travel of the veteran and an attendant or attendants if necessary, upon request of the Chief Attorney. If the veteran is being maintained in a non-Veterans Administration hospital, the Manager of the regional office concerned may authorize such travel, upon request of the Chief Attorney.

§ 13.68 Costs and other expenses incident to appointment of guardian.

(a) The Chief Attorney may authorize the payment of costs and other necessary expenses incident to the appointment of a guardian of a beneficiary of the Veterans Administration including successor guardians when:

(1) Benefits are small and such costs would unduly deplete the estate (accrued benefits and private estate do not exceed $2,000).

(2) Appointment was caused by Veterans Administration and it develops that no benefits are payable and no estate from which costs may be paid.

(3) Costs must be advanced when there is no immediate estate from which same may be paid. These costs to be recovered from benefits payable unless the case falls within subparagraph (1) of this paragraph.

(b) Costs and necessary expenses include:

(1) All those chargeable by statute or rule of court and certified by the clerk of court.

(2) Certified copies of court records required by Veterans Administration.

(3) Fees for guardian ad litem when chargeable as court costs and required by State law.

§ 13.69 Limitation of wards to individual guardian.

The policy of the Veterans Administration is to limit to five the number of wards for whom an individual guardian may act, except where such individual is acting as guardian for the minors of the same family and the cooperation of the court will be sought to that end.

(a) When an individual has been appointed as guardian of the estate or as guardian of the person and estate of more than five beneficiaries of the Veterans Administration, except for minors of the same family, the Chief Attorney will take no further action if the administration of the estates or of the persons and estates is satisfactory in every respect. In those States having a statute limiting the number of wards the guardian will be removed in the excess cases.

(b) The policy stated in this section will not be applied to public officials who, by reason of their office, are appointed as guardians in accordance with the State laws, when such appointments are as to the office and not as to the individual incumbent of the position.

§ 13.70 Apportionment of benefits to dependents.

(a) Incompetent veterans being furnished hospital treatment, institutional or domiciliary care by United States or political subdivision thereof. (1) The Chief Attorney may recommend the apportionment of compensation, pension or emergency officers' retirement pay payable in behalf of a veteran, who is incompetent or under other legal disability by action of a court, to or in behalf of his wife, child or dependent parent as may be necessary to provide for their needs.

(2) When payment of compensation, pension or emergency officers' retirement pay, in behalf of a veteran who is incompetent or under other legal disability by action of a court, has no wife or child and is being furnished hospital treatment, institutional or domiciliary care by the United States or a political subdivision thereof, has been stopped because his estate equals or exceeds $1,500, the Chief Attorney may recommend the payment of so much of the benefit otherwise payable as is necessary to provide for the needs of a dependent parent or parents.

(b) Dependent parents. When the compensation of a veteran paid to his fiduciary includes an additional amount for a dependent parent or parents and the fiduciary neglects or refuses to make an equivalent contribution for their support, the Chief Attorney may recommend the apportionment to the parent or parents of the additional amount.

(c) Payments withheld because of fiduciary's failure to properly administer veteran's estate. When payments of compensation, pension or emergency officers' retirement pay payable in behalf of a veteran have been stopped because of his fiduciary's failure or inability to properly account or otherwise administer the estate, the Chief Attorney may recommend the apportionment to the veteran's wife, child or dependent parent of any benefit not paid under an institutional award or to a custodian-in-fact.

§ 13.71 Payment of cost of veteran's maintenance in institution.

(a) By institutional award. (1) The payment of part of compensation, pension or emergency officers' retirement pay for the cost of a veteran's hospital treatment, institutional or domiciliary care in an institution operated by a political subdivision of the United States may be authorized as provided in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph when:

(i) The veteran is rated incompetent by the Veterans Administration and has no wife, child, dependent parent or guardian,

(ii) The Chief Attorney has determined the veteran is legally liable for the cost of his maintenance, and

(iii) The institution's representative has asserted or probably will assert a claim for full maintenance costs.

(2) Subject to these conditions and the further condition that the responsible official of the institution or political subdivision will agree not to assert against Veterans Administration benefits any further claim for maintenance during the veteran's lifetime, the Chief Attorney may agree with such official to the payment of the veteran's benefits through an institutional award to be applied to:

(i) A monthly amount determined by the Chief Attorney to be needed for the veteran's personal use,

(ii) An amount to be agreed upon to be accumulated to provide for the veteran's rehabilitation upon release from the institution, and

(iii) So much of the amount of the benefit as remains not exceeding the amount the Chief Attorney shall determine to be the proper charge as fixed by statute or administrative regulation, to the cost of the veteran's maintenance.

(3) Upon execution of an agreement as provided in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph, the Chief Attorney may certify to the adjudication agency the total amount to be released to the Chief Officer of the institution.

(b) By direct payment. When payment of compensation, pension or emergency officers' retirement pay in behalf of a veteran rated incompetent by the Veterans Administration who has no wife or child and is being furnished hospital treatment, institutional or domiciliary care by a political subdivision of the United States, has been stopped because his estate has reached $1,500, the Chief Attorney may certify to the adjudication agency the amount to be released to the responsible official to pay for the cost of the veteran's current care and maintenance. The amounts paid in such cases shall not exceed the amount of the benefit otherwise payable less any amounts apportioned to dependent parents and in no event exceed the amount which the Chief Attorney shall determine to be the proper charge as fixed by statute or administrative regulation.

AUTHORITY: §§ 9-1.101 to 9-1.110 issued under sec. 161(q), 70 Stat. 1069; 42 U.S.C. 2201(q). Implement and supplement sec. 205(c), 63 Stat. 390; 40 U.S.C. 486(c).

§ 9-1.101 Scope of subpart.

This subpart describes the Atomic Energy Commission Procurement Regulations in terms of establishment, authority, applicability, issuance, arrangement, implementation and supplementation of FPR, exclusions, deviations, and other AEC Procurement Instructions.

§ 9-1.102 Establishment of AEC Procurement Regulations.

(a) The AEC Procurement Regulations (AECPR) are hereby established.

(b) These regulations implement and supplement the Federal Procurement Regulations (FPR) and are a part of the Federal Procurement Regulations System.

(c) The effective date of FPR issuances throughout AEC will be the date indicated in the respective issuances, unless otherwise provided in the AEC Procurement Regulations.

(d) The effective date of AECPR issuances throughout AEC will be the date indicated in the respective issuances.

§ 9-1.103 Authority.

The AEC Procurement Regulations are prescribed by the General Manager of the AEC, pursuant to the authority of the Atomic Energy Act of 1954, and the Federal Property and Administrative Services Act of 1949.

§ 9-1.104 Applicability.

(a) The AEC Procurement Regulations and the Federal Procurement Regulations, which together form that part of the Federal Procurement Regulations System which governs AEC procurement, apply to all procurement of personal property and nonpersonal services (including construction).

(b) The FPR and AECPR shall be made available to the cost-type contractors that construct and operate AEC plants and laboratories as illustrative of the policies, practices and procedures used by the AEC, for their consideration in the development or revision of their own written procurement practices and procedures. Cost-type contractors are governed by (1) applicable contract provisions and (2) procurement policies, practices and procedures established by the contractor and approved by AEC. The FPR and AECPR will be employed by AEC in its review and approval of cost-type contractor procurement policies, practices and procedures.

§ 9-1.105-1 Publication.

The AEC Procurement Regulations appear in the Code of Federal Regulations as Chapter 9 of Title 41, Public Contracts, and are published in the daily issues of the FEDERAL REGISTER, in cumulated form in the Code of Federal Regulations, and in separate loose-leaf volume form.

§ 9-1.105-2 Copies.

Copies of the AEC Procurement Regulations in the FEDERAL REGISTER and the Code of Federal Regulations form may be purchased by Federal Agencies and the public, at nominal cost from the Superintendent of Documents, Government Printing Office, Washington 25, D.C.

§ 9-1.106 Arrangement.

§ 9-1.106-1 General plan.

The AEC Procurement Regulations employ the same numbering system and nomenclature used in the Federal Procurement Regulations and conform with FEDERAL REGISTER standards approved for the FPR.

§ 9-1.106-2 Numbering.

(a) The numbering system permits identification of every unit. The first digit, followed by a dash, represents the chapter number (AEC has been assigned Chapter 9). The dash is followed by the part number which may be one or more digits followed by a decimal point. The numbers after the decimal point represent, respectively, the subpart, section (in two digits) and, after a second dash, subsection, paragraph, subparagraph, and additional subdivisions. For example, this division is called "§ 9-1.106-2," in which the first digit denotes the chapter, the second the part, the third the subpart, the fourth and fifth the section, and the sixth the subsection.

(b) Where the AECPR implements a part, subpart, section, or subsection of the FPR, the implementing part, subpart, section, or subsection of the AECPR will be numbered (and captioned) to correspond to the FPR part, subpart, section, or subsection.

(c) Where the AECPR supplements the FPR, the numbers 50 and up will be assigned to the parts, subparts, or sections involved.

(d) Where the subject matter contained in a part, subpart, section, or subsection of the FPR requires no implementation, the AECPR will contain no corresponding part, subpart, section, or subsection number.

§ 9–1.106–3 Citation.

AEC Procurement Regulations will be cited in accordance with Federal Register standards approved for the FPR. Thus, this section, when referred to in divisions of the AEC Procurement Regulations, should be cited as "§ 9–1.106–3 of this chapter." When this section is referred to formally in official documents, such as legal briefs, it should be cited as "41 CFR 9–1.106–3." Any section of the AEC Procurement Regulations may be informally identified, for purposes of brevity, as AECPR followed by the section number, i.e., "AECPR 9–1.106–3."

§ 9–1.107 Implementation and supplementation of FPR.

§ 9–1.107–1 Description.

The AEC Procurement Regulations "implement" and "supplement" the FPR. The meaning of these terms includes the following:

(a) Implementation may have either of the following meanings:

(1) A part, subpart, section, etc., which treats a similarly numbered portion of the FPR in greater detail or indicates the manner of compliance, including any deviations.

(2) The absence of a corresponding part, subpart, section, etc., in the AECPR indicates that the FPR is applicable as written. Policies and procedures in the FPR are not repeated in the AECPR.

(b) Supplementation means AECPR coverage of matters which have no counterpart in the FPR.

§ 9–1.108 Exclusions.

Certain policies and procedures which come within the scope of this chapter nevertheless may be excluded from AECPR. These exclusions include the following categories:

(a) Subject matter which bears a security classification.

(b) Policy or procedure which is expected to be effective for a period of less than six months.

(c) Policy or procedure which is being instituted on an experimental basis for a reasonable period.

§ 9–1.109 Deviation.

§ 9–1.109–1 Description.

The term "deviation" includes any of the following actions:

(a) When a prescribed contract clause is set forth verbatim, use of a contract clause covering the same subject matter which varies from that set forth.

(b) When a standard or other form is prescribed, use of any other form for the same purpose.

(c) Alteration of a prescribed standard or other form, except as may be authorized in the regulations.

(d) The imposition of lesser or, where the regulation expressly prohibits, greater limitations than are imposed upon the use of a contract clause, form, procedure, type of contract, or upon any other procurement action, including but not limited to, the making or amendment of a contract, or actions taken in connection with the solicitation of bids or proposals, award, administration, or settlement of contracts.

(e) When a policy or procedure is prescribed, use of any inconsistent policy or procedure.

§ 9–1.109–2 Procedure.

In the interest of establishing and maintaining uniformity to the greatest extent feasible, deviations from the Federal Procurement Regulations System shall be kept to a minimum and controlled as follows:

(a) In individual cases, deviations from the FPR and AECPR may be authorized by Division Directors, Headquarters (having contracting authority) and Managers of Operations, unless otherwise provided. This authority may not be redelegated.

(1) A supporting statement for each individual deviation, which indicates briefly the nature of the deviation and the reasons for such special action shall be included in the contract file.

(2) A copy of the supporting statement for each individual deviation shall be forwarded to the Director, Office of Contract Policy.

(b) In classes of cases, requests for deviations from the FPR and the AECPR shall be forwarded in triplicate through the appropriate Division Director, Headquarters, to the Director, Office of Contract Policy, and shall be accompanied by an appropriate supporting statement. Requests will be considered on an expedited basis and appropriate coordination with Headquarters staff and operating divisions will be obtained by the Director, Office of Contract Policy. Requests involving the FPR will be considered jointly by AEC and the General Services Administration, unless, in the judgment of the Director, Office of Contract Policy, after due consideration of the objective of uniformity and the program responsibilities of AEC, circumstances preclude such joint effort. In such case, the Director, Office of Contract Policy will approve such class deviations as he determines necessary and will appropriately notify the General Services Administration.

§ 9–1.110 Other AEC Procurement Instructions.

(a) AEC Manual, Volume 9000, Contracting will continue to contain classified matters or matters of a purely internal nature.

(b) Procurement memoranda also will be employed, generally for informational purposes, and pursuant to § 9–1.108.

These regulations are effective July 1, 1960.

Dated at Germantown, Md., this 24th day of June 1960.

For the Atomic Energy Commission.

R. E. HOLLINGSWORTH,
Acting General Manager.

LABELING AND ADVERTISING OF DISTILLED SPIRITS

Notice of Hearing

Notice is hereby given, pursuant to the provisions of section 5 of the Federal Alcohol Administration Act (49 Stat. 981 as amended; 27 U.S.C. 205), of a public hearing to be held 10:00 a.m. on July 27, 1960, at Room 3313, Internal Revenue Service Building, 12th and Constitution Avenue NW., Washington 25, D.C. at which time and place all interested parties will be afforded opportunity to be heard, in person or by authorized representative, with reference to proposals, the substance of which is stated below, to amend Regulations No. 5 (27 CFR Part 5), relating to labeling and advertising of distilled spirits.

Written data, views or arguments relevant and material to these proposals may be submitted in duplicate for incorporation into the record of hearing (1) by mailing the same to the Director, Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Division, Internal Revenue Service, Washington 25, D.C., provided they are received prior to the termination of the hearing, or (2) by presenting the same at the said hearing. At the conclusion of the hearing a reasonable opportunity will be afforded interested parties for examination of the record and for the submission of briefs.

Substance of proposals. 1. To amend section 73(a) (27 CFR 5.73(a)) to provide for additional standards of fill for distilled spirits if sufficient justification for any additional size containers is disclosed at the hearing.

2. In the event that justification for additional standards of fill is disclosed; to consider amendment of section 37 (27 CFR 5.37) and such other sections of the regulations in this part as may be necessary, (a) to require a conspicuous statement of net contents (in terms of fluid ounces) to appear on brand labels of all classes and types of distilled spirits, whether or not such distilled spirits are subject to the standards of fill set forth in section 73(a) (27 CFR 5.73(a)); such statement of net contents to appear horizontally, on a contrasting background, in type or printing, with respect to containers of one-half pint or more, of a size not smaller than the equivalent of 12-pound Gothic caps; and (b) to eliminate the provision in section 37 (27 CFR 5.37) that the statement of net contents may be omitted from the label when it is blown, etched, sand-blasted, etc., or otherwise permanently marked on the container itself.

3. In the event that these proposals are adopted, to make them effective, 1 year (or some shorter or longer period of time) after publication of the amendments in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

WALNUTS (JUGLANS REGIA) IN SHELL[1]

U.S. Standards for Grades

Notice is hereby given that the United States Department of Agriculture is considering the revision of United States Standards for Walnuts (Juglans regia) in the Shell (7 CFR §§ 51.2945 to 51.2967) pursuant to the authority contained in the Agricultural Marketing Act of 1946 (secs. 202–208, 60 Stat. 1087, as amended; 7 U.S.C. 1621–1627).

The important changes proposed deal with kernel color and insect infestation. U.S. No. 1 and U.S. No. 2 grades would require less "light" colored kernels than they do at present. However, both of these grades would require a fairly large percentage of the kernels to be not darker than "light amber", whereas they now include no requirements for "light amber".

A distinction would be drawn between walnuts which are damaged by insects and walnuts which contain live insects. The former would be allowed under the restrictive tolerances but the latter would be prohibited in all of the standards.

A number of other changes of a minor nature are intended for clarification only.

All persons who desire to submit written data, views or arguments for consideration in connection with the proposed standards should file the same with the Chief, Fresh Products Standardization and Inspection Branch, Fruit and Vegetable Division, Agricultural Marketing Service, United States Department of Agriculture, South Building, Washington 25, D.C., not later than 30 days after publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

The proposed standards, as revised, are as follows:

GENERAL

§ 51.2945 Application.

The standards contained in this subpart apply only to walnuts commonly known as English or Persian walnuts (Juglans regia). They do not apply to walnuts commonly known as black walnuts (Juglans nigra).

§ 51.2946 Color chart.

The walnut color chart[2] to which reference is made in §§ 51.2948, 51.2949, 51.2950 and 51.2962 has been prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture as a part of this subpart.

§ 51.2947 Method of inspection.

In determining the grade of a lot of walnuts, all of the nuts in the sample first should be graded for size and then examined for external defects. The same nuts then should be cracked and examined for internal defects. The nuts must meet the requirements for both external and internal quality in order to meet a designated grade.

GRADES

§ 51.2948 U.S. No. 1.

"U.S. No. 1" consists of walnuts, the shells of which are dry, practically clean, bright and free from splits, injury by discoloration, and free from damage caused by broken shells, perforated shells, adhering hulls or other means. The kernels shall be well dried, free from decay, dark discoloration, rancidity, and live insects, and free from damage caused by mold, shriveling, insects or other means. (See § 51.2954.)

(a) This grade shall contain at least 70 percent, by count, of walnuts having kernels which are not darker than "light amber" (see color chart); and which are free from defects: Provided, That at least four-sevenths of the above amount, or 40 percent, of the walnuts in the lot shall have kernels which are not darker than "light" (see color chart). Higher percentages of nuts with kernels not darker than "light amber" which are free from grade defects and/or higher percentages with kernels not darker than "light" which are free from grade defects may be specified in accordance with the facts. (See § 51.2954.)

(b) Size shall be specified in connection with the grade. (See § 51.2952.)

"U.S. No. 2" consists of walnuts, the shells of which are dry, practically clean, free from splits, and free from damage caused by broken shells, perforated shells, adhering hulls, discoloration or other means. The kernels shall be well dried, free from decay, dark discoloration, rancidity, and live insects, and free from damage caused by mold, shriveling, insects or other means. (See § 51.2954.)

(a) This grade shall contain at least 60 percent, by count, of walnuts having kernels which are not darker than "light amber" (see color chart), and which are free from grade defects. Higher percentages of nuts with kernels not darker than "light amber" which are free from grade defects and/or percentages with kernels not darker than "light" (see color chart) which are free from grade defects, may be specified in accordance with the facts. (See § 51.2954.)

(b) Size shall be specified in connection with the grade. (See § 51.2952.)

§ 51.2950 U.S. No. 3.

"U.S. No. 3" consists of walnuts, the shells of which are dry, fairly clean, free from splits, and free from damage caused by broken shells, and free from serious damage caused by discoloration, perforated shells, adhering hulls or other means. The kernels shall be well dried, free from decay, dark discoloration, rancidity and live insects, and free from damage caused by mold, shriveling, insects or other means. (See § 51.2954.)

(a) There shall be no requirements in this grade for the percentage of walnuts having kernels which are "light amber" or "light" in color. However, the percentage, by count, of nuts in any lot having kernels not darker than "light amber" (see color chart) which are free from grade defects and/or the percentage having kernels not darker than "light" (see color chart) which are free from grade defects, may be specified in accordance with the facts. (See § 51.2954.)

(b) Size shall be specified in connection with the grade. (See § 51.2952.)

[2] The walnut color chart has been filed with the original document and is available for inspection in the Division of the Federal Register or in the Fruit and Vegetable Division, United States Department of Agriculture, South Building, Washington 25, D.C. A printed copy of this color chart is attached to each copy of these standards issued by the United States Department of Agriculture.

UNCLASSIFIED

§ 51.2951 Unclassified.

"Unclassified" consists of walnuts in the shell which have not been classified in accordance with any of the foregoing grades. The term "unclassified" is not a grade within the meaning of these standards but is provided as a designation to show that no grade has been applied to the lot.

SIZE SPECIFICATIONS

§ 51.2952 Size specifications.

Size shall be specified in accordance with the facts in terms of one of the following classifications:

(a) Mammoth size. Mammoth size means walnuts of which not over 12 percent, by count, pass through a round opening $^{9}\%_{64}$ inches in diameter;

(b) Jumbo size. Jumbo size means walnuts of which not over 12 percent, by count, pass through a round opening $^{8}\%_{64}$ inches in diameter;

(c) Large size. Large size means walnuts of which not over 12 percent, by count, pass through a round opening $^{7}\%_{64}$ inches in diameter; except that for walnuts of the Eureka variety and type, such limiting dimension as to diameter shall be $^{7}\%_{64}$ inches;

(d) Medium size. Medium size means walnuts of which at least 88 percent, by count, pass through a round opening $^{7}\%_{64}$ inches in diameter, and of which not over 12 percent, by count, pass through a round opening $^{7}\%_{64}$ inches in diameter;

(e) Standard size. Standard size means walnuts of which not over 12 percent, by count, pass through a round opening $^{7}\%_{64}$ inches in diameter;

(f) Baby size. Baby size means walnuts of which at least 88 percent, by count, pass through a round opening $^{7}\%_{64}$ inches in diameter, and of which not over 10 percent, by count, pass through a round opening $^{6}\%_{64}$ inch in diameter; and,

(g) Minimum diameter, or minimum and maximum diameter. In lieu of one of the foregoing classification, size of walnuts may be specified in terms of minimum diameter, or minimum and maximum diameter: Provided, That not more than 12 percent, by count, pass through a round hole of the specified minimum diameter, and at least 88 percent, by count, pass through a round hole of any specified maximum diameter.

VARIETY OR TYPE SPECIFICATIONS

§ 51.2953 Variety or type specifications.

The variety or type of any lot of walnuts in the shell may be specified in accordance with the facts as follows:

(a) If the lot is of one named variety, that variety name may be specified, or if the lot is of the Placentia Perfection variety and/or like types, it may be specified as "Budded": Provided, That not over 10 percent, by count, of the walnuts in the lot are of another variety or type than that specified; and,

(b) If the lot is a mixture of two or more distinct varieties or types or consists of seedlings, it may be specified as "Soft Shells" or "Mixed Varieties".

TOLERANCES FOR GRADE DEFECTS

§ 51.2954 Tolerances for grade defects.

In order to allow for variations incident to proper grading and handling, the following tolerances shall be permitted for the respective grades as indicated. All percentages shall be determined on the basis of count. Terms in quotation marks refer to color classifications illustrated on the color chart.[3]

TOLERANCES FOR GRADE DEFECTS

Grade	External (shell) defects	Internal (kernel) defects	Color of kernels
U.S. No. 1	10 percent for splits. In addition 5 percent total for defects other than splits, including not over 3 percent serious damage.	10 percent total, including not more than 6 percent serious damage, but not more than ⅔ of the latter amount, or 5 percent, damaged by insects, but no part of any tolerance shall be allowed for walnuts containing live insects.	No tolerance to reduce the required 70 percent of "light amber" kernels or the required 40 percent of "light" kernels or any larger percentage of "light amber" or "light" kernels specified.
U.S. No. 2	10 percent for splits. In addition 5 percent for defects other than splits.	20 percent total, including not more than 10 percent serious damage, but not more than ½ of the latter amount, or 5 percent, damaged by insects, but no part of any tolerance shall be allowed for walnuts containing live insects.	No tolerance to reduce the required 60 percent or any larger percentage of "light amber" kernels specified or any percentage of "light" kernels specified.
U.S. No. 3	10 percent for splits. In addition 10 percent total for defects other than splits, including not over 5 percent serious damage by adhering hulls.	30 percent total, including not more than 10 percent very serious damage by shriveling or serious damage by other means, but no part of any tolerance shall be allowed for walnuts containing live insects.	No tolerance to reduce any percentage of "light amber" or "light" kernels specified.

APPLICATION OF TOLERANCES

§ 51.2955 Application of tolerances.

The tolerances provided in these standards are on a lot basis, and they shall be applied to a composite sample representative of the lot. However, any container or group of containers in which the walnuts are obviously of a quality materially different from that in the majority of containers shall be considered as a separate lot, and shall be sampled separately.

DEFINITIONS

§ 51.2956 Practically clean.

"Practically clean" means that from the viewpoint of general appearance the walnuts are practically free from adhering dirt or other foreign matter and that individual walnuts are not damaged by such means. A slight chalky deposit on the shell is characteristic of many bleached nuts and shall not be considered as dirt or foreign matter.

[3] See footnote on p. 6292.

§ 51.2957 Bright.

"Bright" means a fairly light, attractive appearance. A slight chalky deposit on the shell shall not be considered as affecting brightness.

§ 51.2958 Splits.

"Splits" means walnuts with shell halves separated at the suture but held together by the kernel.

§ 51.2959 Injury by discoloration.

"Injury by discoloration" means that the color of the affected portion of the shell objectionably contrasts with the color of the rest of the shell of the individual nut.

§ 51.2960 Damage.

"Damage" means any injury or defect which materially detracts from the appearance, or the edible or shipping quality of the walnut. Any one of the following defects, or any combination of defects the seriousness of which exceeds the maximum allowed for any one defect, shall be considered as damage:

(a) Broken shells when the area from which the shell is missing is greater than the area of a circle one-fourth inch in diameter; or the halves are completely broken apart and separated;

(b) Perforated shells when the area affected aggregates more than that of a circle one-fourth of an inch in diameter. The term "perforated shells" means imperfectly developed areas on the shell resembling abrasions and usually including small holes penetrating the shell wall;

(c) Adhering hulls when affecting more than 5 percent of the shell surface;

(d) Discoloration (or stain) which covers, in the aggregate, one-fifth or more of the surface of the shell of an individual nut, and which is brown, reddish brown, gray, or other color in pronounced contrast with the color of the rest of the shell or the majority of shells in the lot, or darker discoloration covering a smaller area if the appearance is equally objectionable;

(e) Mold which is white or gray, inconspicuous and thinly scattered over more than one-fourth of the surface of the entire kernel; or any white or gray mold which is thick and conspicuous, or any yellow, blue, green or other colored mold;

(f) Shriveling when more than 5 percent of the surface of the kernel, including both halves, is severely shriveled, or a greater area is affected by lesser degrees of shriveling producing an equally objectionable appearance. Kernels which are thin in cross section but which are otherwise normally developed shall not be considered as damaged; and,

(g) Insects when the nut contains web, frass or dead insects, or the kernel shows definite evidence of insect feeding.

§ 51.2961 Well dried.

"Well dried" means that the kernel is firm and crisp, not pliable or leathery.

§ 51.2962 Dark discoloration.

"Dark discoloration" means that the color of the skin of the kernel is darker than "amber". (See color chart.)

§ 51.2963 Rancidity.

"Rancidity" means the stage of deterioration in which the kernel has developed a rancid flavor. Rancidity should not be confused with a slightly astringent flavor of the pellicle (skin) or with staleness, the stage at which the flavor is flat but not distasteful.

§ 51.2964 Fairly clean.

"Fairly clean" means that, from the viewpoint of general appearance, the lot is not seriously damaged by adhering dirt or other foreign matter, and that individual walnuts are not coated or caked with dirt or foreign matter. Both the amount of surface affected and the color of the dirt shall be taken into consideration.

§ 51.2965 Serious damage.

"Serious damage" means any injury or defect which seriously detracts from the appearance, or the edible or shipping quality of the walnut. Decay, rancidity and insect damage shall be considered serious damage. Any one of the following defects, or any combination of defects the seriousness of which exceeds the maximum allowed for any one defect, shall be considered as serious damage:

(a) Discoloration (or stain) which covers, in the aggregate, one-third or more of the surface of the shell of an individual nut and which is brown, reddish brown, gray, or other color in pronounced contrast with the color of the rest of the shell or the majority of shells in the lot, or darker discoloration covering a smaller area if the appearance is equally objectionable;

(b) Perforated shells when the area affected aggregates more than that of a circle three-eighths of an inch in diameter. The term "perforated shells" means imperfectly developed areas on the shell resembling abrasions and usually including small holes penetrating the shell wall;

(c) Adhering hulls when affecting more than one-eighth of the shell surface in the aggregate;

(d) Mold which is white or gray, thick and conspicuous and covers one-eighth or more of the surface of the entire kernel, or yellow, green, blue or other colored mold which covers 5 percent or more of the surface of the entire kernel; and,

(e) Shriveling when both halves of the kernel are affected by severe shriveling over an area totaling more than one-eighth of the surface; or when both halves are affected over a greater area by lesser degrees of shriveling producing an equally objectionable appearance. When one of the halves of the kernel shows no shriveling, the kernel shall not be considered seriously damaged unless the other half shows shriveling to the extent that over 50 percent of its surface is severely shriveled, or a greater area is affected by lesser degrees of shriveling producing an equally objectionable appearance. Kernels which are thin in cross section, but which are otherwise normally developed shall not be considered as damaged.

§ 51.2966 Very serious damage by shriveling.

"Very serious damage by shriveling" means that more than one-half of the surface of the entire kernel is severely shriveled or that a greater area is affected by lesser degrees of shriveling producing an equally objectionable appearance.

§ 932.16 Fluid milk product.

"Fluid milk product" means the fluid form of milk, skim milk, butterfat, milk concentrate; milk drinks (plain or flavored), cream (including sterilized cream), or any mixture of milk, skim milk, or cream (except storage cream, aerated cream products, ice cream, ice cream mix, milk shake mixes, eggnog, sour cream, evaporated or concentrated milk and sterilized products packaged in hermetically sealed containers).

In either case, the market administrator shall give further written notification to the handler promptly upon the termination of the litigation or when the records are no longer necessary in connection therewith.

CLASSIFICATION

§ 932.40 Skim milk and butterfat to be classified.

All skim milk and butterfat, in any form, received in the month by a handler, in producer milk, in other source milk, and from another handler shall be classified by the market administrator pursuant to the provisions of §§ 932.41 through 932.47.

§ 932.41 Utilization.

Subject to the conditions set forth in §§ 932.43 and 932.44 the skim milk and butterfat described in § 932.40 shall be classified by the market administrator on the basis of the following classes:

(a) Class I utilization shall be all the skim milk (including the skim milk equivalent of concentrated products) and butterfat:

(1) Disposed of in the form of a fluid milk product, except as provided in paragraph (c) (2), (3), and (5) of this section; or

(2) Not accounted for as Class II or Class III utilization.

(b) Class II milk shall be all skim milk and butterfat used to produce cottage cheese.

(c) Class III milk shall be all skim milk and butterfat:

(1) Used to produce a product other than a fluid milk product or a Class II product;

(2) Disposed of in bulk in the form of milk, skim milk, buttermilk, and cream to any manufacturer of candy, soup, or bakery products and used in such products;

(3) In condensed or skim milk (sweetened or unsweetened) disposed of to commercial food processors;

(4) Disposed of (or used to produce, in the case of ice cream, frozen desserts, and mixes (liquid or powdered) for such products, and aerated cream products) as sweetened condensed milk in hermetically sealed cans, evaporated milk, ice cream, ice cream mix, other frozen desserts and mixes, storage cream, butter, cheese, and nonfat dry milk;

(5) Dumped or disposed of for livestock feed as skim milk (including that in whole milk dumped), flavored milk, flavored milk drink and buttermilk;

(6) Disposed of as a milk product other than any of those specified in paragraph (a) (1), in paragraph (b), and in paragraph (c) (1), (2), (3), and (4) of this section;

(7) Contained in monthly inventory variations;

(8) In shrinkage not to exceed one-half of one percent of the skim milk and butterfat, respectively, in producer milk physically received at the plant, plus one and one-half percent of such receipts and of the receipts of skim milk and butterfat in bulk fluid milk products from pool plants, less such products disposed of by such plant in bulk to another pool plant; and

(9) In shrinkage of other source milk.

§ 932.42 Shrinkage.

The market administrator shall determine the shrinkage of skim milk and butterfat, respectively, in producer milk and in other source milk in the following manner:

(a) Compute the total shrinkage of skim milk and butterfat, respectively, for each handler; and

(b) Prorate the total shrinkage of skim milk and butterfat, respectively, computed pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section between producer milk and other source milk.

§ 932.43 Responsibility of handlers and reclassification of milk.

(a) All skim milk and butterfat shall be Class I milk, unless the handler who first receives such skim milk or butterfat proves to the market administrator that such skim milk or butterfat should be classified otherwise.

(b) Any skim milk or butterfat classified (except that transferred to a producer-handler) in one class shall be reclassified if used or reused by such handler or by another handler in another class.

§ 932.44 Transfers.

Skim milk and butterfat disposed of by a handler from a pool plant as a fluid milk product shall be classified:

(a) As Class I milk if transferred to the pool plant of another handler unless utilization in another class is mutually indicated in writing to the market administrator by both handlers on or before the 8th day after the end of the month within which such transaction occurred: Provided, That skim milk or butterfat so assigned to a particular class shall be limited to the amount thereof remaining in such class at the plant of the transferee-handler after the subtraction of other source milk pursuant to § 932.46 (c) and (d) and any excess of such skim milk or butterfat, respectively, shall be assigned to the next highest class;

(b) As Class I milk if transferred to the plant of a producer-handler;

(c) As Class I milk if transferred in the form of milk or skim milk in bulk to a nonpool plant, unless:

(1) The transferee plant is located less than 150 miles from the Allen County Court House in Fort Wayne, Indiana, by the shortest hard surface highway distance as determined by the market administrator;

(2) The transferor plant claims classification in a lower class in his report;

(3) The operator of the nonpool plant maintains books and records showing the utilization of all skim milk and butterfat at such plant which are made available as requested by the market administrator for the purpose of verification; and

(4) Such nonpool plant has actually used in the classification claimed the amount of skim milk or butterfat, respectively, equivalent to the total claimed in such classification by all handlers transferring to such nonpool plant, plus that priced in a comparable class under other Orders on the basis of the utilization in such plant. Should the equivalent utilization in the nonpool plant be less than the required total, a pro rata share of the excess shall be classified in the next higher price available utilization.

§ 932.45 Computation of skim milk and butterfat in each class.

For each month, the market administrator shall correct for mathematical and for other obvious errors, the monthly report submitted by each handler and compute the total pounds of skim milk and butterfat, respectively, in each class for such handler.

§ 932.46 Allocation of skim milk and butterfat classified.

The pounds of milk remaining after making the following computations with respect to the pool plants of each handler shall be the pounds of skim milk in such class allocated to the producer milk of such handler:

(a) Subtract from the total pounds of skim milk in Class III milk the shrinkage of skim milk classed as Class III milk pursuant to § 932.41(c)(8);

(b) Subtract from the total pounds of skim milk in Class III milk the pounds of skim milk contained in the monthly inventory variation;

(c) Subtract from the pounds of skim milk remaining in each Class, in series, beginning with the lowest-priced utilization, the pounds of skim milk in other source milk other than that to be subtracted pursuant to paragraph (d) of this section;

(d) Subtract from the pounds of skim milk remaining in each Class, in series, beginning with the lowest-priced utilization, the pounds of skim milk contained in other source milk received from a plant at which the handling of milk is fully subject to the classification and pricing provision of other orders issued pursuant to the Act;

(e) Subtract the pounds of skim milk in fluid milk products received from pool plants of other handlers from the pounds of skim milk remaining in the class to which assigned pursuant to § 932.44(a);

(f) Add to the remaining pounds of skim milk in Class III milk, the pounds of skim milk subtracted pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section; and

(g) If the remaining pounds of skim milk in all classes exceeds the pounds of skim milk in milk received from producers, subtract such excess from the remaining pounds of skim milk in each class, in series, beginning with the lowest-priced utilization. Any amount so subtracted shall be known as "overage."

§ 932.47 Allocation of butterfat.

Allocate the pounds of butterfat in each class to milk received from producers in a manner similar to that prescribed for skim milk in § 932.46.

MINIMUM PRICES

§ 932.50 Basic formula price.

The basic formula price per hundredweight of milk to be used in determining class prices for each month shall be the higher of the prices per hundredweight of milk of 3.5 percent butterfat content computed by the market administrator pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section:

(a) The average of the basic (or field) prices ascertained to have been paid per hundredweight for milk of 3.5 percent butterfat content received from farmers during the month at the following plants or places for which prices have been reported to the market administrator by the Department of Agriculture or by the companies indicated as follows:

Company and Location

Borden Co., Mt. Pleasant, Mich.
Borden Co., New London, Wis.
Borden Co., Orfordville, Wis.
Carnation Co., Oconomowoc, Wis.
Carnation Co., Richland Center, Wis.
Carnation Co., Sparta, Mich.
Pet Milk Co., Belleville, Wis.
Pet Milk Co., Coopersville, Mich.
Pet Milk Co., New Glarus, Wis.
Pet Milk Co., Wayland, Mich.
White House Milk Co., Manitowoc, Wis.
White House Milk Co., West Bend, Wis.

(b) The price per hundredweight computed by adding together the plus amounts pursuant to subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph:

(1) From the average of the daily wholesale selling prices per pound (using the midpoint of any price range as one price) of Grade "A" (92-score) bulk creamery butter for the month as reported by the Department of Agriculture for the Chicago market, subtract 3 cents, add 20 percent of the resulting amount and then multiply by 3.5; and

(2) From the simple average of the weighted averages of the carlot prices per pound of spray and roller process nonfat dry milk solids for human consumption, f.o.b. manufacturing plants in the Chicago area, as published for the period from the 26th day of the immediately preceding month through the 25th day of the current month by the Department of Agriculture, deduct 5.5 cents, multiply by 8.5 and then multiply by 0.965.

§ 932.51 Class prices.

The respective minimum prices per hundredweight to be paid by each handler, f.o.b. his plant, for milk received from producers or from a cooperative association during the month shall be as follows:

(a) Class I milk price. The price for Class I milk of 3.5 percent butterfat content per hundredweight shall be the basic formula price plus $1.30, plus or minus a "supply-demand adjustment" computed as follows:

(1) Divide the total gross volume of Class I milk disposed of from pool plants in the first and second delivery period preceding by the total volume of producer milk for the same delivery periods multiply the result by 100, and round to the nearest whole number. The result shall be known as the "Class I utilization percentage."

Delivery period for which the class price is being computed:	Standard utilization percentage
January	86
February	82
March	78
April	73
May	68
June	60
July	54
August	56
September	61
October	70
November	81
December	87

(3) Determine the amount of the supply-demand adjustment as follows:

(i) Supply-demand adjustment for specified delivery period is:

If net utilization percentage is—	Jan., Feb., Mar., Aug., and Sept.	Apr., May, June, and July	Oct., Nov., and Dec.
	Cents	Cents	Cents
+12 or over	+38	+25	+50
+9 or +10	+28	+19	+38
+6 or +7	+20	+13	+26
+3 or +4	+10	+7	+14
+1 or −1	0	0	0
−3 or −4	−10	−14	−7
−6 or −7	−20	−26	−13
−9 or −10	−28	−38	−19
−12 or −13	−38	−50	−25
−15 or −16	−38	−50	−31
−18 or −19	−38	−50	−37
−21 or −22	−38	−50	−43
−24 or under	−38	−50	−50

(ii) When the net utilization percentage does not fall within a tabulated bracket, the adjustment shall be determined by the adjacent bracket which is the same or nearest to the bracket used in the previous month.

(b) Class II milk price. The price for Class II milk of 3.5 percent butterfat content per hundredweight shall be the basic formula price plus 30 cents;

(c) Class III milk price. The price for Class III milk of 3.5 percent butterfat content per hundredweight shall be the basic formula price.

§ 932.52 Butterfat differentials to handlers.

For each class of milk containing more or less than 3.5 percent butterfat, the class price calculated pursuant to § 932.51 shall be increased or decreased, respectively, for each one-tenth of a percent of butterfat by an amount computed by multiplying the average daily wholesale price per pound of Grade "A" (92-score) bulk creamery butter at Chicago as reported by the Department of Agriculture during the month by the following factors:

(a) Class I milk. Multiply by 1.3 and divide the result by 10;

(b) Class II milk. Multiply by 1.2 and divide the result by 10;

(c) Class III milk. Multiply by 1.15 and divide the result by 10.

§ 932.53 Location differentials to handlers.

(a) For producer milk received at a pool plant which is assigned to Class I milk, the price specified in § 932.51(a) shall be reduced at the rate set forth in the following schedule, calculated from Allen County Court House, Fort Wayne, Indiana, by the shortest hard-surfaced highway distance as determined by the market administrator.

(b) Shortest highway distance from Allen County Court House, Fort Wayne, Indiana:

Miles	Location adjustment (dollars per hundredweight)
60 to less than 70	0.10
For each additional 15 miles or fraction thereof, an additional	.015

§ 932.54 Equivalent price provision.

Whenever the provisions of this part require the market administrator to use a specific price (or prices) for milk or any milk product for the purpose of determining minimum class prices or for any other purpose and the specific price is not reported or published, the market administrator shall use a price determined by the Secretary to be equivalent to or comparable with the price specified.

DETERMINATION OF UNIFORM PRICE TO PRODUCERS

§ 932.60 Net obligation of each handler.

For each month, the market administrator shall compute the value of producer milk for each handler as follows:

(a) Multiply the quantity of producer milk in each class computed pursuant to § 932.45 by the applicable class price adjusted pursuant to §§ 932.52 and 932.53 and total the resulting amounts;

(b) Add an amount computed by multiplying the pounds of any overage subtracted from any class pursuant to § 932.46(g) by the applicable class price;

(c) Add any amount computed by multiplying any other source milk subtracted from Class I pursuant to § 932.46(c) by the difference between the Class I and Class III prices for the month.

§ 932.61 Computation of uniform price.

For each month the market administrator shall compute the uniform price per hundredweight for producer milk of 3.5 percent butterfat content f.o.b. the marketing area as follows:

(a) Combine into one total, the values computed pursuant to § 932.60 for all handlers who made reports pursuant to § 932.30 and who are not in default of payments pursuant to § 932.74;

(b) Subtract for each of the months of April, May, and June an amount equal to 8 percent of the Class I price multiplied by the quantity of producer milk;

(c) Add during each of the months of September, October, and November, one-third of the total amount subtracted pursuant to paragraph (b) of this section;

(d) Subtract if the average butterfat content of producer milk included in these computations is greater than 3.5 percent or add if such average butterfat content is less than 3.5 percent an amount computed by multiplying the amount by which the average butterfat content of such milk varies from 3.5 percent by the butterfat differential pursuant to § 932.62 and multiplying the resulting figure by the hundredweight of milk;

(e) Add an amount equal to the sum of the deduction to be made from producer payments for location differentials pursuant to § 932.63;

(f) Add an amount equal to one-half of the unobligated balance on hand in the producer-settlement fund, adjusting for paragraph (b) or (c) of this section, as the case may be;

(g) Divide the resulting amount by the total hundredweight of producer milk included under paragraph (a) of this section; and

(h) Subtract not less than 4 cents nor more than 5 cents to restore the balance in the producer-settlement fund, adjusting the price to the nearest cent.

§ 932.62 Producer butterfat differential.

In making payments pursuant to § 932.70 there shall be added to, or subtracted from, the uniform price of milk of 3.5 percent butterfat content, for each one-tenth of one percent of butterfat in such producer milk above or below 3.5 percent, as the case may be, a butterfat differential equal to the average of the butterfat differentials determined pursuant to paragraphs (a), (b), and (c) of § 932.52 weighted by the pounds of butterfat in producer milk in Classes I, II, and III, respectively, with the result rounded to the nearest tenth of a cent.

§ 932.63 Location differential to producers.

The applicable uniform prices computed pursuant to § 932.61 to be paid for producer milk received at a pool plant located outside the marketing area shall be reduced according to the location of the pool plant where such milk was received at the rates set forth in § 932.53.

§ 932.64 Notification of handlers.

On or before the 13th day after the end of each delivery period, the market administrator shall mail to each handler at his last known address, a statement showing (a) the amount and value of his milk in each class and the total thereof; (b) the applicable minimum class prices and uniform price; (c) the amount due such handler or the amount to be paid by such handler, as the case may be, pursuant to §§ 932.74, 932.75, 932.76, and 932.77.

PAYMENTS

§ 932.70 Time and method of final payment.

Each handler shall make payments, after deducting the amount of payments made pursuant to § 932.71 as follows:

(a) On or before the 17th day after the end of each month, to each producer, except producers for whom payment is received from the handler by a cooperative association pursuant to paragraph (b) of this section, at not less than the uniform price for such month pursuant to § 932.61 adjusted by the producer butterfat differential and location differential to producers pursuant to §§ 932.62 and 932.63 for all milk received from such producer during such month: Provided, That if by such date such handler has not received full payment for such month pursuant to § 932.75 he may reduce such payments uniformly per hundredweight for all producers by an amount not in excess of the per hundredweight reduction in payment from the market administrator; however, the handler shall make such balance of payment to those producers to whom it is due on or before the date for making payments pursuant to this paragraph next following that on which such balance of payment is received from the market administrator.

(b) On or before the 15th day after the end of each month, to a cooperative association with respect to producer milk caused by it to be delivered to such handler during such month, not less than the value of such milk computed at the minimum class prices. For the purpose of determining the classification of milk caused to be so delivered by a cooperative association to a handler, such milk shall be ratably apportioned among the receiving handler's total Class I milk, Class II milk, and Class III milk as determined pursuant to § 932.46.

§ 932.71 Partial payments.

(a) On or before the last day of each month, each handler shall make payment, except as set forth in paragraph (b) of this section, to each producer, for the milk received from such producer by such handler during the first 15 days of such month, at not less than the uniform price for the preceding month.

(b) On or before the day immediately preceding the last day of each month, each handler shall make payment to a cooperative association, for milk caused to be delivered from producers' farms to such handler by such association during the first 15 days of such month, at not less than the uniform price of the preceding month.

§ 932.72 Producer settlement fund.

The market administrator shall establish and maintain a separate fund designated as the "producer settlement fund" into which he shall deposit all payments made by handlers pursuant to §§ 932.73 and 932.74 and out of which he shall make all payments pursuant to § 932.75.

§ 932.73 Obligations of handlers operating nonpool plants pursuant to § 932.12(b).

An operator of a nonpool plant not fully regulated under another Federal order issued pursuant to the Act shall pay into the producer settlement fund the amount computed pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section unless the handler elects at the time he files his handler's monthly report to pay the amount computed pursuant to paragraph (b) of this section:

(a) An amount computed by multiplying such handler's Class I milk disposition in the marketing area by the difference between the applicable Class I price and the Class III price adjusted for the location differential to handlers pursuant to § 932.53 and the butterfat differentials to handlers pursuant to § 932.52 and the expense of administration;

(b) An amount (1) for deposit into the producer-settlement fund, equal to any plus amount remaining after deducting from the obligation that would have been computed pursuant to § 932.60 for such nonpool plant and any supply plant(s) (meeting the requirements equivalent to § 932.9(b)) which serves as a source of milk for such nonpool plant, if such plant(s) were a pool plant(s), (i) the gross payments made on or before the 17th day after the end of the month for milk received at such plant(s) during the month from dairy farmers meeting the conditions in § 932.11(a), and (ii) any obligations incurred in accordance with provisions similar to those contained in this paragraph or paragraph (a) of this section applicable to such plant as a partially regulated plant under another order issued pursuant to the Act: Provided, That in the application of § 932.46 (c) and (d) for the purpose of this paragraph, transfers or diversions of milk from such milk plant(s) to a pool plant shall be classified as Class I, Class II, and Class III milk in the same ratio as other source milk is allocated to each class in such pool plant pursuant to § 932.46 (c) and (d) and the corresponding steps of § 932.47: And provided further, In the application of § 932.46(e) and the corresponding step of § 932.47, receipts of fluid milk products at such fluid milk plant(s) from a pool plant(s) shall be allocated from the class in which such products are classified at the pool plant pursuant to § 932.44; and (2) for expense of administration, equal to the amount which would have been computed pursuant to § 932.76 if such fluid milk plant were a pool plant during the month: Provided, That such amount shall be reduced by any amounts paid as an expense of administration determined on the basis of Class I milk disposed of on routes in other marketing areas, pursuant to the terms of other orders issued under the Act: And provided further, That (1) if less Class I milk is disposed of from such plant on routes in the Fort Wayne, Indiana marketing area than is disposed of on routes in another marketing area(s) as defined in an order(s) issued pursuant to the Act, and (ii) if an expense of administration is applied at such plant as if a fully regulated (pool) plant under the order for the marketing area where the volume of Class I milk disposed of from such plant is greatest, no expense of administration shall be applicable under this part.

§ 932.74 Payments to the producer-settlement fund.

On or before the 15th day after the end of each month, each handler operating a pool plant shall pay to the market administrator any amount by which the net obligation of such handler for the month is greater than an amount computed by multiplying the hundredweight of milk received by him from producers during the month, by the uniform price adjusted by the producer butterfat and location differentials.

§ 932.75 Payments out of the producer-settlement fund.

On or before the 17th day after the end of each month, the market administrator shall pay to each handler any amount by which the total value of his producer milk, computed pursuant to § 932.60 is less than the amount owed by him for such milk at the uniform price adjusted by the producer butterfat and location differentials. If at such time the balance in the producer-settlement fund is insufficient to make all payments pursuant to this section the market administrator shall reduce uniformly such payments and shall complete such payments as soon as the funds are available.

§ 932.76 Expense of administration.

As his pro rata share of the expense of administration of this part, each handler shall pay to the market administrator on or before the 16th day after the end of each month four cents per hundredweight, or such amount not exceeding four cents per hundredweight as the Secretary may prescribe with respect to:

(a) All receipts within the month of milk from producers, including milk of such handler's own production;

(b) Any other source milk allocated to Class I pursuant to § 932.46(c) and the corresponding step of § 932.47; and

(c) The amount of milk for which a payment is computed pursuant to § 932.73 (a) or (b).

§ 932.77 Marketing services.

(a) (1) Except as set forth in paragraph (b) of this section, each handler, in making payments to producers pursuant to § 932.70(a), shall make a deduction of 6 cents per hundredweight of milk, or such lesser deduction as the Secretary from time to time may prescribe, with respect to the following:

(i) All milk received from producers at a plant not operated by a cooperative association; and

(ii) All milk received at a plant operated by a cooperative association from producers who are not members of such association.

(2) Such deductions shall be paid by the handler to the market administrator on or before the 15th day after the end of each month. Such monies shall be expended by the market administrator for verification of weights, samples, and tests of milk received from such producers and in providing for market information to such producers; such services to be performed in whole or in part by the market administrator or by an agent engaged by and responsible to him.

(b) In the case of each producer (1) who is a member of, or who has given written authorization for the rendering of marketing services and the taking of deduction therefor to a cooperative association, (2) whose milk is received at a plant not operated by such association, and (3) for whom the Secretary determines that such association is performing the services described in paragraph (a) of this section, each handler shall deduct, in lieu of the deduction specified under paragraph (a) of this section, from the payments made pursuant to § 932.70(a) the amount per hundredweight on milk authorized by such producer and shall pay over, on or before the 15th day after the end of such month, such deduction to the association entitled to receive it under this paragraph.

§ 932.78 Adjustments of accounts.

(a) Payments. Whenever audit by the market administrator of any handler's reports, books, records, or accounts discloses adjustments to be made, for any reason, which result in monies due.

(1) The market administrator from such handler,

(2) Such handler from the market administrator, or

(3) Any producer or cooperative association from such handler, the market administrator shall promptly notify such handler of any such amount due, and payment thereof shall be made on or before the next date for making payment set forth in the provision under which such error occurred, following the 5th day after such notice.

(b) Overdue accounts. Any unpaid obligation of a handler or of the market administrator pursuant to §§ 932.73, 932.74, 932.75, 932.76, 932.77, or paragraph (a) of this section shall be increased one-half of one percent on the first day of the calendar month thereafter until such obligation is paid.

§ 932.79 Termination of obligations.

The provisions of this section shall apply to any obligation under this order for the payment of money irrespective of when such obligation arose, except an obligation involved in an action instituted before August 1, 1949, under section 8c(15)(a) of the act or before a court.

(a) The obligation of any handler to pay money required to be paid under the terms of this order shall, except as provided in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section, terminate two years after the last day of the calendar month during which the market administrator receives the handler's utilization report on the milk involved in such obligation, unless within such two-year period the market administrator notifies the handler in writing that such money is due and payable. Service of such notice shall be complete upon mailing to handler's last known address, and it shall contain but need not be limited to, the following information:

(1) The amount of the obligation;

(2) The month(s) during which the milk, with respect to which the obligation exists, was received or handled; and

(3) If the obligation is payable to one or more producers or to a cooperative association, the name of such producer(s) or cooperative association, or if the obligation is payable to the market administrator, the account for which it is to be paid.

(b) If a handler fails or refuses with respect to any obligation under this order, to make available to the market administrator or his representatives all books and records required by this order to be made available, the market administrator may, within the two-year period provided for in paragraph (a) of this section, notify the handler in writing of such failure or refusal. If the market administrator so notifies a handler, the said two-year period with respect to such obligation shall not begin to run until the first day of the calendar month following the month during which all such books and records pertaining to such obligation are made available to the market administrator or his representatives.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section, a handler's obligation under this order to pay money shall not be terminated with respect to any transaction involving fraud or willful concealment of a fact, material to the obligation, on the part of the handler against whom the obligation is sought to be imposed.

(d) Any obligation on the part of the market administrator to pay a handler any money which such handler claims to be due him under the terms of this part shall terminate two years after the end of the calendar month during which the milk involved in the claim was received if an underpayment is claimed, or two years after the end of the calendar month during which the payment (including deduction or set-off by the market administrator) was made by the handler if a refund on such payment is claimed, unless such handler, within the applicable period of time, files, pursuant to section 8c(15)(a) of the Act, a petition claiming such money.

APPLICATION OF PROVISIONS

§ 932.80 Milk subject to other Federal orders.

Milk received at the plant of a handler at which the handling of milk is fully subject during the month to the pricing and payment provisions of another order issued pursuant to the Act and from which the disposition of Class I milk in the other Federal marketing area exceeds that in the Fort Wayne, Indiana marketing area shall be exempted for such month from all provisions of this order except §§ 932.31, 932.32, and 932.33 unless the Secretary determines that the applicable order should more appropriately be determined on some other basis.

§ 932.81 Producer-handler.

A producer-handler shall be exempt from all provisions of this part except §§ 932.31, 932.32, and 932.33.

§ 932.82 Milk caused to be delivered by cooperative associations.

A cooperative association shall be deemed to be a handler pursuant to § 932.12(c)(1), with respect to producer milk caused by it to be delivered to a pool plant, only for the purpose of making such payments to the market administrator as are required of such association pursuant to § 932.74.

EFFECTIVE TIME, SUSPENSION OR TERMINATION

§ 932.90 Effective time.

The provisions of this part or of any amendment to this part, shall become effective at such time as the Secretary may declare and shall continue in force until suspended or terminated.

§ 932.92 Continuing obligations.

If, upon the suspension or termination of any or all provisions of this part, there are any obligations under this part the final accrual or ascertainment of which requires further acts by any person (including the market administrator), such further acts shall be performed notwithstanding such suspension or termination.

§ 932.93 Liquidation.

Upon the suspension or termination of the provisions of this part, except this section, the market administrator, or such other liquidating agent as the Secretary may designate, shall, if so directed by the Secretary, liquidate the business of the market administrator's office, dispose of all property in his possession or control, including accounts receivable, and execute and deliver all assignments or other instruments necessary or appropriate to effectuate any such disposition. If a liquidating agent is so designated all assets, books, and records of the market administrator shall be transferred promptly to such liquidating agent. If, upon such liquidation, the funds on hand exceed the amounts required to pay outstanding obligations of the office of the market administrator and to pay necessary expenses of liquidation and distribution, such excess shall be distributed to contributing handlers and producers in an equitable manner.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

§ 932.100 Agents.

The Secretary may, by designation in writing, name any officer or employee of the United States to act as his agent or representative in connection with any of the provisions of this part.

§ 932.101 Separability of provisions.

If any provision of this part or its application to any person or circumstances, is held invalid, the application of such provisions, and of the remaining provisions of this part, to other persons or circumstances shall not be affected thereby.

COLOR CERTIFICATION

Ext D&C Yellow Nos. 9 and 10; Notice of Proposal To Delist

Information available to the Food and Drug Administration indicates that it is not possible, under present-day manufacturing conditions, to prepare two of the coal-tar colors that may be certified for external use (Ext D&C Yellow No. 9 and Ext D&C Yellow No. 10) without resulting in the presence of β-naphthylamine in the finished colors. From data available to the Administration it is concluded that β-naphthylamine is not a harmless substance when applied to the human skin. Therefore, the Commissioner of Food and Drugs, on his own initiative, under the authority of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (sec. 701(e), 52 Stat. 1055, as amended; 70 Stat. 919; 21 U.S.C. 371(e)), delegated to him by the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare (22 F.R. 1045, 23 F.R. 9500) proposes to amend the color-certification regulations (21 CFR 9.309, 9.310) by deleting from the list of colors eligible for certification Ext D&C Yellow No. 9 (§ 9.309) and Ext D&C Yellow No. 10 (§ 9.310).

All interested persons are invited to submit their views in writing regarding this proposal and to submit such comments in quintuplicate prior to the thirtieth day following the date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Comments should be addressed to the Hearing Clerk, Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, Room 5440, Health, Education, and Welfare Building, 330 Independence Avenue SW., Washington 25, D.C.

CHEESES; PROCESSED CHEESES; CHEESE FOODS; CHEESE SPREADS, AND RELATED FOODS; DEFINITIONS AND STANDARDS OF IDENTITY

Cheddar Cheese, Washed Curd Cheese, Colby Cheese, Granular Cheese, Swiss Cheese; Notice of Public Hearing

In the matter of amending the standards of identity for cheddar cheese, washed curd cheese, colby cheese, granular cheese, and swiss cheese:

It was announced by an order published in the FEDERAL REGISTER of April 9, 1960 (25 F.R. 3073), that a hearing would be held in the above-identified matter to resolve the objections filed to the order published in the FEDERAL REGISTER of February 5, 1960 (25 F.R. 1016). Therefore, pursuant to the authority of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (sec. 701(e), 52 Stat. 1055, as amended 70 Stat. 919, 72 Stat. 948; 21 U.S.C. 371), vested in the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare, and delegated to the Commissioner of Food and Drugs (22 F.R. 1045, 23 F.R. 9500), notice is given that a public hearing will be held on the issues as hereinafter set forth.

The hearing will begin at 10:00 o'clock, eastern daylight time, in the morning of August 2, 1960, in room G-747A, Health, Education, and Welfare Building, 330 Independence Avenue SW., Washington 25, D.C., and will continue thereafter at such times and places as directed by the presiding officer. All persons interested are invited to attend the hearing and present evidence. The hearing will be conducted in accordance with the rules of practice provided therefor. A prehearing conference for the simplification of the issues, exchange of documentary evidence, the scheduling of witnesses, and such other matters as may aid in the disposition of the proceeding will be held in Room G-747A, Health, Education, and Welfare Building, beginning at 10:00 o'clock in the morning of August 1, 1960. All interested persons who will attend the hearing are urged to appear or to send a representative. Any interested person intending to introduce documentary evidence at the hearing is requested to bring five copies of such documentary evidence to the prehearing conference or to send five copies to the presiding officer in advance of the conference. Only those persons expecting to actively participate at the hearing should attend the prehearing conference. All persons expecting to attend the prehearing conference should notify the presiding officer in advance.

Evidence will be restricted to testimony and exhibits relevant to the issues hereinafter set forth.

The issues to be resolved are:

1. Whether the addition of hydrogen peroxide and catalase to milk used in the manufacture of the cheeses under consideration would affect the quality of such cheeses as compared with cheeses manufactured from untreated milk.

2. Whether addition of hydrogen peroxide and catalase to milk used in the manufacture of the cheeses under consideration will permit the production of cheese of apparently high quality from milk inferior in quality to that ordinarily used in the manufacture of such cheeses.

3. Whether the permissive use of hydrogen peroxide and catalase in the cheeses under consideration would encourage the insanitary handling of milk and retard progress in milk-sanitation programs.

4. Whether the addition of hydrogen peroxide and catalase to milk used in the manufacture of the cheeses under consideration significantly impairs the nutritive qualities of such cheeses.

Mr. William J. Risteau, Room 5440, Health, Education, and Welfare Building, is hereby designated as presiding officer to conduct the hearing, with full authority to administer oaths and affirmations and do all other things appropriate to the conduct of the hearing. The presiding officer is required to certify the entire record of the proceeding to the Commissioner of Food and Drugs for action on the proposal.

ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION

[10 CFR Part 30]

EXEMPTION OF LUMINOUS TIMEPIECES CONTAINING HYDROGEN 3 (TRITIUM)

Notice of Proposed Rule Making

The following proposed amendment is designed to exempt from the Commission's regulatory controls the possession, distribution, and use of luminous dial watches and clocks containing specified, small quantities of tritium as the luminescing agent. Tritium is a low energy beta-ray emitter and, in the quantities and forms specified herein, would not present an undue hazard to the user thereof or the public.

The proposed exemption would permit the distribution to, and possession by, unlicensed persons of watches and clocks bearing tritium activated phosphors contained in insoluble paint firmly bound to the watches and clocks. The exemption to be granted to persons, such as watch and clock manufacturers, importers, distributors and retailers, who acquire such timepieces for resale would be limited in that the exemption would apply only insofar as the tritium paint on the timepieces meets the criteria specified in the proposed amendment (§ 30.10(a)).

Paragraph (b) of the proposed exemption is designed to free the consumers and users of the watches and clocks from any obligation to determine whether or not the tritium contained on such timepieces has been applied in a manner consistent with the criteria in paragraph (a) of the proposed amendment.

Under the terms of the proposed amendment, persons engaged in the production of tritium paints or in the application of tritium paints to timepieces would continue to be subject to the Commission's specific licensing requirements. Thus the Commission will continue to regulate the conduct of such activities to assure that the activities are performed in a safe manner.

Notice is hereby given that adoption of the following amendment to Part 30 is contemplated. All interested persons who desire to submit written comments or suggestions for consideration in connection with the proposed amendment should send them to the United States Atomic Energy Commission, Washington 25, D.C., Attention: Director, Division of Licensing and Regulation, within 60 days after publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

1. Add a new § 30.10 to read as follows:

(a) Any person is exempt from the requirements for a license set forth in section 81 of the Act and from the regulations in Parts 20 and 30 of this chapter to the extent that such person receives, imports, possesses, uses, transfers, exports, owns or acquires timepieces, or luminous hands or dials therefor, bearing tritium in accordance with the following specifications:

(1) The tritium is intimately bound in luminous paint, which paint is insoluble in water or in chemical reagents and solvents likely to be encountered in cleaning of the luminous timepiece;

(2) The rate of loss of tritium through diffusion or other means does not exceed five percent of the total radioactivity per twelve-month period;

(3) Each timepiece contains no more than a total of 25 millicuries of tritium;

(4) Luminous hands, as replacement parts for timepieces, contain not more than 5 millicuries of tritium per hand; and

(5) Luminous dials (bezels, when used, shall be considered as part of the dial), as replacement parts for timepieces, contain not more than 15 millicuries of tritium per dial.

Any person importing such timepieces, luminous hands, or luminous dials, under the exemption of this paragraph (a) for distribution shall file an annual report with the Director, Division of Licensing and Regulation, U.S. Atomic Energy Commission, Washington 25, D.C., setting forth the number of watches and luminous replacement parts imported during the reporting period. Each such report shall cover the twelve months ending June 30 and shall be filed within thirty days thereafter.

(b) Any person is exempt from the requirements for a license set forth in section 81 of the Act and from the regulations in Parts 20 and 30 of this chapter to the extent that such person receives, imports, possesses, or uses, for purposes other than sale or resale, timepieces containing tritium, without regard to whether such timepieces conform to specifications in paragraph (a) of this section.

(c) The exemptions in this § 30.10 shall not be deemed (1) to apply to any byproduct material other than tritium, contained in timepieces, or hands or dials therefor; or (2) to exempt the manufacture of tritium paint for, or the application of tritium paint to, timepieces or hands and dials for timepieces from the licensing requirements of this part.

RADIATION SAFETY SUMMARY OF TRITIUM-ACTIVATED DIALS IN LUMINOUS TIMEPIECES

1. A study of the radiation from 25 millicuries of tritium (H-3) indicates that this amount of H-3 would be safe for use in exempt luminescent timepieces under the conditions of § 30.10 of the proposed Part 30 amendment. Moreover, the use of tritium should be encouraged in preference to other radioactive materials of greater hazard, such as radium.

2. The tritium-activated phosphors to be considered in this exemption are contained in an insoluble paint that is firmly bound to the face of the timepiece, as specified in the conditions of § 30.10. An important advantage to the use of tritium is that tritium is an isotope of the chemical element hydrogen and it can thus be incorporated into the molecular structure of plastic materials in which it is contained, such as lucite or plexiglass. In this form, the tritium cannot detach itself from the insoluble and non-volatile plastic matrix unless the plastic is destroyed by fire or other violent chemical reaction. These chemical advantages are in addition to the advantage of the very low penetrating ability of the radiation from tritium, as discussed below.

3. The external radiation from 25 millicuries of tritium while bound to the watch dial is negligible, since the maximum range of tritium beta particles in air is less than one-half inch and the betas have insufficient energy to penetrate either a watch crystal or the insensitive layer of skin. Conditions of the proposed exemption, § 30.10, assure that the tritium would not be removed easily from the watch dial even when handled by a repairman. Thus, under normal conditions of use, either with the watch crystal removed or in place, the radiation hazard would be negligible.

4. The negligible radiation from tritium-dial timepieces may be compared with the radiation emitted from radium-dial watches presently in use. Radium watches have been found [1] to contain up to 2.2 microcuries of radium, averaging about one-fifth [2] to one-fourth of a microcurie. A 2.2 microcurie watch was found [3] to read 8 milliroentgens per hour at the back. The average watch would give doses about .1 as great as the 2.2 μc watch. Thus a watch containing 0.22 μc of radium worn 16 hours per day, would give a dose of about 90 millirem per week to the wrist, or about 4.5 rem per year. This dose is received only in a small part of the forearm near the watch, but it may be compared to the maximum permissible limit of 75 rem per year to hands and forearms recommended [3] for radiation workers. The British Medical Research Council estimated [3] that luminous watches and clocks containing an average of one-fifth microcuries of radium increased the population dose to the gonads by 1 percent of the natural background. Dr. Haybittle notes that if watches containing the larger amounts of radium should become more popular with the public, then luminous watches would be second only to diagnostic radiology in the dose contributed to the gonads. Thus, under some conditions of use the exposures from radium-dial watches might produce genetically significant exposures, whereas the radiation from tritium-dial watches would be essentially zero.

5. The hazard is also negligible to the repairman handling timepieces containing up to 25 millicuries of tritium bound to the dial in insoluble form under the conditions of this amendment. As mentioned above, there is no significant radiation hazard when the tritium is bound to the watch. When taken into the body, the mode of intake giving the highest radiation dose is that of breathing tritium in insoluble form into the lung. To obtain an internal lung dose of 12 rem in one year, considered by the NCRP within safe limits for radiation workers, at least 2 millicuries of tritium in insoluble form would have to be breathed into the lung. Even this much exposure is extremely unlikely under normal handling conditions.

6. Under accidental conditions, even if the entire 25 millicuries of tritium were somehow breathed into the lung (an extremely improbable event under the conditions of this amendment, even if a watchmaker tried to remove the tritium and breathe it in), the resulting lung dose of 150 rem in a period of several weeks would not be likely to produce observable injury. If the 25 millicuries of tritium were somehow solubilized by accident or fire, an intake of 15 millicuries would be required to give a whole body dose of 3 rem in 13 weeks, which is allowed for radiation workers according to 10 CFR 20 and is considered safe by the NCRP. Even this small order of accident is extremely unlikely.

7. For comparison, the inhalation of 6 microcuries of radium—which gives a luminescence equivalent to that from 25 millicuries of tritium—although extremely unlikely, could give a dose of 1500 rem to the lung within several years, which far exceeds the dose limits of 10 CFR Part 20. Moreover, it is possible that some of this radium could be solubilized in the body and deposit more than the 0.1 microcurie maximum permissible burden recommended for continuous occupational exposure in the NCRP Handbook 69, June 5, 1959. Since radium remains in bone for a long time, the amount of 0.1 microcurie of radium deposited initially could be considered almost as hazardous as a continuous intake that would fix the body burden at 0.1 microcurie throughout life. Although the probability of taking in radium, as well as tritium, from a watch dial is small, it is seen that doses possible from equivalent fractional intakes of radium are much greater than those from tritium.

8. It is estimated that the present rate of sale of luminous dial watches averages about 2 million per year in the United States. Even if each of these watches contained the proposed maximum exempt quantity of 25 millicuries, and if all of the tritium dials were somehow dispersed to the environment yearly, the addition of tritium to the environment would be only 50,000 curies per year. This may be compared to a natural tritium production by cosmic rays of 2.5 million curies per year.[4] The dose rate to the body from naturally-produced tritium is less than one hundred-thousandth of the dose rate of about 150 millirad per year from all natural background sources. Thus, the maximum possible addition to environmental exposure from the proposed use of up to 25 millicuries of tritium per luminescent timepiece would be less than two ten-millionths of the natural background rate of exposure—an entirely negligible amount by any reasonable standards of safety.

9. Conclusions: The possible radiation exposures from tritium-dial timepieces are negligible compared to those from luminous timepieces presently in use, although exposures from present luminous timepieces are relatively low. Thus, the use of tritium-dial timepieces would be safe and, moreover, would be expected to result in a reduction of radiation exposure to the population.

[Airspace Docket No. 60-FW-26]

FEDERAL AIRWAYS, CONTROL AREAS AND REPORTING POINTS

Revocation of a Federal Airway, Associated Control Areas, Reporting Points and Modification of Control Area Extension

Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (§ 409.13, 24 F.R. 3499), notice is hereby given that the Federal Aviation Agency is considering an amendment to §§ 600.105, 601.105, 601.1025 and 601.4105 of the regulations of the Administrator, the substance of which is stated below.

Amber Federal airway No. 5 and its associated control areas presently extends in part from New Orleans, La., to Milwaukee, Wis. The Federal Aviation Agency has under consideration the revocation of this segment of Amber 5. The Federal Aviation Agency IFR peak-day airway traffic survey for the period January 1, 1959, through December 31, 1959, shows a maximum of 2 aircraft movements between any two reporting points between New Orleans and Milwaukee. On the basis of the survey, it appears that the retention of this airway segment and its associated control areas is unjustified as an assignment of airspace and that the revocation thereof would be in the public interest. Concurrently with the action to revoke this segment of Amber 5, the associated designated reporting points would also be revoked. In addition, it is proposed to redescribe the New Orleans control area extension by excluding reference to low frequency airways in the description of the control area extension because of the diminishing requirement for and gradual phasing out of L/MF airways. Redesignation of the New Orleans control area extension as proposed herein would simplify the description. The redescribed control area extension would encompass essentially the same area with the exception of the northern portion in the vicinity of McComb, Miss., which would be revoked since it appears that this portion is not required for the protection of aircraft.

If these actions are taken, the segment of Amber Federal airway No. 5 and associated control areas from New Orleans, La., to Milwaukee, Wis., would be revoked. In addition, the following associated radio range station reporting points would be revoked; Jackson, Miss., Greenwood, Miss., Advance, Mo., Springfield, Ill., Joliet, Ill., also the intersection of the east course of the Peoria, Ill., radio range and the southwest course of the Joliet, Ill., radio range would be revoked as a designated reporting point. The New Orleans control area extension would be redesignated as the area northeast of New Orleans bounded by a line beginning at the eastern boundary of VOR Federal airway No. 9 at latitude 31°00'00" N., thence east along latitude 31°00'00" N., to longitude 89°00'00" W.,

Consideration Regarding Possible Hazard to Air Navigation

1. The Commission has before it for consideration a request of the Storer Broadcasting Company to extend the time for reply comments in the above-entitled proceeding to July 19, 1960.

Federal Maritime Board

[Docket No. 903]

PACIFIC COAST-PUERTO RICO; GENERAL INCREASE IN RATES

Notice of Supplemental Order

On June 10, 1960, the Federal Maritime Board entered the following second supplemental order to the original order, in the proceeding, dated April 19, 1960, appearing in the FEDERAL REGISTER of April 30, 1960 (25 F.R. 3827).

It appearing that the Board has ordered in this proceeding an investigation and hearing of the reasonableness and lawfulness of certain tariff schedules containing increased rates and charges and new rules, regulations and practices affecting such rates and charges from Pacific Coast ports on the one hand to ports in Puerto Rico on the other; and

It further appearing that the Pacific Coast-Puerto Rican Conference by its Agent, C. R. Nickerson, has filed with the Federal Maritime Board certain revised pages, specified below, to its Tariff No. 1–D, F.M.B.–F. No. 4, setting forth new increased rates and charges and new rules, regulations and practices, affecting such rates and charges applicable from U.S. Pacific Coast ports to ports in Puerto Rico, to become effective June 16, 1960; and

It further appearing that the Isbrandtsen Company, Inc., has filed with the Federal Maritime Board certain revised pages, specified below, to its Pacific Coast to Puerto Rico Tariff No. 2, F.M.B.–F. No. 2, setting forth new increased rates and charges in the same trade specified above, to become effective June 23, 1960; and

It further appearing that upon consideration of said schedules and protests thereto, there is reason to believe that they would, if permitted to become effective, result in rates and charges, rules and regulations, or practices which would be unjust and unreasonable and in violation of the Shipping Act, 1916, as amended, and the Intercoastal Shipping Act, 1933, as amended, and good cause appearing therefor;

It is ordered, That the investigation heretofore ordered in this proceeding be expanded to include the reasonableness and lawfulness of the rates, charges, rules and regulations contained in said schedules with a view of making such findings and orders in the premises as the facts and circumstances warrant; and

It is further ordered, That the operation of said pages and/or designated items as specified below, be suspended and that the use thereof be deferred to and including October 13, 1960, unless otherwise authorized by the Board; and

It is further ordered, That the operation of said pages specified in Appendix B attached hereto, be suspended and that the use thereof be deferred to and including October 20, 1960, unless otherwise authorized by the Board; and

It is further ordered, That neither the schedules hereby suspended nor those sought to be altered thereby may be changed until this investigation and suspension proceeding has been disposed of or until the period of suspension has expired unless otherwise authorized by the Board; and

It is further ordered, That there shall be filed immediately with the Board by the Pacific Coast-Puerto Rican Conference, C. R. Nickerson, Agent, a consecutively-numbered supplement to Pacific Coast-Puerto Rican Conference Tariff No. 1–D, F.M.B.–F. No. 4, and a consecutively-numbered supplement by Isbrandtsen Company, Inc., to its U.S. Pacific West Coast to Puerto Rico Tariff No. 2, F.M.B.–F. No. 2, which shall reproduce the portion of this Order and Appendix wherein the suspended charges and designated items are described, that the rates, charges, rules, regulations and practices therein stated may not be used until the 14th day of October, 1960, with regard to the Pacific Coast-Puerto Rican Conference, or until the 21st day of October, 1960, with regard to the Isbrandtsen Company, Inc., unless otherwise authorized by the Board; and neither the rates, charges, rules, regulations and practices, hereby deferred nor those which are sought to be altered thereby, may be changed during the period of suspension unless otherwise authorized by the Board; and

It is further ordered, That copies of this order shall be filed with said tariffs in the Office of Regulations of the Federal Maritime Board, that a copy hereof shall be forthwith served upon all protestants and respondents herein; and that a copy of this order be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Dated: June 28, 1960.

CIVIL AERONAUTICS BOARD

[Docket 1705–11 etc.]

MINIMUM ASSEMBLY AND DISTRIBUTION CHARGE RULES

Investigation

The subject investigation was instituted by Order E–15008 dated March 15, 1960, to determine, inter alia, whether the minimum assembly and distribution charges which have been prescribed by the Board [1] should be rescinded insofar as such charges apply to air freight forwarders, or to air freight forwarders and direct carriers.

By a petition for reconsideration filed on March 28, 1960, American Airlines, Inc. has requested the Board to revoke its order assigning the matters herein for hearing and proceed instead by an order to show cause why all freight forwarders and all direct carriers should not be relieved from the prescribed minimum assembly and distribution charge rules.[2] Under American's proposal, interested persons would be afforded an opportunity to file objections and answers to the order to show cause and in the absence of objection, the Board would issue an order making final such decision.

American's suggested procedure is founded upon its assumption that the absence of adverse comment to its objection to an earlier proposal of the Board [3] to relieve air freight forwarders only from minimum accessorial charge rules indicates that there is no opposition to the relief of both air freight forwarders and direct carriers from such rules. Therefore, the carrier urges the Board to issue a show cause order to the end that in the absence of objection the minimum accessorial charge rules may be rescinded as to all air carriers without an evidentiary hearing.

American's petition for reconsideration must be denied.

The Board has not proposed to rescind the currently effective minimum assembly and distribution charge rules for both air freight forwarders and direct air carriers. Neither have interested persons been presented with such a proposal under circumstances where their comments would be expected or required. American's objection to such relief for air freight forwarders only and its request for equal treatment for both direct and indirect carriers was not a proposal to relieve both types of carriers from such minimum charges. Moreover, there is no provision in the Board's Rules of Practice (14 CFR Part 302) for the filing of replies to American's objection. No inference, therefore, can be drawn from the absence of such responses. This conclusion is further supported by the fact that the order to show cause to which American objected (Order E–12936) specifically provided that a hearing would be held in the event such objections were filed.

In issuing the Order to Show Cause (E–12936) why air freight forwarders should not be relieved from the minimum accessorial charge rules, the Board stated that the reasons which had justified its decision not to regulate the minimum line haul rates of freight forwarders appeared equally persuasive in tentatively concluding to relieve air freight forwarders from minimum accessorial charge rules. This rationale, of course, does not support a proposal to relieve direct carriers from the minimum accessorial charge rules nor does the Board have before it other evidence to support this proposal.

We conclude that our further procedures in this matter should provide all parties with the opportunity to submit data, views, and arguments, in support of their position in this proceeding. We will, therefore, deny American's Petition for reconsideration.[4]

We do not believe, however, that a lengthy hearing is necessary in the event the parties are not at issue upon the substantive questions involved. By our order we will direct each of the parties to file and to serve upon all other parties in this matter a statement of position together with the data, views, and arguments which they may desire to submit in support thereof. If these responses indicate that no party desires the maintenance of prescribed minimum assembly and distribution charges, it is contemplated that expedited procedures can be adopted at the prehearing conference to incorporate the relevant data into the record herein for early Board action thereon.

Accordingly, pursuant to the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 (72 Stat. 731) and particularly sections 102, 204(a) and 1002, thereof:

It is ordered, That: 1. The Petition for Reconsideration filed by American Airlines, Inc. on March 28, 1960, is hereby denied.

2. The parties to this investigation, named in Order E–15008, dated March 15, 1960, shall file with the Docket Section of the Board and shall serve upon each other party a statement of position and the data, views, and arguments which they may desire to submit in support of their position. This exchange of material must be made on or before July 29, 1960.

This order will be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

By the Civil Aeronautics Board.

[SEAL] ROBERT C. LESTER,
Secretary.

[F.R. Doc 60–6146; Filed, July 1, 1960; 8:49 a.m.]

[1] Orders E–4606 and E–4954, dated September 14 and December 20, 1950, respectively.

[2] Delta Air Lines, Inc., Flying Tiger Line, Inc., United Air Lines, Inc., and Trans World Airlines, Inc. have each filed answers in support of American's petition.

[3] On September 3, 1958, the Board issued an order to Show Cause (E–12936) why air freight forwarders should not be relieved from the minimum accessorial charge rules which were prescribed in the Investigation of Accumulation, Assembly and Distribution Rules case, 12 CAB 337 (1950). American objected to the proposal urging that, if there is no longer a need for prescribed minimum accessorial charges, both direct and indirect carriers should be relieved from such rules and, in any event, that such requirements should be uniform for direct and indirect carriers. Thereafter, consistent with the show cause order in the event such objections were filed, Order E–15008 provided for hearing upon the issues raised by American's objection.

[4] We also note that there is no provision in the Board's rules of practice for the filing of a petition for reconsideration other than after a final order (14 CFR 302.37). However, we have considered American's petition on its merits as a motion addressed to the discretion of the Board under Rule 18 (14 CFR 302.18).

Whether the above-mentioned tariff schedules will subject any person or class of persons to unjust or unreasonable discrimination, or give any undue or unreasonable preference or advantage to any person, class of persons, or locality or subject any person, class of persons, or locality to any undue or unreasonable prejudice or disadvantage within the meaning of section 202(a) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended;

3. Whether the Commission should prescribe just and reasonable classifications, regulations, and practices to be followed with respect to the services governed by the tariff schedules listed above and, if so, what classifications, regulations, and practices should be prescribed;

It is further ordered, That a hearing be held in this proceeding at the Commission's offices in Washington, D.C., at a time to be specified; and that the examiner to be designated to preside at the hearing shall certify the record to the Commission for decision without preparing either an Initial Decision or a Recommended Decision;

It is further ordered, That American Telephone and Telegraph Company and all carriers concurring in the above-mentioned tariff schedules are hereby made parties respondent in the proceedings.

(d) Decisions of the Canal Zone Board of Appeals. Decisions of the Canal Zone Board of Appeals shall be made by majority vote of the members, shall be binding upon all employing departments, and shall be effective not later than the beginning of the fourth pay period following the receipt of the decision in the employing department unless a specific date is stated in the decision in accordance with subparagraph (1) of this paragraph.

(1) When the appeal to the Canal Zone Board of Appeals is made within thirty (30) calendar days from the date of an employee's receipt of an adverse decision from his employing department on a classification appeal provided by § 209.4, is from an action lowering the grade or pay level of the employee's position, and the decision of the Canal Zone Board of Appeals raises the grade or pay level of the position, the effective date shall be retroactive to the date of the action which lowered the grade or pay level. However, when the decision of the Canal Zone Board of Appeals raises the grade or pay level of the position above the grade or pay level in effect immediately preceding the lowering thereof, retroactivity will apply only to the extent of restoration to the grade or pay level in effect immediately preceding the lowering thereof. Retroactivity may be based only on duties and responsibilities existing at the time of the lowering of the grade or pay level and not on the basis of duties and responsibilities later assigned.

(2) The right to a retroactive effective date under subparagraph (1) of this paragraph may be preserved in the discretion of the Canal Zone Board of Appeals upon a showing by the employee that reasons beyond his control prevented him from appealing within the thirty-day period referred to in that subparagraph and that he did appeal as promptly as circumstances permitted.

AUTHORITY: §§ 421.5426 to 421.5436 issued under sec. 4, 62 Stat. 1070, as amended; sec. 5, 62 Stat. 1072; secs. 203, 301, 401, 63 Stat. 1053, as amended; Title II, 73 Stat. 178; 15 U.S.C. 714 b and c, 7 U.S.C. 1446d, 1447, 1421.

§ 421.5426 Purpose.

Sections 421.5426 to 421.5436 state additional specific regulations which, together with the general regulations contained in the 1960 C.C.C. Grain Price Support Bulletin 1, (§§ 421.5001 to 421.5022), apply to loans and purchase agreements under the 1960-Crop Soybean Price Support Program.

§ 421.5427 Availability of price support.

(a) Method of support. Price support will be made available through farm-storage and warehouse-storage loans and through purchase agreements.

(b) Area. Farm-storage and warehouse-storage loans and purchase agreements will be available wherever soybeans are grown in the United States, except that farm-storage loans will not be available in areas where the State committee determines that soybeans cannot be safely stored on the farm.

(c) Where to apply. Application for price support should be made at the office of the county committee which keeps the farm-program records for the farm.

(d) When to apply. Loans and purchase agreements will be available from the time of harvest through January 31, 1961, and the applicable documents must be signed by the producer and delivered to the office of the county committee not later than such final date. Applicable documents referred to herein include the Producer's Note and Loan Agreement for warehouse-storage loans, the Producer's Note and Supplemental Loan Agreement and the Commodity Chattel Mortgage for farm-storage loans, and the Purchase Agreement for purchase agreements.

§ 421.5428 Eligible soybeans.

Soybeans, to be eligible for price support, must meet all of the applicable requirements set forth in this section:

(a) The soybeans must have been produced in the United States in 1960 by an eligible producer.

(b) At the time the soybeans are placed under loan or delivered under a purchase agreement, the beneficial interest in the soybeans must be in the eligible producer tendering the soybeans for loan or for delivery under a purchase agreement and must always have been in him, or must have been in him and a former producer whom he succeeded before the soybeans were harvested. Any producer who is in doubt as to whether his interest in the soybeans complies with the requirements of this subpart should make available to the county committee all pertinent information, prior to filing an application, which will permit a determination to be made by CCC as to his eligibility for price support. To meet the requirements of succession to a former producer, the rights, responsibilities and interests of the former producer with respect to the farming unit on which the soybeans were produced shall have been substantially assumed by the producer claiming succession. Mere purchase of the crop prior to harvest, without acquisition of any additional interest in the farming unit, shall not constitute succession. The county committee shall determine whether the requirements with respect to succession have been met.

(c) Soybeans, at the time they are placed under loan, and soybeans under purchase agreement which are in approved warehouse storage prior to notification by a producer of his intention to sell to CCC, must meet the following requirements:

(1) The soybeans must be soybeans of any class, grading No. 4 or better.

(2) Soybeans grading "Garlicky" or "Weevily", or containing mercurial compounds or other substances poisonous to man or animals, or containing in excess of 14 percent moisture, shall not be eligible, except that soybeans represented by warehouse receipts which indicate that the soybeans are ineligible solely because of containing in excess of 14 percent moisture will be eligible if the warehouseman certifies on the supplemental certificate or on a statement attached to the warehouse receipt that soybeans of 14 percent moisture or less of an eligible grade and quality which meet the requirements of this section will be delivered. The certification shall be substantially as follows:

On soybeans containing in excess of 14 percent moisture delivery will be made of soybeans which grade No. _____, which contain not in excess of 14 percent moisture, which are otherwise of the same quality or better as the soybeans described on warehouse receipt No. _____, and which are the actual quantity obtained after drying the soybeans described in such receipt to be not in excess of 14 percent moisture. No lien for processing will be claimed by the warehouseman from the Commodity Credit Corporation or any subsequent holder of the warehouse receipt.

(3) If offered as security for a farm-storage loan, the soybeans must have been stored in the granary at least 30 days prior to their inspection, measurement, sampling, and sealing unless otherwise approved by the State committee.

(d) Except as otherwise provided in § 421.5435(a), soybeans under purchase agreement stored in other than approved warehouse storage shall not be eligible for sale to CCC if they do not meet the requirements of paragraph (c) (1) and (2) of this section on the basis of a predelivery inspection performed by a representative of the county committee, unless the producer complies with the conditions specified in § 421.5435(a) and the soybeans on the basis of an inspection made at the time of delivery meet the requirements set forth in paragraph (c) (1) and (2) of this section.

§ 421.5429 Warehouse receipts.

Warehouse receipts representing soybeans in approved warehouse storage to be placed under a warehouse-storage loan or delivered in satisfaction of a farm-storage loan or acquired under a purchase agreement, must meet the following requirements of this section:

(a) Warehouse receipts presented for warehouse-storage loans must be issued in the name of the producer and for deliveries under farm-storage loans or purchase agreements, in the name of the producer or CCC, and must be properly endorsed in blank when issued in the name of the producer so as to vest title in the holder. The receipts must be issued by a warehouse for which a Uniform Grain Storage Agreement is in effect and which is approved by CCC for price support purposes, or must be receipts issued on warehouses operated by Eastern common carriers under tariffs approved by the Interstate Commerce Commission for which custodian agreements are in effect.

(b) Each warehouse receipt or the warehouseman's supplemental certificate (in duplicate), properly identified with the warehouse receipt must show all of the following: (1) Gross weight or bushels, (2) class, (3) grade, (4) test weight, (5) moisture, (6) percentage of foreign material, and (7) any other grading factor(s) when such factor(s), and not test weight or moisture, determine the grade. In addition, for soybeans grading Nos. 3 or 4, the percentage of splits, total damage and heat damage must also be shown. In the case of soybeans delivered by rail or barge, the grading factors on the warehouse receipt must agree with the inbound inspection certificate for the car or barge, if such certificate is issued.

(c) A separate warehouse receipt must be submitted for each grade and class of soybeans.

(d) The warehouse receipt may be subject to liens for warehouse charges only to the extent indicated in § 421.5434.

(e) If the warehouseman has furnished a statement as provided in § 421.5428(c)(2), the supplemental certificate must show the numerical grade, grading factors, and the quantity of the soybeans to be delivered. Where the grade, grading factors and the quantity of the soybeans shown on the supplemental certificate do not agree with the warehouse receipt, the grade, grading factors and quantity shown on the supplemental certificate shall take precedence.

(f) If the receipt is issued for soybeans of which the warehouseman is the producer and owner either solely, jointly, or in common with others, the fact of such ownership shall be stated on the receipt. Such receipts shall also be registered or recorded with appropriate State or local officials when required by State law. In States where the pledge of warehouse receipts by a warehouseman on his own soybeans is not valid under State law and the warehouseman elects to deliver soybeans to CCC under a purchase agreement for which he is eligible under this program, the warehouse receipts shall be issued in the name of CCC.

(g) Each warehouse receipt or accompanying supplemental certificate representing soybeans stored in an approved warehouse operating under the Uniform Grain Storage Agreement shall indicate that the soybeans are insured in accordance with such agreement. Each warehouse receipt or accompanying supplemental certificate issued on warehouses operated by eastern common carriers and representing soybeans to be placed under loan shall indicate that the soybeans are insured at the full market value against loss or damage by fire, lightning, inherent explosion, windstorm, cyclone and tornado. The cost of such insurance shall not be for the account of CCC.

§ 421.5430 Determination of quantity.

(a) The quantity of soybeans placed under farm-storage loan may be determined either by weight or by measurement. The quantity of soybeans delivered under a farm-storage loan or under a purchase agreement shall be determined by weight. The quantity of soybeans on which a warehouse-storage loan shall be made and the quantity delivered to or acquired by CCC in an approved warehouse under a farm-storage loan or purchase agreement shall be the weight of the soybeans represented by the warehouse receipt or on the supplemental certificate, if applicable.

(b) When the quantity is determined by weight, a bushel shall be 60 pounds of soybeans. In determining the quantity of sacked soybeans by weight, a deduction of ¾ of a pound for each sack shall be made.

(c) When the quantity of soybeans is determined by measurement, a bushel shall be 1.25 cubic feet of soybeans testing 60 pounds per bushel. The quantity determined by measurement of soybeans having a test weight of other than 60 pounds per bushel shall be adjusted by applying the applicable percentage as shown in the following table:

For soybeans testing:	Percent
60 pounds or over	100
59 pounds or over, but less than 60	98
58 pounds or over, but less than 59	97
57 pounds or over, but less than 58	96
56 pounds or over, but less than 57	94
55 pounds or over, but less than 56	93
54 pounds or over, but less than 55	90
53 pounds or over, but less than 54	88
52 pounds or over, but less than 53	87
51 pounds or over, but less than 52	85
50 pounds or over, but less than 51	83
49 pounds or over, but less than 50	82

§ 421.5431 Determination of quality.

The class, grade, grading factors, percentage of foreign material, and all other quality factors shall be determined in accordance with the method set forth in the Official Grain Standards of the United States for Soybeans, whether or not such determinations are made on the basis of an official inspection.

§ 421.5432 Maturity of loans.

Nonrecourse loans mature on demand but not later than May 31, 1961. Recourse loans mature on January 31, 1962.

§ 421.5433 Support rates.

Basic county support rates for soybeans placed under loan and for soybeans delivered under purchase agreement, and the schedule of premiums and discounts are set forth in this section. Farm-storage and warehouse-storage loans, and purchases under purchase agreements will be made on the basis of the support rate established for the county in which the soybeans were produced.

(a) Basic county support rates. Basic county support rates per bushel for soybeans of the classes Green soybeans and Yellow soybeans grading No. 2, and containing from 13.8 to 14.0 percent moisture, are as follows:

(b) Application of discounts and premiums. The cumulative discounts and premiums contained in paragraph (c) of this section shall be applied as follows:

(1) Farm-storage loans. In the case of eligible soybeans placed under farm-storage loans, the applicable discounts shall be applied to the basic rate at the time the loan is completed. Premiums shall be applied at the time of settlement on soybeans under nonrecourse loan delivered to CCC.

(2) Warehouse-storage loans. In the case of warehouse-storage loans, the applicable discounts and premiums shall be applied to the basic rate at the time the loan is completed.

(3) Purchase agreements. On eligible soybeans delivered from farm-storage under purchase agreements and on eligible soybeans represented by warehouse receipts tendered to CCC under purchase agreements, the applicable discounts and premiums shall be applied to the basic rate at the time of settlement.

(c) Discounts and premiums. (1) Classification discount: The support rates for soybeans of the classes Black Soybeans, Brown Soybeans, and Mixed Soybeans shall be 25 cents per bushel less than the support rates for the classes Green Soybeans and Yellow Soybeans.

(5) The discounts and premiums contained in this paragraph (c) are cumulative and are applicable to all classes of soybeans.

(d) Applicability of weed control provisions. Where the State committee determines that State, district or county weed control laws, as administered, affect the soybean crop, the support rate in the case of farm storage shall be 10 cents below the applicable county support rate for the county in which the soybeans were produced unless the producer obtains a certificate from the appropriate weed control official indicating that the soybeans comply with the weed control laws. In the case of warehouse storage, whenever the State committee of the State in which the soybeans are stored determines that State, district or county weed control laws, as administered, affect soybeans stored in approved warehouses, the rate shall be 10 cents below the applicable support rate for the county in which the soybeans were produced unless the producer obtains a certificate from either the appropriate State, county or district weed control official or the storing warehouseman that the soybeans comply with the weed control laws, and in the case of the warehouseman, that he will save CCC harmless from loss or penalty because of the weed control laws. The certificate of the warehouseman may be in substantially the following form:

CERTIFICATION

This is to certify that the grain evidenced by warehouse receipt No. _____ issued to _____ is not subject to seizure or other action under weed control laws or regulations in effect at point of storage. It is further certified and agreed that should such grain be taken over by CCC in settlement of a loan or be purchased under the purchase agreement program that the undersigned will save CCC from loss or penalty under weed control laws or regulations in effect at the point the grain was stored under the above warehouse receipt.

§ 421.5434 Warehouse charges.

(a) (1) Warehouse receipts and the soybeans represented thereby stored in approved warehouses operating under the Uniform Grain Storage Agreement may be subject to liens for warehouse handling and storage charges at not to exceed the Uniform Grain Storage Agreement rates from the date the soybeans are deposited in the warehouse for storage: Provided, That the warehouseman shall not be entitled to satisfy the lien by sale of the soybeans when CCC is holder of the warehouse receipt. Where the date of deposit (the date of the warehouse receipt if the date of deposit is not shown) on warehouse receipts representing soybeans stored in warehouses operating under the Uniform Grain Storage Agreement is on or before May 31, 1961, the nonrecourse loan maturity date, there shall be deducted in computing the amount of the loan or purchase price the storage charges per bushel as shown in the following table, unless written evidence has been submitted with the warehouse receipt that all warehouse charges, except receiving and loading out charges, have been prepaid through May 31, 1961, the nonrecourse loan maturity date:

Date of deposit (all dates inclusive):	Amount of deduction (cents per bushel)
Prior to July 26, 1960	12
July 26–Aug. 21, 1960	11
Aug. 22–Sept. 17, 1960	10
Sept. 18–Oct. 14, 1960	9
Oct. 15–Nov. 10, 1960	8
Nov. 11–Dec. 7, 1960	7
Dec. 8, 1960–Jan. 3, 1961	6
Jan. 4–Jan. 30, 1961	5
Jan. 31–Feb. 26, 1961	4
Feb. 27–Mar. 25, 1961	3
Mar. 26–Apr. 21, 1961	2
Apr. 22–May 31, 1961	1

In the case of recourse loans, there shall be deducted storage charges in the amount of 0.037 cents per bushel per day from the date the storage charges start against holders of the warehouse receipt through the recourse loan maturity date of January 31, 1962, plus receiving and loading out charges in the amount of 5.75 cents per bushel for truck received soybeans and 2.50 cents per bushel for soybeans received by rail or water unless written evidence has been submitted with the warehouse receipt that such charges have been prepaid.

(2) Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this section, if the date the storage charges start against the holders of the warehouse receipt is shown on the warehouse receipt or supplemental certificate and such date is prior to the maturity date for soybeans but subsequent to the date of deposit of the soybeans in the warehouse, the deduction for storage in computing the amount of the loan or purchase price shall be for the period from the date storage charges start against holders of the warehouse receipt through May 31, 1961 in the case of nonrecourse price support and January 31, 1962 in the case of recourse loans.

(b) Warehouse receipts and the soybeans represented thereby stored in approved warehouses operated by Eastern common carriers may be subject to liens for warehouse elevation (receiving and delivering) and storage charges from the date of deposit at rates approved by the Interstate Commerce Commission: Provided, That the warehouseman shall not be entitled to satisfy the lien by sale of the soybeans when CCC is holder of the warehouse receipt. There shall be deducted in computing the amount of the loan or purchase price the amount of the approved tariff rate per bushel for storage (not including elevation), which will accumulate from the date of deposit through the applicable maturity date to be determined in accordance with § 421.5432, and in the case of recourse loans the approved tariff rate for elevation charges, unless written evidence has been submitted with the warehouse receipt that such charges have been prepaid. The county office shall request the CSS Commodity office to determine the amount of such charges. Where the producer presents evidence showing that elevation charges have been prepaid, the amount of the storage charges to be deducted, in the case of nonrecourse price support, shall be reduced by the amount of the elevation charges prepaid by the producer.

§ 421.5435 Inspection of soybeans under purchase agreement.

(a) Predelivery inspection. Where the producer has given written notice within the 30-day period prior to the nonrecourse loan maturity date of his intent to sell his soybeans stored in other than an approved warehouse under purchase agreement to CCC, the county office shall make an inspection of the soybeans and obtain a sample of the soybeans and submit it for grade analysis prior to the delivery of the soybeans. If the soybeans on the basis of the predelivery inspection, are of a quality which meets the requirements for a farm-storage loan, the county office shall issue delivery instructions on or after the date of inspection. The producer must then complete delivery within a 15-day period immediately following the date the county office issues delivery instructions, unless the county office determines that more time is needed for delivery. The producer whose soybeans are stored in other than an approved warehouse and whose soybeans are not of a quality eligible for a loan at the time of the predelivery inspection, shall be notified in writing by the county office that his soybeans are not eligible for purchase by CCC. If, nevertheless, the producer informs the county office that he will condition the soybeans, or otherwise take action to make the soybeans eligible and insists upon delivery of the soybeans, the county office shall issue delivery instructions. In such case, the producer shall be further informed that if such soybeans, upon delivery and before purchase, do not meet the eligibility requirements of § 421.5428(c) (1) and (2) as determined on the basis of a sample taken at the time of delivery, the soybeans will not be accepted for purchase by CCC. A predelivery inspection shall not be made on soybeans stored commingled in warehouses not approved for storage or on soybeans in an unapproved warehouse which are stored so that the identity of the producer's soybeans is maintained but a predelivery inspection is not possible. When a predelivery inspection is not made, such soybeans at the time of delivery must meet the eligibility requirements of § 421.5428(c) (1) and (2).

(b) Inspection of soybeans stored by producer after maturity date. The producer may be required to retain the soybeans stored in other than approved warehouse—storage under purchase agreement for a period of 60 days after the nonrecourse loan maturity date without any cost to CCC. CCC will not assume any loss in quantity or quality of the soybeans covered by a purchase agreement occurring prior to delivery to CCC, except for quality deterioration under the following circumstances. If a producer has properly requested delivery instructions for soybeans which were determined to be of an eligible grade and quality at the time of the predelivery inspection, and CCC cannot accept delivery within the 60-day period following the nonrecourse loan maturity date, the producer may notify the county office at any time after such 60-day period that the soybeans are going out of condition or are in danger of going out of condition. Such notice must be confirmed in writing. If the county office determines that the soybeans are going out of condition or are in danger of going out of condition and that the soybeans cannot be satisfactorily conditioned by the producer, and delivery cannot be accepted within a reasonable length of time, the county office shall obtain an inspection and grade and quality determination. When delivery is completed, settlement shall be made on the basis of such grade and quality determination or on the basis of the grade and quality determination made at the time of delivery, whichever is higher, and on the basis of the quantity actually delivered.

(a) Settlement value. Subject to the provisions of § 421.5019, the following shall apply:

(1) Nonrecourse farm-storage loans. In the case of eligible soybeans delivered to CCC from farm-storage under nonrecourse loan, settlement shall be made at the applicable support rate for the county in which the soybeans were produced. The support rate shall be for the grade and quality of the total quantity of soybeans eligible for delivery. If, upon delivery, the soybeans under nonrecourse farm-storage loan are of a grade or quality for which no support rate has been established, the settlement value shall be computed at the basic support rate, adjusted for premiums and discounts, if any, applicable to the grade and quality of the soybeans placed under loan, less the difference, if any, at the time of delivery, between the market price for the grade and quality placed under the loan and the market price of the soybeans delivered, as determined by CCC: Provided, however, That if such soybeans are sold by CCC in order to determine their market price, the settlement value shall not be less than such sales price: And provided further, That if upon delivery the soybeans contain mercurial compounds or other substances poisonous to man or animals, such soybeans shall be sold for seed (in accordance with applicable State seed laws and regulations), fuel, or industrial uses where the end product will not be consumed by man or animals, and the settlement value shall be the market value, as determined by CCC, as of the date of delivery.

(2) Nonrecourse warehouse-storage loans. Settlement for eligible soybeans under nonrecourse warehouse-storage loans not redeemed on maturity and represented by warehouse receipts issued by an approved warehouse shall be made on the basis of the weight, grade, and other quality factors shown on the warehouse receipts or accompanying documents at the applicable support rate for the county in which the soybeans were produced.

(3) Purchase agreements—(i) Delivery from farm storage. Settlement for soybeans delivered to CCC from farm storage meeting the eligibility requirements of § 421.5428(c) (1) and (2), as determined by a reinspection at the time of delivery, and otherwise eligible for delivery shall be made at the applicable support rate for the location where produced. If soybeans, which were determined to be eligible at the time of the predelivery inspection are, upon delivery, of a grade or quality for which no support rate has been established, the settlement value shall be computed at the support rate established for the grade and quality of the eligible soybeans as determined at the time of the predelivery inspection, less the difference, if any, at the time of delivery between the market price for the grade and quality of the soybeans determined by the predelivery inspection and the market price of the soybeans delivered, as determined by CCC: Provided, however, That if such soybeans are sold by CCC in order to determine their market price the settlement value shall not be less than such sales price: And provided further, That if upon delivery the soybeans contain mercurial compounds or other substances poisonous to man or animals, such soybeans shall be sold for seed (in accordance with applicable State seed laws and regulations), fuel, or industrial uses where the end product will not be consumed by man or animals, and the settlement value shall be the same as the sales price, except that if CCC is unable to sell such soybeans for the use specified above, the settlement value shall be the market value, as determined, by CCC, as of the date of delivery.

(ii) Delivery from approved warehouse-storage. In the case of eligible soybeans stored commingled in an approved warehouse the producer must, not later than the day following the loan maturity date, or during such period of time thereafter as may be specified by the county committee, submit to the office of the county committee, warehouse receipts under which the warehouseman guarantees quality and quantity for the quantity of soybeans he elects to sell to CCC. Settlement for eligible soybeans delivered under purchase agreement to CCC by submission of warehouse receipts issued by an approved warehouse shall be made on the basis of the weight, grade, and other quality factors shown on the warehouse receipt or accompanying documents at the applicable support rate for the county in which the soybeans were produced.

(iii) Delivery from unapproved warehouse-storage. The county office will issue instructions on or after the nonrecourse loan maturity date for delivery of soybeans in a warehouse not approved for storage which are stored commingled, or which are stored so that the identity of the producer's soybeans is maintained but a predelivery inspection is not possible, where the producer has properly given the county office written notice of his intent to sell such soybeans to CCC. Settlement for such soybeans delivered to CCC which meet the eligibility requirements of § 421.5428(c) (1) and (2) and which are otherwise eligible for delivery shall be made at the applicable support rate for the county where produced. If a predelivery inspection of the producer's soybeans can be made, the provisions of § 421.5435(a) shall apply and settlement will be the same as for soybeans delivered under a purchase agreement from farm storage as provided in subdivision (i) of this subparagraph.

(iv) Soybeans ineligible for delivery inadvertently accepted by CCC. The settlement provisions of this subdivision (iv) shall apply to the following categories of soybeans ineligible for delivery which are inadvertently accepted by CCC and which CCC determines that it is not in a position to reject: (a) Soybeans which were of an ineligible grade or quality both at the time of the predelivery inspection and at the time of delivery as redetermined by a reinspection; (b) soybeans of an ineligible grade or quality which are delivered to CCC in excess of the maximum quantity stated in the purchase agreement; and (c) soybeans in other than approved warehouse storage on which a predelivery inspection was not performed, and which at the time of delivery do not meet the eligibility requirements of § 421.5428(c) (1) and (2). The settlement value shall be the market price for the grade, quality, and quantity of such ineligible soybeans delivered as determined by CCC: Provided, however, That if such soybeans are sold by CCC in order to determine their market price, the settlement value shall not be less than the sales price: And provided further, That if upon delivery the soybeans contain mercurial compounds or other substances poisonous to man or animals, such soybeans shall be sold for seed (in accordance with applicable State seed laws and regulations), fuel, or industrial uses where the end product will not be consumed by man or animals, and the settlement value shall be the same as the sales price, except that if CCC is unable to sell such soybeans for the uses specified above, the settlement value shall be the market value, as determined by CCC, as of the date of delivery. If soybeans delivered are of an eligible grade and quality but are in excess of the maximum quantity stated in the purchase agreement and such soybeans are inadvertently accepted by CCC, the settlement value shall be the sales price if the soybeans are immediately sold. If the soybeans are not immediately sold, the settlement value shall be the applicable support rate or the market price, as determined by CCC, whichever is lower.

(4) Notwithstanding the foregoing, if a warehouseman has made a certification on the warehouse receipt or supplemental certificate as specified in § 421.5428(c)(2), settlement for soybeans delivered to or acquired by CCC in an approved warehouse under a nonrecourse farm-storage loan or purchase agreement shall be based on the quality and quantity specified in such certification.

(5) Recourse farm-storage and warehouse-storage loans. Settlement of recourse farm-storage and warehouse-storage loans shall be effected in accordance with § 421.5019.

(b) Storage deduction for early delivery. No deduction for storage shall be made for farm-stored soybeans under nonrecourse loan or purchase agreement authorized is to delivered to CCC prior to the loan maturity date except where it is necessary to call the loan through fault or negligence on the part of the producer or where the producer requests early delivery and the county committee approves the early delivery and determines such early delivery is solely for the convenience of the producer. The deduction for storage shall be made in accordance with the schedule of deductions for warehouse charges in § 421.5434.

(c) Refund of prepaid handling charges. In case a warehouseman charges the producer for the receiving or the receiving and loading out charges on eligible soybeans under nonrecourse loan or purchase agreement stored in an approved warehouse, the producer shall, upon delivery of the soybeans to CCC, be reimbursed or given credit by the county office for such prepaid charges in an amount not to exceed the charges specified in the storage agreement, provided the producer furnishes to the county committee written evidence signed by the warehouseman that such charges have been paid. In case an approved warehouse operated by an Eastern common carrier charges the producer for the elevation charges on soybeans under nonrecourse loan or purchase agreement, the producer shall upon delivery of the soybeans to CCC, be reimbursed or given credit by the county office for such prepaid charges in an amount not to exceed the charges specified in the applicable approved tariff; provided the producer furnishes to the county office written evidence signed by the warehouseman that such charges have been paid and that CCC has not previously given the producer credit as provided in § 421.5434(b).

(d) Storage payment where CCC is unable to take delivery of soybeans stored in other than an approved warehouse under nonrecourse loan or purchase agreement. The producer may be required to retain soybeans stored in other than an approved warehouse under nonrecourse loan or purchase agreement for a period of 60 days after the nonrecourse maturity date without any cost to CCC. However, if CCC is unable to take delivery of such soybeans within the 60-day period after maturity, the producer shall be paid a storage payment upon delivery of the soybeans to CCC: Provided, however, That a storage payment shall be paid a producer whose soybeans are stored in other than an approved warehouse under purchase agreement only if he has properly given notice of his intention to sell the soybeans to CCC and delivery cannot be accepted within the 60-day period after maturity. The period for earning such storage payment shall begin the day following the expiration of the 60-day period after the maturity date and extend through the final date of delivery, or the final date for delivery as specified in the delivery instructions issued to the producer by the county office, whichever is earlier. The storage payment shall be computed at the rate of .037 cents per bushel per day for the soybeans accepted for delivery or sale to CCC.

(e) Track-loading payment. A track-loading payment of 3 cents per bushel shall be made to the producer on nonrecourse price support soybeans delivered to CCC on track at a country point.

(f) Compensation for hauling. If the producer is directed by the county office to deliver his nonrecourse price support soybeans to a point other than his customary shipping point, he shall be allowed compensation (as determined by CCC at not to exceed the common carrier truck rate or the rate available from local truckers) for the additional cost of hauling the soybeans any distance greater than the distance from the point where the soybeans are stored by the producer to the customary shipping point.

(g) Method of payment under purchase agreement settlements. When delivery of soybeans under purchase agreements is completed, payment will be made by sight draft drawn on CCC by the county office. The producer shall direct on Commodity Purchase Form 4 to whom payment of the proceeds shall be made.

Issued at Washington, D.C., this 29th day of June 1960.

§ 464.1201 Administration.

(a) This program will be administered by the Tobacco Division, CSS, under the general direction and supervision of the Executive Vice President, CCC. The program will be carried out in the field by producer associations (hereinafter referred to as "associations") acting for groups of producers. To obtain a loan, an association must enter into a loan agreement with CCC, which agreement will set forth terms and conditions prescribed by CCC. CCC reserves the right to restrict the number of associations with which it will contract, and in so doing will select such associations as it deems necessary or desirable to effectuate the purposes of this program with a maximum of efficiency and economy of operation. The names of such associations may be obtained from the Tobacco Division, CSS, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D.C.

(b) Each year CCC will make loans to associations upon the security of eligible tobacco, and the associations in turn will make price support advances to eligible producers either directly or through auction warehouses. Loans made to associations will include not only the initial loan value of the tobacco, but also advances for services performed in receiving, packing, storing, and marketing of tobacco pledged as security for the loan. Associations will be authorized to enter into contracts for these services through the usual trade channels.

§ 464.1202 Availability of price support.

(a) Price support will be available for any crop of each of the following kinds of tobacco, if producers have not disapproved marketing quotas for such crop:

Flue-cured tobacco, types 11, 12, 13, and 14.
Kentucky-Tennessee fire-cured tobacco, types 22 and 23.
Virginia fire-cured tobacco, type 21.
Virginia sun-cured tobacco, type 37.
Dark air-cured tobacco, types 35 and 36.
Burley tobacco, type 31.
Maryland tobacco, type 32.
Cigar filler tobacco, type 41.
Cigar filler and binder tobacco, types 42, 43, 44, 53, 54, and 55.
Puerto Rican tobacco, type 46.
Cigar binder tobacco, types 51 and 52.

(b) No price support will be available with respect to any kind of tobacco for any year for which marketing quotas have been disapproved by growers.

(c) Price support to eligible producers will be made available on eligible tobacco in the following manner:

(1) Auction market area. (i) In the areas where tobacco is marketed through auction markets, price support will be extended through auction warehouses which have contracted with the association, on a form of agreement approved by CCC, to make price support advances to producers on behalf of the association. Producers will deliver their tobacco to auction warehouses to be displayed and offered for sale at auction. The association contract with auction warehouses will require the auction warehouses to see that producers are informed that price support advances are available and to make price support advances to eligible producers on eligible tobacco. Producers will generally receive the price support advances from the warehouseman for any tobacco to be consigned to the association at the time the warehouseman settles with the producer for the entire quantity of the producer's tobacco that has been displayed for inspection and offered for sale on any one day's auction market. The warehouseman will in turn be reimbursed by the association with funds borrowed from CCC.

(ii) Price support will be available only at warehouses where tobacco inspection service is provided by the Agricultural Marketing Service, U.S.D.A. Inspection and price support services may be extended to new markets or to additional sales on established markets under 7 CFR Part 29 and this part issued pursuant to the Tobacco Inspection Act (7 U.S.C. 511 et seq.) and the Agricultural Act of 1949, as amended (7 U.S.C. 1421 et seq.). These regulations provide that such additional services may be extended only after a formal public hearing establishes the need for the services and the adequacy of the buying power that will participate.

(iii) CCC reserves the right to direct the association to withhold a contract under the price support program from any auction warehouse for one or more years if, based on previous performance of similar contracts, there is substantial reason to expect that such warehouse will not fulfill the contract obligations.

(2) Non-auction market area. Eligible producers in non-auction market areas will deliver eligible tobacco to central receiving points designated by the appropriate association. After the tobacco has been graded by U.S.D.A. inspectors, the producer will receive the advance directly from the association for any tobacco to be pledged as security for loans.

(3) Period of price support. Price support will be available to eligible producers on eligible tobacco only during each year's normal marketing season for each kind of tobacco for which support is provided.

§ 464.1203 Level of price support.

The level of price support to eligible producers shall be as required by statute. For the 1960 crop of any kind of tobacco, the level shall be the level at which the 1959 crop of such kind of tobacco was supported or would have been supported if marketing quotas had been in effect. For each subsequent crop of any kind of tobacco, the level of price support shall be determined by multiplying the support level of the 1959 crop or, if marketing quotas were disapproved for the 1959 crop, the level at which the 1959 crop would have been supported if marketing quotas had been in effect, by the ratio of (a) the average index of prices paid by farmers, as defined in section 301(a)(1)(C) of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, for the three calendar years immediately preceding the calendar year in which the marketing year begins for the crop for which the support level is being determined to (b) the average index of such prices paid by farmers for the 1959 calendar year. Generally, the price support level will be announced prior to the normal planting time for each kind of tobacco. Schedules of loan rates, by types and grades, for each kind of tobacco will be announced as supplements to this statement before the opening of the markets. Flue-cured tobacco of varieties Coker 139, Coker 140, and Dixie Bright 244 will be supported at one-half the support rates for comparable grades of other varieties.

§ 464.1204 Deductions from advances.

(a) The associations will be required to bear a portion of the overhead costs in connection with the loan operation. For this purpose, the associations in the auction marketing areas may charge the producer a fee of 12 cents per hundred pounds and may make such other charges as may be authorized or approved by CCC. Such charges may be collected by a deduction from the advance made to the producer on his tobacco or by arrangements with the auction warehousemen under which they will collect such charges and remit to the associations. In the non-auction market areas, the fee will be established at a rate commensurate with the services performed by the associations.

(b) If any producer on a farm is indebted to the United States and such indebtedness is listed on the county debt register, the Government will effect collection of the amount of the indebtedness by set-off from the amount of price support advance due the producer in the following manner: Any within-quota marketing card issued for such farm in accordance with the applicable regulations issued by the Secretary of Agriculture with respect to marketing quotas will bear the notation "Indebted to U.S." on the front cover thereof and on the county office copy of each memorandum of sale, and the name of the debtor and the amount of the indebtedness will be shown on the inside back cover of the marketing card. The acceptance and use of a within-quota marketing card bearing a notation and information of indebtedness to the United States by the producer named as debtor on such card will constitute an authorization by such producer to any tobacco warehouseman or association to pay to the United States the price support advance due the producer to the extent of his indebtedness set forth on such card but not to exceed that portion of the price support advance remaining after deduction of usual warehouse and authorized price support charges and amounts due prior lienholders. The acceptance and use of a within-quota marketing card bearing a notation and information of indebtedness to the United States will not constitute a waiver of any right of the producer to contest the validity of such indebtedness by appropriate administrative appeal or legal action. Under the marketing quota regulations issued by the Secretary, if the producer named as debtor on the card objects to the issuance, or after issuance to the use, of a within-quota marketing card bearing the notation and information of indebtedness to the United States thereon, he may elect to receive an excess marketing card showing "zero percent" penalty, in which event the producer will be ineligible for price support advances.

§ 464.1205 Interest rate and general provisions.

The loans made to the associations will bear interest at the rate announced by CCC for each crop year and will be nonrecourse both as to principal and interest except in the case of misrepresentation, fraud, or failure to carry out the terms of the loan contract. Tobacco loses its identity as to original ownership through commingling in the packing process, and individual producers may not redeem their tobacco once it has been pledged for loan. Associations will sell the loan tobacco as provided in the loan agreements, and all proceeds of sales of the loan collateral of each crop year will be applied to the loan account for such crop year until the loan is repaid in full.

§ 464.1206 Adjustment of interest and disposition of overplus.

The loan agreement between CCC and any association may include provisions under which CCC will adjust the interest rate as outlined in paragraph (c) of this section and the association will apply, as directed by CCC, one-half of the "overplus" from any crop year loan to the indebtedness on other crop year loans. This arrangement will be available only to those associations which include under the arrangement all CCC loans outstanding at the time the arrangement is made.

(a) Definition of overplus. "Overplus" is the balance remaining from the sales proceeds of the loan tobacco, after deducting (1) the amount of the loan, plus all handling charges and operating costs, and interest; and (2) any amount due CCC under a barter transfer agreement entered into between CCC and the association.

(b) Disposition of overplus. For those associations which agree to apply one-half of the overplus to other crop year loans, the remaining one-half of the overplus shall constitute "net gains", and for those associations which do not agree to apply one-half of the overplus to other crop year loans, the entire overplus shall constitute "net gains". Net gains shall be distributed in cash by the associations to the producers who placed the tobacco under loan unless other disposition is approved by CCC.

(c) Adjustment of interest rate. In consideration of any association's agreement to apply to the CCC loan indebtedness of other crop years one-half of the overplus from any crop year loan, the interest rate on such crop year loan shall be adjusted annually, as of the beginning of each subsequent marketing year (July 1 for flue-cured tobacco loans and October 1 for loans on other kinds of tobacco) to the rate established by CCC as applicable to price support loans on the current crops, minus one percent per annum: Provided, That if such adjusted interest rate is determined by CCC to be less than the average rate of interest applicable to CCC's borrowings from the Treasury, the amount of interest accrued at such adjusted interest rate shall be increased at the end of the marketing year or at the time of final repayment of the loan to the amount which would have accrued at the average interest rate applicable to CCC's borrowings from the Treasury, but not exceeding the rate of interest established by CCC as applicable to the current crop year loans.

§ 464.1207 Maturity date.

Loans made under the program will mature on demand.

§ 464.1208 Eligible producer.

(a) An eligible producer is one for whom a within-quota marketing card has been issued under the applicable regulations issued by the Secretary of Agriculture with respect to tobacco marketing quotas for the applicable marketing year. (In general, the marketing quota regulations provide for the issuance of a within-quota marketing card where the tobacco acreage harvested for each kind of tobacco produced on the farm is not in excess of the applicable acreage allotment established under the marketing quota program for such farm, except that a within-quota marketing card is not issued where the planted acreage of any kind of tobacco exceeds the farm acreage allotment established therefor unless a request for disposition of the excess acreage is filed promptly.) In the case of flue-cured tobacco, two types of within-quota marketing cards will be used: a "white" within-quota marketing card will signify that the tobacco produced on the farm for which such marketing card was issued is eligible for full price support, and a "blue" within-quota Limited Support marketing card will signify that the tobacco produced on the farm for which such card was issued is eligible for price support on a grade basis at one-half the regular price support rate. The regulations further provide for collection of indebtedness to the United States as set out in § 464.1204. Also, an excess marketing card (ineligible for price support loans) shall be issued in any case where tobacco is produced on land owned by the Federal Government in violation of the provisions of a lease restricting the production of tobacco. Marketing quota cards issued pursuant to the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended, when utilized for the purpose of obtaining price support under the regulations in this subpart, are submitted, and the data in support thereof is reported, under the Agricultural Act of 1949, as amended, and under the Commodity Credit Corporation Charter Act, as amended, and may be utilized as Commodity Credit Corporation deems necessary or desirable for the conduct of the price support program.

(b) As Puerto Rican tobacco is not under U.S. marketing quotas, all producers of this type of tobacco are considered eligible producers for the purpose of this program.

§ 464.1209 Eligible tobacco.

Eligible tobacco shall be U.S. and Puerto Rican tobacco (as defined in the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended) which (a) has been properly identified in accordance with applicable tobacco Marketing Quota Regulations on a valid memorandum of sale issued from a "Within-Quota" Marketing Card or a Within-Quota Limited Support Marketing Card, where marketing quotas are in effect; (b) has been delivered to the association by the producer prior to sale to any other person; (c) is in sound and merchantable condition; (d) is of a type and crop year for which price support is available; (e) is free and clear of any and all liens and encumbrances; and (f) was not produced on land owned by the Federal Government in violation of the provisions of a lease restricting the production of tobacco.

Auction warehouses through which price support is made available to producers of flue-cured tobacco shall identify, through the use of "certified" basket tickets, all tobacco (including resale and "excess" tobacco) offered for sale at auction which is determined to be of varieties eligible for full price support. A distinguishably different type of basket ticket shall be used for all other tobacco offered for sale at auction. The basis for determining whether tobacco is of varieties eligible for full price support shall be (a) for tobacco being offered for sale by or for the account of the producer thereof, the marketing card issued pursuant to marketing quota regulations for the farm on which the tobacco was produced, and (b) for resale tobacco (tobacco which has been previously sold by the producer), a certification by the seller to U.S.D.A. and the warehouse on Form MQ 79-1 Dealer's Certification—Resale Tobacco, a form provided for under the applicable marketing quota regulations, except where another basis is authorized by the Director, Tobacco Division, CSS. In the case of producer tobacco, the warehouse shall examine the marketing card prior to the time the tobacco is offered for sale, record the marketing card serial number on the warehouse floor sheet, and shall use certified basket tickets on the tobacco only if the marketing card presented is a Within-Quota (white) Marketing Card or an Excess (red) Marketing Card stamped "Acceptable Varieties". A dealer by execution of the Form MQ 79-1, Dealer's Certification—Resale Tobacco shall certify that the tobacco offered for sale and all other resale tobacco in which the dealer has an interest was purchased directly from the producer and was identified by a valid bill of non-warehouse sale issued from a Within-Quota (white) Marketing Card or an Excess (red) Marketing Card stamped "Acceptable Varieties", or was purchased by him at auction sale through a warehouse having price support available to producers and was identified by a certified basket ticket. Properly executed Dealer's Certification—Resale Tobacco shall be furnished to the U.S.D.A. representative stationed at the warehouse prior to the sale of the tobacco, with a copy to the warehouse. Where the Director, Tobacco Division, notifies the warehouse that the certifications of any dealer are not acceptable for this purpose, the Dealer's Certification shall not be used by the warehouse as a basis for a "certified" basket ticket. Such notice will be given to all warehouses having price support available to producers if a dealer is found to have made a false certification, or if a dealer fails to file reports required by applicable marketing quota regulations. In the latter case, the notice will be rescinded when the dealer files the reports if they show that he has not made false certifications with respect to identification of full support variety tobacco. Dealers making false certifications, or producers using marketing cards other than the one issued for the farm on which the tobacco was produced, to obtain use of certified basket tickets for tobacco not entitled to such identification, shall be subject to applicable provisions of law relating to conspiracy, fraud, or other offenses, and to penalties imposed by applicable marketing quota regulations. A dealer who has full support variety resale tobacco for which the Dealer's Certification cannot properly be executed because such tobacco or other tobacco in which he has an interest was acquired other than as the certification form provides, or a dealer whose certifications have been determined to be unacceptable, may have full support variety tobacco identified on a "certified" basket ticket through application to the Director, Tobacco Division. In such instances, if by examination of the marketing quota records and other evidence, the Director determines that the tobacco is of a full support variety, a special authorization will be given for the warehouses to identify the tobacco on a "certified" basket ticket.

§ 464.1211 Special provisions applicable only to 1960 crop tobacco.

(a) Limitation on nonrecourse price support. Under existing legislation, no producer is entitled to receive nonrecourse price support in excess of $50,000 on any kind of 1960 crop tobacco unless he has become exempt from that limitation pursuant to procedures published in 25 F.R. 1001. Therefore, notwithstanding any other provisions of this subpart, the following special provisions are applicable to 1960 crop tobacco: Any portion of a 1960 crop loan made to an association applicable to tobacco on which a person, not exempt from the limitation, receives price support in excess of $50,000 shall be recourse and payable in full together with interest by the following maturity date: For flue-cured tobacco, February 28, 1962; for Burley, fire-cured, dark air-cured, and Virginia sun-cured tobacco, April 30, 1962; for Maryland tobacco, November 15, 1962; for Puerto Rican tobacco, September 30, 1962; for cigar filler and binder tobacco, July 31, 1962. Such recourse loan shall bear interest at the rate of six percent per annum from the average date that producers receive advances to the time of repayment except that on any part repaid on or before the maturity date, the rate of interest shall be three and one-half percent per annum from the said average date of advances to the date of repayment. After the close of the markets, CCC will determine on the basis of reports from the association whether pursuant to this section any portion of the loan made to the association is recourse, and upon determining the amount of any recourse portion will designate an appropriate quantity of tobacco as collateral for that portion of the loan. If by the maturity date, sales proceeds from the designated collateral are not sufficient to repay the recourse portion of the loan, the association shall redeem such quantity of the remaining designated collateral as necessary to satisfy the indebtedness. Redemption will be at prices determined by CCC to equal the loan and interest applicable to the particular tobacco, except that the prices will not be less than necessary to fully repay the recourse portion of the loan with interest. The association at its discretion may require any producer who is not exempt from the limitation to execute an agreement under which, if such producer authorizes or permits the consignment or consignments of any of his tobacco for advances totaling any amount in excess of $50,000, the producer agrees to pay the association his pro rata share of any amount by which the sales proceeds of any recourse loan collateral redeemed by the association fails to equal the total expenditure of the association for such tobacco, and the association may deny price support advances in excess of $50,000 to any producer who refuses to execute such an agreement. In the event that CCC should sustain a loss by failure of the association to carry out its obligation with respect to recourse loan collateral, each producer who has not already satisfied his obligation to the association shall be liable to CCC for his pro rata share of such loss.

(b) Identification of untied tobacco offered for sale on auction markets in Florida. Auction warehouses in the State of Florida through which price support is made available to producers of flue-cured tobacco shall identify, through the content and color of the basket tickets used, all tobacco (including resale and "excess" tobacco) offered for sale at auction which is determined to have been produced in Georgia, Florida, or Alabama. The basis for determining whether tobacco was produced in Georgia, Florida, or Alabama shall be (a) for tobacco being offered for sale by or for the account of the producer thereof, the marketing card issued pursuant to marketing quota regulations for the farm on which the tobacco was produced, and (b) for resale tobacco, if purchased directly from a producer in Georgia, Florida, or Alabama, the bill of nonwarehouse sale issued from the producer's marketing card and the Dealers Record Book—Form MQ–79, or, if purchased at auction sale through a warehouse having price support available to producers, the basket ticket(s) of such warehouse or other documentation showing the tobacco to have been produced in Georgia, Florida, or Alabama. All tobacco not so determined to have been produced in Georgia, Florida, or Alabama shall be identified by a basket ticket of distinguishable content and color from that used to identify tobacco so determined to have been produced in Georgia, Florida, or Alabama.

Issued this 30th day of June 1960.

TRUE D. MORSE,
Acting Secretary of Agriculture.

PART 722—COTTON

Subpart—Regulations Pertaining to Acreage Allotments for the 1960 Crop of Extra Long Staple Cotton

FARM BASE ADJUSTMENTS

Basis and purpose. The amendment contained herein is issued pursuant to the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended (52 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U.S.C. 1281 et seq.). The purpose of this amendment is to provide a later closing date for applications by producers requesting that no farm base adjustment be made under section 344(f)(8) of the act and to dispense with such applications where an entire area of a county is involved.

In order that the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation State and county committees may perform their assigned functions in an orderly manner and in order that producers may be fully informed and obtain the benefits of the extension of the closing date for applications provided by this amendment, it is essential that this amendment be made effective as soon as possible. Accordingly, it is hereby determined and found that compliance with the notice and public procedure requirements and the 30-day effective date requirement of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act (60 Stat. 238; 5 U.S.C. 1003) is impracticable and contrary to the public interest and this amendment shall be effective upon filing of this document with the Director, Office of the Federal Register.

Section 722.369(a)(2) of the regulations pertaining to acreage allotments for the 1960 crop of extra long staple cotton (24 F.R. 8481, 9703, 10056, 10138, 25 F.R. 1306) is amended to read as follows:

(2) Adjustments provided in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph shall not be made if the county committee determines that failure to timely plant at least 75 percent of the farm allotment was due to excessive rain, flood, hail, drought, lack of water on irrigated farms resulting from the effect of drought on the water supply, or illness of the farm operator or any other producers on the farm, which are hereby determined to be conditions beyond the control of producers on the farm. The farm operator shall file an application in writing with the county committee not later than September 15, 1960, showing that failure to plant at least 75 percent of the farm allotment in 1960 was due to one or more of such conditions: Provided, however, That no written application by the farm operator shall be required if the county committee finds that one or more of such conditions at planting time generally caused underplanting of allotments on a number of farms in an area of the county, and in such cases the county committee, with the approval of a representative of the State committee, may determine that 75 percent or more of the 1960 farm allotment was planted or would have been planted to ELS cotton on any farm in such area if at least 75 percent of the farm allotment minus any acreage history earned under the conservation reserve program for one or more of the years 1958 or 1959 was actually planted to ELS cotton. A written record of the determinations of the county committee on each of the applications filed under this subparagraph or made under the proviso of this subparagraph shall be filed in the records of the county office showing the reason for failure to plant at least 75 percent of the farm allotment, percent of allotments planted to ELS cotton in 1958 and 1959, where applicable, the county committee's approval or disapproval of an application, and where applicable, its reasons for disapproval.

(Sec. 375, 52 Stat. 66, as amended; 7 U.S.C. 1375. Interpret or apply secs. 344, 63 Stat. 670, as amended; 7 U.S.C. 1344)

(2) Adjustments provided in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph shall not be made if the county committee determines that failure to timely plant at least 75 percent of the farm allotment was due to excessive rain, flood, hail, drought, lack of water on irrigated farms resulting from the effect of drought on the water supply, or illness of the farm operator or any other producers on the farm, which are hereby determined to be conditions beyond the control of producers on the farm. The farm operator shall file an application in writing with the county committee not later than September 15, 1960, showing that failure to plant at least 75 percent of the farm allotment in 1960 was due to one or more of such conditions: Provided, however, That no written application by the farm operator shall be required if the county committee finds that one or more of such conditions at planting time generally caused underplanting of allotments on a number of farms in an area of the county, and in such cases the county committee, with the approval of a representative of the State committee, may determine that 75 percent or more of the 1960 farm allotment was planted or would have been planted to cotton on any farm in such area if at least 75 percent of the farm allotment minus any acreage history earned under the conservation reserve program for one or more of the years 1958 or 1959 was actually planted to cotton. A written record of the determinations of the county committee on each of the applications filed under this subparagraph or made under the proviso of this subparagraph shall be filed in the records of the county office showing the reason for failure to plant at least 75 percent of the farm allotment, percent of allotments planted to cotton in 1958 and 1959, where applicable, the county committee's approval or disapproval of an application, and where applicable, its reasons for disapproval.

[Plum Order 6, Amdt. 1]

PART 936—FRESH BARTLETT PEARS, PLUMS, AND ELBERTA PEACHES GROWN IN CALIFORNIA

Regulation by Sizes

(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 36, as amended (7 CFR Part 936), regulating the handling of fresh Bartlett pears, plums, and Elberta peaches grown in the State of California, effective under the applicable provision of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601–674), and upon the basis of the recommendations of the Plum Commodity Committee, established under the aforesaid amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of shipments of plums of the variety hereinafter set forth, and in the manner herein provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable, unnecessary, and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this amendment until 30 days after publication hereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (5 U.S.C. 1001–1011) because the time intervening between the date when information upon which this amendment is based became available and the time when this amendment must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient; and this amendment relieves restriction on the handling of El Dorado plums grown in California.

(b) It is, therefore, ordered, as follows:

The provisions in paragraph (b) (1) (i) of § 936.642 (Plum Order 6; 25 F.R. 5176) are hereby amended to read as follows:

(i) Such plums are of a size that, when packed in a standard basket, they will pack at least a 4 x 5 standard pack and will have a net weight of not less than twenty-two (22) pounds: Provided, That not to exceed ten (10) percent, by count, of the packages or containers in any lot may fail to meet such net weight requirement; and

(c) Nothing contained herein shall be construed (1) as affecting or waiving any right, duty, obligation, or liability which has arisen or which, prior to the effective time of the provisions hereof, may arise in connection with any provision of said Plum Order 6; or (2) as releasing or extinguishing any violation of Plum Order 6 which has occurred or which, prior to the effective time of the provisions hereof, may occur.

PART 953—LEMONS GROWN IN CALIFORNIA AND ARIZONA

Limitation of Handling

Findings. 1. Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 53, as amended (7 CFR Part 953), regulating the handling of lemons grown in California and Arizona, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601 et seq.; 68 Stat. 906, 1047), and upon the basis of the recommendation and information submitted by the Lemon Administrative Committee, established under the said amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of handling of such lemons as hereinafter provided will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

2. It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this amendment until 30 days after publication hereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; 5 U.S.C. 1001 et seq.) because the time intervening between the date when information upon which this amendment is based became available and the time when this amendment must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, is insufficient, and this amendment relieves restriction on the handling of lemons grown in California and Arizona.

By "Decision of the Commission", etc., report of compliance was required as follows:

IV. In § 48.2 Treatment by classes, paragraph (b) is amended to clarify and implement the regulations governing undeliverable second-class mail. As so amended, paragraph (b) reads as follows:

(b) Second-class mail—(1) Change in local address—(i) Delivery for 3 months. When there has been any kind of a change in the local address, the copies of second-class publications bearing the old local address shall be delivered to the new local address without charge for a period of 3 months even though the copies bear the pledge of the sender to pay return postage. The words "local address" as used in this paragraph mean any address served by the city, village, rural, or star carriers of any specific post office or a post office box or general-delivery address at the post office. Form 3578, "Change of Address Notice to Publisher," shall be furnished to the addressee at the new local address, and he shall be requested to use it promptly for furnishing the new local address to the sender. Form 3578 shall not be inserted in the copies but shall be delivered to the addressee separately from the copies.

(ii) Procedure after 3 months. When copies bearing the old local address, but not the pledge of the sender to pay return postage, are received after the period of 3 months has expired, the carrier or clerk serving the old address shall write the new local address on Form 3579, "Undeliverable Second-Class Matter", which shall then be affixed to the copies, envelopes, or wrappers, near but not over, the old address. The copies shall then be delivered to the inquiry section or to the clerk designated by the postmaster to receive them. The portion of the page, envelope, or wrapper which bears both the old address and Form 3579 shall then be cut or torn from the copies, envelopes, or wrappers, placed in an envelope, and mailed directly to the publisher, news agent, or other sender. The address on the envelope shall always include the name of the publication. Any number of notices may be returned in one envelope. Each envelope shall be rated with postage due at the rate of 5 cents for each notice contained in the envelope. Copies bearing the old address which are received after the mailing of the notice shall be disposed of as waste. When the copies bear the pledge of the sender to pay return postage, the portion of the page, envelope, or wrapper, shall not be detached, and after expiration of the 3 months' period the complete copy shall be returned to the sender rated with postage due at the transient rate (see § 22.1(c) of this chapter) computed on each individually addressed copy or package of unaddressed copies.

(2) Undeliverable for any reason other than change in local address. When copies of second-class publications are undeliverable as addressed for any reason other than a change in the local address (see subparagraph (1)(i) of this paragraph) the carrier or clerk serving the old address shall prepare Form 3579 and affix it to the first undeliverable copy, or its envelope or wrapper, near but not over the old address, and then deliver the copy to the inquiry section or to the designated clerk. If the copies do not bear the pledge of the sender to pay return postage, the notice shall be mailed to the sender in the manner prescribed by subparagraph (1)(ii) of this paragraph. Copies bearing the old address which are received after the mailing of the notice shall be disposed of as waste. When the copies bear the pledge of the sender to pay return postage, each complete copy beginning with the first one which is undeliverable as addressed, shall be returned to the sender rated with postage due as provided by subparagraph (1)(ii) of this paragraph.

(3) Pledge of addressee or sender to pay forwarding postage. When a change of address is other than a change of local address (see subparagraph (1)(i) of this paragraph) and the addressee has filed a written guarantee either on Form 3575, "Change of Address Order," or otherwise to pay forwarding postage, the copies of second-class publications bearing the old address shall be forwarded to the new address for a period of 3 months rated with postage due at the transient rate (see § 22.1(c) of this chapter) computed on each individually addressed copy or package of unaddressed copies. Form 3578 shall be furnished to the addressee at the new address in the manner prescribed by subparagraph (1)(i) of this paragraph. If the addressee refuses to pay the postage due, the postmaster at the old address shall be requested by the postmaster at the new address to immediately discontinue forwarding the copies. When copies bearing the old address, but not the pledge of the sender to pay return postage, are received after the period of 3 months has expired, a notice shall be prepared and mailed to the sender in the manner prescribed by subparagraph (1)(ii) of this paragraph. Copies bearing the old address which are received after the mailing of the notice shall be disposed of as waste. When the copies bear the pledge of the sender to pay return postage, each complete copy beginning with the first one bearing the old address received after the period of 3 months has expired, shall be returned to the sender rated with postage due as provided in subparagraph (1)(ii) of this paragraph.

(4) Manner in which the pledge of the sender shall be shown. The pledge of the sender to pay return postage on copies which are undeliverable as addressed shall be printed on the envelopes or wrappers or on one of the outside covers of unwrapped copies, and shall be immediately preceded by the sender's name and address.

(5) Failure to follow procedure. When postmasters do not comply with the instructions in this paragraph their noncompliance should be brought directly to their attention by any postmaster who observes the noncompliance. In all cases where a change of address is not made by the sender within 3 months after the notice is sent on Form 3579, the postmaster at the office of mailing shall be requested to instruct the sender to make the change.

(6) Canadian publications. The procedure prescribed by subparagraphs (1) through (3) of this paragraph shall be followed when copies of Canadian second-class publications are undeliverable as addressed.

(7) Special circumstances. See §§ 47.4 and 47.5 of this chapter for instructions as to forwarding publications under the special circumstances described therein.

It is the policy of the Department of the Interior whenever practicable, to afford the public an opportunity to participate in the rule making process. Accordingly, interested persons may submit written comments, suggestions, or objections with respect to the proposed regulation to the Commissioner, Bureau of Indian Affairs, Washington 25, D.C., within thirty days of the date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

§ 131.1 Definitions.

As used in this part:

(a) "Secretary" means Secretary of the Interior or his authorized representative acting under delegated authority.

(b) "Issuing or approving officer" means the individual or his successor in office to whom has been delegated the authority to act on behalf of the Secretary in carrying out the regulations in this part.

(c) "Restricted lands" means lands or interests therein (1) title to which is in Indian tribes, corporations, associations, or individuals subject to federal restrictions against alienation or (2) held in trust for them by the United States.

(d) "Permit" means a privilege revocable at will in the discretion of the issuing (or approving) officer or his successor, and not assignable, to enter on and use a specified tract of land for a specified purpose. The terms "lease", "lessor", and "lessee", when used in this part include, when applicable "permit", "permitter", and "permittee", respectively.

(e) "Farm pasture lease" means the conveyance of an exclusive right to use land for a term of years for livestock grazing and crop growing operations.

(f) "Specialized crops" means:

(1) Long life perennials which maintain profitable production over a period of years, or

(2) Those crops the production of which require a substantial development investment on the described land.

§ 131.2 Purpose of regulations.

(a) The regulations in this part prescribe the terms and conditions under which restricted lands other than grazing units covered by Part 151 of this chapter, may be leased or permitted for farm, farm-pasture, business and other purposes authorized by statute, except mineral leases. No lease shall be approved under the regulations of this part which contains any provision that will prevent or delay a termination of Federal trust responsibilities with respect to the land during the term of the lease.

(b) Restricted grazing lands within range units established pursuant to Part 151 of this chapter, General Grazing Regulations, shall not be leased under this part.

§ 131.3 Applicability of regulations and reserved authority by the Secretary.

The regulations in this part are of general application. Notwithstanding any limitations contained herein, the Secretary retains the right to approve any lease the terms of which meet statutory requirements when he finds that the lease is in the best interest of the Indian owner.

§ 131.4 Minor's land, use by parents.

Any Indian who supports his dependent minor children may use their restricted lands during the period of their minority without charge for the use of their lands if such use will enable him to engage in a farming, farm-pasture, business, or other enterprise which will also be beneficial to his minor children; and any such Indian may also pledge the income from such lands for the period of his children's minority as security for a loan from the United States, an Indian business corporation, tribe, or credit association.

§ 131.5 Authority for leases or permits.

Leases of restricted lands may be made under the authority of the regulations in this part. A permit may be issued where a lease can be granted under this part for restricted lands. Where no specific statutory authority to lease has been provided, permits only may be issued except that leases may be granted where necessary to preserve trust property from loss by waste. Permits shall contain a provision making the instrument subject to revocation on 30-days notice in writing to the permittee.

§ 131.6 Negotiation of individual leases and permits.

(a) Adult Indians (other than those non-compos mentis) may negotiate for themselves and for their minor children and wards leases for the use of individual restricted lands. Such leases shall be made on forms approved by the Secretary, and shall be subject to the regulations in this part and the written approval of the Secretary. Unless such leases provide otherwise, rentals shall be paid directly by the lessees to the adult Indian lessors. Rentals from land owned by minors shall be paid to the Secretary except where under applicable statutes it is mandatory that such rentals be paid to the parents. When a rental satisfactory to the Secretary has not been obtained by the owners through such negotiation, the Secretary, in his discretion, may advertise the land for lease. At the conclusion of such advertisement, the owners may execute a lease to a lessee of their choice at not less than the highest acceptable bid received at such advertised sale.

(b) Notwithstanding the appraisal requirement provided in § 131.12 an adult Indian owner of trust or restricted land may lease his land for religious, educational, recreational or other public purposes to religious organizations or to agencies of the Federal, State or local Government and, at the discretion of the Secretary, such leases may be approved at a nominal rental. Such Indian may lease lands to members of his or her immediate family with or without rental consideration. For purposes of this section, "immediate family" is defined as the Indian's spouse, brothers, sisters, lineal ancestors, or descendants.

(c) Where an assignee of tribal lands is authorized by tribal law or custom to lease assigned tribal lands, such assignments of tribal lands may be leased by the holder of the assingment, subject to the terms of the assignment and under the same conditions as provided for individually owned restricted lands in paragraph (a) of this section.

§ 131.7 Negotiation of tribal leases and permits.

Tribes, acting through their tribal councils or other appropriate tribal official(s), may negotiate leases with respect to tribal lands. Such leases shall be made on forms approved by the Secretary, subject to the regulations of this part and the written approval of the Secretary. Negotiated tribal leases shall not be approved unless they are found to be in the best interest of the Tribe. Notwithstanding the appraisal requirement provided in § 131.12 leases for religious, educational, recreational or other public purposes to religious organizations or to agencies of the Federal, State or local Government, homesite leases to tribal members and subsidized leases for the benefit of the Tribe or tribal members may, in the discretion of the Secretary, be approved at a nominal rental. A lease may provide for the payment of rentals direct to the lessor when a Tribe has facilities for handling its own funds, including an acceptable bonded officer to receipt for funds. Otherwise, the lease shall provide for the payment of rentals to the superintendent for deposit to the credit of the Tribe in the United States Treasury.

§ 131.8 Grants of leases by the Secretary.

(a) The Secretary may grant leases for individual restricted lands on behalf of: (1) Indians non-compos mentis and orphaned minors; (2) the undetermined heirs of a decedent's estate. Where the entire interest in a tract of land is owned by a nonresident whose whereabouts is unknown a temporary permit may be granted to prevent waste.

(b) Leases embracing inherited or devised restricted lands may also be granted when the heirs or devisees of the decedents have been determined and the lands are not in use by any of the heirs or devisees and the heirs or devisees have not been able during the three months period immediately following the date on which a lease may be renewed (see § 131.23) to agree upon a lease by reason of the number of heirs or devisees, their absence from the reservation, or for any other cause. Before taking administrative action to lease such lands, the known heirs or devisees, respectively, shall be given 30 days notice in writing that such action is contemplated.

(c) Where Indians authorized to negotiate leases as provided in § 131.6 and whose whereabouts are known own the majority interest in land being leased and all such Indians have executed a lease on terms acceptable to the Secretary, the Secretary, by joining in the execution of the lease, may commit the interests of those Indians in whose behalf he is authorized to grant leases under paragraph (a) of this section, without advertising and without limitation as to term as provided in § 131.14(f). The interests of adult Indians whose whereabouts are unknown may be committed to the lease by the Secretary under the authority of this section only after the three months period provided in paragraph (b) of this section has elapsed.

§ 131.9 Grants of permits for use of other lands.

In order to conserve and protect them from waste, lands acquired or reserved by the United States for Indian school or other Indian administrative purposes and other lands transferred to or placed under the administration of the Bureau of Indian Affairs, which are not immediately needed for the purpose for which they were acquired or reserved, may be permitted for farm, farm-pasture, business, or other purposes for minimum periods conducive to proper use. Such permits shall be subject to termination upon 30 days notice in writing to the permittee. Where such reserved lands are tribal lands and it is found impractical to restore them to unreserved tribal status, such lands may be leased by the Tribes in the same manner as provided in § 131.7.

§ 131.10 Advertisement.

Except as provided in § 131.8(c), prior to granting a lease, whether under this part or pursuant to a written authority to grant leases duly executed by the owner, the lands shall be advertised for lease to the highest bidder without preference to prior lessees. Advertising may be waived by the Secretary upon assurance that the fair market rental is being obtained for the owner or as provided for in § 131.12. Leases granted hereunder may provide for payment of rentals to the owners or to persons having custody of the owner of the lands.

§ 131.11 Lease forms.

Except as provided herein or by special authorization of the Secretary, only leases in the form approved by the Secretary shall be used in the leasing of restricted lands. Additional stipulations and conditions to carry out the purposes of the contract may be included in the approved forms. Leases to the United States or to the States, or agencies thereof, may be approved on the forms officially adopted by such governmental agencies when in the best interest of the Indian owners, provided that applicable special mandatory provisions of this part are made a part thereof.

§ 131.12 Appraisals.

Prior to granting or approving a lease on restricted land, an appraisal shall be made to determine the fair market rental. As a general rule, no lease will be approved or granted at less than the fair market rental so determined. However, a lease negotiated pursuant to § 131.6 or § 131.7 or granted pursuant to § 131.8 may be approved if the proposed contract rental approximates the appraised fair market rental and is, in the judgment of the Secretary, the highest rental that may be realized in the circumstances. Under special and unusual circumstances, when necessary to protect the best interests of the land owners and when, in the judgment of the Secretary, there is full justification therefor in each case, one-year leases may be approved or granted with the consent of the land owner, at the highest rental that may be realized.

§ 131.13 Lease fees.

Unless otherwise provided by the Secretary, fees based upon the annual rental payable under the contract as herein set forth shall be collected on each lease, sublease, assignment, transfer, renewal, extension, modification, or other instrument issued in connection with the leasing or permitting of restricted lands under the regulations of this part.

(a) To be paid by lessee, permittee, sublessee, or assignee:

Rental	Percent
On the first $500	3
On the next $4,500	2
On all rental above $5,000	1

In no event shall the fee be less than $2.00 nor exceed $250.

In the case of percentage rental leases, the fee shall be calculated on the basis of the guaranteed minimum rental. Where rental consists of a stated annual cash rental in addition to a percentage rental, the estimated revenue anticipated from the percentage rental shall be mutually agreed upon solely for the purpose of fixing the fee. The cost of improvements to be placed on the land by the lessee for the benefit of the lessor shall be prorated on an annual basis for the purpose of calculating the fee. The fee to be collected in case of crop-share or other special consideration leases or permits shall be based on (1) an estimate of the cash rental value of the acreage, or (2) the estimated value of the lessor's share of the crops. When, under the terms of the instruments the lessee is to pay taxes accruing during the period of its operation, an amount equal to the estimated total amount of the taxes shall be included in the amount to be used in determining the fee to be charged. No fees shall be added or refunded as a result of periodic rental adjustments under the terms of the lease.

(b) Fees, tribally financed employees: When the clerical and ministerial work in connection with the grants of leases is performed by tribal employees, or by Bureau employees paid from appropriated tribal funds fees may be fixed by the respective Tribes concerned in lieu of the fees prescribed in paragraph (a) of this section, subject to approval by the Secretary.

(c) Disposition of fees: Fees collected pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section shall be covered into the Treasury as miscellaneous receipts. Fees collected pursuant to paragraph (b) shall be credited to the appropriate tribal fund.

§ 131.14 Duration of leases.

The duration of a lease of restricted land shall not exceed the number of years provided for herein and shall in all cases be limited to the minimum duration, commensurate with the purpose of the lease, that will allow the highest economic return to the Indian owner.

(a) Leases of restricted lands granted for public, religious, educational, recreational, residential or business purposes may be executed for a period of not to exceed twenty-five (25) years. With the consent of both parties, such leases may include provisions authorizing their renewal for one additional term of not to exceed twenty-five (25) years.

(b) Farming and agricultural leases of restricted lands granted for the purpose of growing specialized crops as defined in § 131.1(f) may be executed for single term of not to exceed twenty-five (25) years.

(c) All farming leases not granted for the purpose of growing specialized crops may be executed for a term of not to exceed five years for dry-farming lands or ten years for irrigable lands.

(d) Grazing leases which require substantial development or improvement of the land may be executed for a term of not to exceed ten years.

(e) Unless otherwise provided by the Secretary the rental on leases granted for more than five years shall be subject to adjustment at not less than five-year intervals. Leases which provide for such periodic rental adjustment shall contain the following provision:

> In the event of termination of Federal supervision, the lessor and lessee, or their successors in interest, shall within 30 days prior to the anniversary date for adjustment of the rental agree upon a commercial appraiser to determine the fair annual rental value. If no agreement can be reached at the end of 30 days, the lessor and lessee, or their successors, shall each appoint an appraiser and the two appraisers shall select a third appraiser. The three appraisers so selected shall constitute the appraisal board to reevaluate the fair annual rental.

(f) Lands of deceased Indians whose heirs have not been determined shall be leased for a term of not to exceed two years, except as otherwise provided in § 131.8.

(g) With the exception set forth in paragraph (a) of this section there shall be no provision for renewal in the leases nor shall any lease provide for a preference right in the lessee to future leases.

(h) Where tribal constitutions or charters of tribal business corporations contain limitations as to the use of tribal lands, or corporate lands, respectively, such limitations shall govern where more restrictive than the regulations in this part. No tribal business corporation organized pursuant to the regulations set forth in Part 81 of this chapter may lease lands held by the corporation included within the limits of a reservation for a period exceeding ten years, unless otherwise provided by law (25 U.S.C. 478).

§ 131.15 Ownership of improvements.

All improvements upon the leased land shall remain the property of the lessor unless specifically excepted therefrom under the terms of the lease. At the termination of the lease, the lessor shall have the option to purchase any improvements specifically excepted which option shall be exercised by the lessor with written notice to the lessee at least ninety (90) days prior to the expiration of the lease. The lessee shall have ninety (90) days from the date of expiration of his lease to remove the excepted improvements not so purchased.

§ 131.16 Description of leased property.

When a lease covers an irregular portion of a legal subdivision, a definite description by metes and bounds must be incorporated therein, accompanied by a plat of the part intended to be leased when the metes and bounds do not conform to the public survey.

§ 131.17 Special mandatory provisions.

(a) All leases issued under this part shall contain provisions as follows:

(1) Nothing contained in this lease shall operate to delay or prevent a termination of Federal trust responsibilities with respect to the land during the term of this lease; however, such termination shall not serve to abrogate this lease. In the event of such termination, all powers, duties, or other functions of the Secretary shall terminate, and the responsibility for enforcing compliance with the covenants of this lease shall be assumed by the lessor, or successors in interest.

(2) The lessee further agrees that he will not use or cause to be used any part of said premises for any unlawful conduct or purpose.

(b) Leases issued under this part on individually owned lands and which provide for payment of rental direct to lessors shall contain the following provisions:

(1) In the event of the death of the lessor during the term of this lease and while the leased premises are under the supervision of the Secretary, all rentals remaining due or payable to the decedent under the provisions of this lease shall be paid to the official of the Indian Agency having jurisdiction over such premises.

(2) Unless otherwise provided in this lease, no rent or other consideration for the use of the leased premises shall be paid more than one (1) year in advance of the anniversary date of the lease or of the beginning of the crop or grazing year to which the rent is applicable.

§ 131.18 Conservation and land use requirement.

All farming and grazing operations conducted under leases executed pursuant to the regulations of this part shall be in accordance with approved methods as set forth in land use stipulations or a plan of conservation operations annexed to and made a part of the lease.

§ 131.19 Farm and farm-pasture units.

(a) When areas of restricted land consisting of part or all of a number of allotments or separate tracts of tribal lands can be developed and effectively utilized under proper soil conservation and land use practices as single operational units, such lands may be combined into suitable units for such purpose.

(b) A lease may be issued on restricted land in a unit if such authority has been granted to the Secretary by the owners of the areas comprising the unit or if the Secretary is authorized in accordance with the provisions of this part to grant leases covering such lands without the consent of the owners. All such leases shall be advertised as herein provided.

§ 131.20 Irrigable lands, drainage districts, payment of charges.

(a) Except as provided in Part 221 of this chapter any lease for restricted lands within an irrigation project or drainage district shall require the lessee to pay on the due date annually in advance during the term of the instrument, and in the amounts determined, all valid charges assessed against such lands. Such charges shall be in addition to the rental payments prescribed in the lease. All payments of such charges and penalties shall be made to the Secretary or other officer designated by him.

(b) Prior to the approval of a lease covering any lands within an irrigation project or drainage district, a list containing the description of the lands shall be furnished to the project engineer for checking as to whether or not such lands are in fact, either irrigable under existing works or subject to drainage charges.

§ 131.21 Bonds.

(a) Unless otherwise provided by the Secretary full performance of the conditions of each lease issued under this part shall be guaranteed by a satisfactory corporate surety bond or individual surety bond in a penal sum of not less than one year's rental and the estimated value of any improvement to be constructed by the lessee for the benefit of the lessor, plus an amount estimated to be adequate to insure compliance with the contractural obligations. In lieu of furnishing a surety bond a lessee may deposit with the superintendent cash or negotiable United States Treasury Bonds or other negotiable Treasury obligations in the appropriate amount together with a power of attorney appointing and empowering the Secretary in the event of any breach of the lease to pay over any such cash, or to dispose of any such bonds and pay over the proceeds derived therefrom as liquidated damages to or for the benefit of the lessor.

(b) A bond is not required on short-term leases which do not provide for the construction of improvements when the rental and other fixed charges have been fully prepaid for the term of the lease. Where substantial improvements accruing to the land, are to be made or constructed during the early part of the lease, the bond insuring the construction of the improvements may be deemed sufficient to protect the interests of the lessor without requiring an additional surety for the payment of the rental and other fixed charges. Bonds insuring the construction of improvements may be released after completion and acceptance of the improvements. Where the value of the completed improvements to the land exceeds the sum of the rentals and other fixed charges remaining due under the lease, the improvements may be accepted in lieu of bond as adequate security for the payment of these obligations.

§ 131.22 Subleases; assignments; amendments.

A sublease, assignment or amendment of any lease or permit issued under this part may be made only with the approval of the Secretary and the written consent of all parties thereto, including the surety or sureties.

§ 131.23 Advance execution of leases.

No lease shall be entered into more than 12 months prior to the date of the expiration of the existing lease covering the land.

§ 131.24 Payment of rentals.

No rent or other consideration for the use of land leased pursuant to the regulations in this part shall be paid more than one (1) year in advance of the anniversary date of the lease or the beginning date of the crop or grazing year to which the rent is applicable, unless so provided in the lease. In cases of emergency need, the approving officer, in his discretion, may approve amendments to existing leases providing for advance payment of rentals remaining due under the approved contract.

§ 131.25 Violation of lease or permit, procedures and penalty.

(a) The Secretary is responsible for and shall enforce compliance with the requirements of leases issued under this part and other applicable regulations. If there is reason to believe that a lessee has violated the lease or the regulations, a written notice shall be served upon the lessee setting forth in detail the nature of the alleged violation and allowing him 10 days from the date of receipt of notice in which to show cause why the lease should not be cancelled. The surety or sureties on the lease shall be sent a copy of each notice sent to the lessee. If, within this ten (10) days period it is determined that the breach may be corrected and the lessee agrees to take the necessary corrective measures, he shall be given an opportunity to carry out such measures and shall be given 30 days to show evidence of making progress in curing the breach. If a lessee fails within the prescribed time to correct the breach or to furnish satisfactory reasons why the lease should not be cancelled the lessee shall forthwith be notified in writing of the cancellation of the instrument and demand shall be made for payment of all obligations due and for possession of the premises. Where the breach of contract can be satisfied by the payment of damages, the Secretary may approve the damage settlement.

(b) The notice of cancellation shall also inform the lessee of his right to appeal from a decision made pursuant to delegated authority. In the event performance of the contractual obligations was assured through a surety bond which, by its own terms, would cease upon termination of the lease for any cause, the appeal must be accompanied by a surety bond to protect the lessor from any loss of revenue or damage occasioned by the pendency of the appeal. The cancellation of a lease for cause shall not entitle the lessee to the refund of any rentals paid or collected.

§ 131.26 Crow Reservation.

(a) Notwithstanding § 131.14(c), no lease of an irrigable allotment on the Crow Reservation not included in the Big Horn unit of the Crow Indian Irrigation project shall be made for a period longer than five years, unless otherwise provided by law.

(b) Notwithstanding § 131.23, a lease respecting restricted land on this reservation may be executed for farming purposes not to exceed 18 months prior to the expiration date of the lease then in force.

(c) Notwithstanding § 131.6, the approval of the Secretary shall not be required for farming and grazing leases executed by Crow Indians classified as competent under the acts of June 4, 1920 (41 Stat. 751), May 19, 1926 (44 Stat. 566), March 3, 1927 (44 Stat. 1365), May 2, 1928 (45 Stat. 482), March 3, 1931 (46 Stat. 1495), March 15, 1948 (62 Stat. 80), and September 8, 1949 (63 Stat. 695), and which embrace all or part of their own allotments or the allotments of their minor children. Any adult Crow Indian classified as competent shall have the full responsibility for obtaining compliance with the terms of any lease made by him pursuant to this section. Copies of all such leases shall be promptly filed with the Crow Indian Agency and shall constitute constructive notice to all persons. Leases not filed with the agency shall not be recognized by the Secretary as against subsequent lessees, purchasers, or encumbrancers of the same land in good faith for value.

(d) Leases, other than for farming and grazing, may be made under the authority of, and for the purposes stated in, the General Leasing Act of August 9, 1955 (69 Stat. 539), in conformity with other applicable sections of the regulations in this part.

(e) All leases governed by the regulations of this part, made by adult Crow Indians not classified as competent and made on inherited or devised trust lands owned by more than five competent devisees or heirs, shall be valid only with the approval of the Secretary. Such leases shall provide for the payment of all rentals and other income therefrom to the Secretary for the benefit of the Indian owners.

§ 131.27 Fort Belknap Reservation.

Not to exceed 20,000 acres of allotted and tribal lands (nonirrigable as well as irrigable) on the Fort Belknap Reservation in Montana may be leased for the culture of sugar beets and other crops in rotation for terms not exceeding 10 years.

§ 131.28 Palm Springs, California.

In addition to the authority for the negotiation of leases contained in § 131.6, leases or permits for the use of individual trust or restricted lands belonging to members of the Agua Caliente or Palm Springs band of Mission Indians may be negotiated by guardians duly qualified as to authority and bond under the laws of California, to enter into transactions on behalf of the owner of the property. Such leases shall be made on forms approved by the Secretary subject to the regulations of this part and the written approval of the Secretary. Leases so negotiated shall provide that rentals due may, in the discretion of the Secretary, be paid to such guardians, providing, however, that at any time during the term of the lease, the Secretary may, at his discretion and upon thirty days' notice to the lessee, require the remaining rentals to be paid to the Secretary.

§ 131.29 Augustine, Cabazon and Torres-Martinez Reservations, California.

(a) Upon a determination by the Secretary that the owner or owners are not making beneficial use thereof, restricted lands on the Cabazon, Augustine and Torrez-Martinez Indian Reservations which are or may be irrigated from distribution facilities administered by the Coachella Valley County Water District in Riverside County, California, may be leased by the Secretary in accordance with the regulations in this part for the benefit of the owner or owners.

(b) All leases granted or approved on restricted lands of the Cabazon, Augustine and Torrez-Martinez Indian Reservations shall be filed for record in the office of the County recorder of the County in which the land is located, the cost thereof to be paid by the lessee. A copy of each such lease shall be filed by the lessee with the Coachella Valley County Water District or such other irrigation or water district within which the leased lands are located. All such leases shall include a provision that the lessee, in addition to the rentals provided for in the lease, shall pay all irrigation charges properly assessed against the land which became payable during the term of the Lease. Act of August 25, 1950 (64 Stat. 470); Act of August 28, 1958 (72 Stat. 968).

CIVIL AERONAUTICS BOARD

[Docket No. 11364 etc.; Order No. E-15459]

CHARTER OPERATIONS

Order Granting Exemption

Adopted by the Civil Aeronautics Board at its office in Washington, D.C. on the 28th day of June 1960.

In the matter of the application of certain air carriers for an exemption, as heretofore granted in Orders E-13158 and E-14079, from the provisions of section 403 of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 and the Economic Regulations (14 CFR Part 221) with respect to charter operations for the Military Traffic Management Agency, Dockets 11364, 11405, and 11433.

On November 14, 1958, by Order E-13158,[1] the Board granted to certain carriers named therein an exemption from the provisions of section 403 of the Civil Aeronautics Act of 1938 and the Economic Regulations of the Board to the extent that such section of the Act and the Economic Regulations otherwise would require such carriers to apply the ferry rates stated in their tariffs to the actual ferry mileage flown in those cases where such mileage exceeded that estimated in bids or contracts with the Military Traffic Management Agency (MTMA). By its terms, this exemption expired on June 30, 1959. By Order E-14079, on June 19, 1959, a similar exemption was issued under the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 to certain carriers named therein for a one year period ending June 30, 1960.[2] Each of these orders was amended during its effective period to extend the exemption to carriers in addition to those included initially.

Alaska Airlines, Inc., Docket 11364, Hawaiian Airlines, Ltd., Docket 11405, and The Flying Tiger Line, Inc., Docket 11433, have each requested an exemption for the year ending June 30, 1961, of the same nature as the exemption previously granted in Orders E-13158 and E-14079. By letter dated April 19, 1960, the Military Traffic Management Agency (MTMA) has similarly recommended that the Board grant exemption authority for such period beyond the expiry date of Order E-14079 (June 30, 1960) as it may deem appropriate. No objections to the applications of the carriers have been filed.

The need for the requested exemption arises because of a conflict between the bid and contract requirements of MTMA and the tariff requirements of the Act and the regulations. The military bid requirements now provide that a bid submitted by a carrier must represent the maximum charge to be paid by the Military. However, the amount of ferry mileage to be flown under a contract with the Military cannot always be determined by a carrier in advance of performance and, under the terms of the Act and the regulations, it is required to charge and collect the exact amount for ferry mileage which its tariff specifies. Thus, at the present time air carriers cannot comply with both the bid requirements of the Military and the provisions of their tariffs.

[2] Dockets 9916, 10051, 10011, 10487, 10005, 10227, and 10020.

Other than the exemption basis, no solution to this problem with respect to either the bid or tariff requirements, or both, has been suggested by any interested person although, as stated by MTMA, the matter has been under continuing study. Unless the carriers are afforded the exemption herein requested this impasse would preclude the carriers from meeting the bid requirements of the Military to their mutual disadvantage. Since we believe that the continued participation of air carriers in military charter traffic is in the public interest, essential to the financial integrity of many air carriers, and contributes to the development of an air-transportation system properly adapted to the needs of the national defense, we will grant the exemption requested except as limited herein, and permit the air carriers to continue to meet the military bidding requirements.

In addition, we have concluded that the exemption authority contained herein should be afforded equally to all carriers which otherwise would be unable to meet the bid requirements of MTMA while conforming to the terms of their tariffs. Our conclusion in this respect is intended to relieve qualified air carriers from the necessity of filing individual applications for exemption authority during the three month period ending September 30, 1960. Limitation of such exemptions to the three months ending September 30, 1960, will not preclude extension into subsequent periods if necessitated by circumstances apparent at that time.

Therefore, to the extent that section 403 of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 and Part 221 of Title 14 of the Code of Federal Regulations would otherwise require air carriers to apply the ferry rates stated in their tariffs to the actual ferry mileages where such mileage exceeds that estimated in bids or contracts with MTMA, the Board finds that the enforcement of such section of the Act and such regulations is not in the public interest and would be an undue burden on air carriers by reason of unusual circumstances affecting their operations.

Accordingly, pursuant to the provisions of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 (72 Stat. 731) and particularly sections 204(a) and 416(b) thereof,

It is ordered, That:

1. Subject to the conditions listed hereafter, an exemption from the provisions of section 403 of the Act and 14 CFR Part 221 is hereby granted to the extent that said section and regulations would otherwise require air carriers to apply the ferry rates stated in their tariffs to the actual ferry mileage in those cases where such mileage exceeds that estimated in bids or contracts with MTMA: Provided, That this exemption shall only apply with respect to charter operations, to be performed within the continental United States, at the request of the Military Traffic Management Agency, U.S. Army: And provided, further, That this exemption authority expires September 30, 1960.

2. The applications of Alaska Airlines, Inc., Hawaiian Airlines, Ltd., and The Flying Tiger Line Inc., are dismissed except insofar as granted herein.

3. Copies of this order shall be served upon Alaska Airlines, Inc., Hawaiian Airlines, Ltd., and The Flying Tiger Line Inc.

This order will be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

By the Civil Aeronautics Board.

TARIFF COMMISSION

TYPEWRITER-RIBBON CLOTH

Escape-Clause Report

JUNE 30, 1960.

The Tariff Commission today submitted to the President a report of its finding and recommendation in connection with "escape clause" investigation No. 7-85, conducted under section 7 of the Trade Agreements Extension Act of 1951, as amended. This investigation covered cotton broadwoven typewriter-ribbon cloth, provided for in paragraph 904 of the Tariff Act of 1930. This cloth is dutiable at various rates of duty under the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade, ranging from about 20 to 32 percent ad valorem. The cloth is also subject to an additional duty of 5 cents per pound on the long-staple cotton contained therein.

The Commission found that cotton broadwoven typewriter-ribbon cloth was being imported into the United States in such increased quantities, both actual and relative (to domestic production), as to cause serious injury to the domestic industry producing like or directly competitive cloth. The Commission also found that in order to remedy the serious injury it was necessary to modify the trade-agreement concessions to permit re-imposition on imports of such cloth of the rates originally provided in the Tariff Act of 1930, which range from about 28 to 48 percent ad valorem. The rate of 5 cents per pound on the long-staple-cotton content of typewriter-ribbon cloth is not affected.

Copies of the Commission's report are available as long as the limited supply lasts. Address requests to the U.S. Tariff Commission, Eighth and E Streets NW., Washington 25, D.C.

By direction of the Commission.

Any person who wishes to submit written data, views, or arguments concerning the proposed rule may do so by filing them with the Chief, Packers and Stockyards Branch, Livestock Division, Agricultural Marketing Service, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D.C., within 15 days after publication hereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

RED BAY STOCKYARD

Deposting of Stockyards

It has been ascertained, and notice is hereby given, that the stockyards named herein, originally posted on the respective dates specified below as being subject to the Packers and Stockyards Act, 1921, as amended (7 U.S.C. 181 et seq.), no longer come within the definition of a stockyard under said act for the reason that they are no longer being conducted or operated as public markets, and are, therefore, no longer subject to the provisions of the act.

Name of Stockyard and Date of Posting

Red Bay Stockyard, Red Bay, Ala.; August 26, 1959.
Hayes Sales Yard, Nampa, Idaho; January 14, 1955.
Cherokee Livestock Commission, Tyler, Tex. (formerly Rose City Livestock Auction); January 11, 1957.

Notice or other public procedure has not preceded promulgation of the foregoing rule since it is found that the giving of such notice would prevent the due and timely administration of the Packers and Stockyards Act and would, therefore, be impracticable and contrary to the public interest. There is no legal warrant or justification for not depositing promptly a stockyard which is no longer within the definition of that term contained in said act.

The foregoing is in the nature of a rule granting an exemption or relieving a restriction and, therefore, may be made effective in less than 30 days after publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER. This notice shall become effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

On June 17, 1960, a petition was filed on behalf of the respondents requesting authority to modify, as soon as possible, the current temporary schedule of rates and charges as indicated below, and requesting that the current schedule, as so modified, be continued in effect to and including July 31, 1962, unless extended or further modified by order entered prior to the latter date.

Note No. 2 would be renumbered as Note No. 1 and amended to read:

For each 28,000 pounds or fraction thereof in each purchase order of hogs shipped out by truck or rail, the maximum shall be $25 and minimum $20 for the first 17,000 pounds plus $0.33 (33¢) times the excess weight between 17,000 pounds and 28,000 pounds divided by the average weight of the hogs in the purchase order, with a maximum of $35 and minimum of $30 for each 28,000 pounds.

All interested persons who desire to be heard in the matter shall notify the Hearing Clerk, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D.C., within 15 days after the publication of this notice.

DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE

Bureau of Foreign Commerce

A. V. MARANO & CO., INC., ET AL.

Probation Order

In the matter of A. V. Marano & Co., Inc., Frank P. D'Acunto, Irving Greenbaum, 276 Fifth Avenue, New York 1, N.Y., Respondents, Case No. 271.

By charging letter of April 11, 1960, the Director, Investigation Staff, Bureau of Foreign Commerce, charged the respondents, A. V. Marano & Co., Inc., Frank P. D'Acunto, and Irving Greenbaum, with violations of the Export Control Act of 1949, as amended, and regulations issued thereunder, in connection with their failure to place destination control notices as required by the Export Regulations on commercial invoices related to two air parcel post shipments of cathode ray tubes and klystrons from the United States to West Germany.

By answer dated April 14, 1960, the respondents acknowledged service of the charging letter, admitted these charges, and cited factors in mitigation. By letter of May 16, 1960, the respondents, without prejudice and for the purpose of this compliance proceeding only, have admitted the allegations and charges aforesaid, waived all right to an oral hearing before a Compliance Commissioner, and consented to the entry of an order against them which would place them on probation for the period of six months from the date of an order to be issued. Respondents also waived all right of administrative appeal from, and judicial review of, such order. On May 20, 1960, the Director, Investigation Staff, agreed to acceptance of this consent order.

The Compliance Commissioner to whom this case was assigned, having reviewed the pleadings and evidence, has submitted to me his report and recommendation wherein he has recommended acceptance of the consent order.

Now, after considering the entire record including the report and recommendation of the Compliance Commissioner, I hereby make the following findings of fact.

1. During the times herein involved, A. V. Marano & Co., Inc., was a corporation located at 276 Fifth Avenue, New York, N.Y. and engaged in export-import business. Frank P. D'Acunto was President of the firm, and Irving Greenbaum was Secretary-Treasurer.

2. On or about August 5, 1958, the Marano firm exported via air parcel post from New York, pursuant to validated export licenses B8-616-30831 and B8-625-31051 issued by the Bureau of Foreign Commerce, five cathode ray tubes and five klystrons to a consignee in Hamburg, West Germany.

3. In each of the aforesaid exportations, the commercial invoices prepared and issued by the Marano firm to the West German consignee bore destination control notices which were incomplete in that they failed to show West Germany as the ultimate destination.

4. The respondents knew, or should have known, when these commercial invoices were prepared and issued, that the destination control notices were incomplete and not in conformity with the requirements of § 379.10(c)(3) (now 379.10(c)(4)) of the Export Regulations.

From the foregoing, the following is my conclusion.

The respondents, A. V. Marano & Co., Inc., Frank P. D'Acunto, and Irving Greenbaum, knowingly failed, omitted and neglected to place proper and full destination control notices on certain commercial invoices in connection with U.S. exportations as required by § 379.10 (c)(3) (now 379.10(c)(4)) of the Export Regulations, and have thereby violated and failed to comply with said Export Regulation.

In his report, the Compliance Commissioner said:

The instant case significantly illustrates the importance of placing the required destination control notice on commercial invoices. The subject exportations were made by air parcel post. Such shipments do not involve bills of lading. Thus, the material export control document which is actually received by the foreign consignee in such a shipment is the commercial invoice. It is important and necessary, therefore, in such a shipment that the required destination control notice be placed on the commercial invoice because this constitutes the essential means of bringing to the attention of the foreign consignee-purchaser the limitations which have been placed on the disposition of the commodities exported from the United States.

In mitigation of their admitted violations, the respondents have pointed out that their commercial invoices have printed on them in bold type the following: "These commodities licensed by U.S. for ultimate destination ---------- Diversion contrary to U.S. law is prohibited." They alleged that, in the instant cases, the ultimate destination, "West Germany" was omitted through the negligence and error of an employee who had been hired to replace the firm's regular export manager. The incidents occurred on the second day of the employment of this new man, who remained with the firm only one month and is no longer in its employ.

Compliance orders are not primarily intended to impose penalties. Rather they are essentially remedial actions, the primary objectives of which are to achieve effective enforcement of the U.S. Export Control Act and the regulations, orders and licenses issued thereunder, to deter violations, and to establish corrective values and standards of conduct consistent with the achievement of the U.S. Government policies set forth in the Act.

It was the Commissioner's conclusion that the facts of this case were such as to make the proposed consent order fully consistent with the remedial objectives of the law.

Now, therefore, after careful consideration of the entire record, and being of the opinion that the recommendation of the Compliance Commissioner and the following order are reasonable, fair, just, and necessary to achieve effective enforcement of the Export Control Act and regulations, orders and licenses issued thereunder, It is hereby ordered, Upon condition that the respondents, A. V. Marano & Co., Inc., Frank P. D'Acunto, and Irving Greenbaum, and each of them, during the period of six months from the date of this order, do not knowingly violate the Export Control Act of 1949, as amended, and all regulations, orders and licenses promulgated thereunder, the said respondents shall be permitted all export privileges as though this order had not been made, and, at the expiration of the six months' period, this order shall, without further action, be and become terminated. In the event, however, that it be found by the Director, Office of Export Supply, or such other official as may at that time be exercising his duties, after investigation, that the respondents or any of them have failed to comply with the foregoing condition in any respect during the aforesaid six months' period, such official may, summarily and without notice to the respondents, enter and publish an order against them revoking all outstanding validated licenses to which any of them may be a party, and denying to any of them, and to all persons and firms related to them, for the period of six months from the date of the supplemental order, all privileges of participating, directly or indirectly, in any manner or capacity, in any export transaction involving goods originating in whole or in part from the United States. The entry of such supplemental order shall not limit the Bureau of Foreign Commerce from taking such other action based on such violation as it may deem warranted.

In the event that such supplemental order is issued, respondents shall have the right to hearing and appeal therefrom as provided in the Export Regulations.

Dated June 30, 1960.

JOHN C. BORTON,
Director, Office of Export Supply.

[Valencia Orange Reg. 203, Amdt. 1]

PART 922—VALENCIA ORANGES GROWN IN ARIZONA AND DESIGNATED PART OF CALIFORNIA

Limitation of Handling

Findings. 1. Pursuant to the marketing agreement and Order No. 22, as amended (7 CFR Part 922), regulating the handling of Valencia oranges grown in Arizona and designated part of California, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601 et seq.; 68 Stat. 906, 1047), and upon the basis of the recommendation and information submitted by the Valencia Orange Administrative Committee, established under the said marketing agreement and order, as amended, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of handling of such Valencia oranges as hereinafter provided will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

2. It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this amendment until 30 days after publication hereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; 5 U.S.C. 1001 et seq.) because the time intervening between the date when information upon which this amendment is based became available and the time when this amendment must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient, and this amendment relieves restriction on the handling of Valencia oranges grown in Arizona and designated part of California.

Order, as amended. The provisions in paragraph (b)(1)(ii) of § 922.503 (Valencia Orange Regulation 203, 25 F.R. 5873) are hereby amended to read as follows:

(ii) District 2: 475,000 cartons.

Dated: July 1, 1960.

[Nectarine Order 6]

PART 937—NECTARINES GROWN IN CALIFORNIA

Limitation of Shipments

§ 937.322 Nectarine Order 6.

(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement and Order No. 37 (7 CFR Part 937) regulating the handling of nectarines grown in the State of California, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601–674), and upon the basis of the recommendations of the Nectarine Administrative Committee, established under the aforesaid marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of shipments of nectarines of the varieties hereinafter set forth, and in the manner herein provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable, unnecessary, and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (5 U.S.C. 1001 et seq.) in that, as hereinafter set forth, the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient; a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions hereof effective not later than the date hereinafter specified. A reasonable determination as to the supply of, and the demand for, such nectarines must await the development of the crop thereof, and adequate information thereon was not available to the Nectarine Administrative Committee until the date hereinafter set forth on which an open meeting was held, after giving due notice thereof, to consider the need for, and the extent of, regulation of shipments of such nectarines. Interested persons were afforded an opportunity to submit information and views at this meeting; the recommendation and supporting information for regulation during the period specified herein were promptly submitted to the Department after such meeting was held; shipments of the current crop of such nectarines are expected to begin on or about the effective date hereof; this section should be applicable to all such shipments in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act; the provisions of this section are identical with the aforesaid recommendation of the committee; and information concerning such provisions and effective time has been disseminated among handlers of such nectarines and compliance with the provisions of this section will not require of handlers any preparation therefor which cannot be completed by the effective time hereof. Such committee meeting was held on July 1, 1960.

(b) Order. (1) During the period beginning at 12:01 a.m., P.s.t., July 8, 1960, and ending at 12:01 a.m., P.s.t., November 1, 1960, no handler shall handle any package or container of Red Grand, Freedom, Le Grand, Golden Grand, Marigold, Grandeur, Late Le Grand, Gold King, or Golden Free nectarines unless:

(i) Such nectarines, when packed in a No. 26 standard lug box, or in a No. 27 standard lug box, are of a size that will pack, in accordance with the requirements of a standard pack, not more than 88 nectarines in the respective lug box; or

(ii) Such nectarines, when packed in any container other than in a No. 26 standard lug box, or in a No. 27 standard lug box, measure not less than two and one-quarter (2¼) inches in diameter: Provided, That not to exceed ten (10) percent, by count, of the nectarines in any such container may fail to meet such diameter requirement.

(2) When used herein, "diameter" and "standard pack" shall have the same meaning as set forth in the United States Standards for Nectarines (§§ 51.3145 to 51.3159 of this title); "standard basket" shall mean the standard basket set forth in paragraph 1 of section 828.1 of the Agricultural Code of California; "No. 26 standard lug box," and "No. 27 standard lug box," respectively, shall have the same meaning as set forth in section 828.4 of the Agricultural Code of California, and all other terms shall have the same meaning as when used in the marketing agreement and order.

PART 959—IRISH POTATOES GROWN IN MODOC AND SISKIYOU COUNTIES IN CALIFORNIA AND IN ALL COUNTIES IN OREGON EXCEPT MALHEUR COUNTY

Limitation of Shipments

Findings. (a) Marketing Agreement No. 114, as amended, and Order No. 59, as amended (7 CFR Part 959), effective under the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601–674), provide methods for limiting the handling of potatoes grown in the production area defined therein through the issuance of regulations authorized in Sections 959.1 through 959.88, inclusive, of the order. The Oregon-California Potato Committee, pursuant to § 959.51 of the order, has recommended that regulations limiting the handling of 1960 crop potatoes should be issued. The recommendations of the committee and information submitted by it, with other available information, have been considered and it is hereby found that the regulations hereinafter set forth will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(b) It is hereby found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER (5 U.S.C. 1001–1011) in that (1) the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient, (2) more orderly marketing in the public interest, than would otherwise prevail, will be promoted by regulating the shipment of potatoes, in the manner set forth below, on and after the effective date of this section, (3) compliance with this section will not require any special preparation on the part of handlers which cannot be completed by the effective date, (4) reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for such preparation, and (5) information regarding the committee's recommendations has been made available to producers and handlers in the production area.

§ 959.318 Limitation of shipments.

During the period from July 11, 1960, through October 10, 1960, no person shall handle any lot of potatoes unless such potatoes meet the requirements of paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section, or unless such potatoes are handled in accordance with paragraphs (c), (d), (e), and (f) of this section.

(a) Minimum quality requirements—(1) Grade. All varieties—U.S. No. 2, or better grade. (2) Size. All varieties—1⅞ inches minimum diameter.

(b) Minimum maturity requirements. (1) All varieties: "Moderately skinned" which means that not more than 10 percent of the potatoes in any lot may have more than one-half of the skin missing or "feathered."

(2) Not to exceed a total of 100 hundredweight of any variety of a lot of potatoes may be handled for any producer any seven consecutive days without regard to the aforesaid maturity requirements. Prior to each shipment of potatoes exempt from the above maturity requirements, the handler thereof shall report to the Committee the name and address of the producer of such potatoes, and each such shipment shall be handled as an identifiable entity.

(c) Special purpose shipments. (1) The minimum grade, size, and maturity requirements set forth in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section shall not be applicable to shipments of potatoes for any of the following purposes:

(i) Certified seed.

(ii) Livestock feed or grading and storing: Provided, That potatoes may not be shipped for such purposes outside of the district where grown except that potatoes grown in District No. 2 or District No. 4 may be shipped for grading and storing or for livestock feed within, or to, such districts for such purposes.

(iii) Charity.

(iv) Starch.

(v) Canning or freezing.

(2) The minimum grade, size, and maturity requirements set forth in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section shall be applicable to shipments of potatoes for each of the following purposes:

(i) Dehydration: Provided, That potatoes of a size not smaller than 1½ inches in diameter may be shipped if at least 65 percent of the potatoes grade not less than U.S. No. 1.

(ii) Export: Provided, That Size B potatoes may be shipped if they meet the requirements of the U.S. No. 1, or better, grade.

(iii) Potato chipping: Provided, That potatoes which fail to meet the requirements of paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section because of damage from shriveling or sprouting caused by the conditioning of the potatoes for potato chipping may be shipped: Provided further, That potatoes which have been conditioned for use for potato chipping and from which both ends are clipped or from which more than one-fourth of the potato has been cut away may be shipped if the remaining portion weighs 6 ounces or more and if such potatoes otherwise meet the applicable grade requirements: Provided further, That potatoes which by clipping second growth could be made to meet the aforesaid grade and size requirements may be shipped without such clipping.

(iv) Hash browns or potato salad: Provided, That Size B potatoes may be shipped if they meet the requirements of the U.S. No. 1, or better, grade.

(d) Safeguards. (1) Each handler making shipments of certified seed pursuant to paragraph (c) shall pay assessments on such shipments and shall furnish the committee with either a copy of the applicable certified seed inspection certificate or shall apply for and obtain a Certificate of Privilege and, upon request of the committee, furnish reports of each shipment made pursuant to each Certificate of Privilege.

(2) Each handler, making shipments of potatoes for canning, freezing, dehydration, export, potato chipping, or for use in hash browns or potato salad, pursuant to paragraph (c) of this section shall:

(i) First, apply to the committee for and obtain a Certificate of Privilege to make such shipments.

(ii) Pay assessments on such shipments, except shipments for canning or freezing.

(iii) Have such shipments inspected, except shipments for canning or freezing.

(iv) Upon request by the committee furnish reports of each shipment made pursuant to each Certificate of Privilege.

(v) At the time of applying to the committee for a Certificate of Privilege, or promptly thereafter, furnish the committee with a receiver's or buyer's certification that the potatoes so handled are to be used only for the purpose stated in such application and that such receiver will complete and return to the committee such periodic receivers' reports that the committee may require.

(vi) Mail to the office of the committee a copy of the bill of lading for each Certificate of Privilege shipment promptly after date of such shipment.

(vii) Bill each shipment directly to the applicable processor or receiver.

(e) Minimum quantity exception. Each handler may ship up to, but not to exceed, 5 hundredweight of potatoes any day without regard to the inspection and assessment requirements of this part, but this exception shall not apply to any portion of a shipment of over 5 hundredweight of potatoes.

(f) Inspection. For the purpose of operation under this part, and unless exempted from inspection by the provisions of this section, each required inspection certificate is hereby determined, pursuant to § 959.60(c), to be valid for a period of not to exceed 14 days following completion of inspection as shown on the certificate. The period of validity of an Inspection Certificate covering inspected and certified potatoes that are stored in refrigerated storage within 14 days of the inspection shall be the entire period such potatoes remain in such storage.

(g) Definitions. The terms "moderately skinned," "U.S. No. 1," "U.S. No. 2," and "Size B" shall have the same meaning as when used in the United States Standards for Potatoes (§§ 51.1540–51.1556 of this title), including the tolerances set forth therein. Other terms used in this section shall have the same meaning as when used in Marketing Agreement No. 114, as amended, and this part.

[Milk Order 116]

PART 1016—MILK IN NORTHEASTERN WISCONSIN MARKETING AREA

Order Amending Order

§ 1016.0 Findings and determination.

The findings and determinations hereinafter set forth are supplementary and in addition to the findings and determinations previously made in connection with the issuance of the aforesaid order and all of said previous findings and determinations are hereby ratified and affirmed, except insofar as such findings and determinations may be in conflict with the findings and determinations set forth herein.

(a) Findings upon the basis of the hearing record. Pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601 et seq.), and the applicable rules of practice and procedure governing the formulation of marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900), a public hearing was held upon certain proposed amendments to the tentative marketing agreement and to the order regulating the handling of milk in the Northeastern Wisconsin marketing area. Upon the basis of the evidence introduced at such hearing and the record thereof, it is found that:

(1) The said order as hereby amended, and all of the terms and conditions thereof, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the Act;

(2) The parity prices of milk, as determined pursuant to section 2 of the Act, are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supplies of feeds, and other economic conditions which affect market supply and demand for milk in the said marketing area, and the minimum prices specified in the order as hereby amended, are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk, and be in the public interest;

(3) The said order as hereby amended regulates the handling of milk in the same manner as, and is applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial or commercial activity specified in, a marketing agreement upon which a hearing has been held.

(4) All milk and milk products handled by handlers, as defined in the order as hereby amended, are in the current of interstate commerce or directly burden, obstruct, or affect interstate commerce in milk or its products; and

(5) It is hereby found that the necessary expense of the market administrator for the maintenance and functioning of such agency will require the payment by each handler, as his pro rata share of such expense, 5 cents per hundredweight or such amount not to exceed 5 cents per hundredweight as the Secretary may prescribe with respect to (a) all receipts within the month of milk from producers, including milk of such handler's own production; (b) any other source milk allocated to Class I pursuant to § 1016.46(b) and the corresponding step of § 1016.47, and (c) the applicable amount specified in § 1016.83 (a)(2) or (b)(2).

(b) Additional findings. It is necessary in the public interest to make this order amending the order effective not later than July 1, 1960. Any delay beyond that date would tend to disrupt the orderly marketing of milk.

The provisions of the said order are known to handlers. The recommended decision of the Deputy Administrator of the Agricultural Marketing Service was issued May 20, 1960, and the decision of the Assistant Secretary containing all amendment provisions of this order, was issued June 13, 1960. The changes effected by this order will not require extensive preparation or substantial alteration in method of operation for handlers. In the interest of the orderly marketing of milk, it is hereby found and determined that good cause exists for making this order amending the order effective July 1, 1960, and that it would be contrary to the public interest to delay the effective date of this amendment for 30 days after its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER. (See sec. 4(c), Administrative Procedure Act, 5 U.S.C. 1001 et seq.)

(c) Determinations. It is hereby determined that:

(1) The refusal or failure of handlers (excluding cooperative associations specified in section 8c(9) of the Act) of more than 50 percent of the milk, which is marketed within the marketing area, to sign a proposed marketing agreement, tends to prevent the effectuation of the declared policy of the Act;

(2) The issuance of this order, amending the order, is the only practical means pursuant to the declared policy of the Act of advancing the interests of producers as defined in the order as hereby amended; and

(3) The issuance of the order amending the order is approved or favored by at least two-thirds of the producers who during the determined representative period were engaged in the production of milk for sale in the marketing area. The required two-thirds of producers who participated in a referendum did not favor the issuance of this amended order. Therefore, the Assistant Secretary on June 20 (25 F.R. 5705) issued a notice of intention to terminate the order which gave interested parties an opportunity to submit views as to why the order should not be terminated. As a result of a resolution approving the amending order received from a cooperative association which voted negatively in the referendum, it has now been determined that more than two-thirds of all the producers who during the determined representative period were engaged in the production of milk for sale in the marketing area favor the issuance of the amending order. In view of such determination, the "Notice of Intention to Terminate the Order" signed by the Assistant Secretary dated June 20, 1960, is hereby withdrawn and revoked.

Order relative to handling. It is therefore ordered, that on and after the effective date hereof, the handling of milk in the Northeastern Wisconsin marketing area shall be in conformity to and in compliance with the terms and conditions of the aforesaid order, as hereby amended and the aforesaid order is hereby amended as follows:

1. Delete § 1016.5 (e), (f) and (h); delete the word "and" and replace the semicolon with a period, both at the end of § 1016.5(g); renumber such paragraph (g) as (f); and add immediately prior thereto a new paragraph (e) as follows:

(e) Forest County and Oconto County (exclusive of the Menominee Indian Reservation); Wisconsin; and

2. Delete from § 1016.8(b) the word "August" and substitute "July"; delete from the same paragraph the word "July" and substitute "June".

3. Substitute a colon for the period at the end of the second sentence in § 1016.10(a) and add the following proviso: "Provided, That for each of the months of July through November diversion of the milk of any such person shall be limited to 10 days (5 days in the case of every-other-day delivery)."

4. Delete § 1016.43(c) and substitute therefor the following:

(c) A nonpool plant (except as specified in paragraph (b) of this section) shall be Class I utilization, unless the following conditions and the conditions of paragraph (d) of this section are met:

(1) Utilization in another class is claimed by the transferor-handler in his report submitted pursuant to § 1016.30 for the month;

(2) The operator of the nonpool plant has utilization of an equivalent amount of skim milk and butterfat remaining in the class of use claimed in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph after the prior deduction in sequence beginning with the lowest-priced available class of use of any receipts thereat during the month of skim milk or butterfat, respectively, from plants not regulated under the provisions of any Federal marketing agreement or order; and

(3) The operator of the nonpool plant maintains books and records which are adequate for the verification of such utilization and are made available if requested by the market administrator.

(d) The classification of any skim milk or butterfat for which a claim of use is made under paragraph (c)(1) of this section shall be subject to the following further conditions:

(1) If any skim milk or butterfat was disposed of from the nonpool plant in the form of bulk milk, skim milk, or cream to another nonpool plant(s), the market administrator shall determine the classification of such skim milk or butterfat at the nonpool plant where actually used or processed when necessary to support a claim made pursuant to paragraph (c)(1) of this section;

(2) If Class I utilization at any nonpool plant at which classification of the pooled milk is made exceeds the receipts during the month from dairy farmers who constitute its regular source of Grade A milk, the transferred quantity shall be Class I to the extent of such excess: Provided, That (i) when, during the month, transfers to such nonpool plant have been made from regulated plants under more than one Federal marketing agreement or order, the amount of skim milk or butterfat so classified as Class I milk shall be a pro rata quantity based on the proportion of receipts at the nonpool plant from each of such regulated plants, and (ii) any amount of pooled milk remaining after the computation in (i) of this proviso shall be assigned in sequence to the available uses in the class claimed and any balance to the remaining uses in the nonpool plant; and

(3) If Class I utilization at any nonpool plant at which classification of the pooled milk is made does not exceed the receipts during the month from dairy farmers who constitute its regular source of Grade A milk, the transferred quantity which is in excess of the available use in the class claimed under paragraph (a) (1) of this section shall be classified in other classes in sequence beginning with the next lowest-priced available class of use.

5. Delete from the introductory portion of § 1016.51 the phrase "during the 18 month period following the effective date of this part shall be" and substitute therefor the phrase "shall be as follows during the period through November 1961".

6. In § 1016.59(b)(2) delete the words "delivery period" wherever they appear therein and substitute therefor the word "month".

7. Add the following after the cross-reference "§ 1016.59(b)" at the end of § 1016.59: "plus 5 cents: Provided, That the resulting price shall not be higher than the Class II price."

(Secs. 1–19, 48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U.S.C. 601–674)

Issued at Washington, D.C., this 30th day of June 1960, to be effective on and after the first day of July 1960.

Assistant Secretary.

AUTHORITY: §§ 1029.0 to 1029.71, inclusive, issued under secs. 1–19, 48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U.S.C. 601–674.

§ 1029.0 Findings and determinations.

(a) Findings upon the basis of the hearing record. Pursuant to the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (Secs. 1–19, 48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U.S.C. 601–674), and the applicable rules of practice and procedure, as amended, effective thereunder (7 CFR Part 900), a public hearing was held at Yakima, Washington, on March 2–3, 1960, and continued at Milton-Freewater, Oregon, on March 4, 1960, upon a proposed marketing agreement and a proposed marketing order regulating the handling of fresh prunes grown in designated counties in the State of Washington and in Umatilla County, Oregon. Upon the basis of the evidence introduced at such hearing, and the record thereof, it is found that:

(1) This order, and all of the terms and conditions thereof, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act;

(2) This order regulates the handling of prunes grown in the production area in same manner as, and is applicable only to persons in the respective classes of commercial or industrial activity specified in, a proposed marketing agreement upon which a hearing has been held;

(3) This order is limited in its application to the smallest regional production area which is practicable, consistently with carrying out the declared policy of the act, and the issuance of several orders applicable to subdivisions of the production area would not effectively carry out the declared policy of the act;

(4) This order prescribes, so far as practicable, such different terms applicable to different parts of the production area as are necessary to give due recognition to the differences in the production and marketing of prunes grown in the production area; and

(5) All handling of prunes grown in the production area as defined in the order is in the current of interstate or foreign commerce or directly burdens, obstructs, or affects such commerce.

(b) Additional findings. It is hereby found on the basis hereinafter indicated that good cause exists for making the provisions of this order effective not later than the date of publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER; and that it would be contrary to the public interest to postpone such effective date until 30 days after publication (60 Stat. 237; 5 U.S.C. 1001–1011). As soon as practical after such effective time it will be necessary to establish the Washington-Oregon Fresh Prune Marketing Committee, the agency charged with administration of the program. Subsequently, and prior to imposition of regulations, it will be necessary for the committee and the Secretary to initiate, and complete, various actions of both organizational and regulatory natures, including the formulation and promulgation of rules and regulations to govern operations under the program. The shipments of prunes begin during the first half of August, and for all practical purposes the entire crop is shipped by mid-October. Hence, for the program to be of maximum benefit during the 1960–61 shipping season the order should be made effective as soon as practicable. The provisions of the order are well known to handlers of fresh prunes since the public hearing in connection with the order was completed March 4, 1960, and the recommended decision and the final decision were published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on April 26, 1960 (25 F.R. 3579), and May 27, 1960 (25 F.R. 4680), respectively. Copies of the regulatory provisions of this order were made available to all known interested parties; such provisions do not place any restrictions on handlers until regulations are issued thereunder and shipment of fresh prunes takes place; and, therefore, compliance with such provisions will not require advance preparation on the part of persons subject thereto which cannot be completed prior to the effective date of regulation pursuant hereto.

(c) Determinations. It is hereby determined that:

(1) A marketing agreement regulating the handling of fresh prunes grown in designated counties in Washington and in Umatilla County, Oregon, upon which the aforesaid public hearing was held, has been signed by handlers (excluding cooperative associations of producers who were not engaged in processing, distributing, or shipping the fresh prunes covered by this order) who, during the period beginning April 1, 1959, and ending March 31, 1960, both dates inclusive, handled not less than 50 percent of the volume of fresh prunes covered by this order; and

(2) The issuance of this order is favored or approved by at least two-thirds of the producers who participated in a referendum on the question of its approval and who, during the determined representative period (April 1, 1959, through March 31, 1960) were engaged, within the production area specified in this order, in the production of fresh prunes for market, such producers having also produced for market at least two-thirds of the volume of fresh prunes represented in such referendum.

It is, therefore, ordered, That, on and after the effective date hereof, the handling of prunes grown in the said production area shall be in conformity to, and in compliance with, the terms and conditions of this order; and such terms and conditions are as follows:

ADMINISTRATIVE BODY

§ 1029.20 Establishment and membership.

There is hereby established a Washington-Oregon Fresh Prune Marketing Committee consisting of 9 members, each of whom shall have an alternate who shall have the same qualifications as the member for whom he is an alternate. Six of the members and their respective alternates shall be growers or officers or employees of corporate growers. Three of the members and their respective alternates shall be handlers, or officers or employees of handlers. The 6 members of the committee who are growers or employees or officers of corporate growers are hereinafter referred to as "grower members" of the committee; and the 3 members of the committee who shall be handlers, or officers or employees of handlers, are hereinafter referred to as "handler members" of the committee. Four of the grower members and their respective alternates shall be producers of prunes in District 1, and 2 of the grower members and their respective alternates shall be producers of prunes in District 2. Two of the handler members and their respective alternates shall be handlers of prunes in District 1, and 1 of the handler members and his respective alternate shall be handlers of prunes in District 2.

§ 1029.21 Term of office.

The term of office of each member and alternate member of the committee shall be for two years beginning April 1 and ending March 31: Provided, That the term of office of one-half the initial grower members and alternates from each district and one handler member and alternate from District 1 shall end March 31, 1961. Members and alternate members shall serve in such capacities for the portion of the term of office for which they are selected and have qualified and until their respective successors are selected and have qualified.

§ 1029.22 Nominations.

(a) Initial members. Nominations for each of the initial members of the committee, together with nominations for the initial alternate members for each position, may be submitted to the Secretary by individual growers and handlers. Such nominations may be made by means of group meetings of the growers and handlers concerned in each district. Such nominations, if made, shall be filed with the Secretary no later than the effective date of this part. In the event nominations for initial members and alternate members of the committees are not filed pursuant to, and within the time specified in, this section, the Secretary may select such initial members and alternate members without regard to nominations, but selections shall be on the basis of the representation provided for in § 1029.20.

(b) Successor members. (1) Except as may otherwise be prescribed pursuant to subparagraph (3) of this paragraph, the committee shall hold or cause to be held, not later than March 1 of each year, a meeting or meetings of growers and handlers in each district for the purpose of designating nominees for successor members and alternate members of the committee. At each such meeting a chairman and a secretary shall be selected by the growers and handlers eligible to participate therein. The chairman shall announce at the meeting the number of votes cast for each person nominated for member or alternate member and shall submit promptly to the committee a complete report concerning such meeting. The committee shall, in turn, promptly submit a copy of each such report to the Secretary.

(2) Only growers, including duly authorized officers or employees of corporate growers, who are present at such nomination meetings may participate in the nomination and election of nominees for grower members and their alternates. Each grower shall be entitled to cast only one vote for each nominee to be elected in the district in which he produces prunes. No grower shall participate in the election of nominees in more than one district in any one fiscal year. If a person is both a grower and a handler of prunes, such person may vote either as a grower or as a handler but not as both.

(3) Only handlers, including duly authorized officers or employees of handlers, who are present at such nomination meetings, may participate in the nomination and election of nominees for handler members and their alternates: Provided, That, in the event the committee determines that attendance at such nomination meetings is not representative of handlers generally, it may, with the approval of the Secretary, obtain nominations for handler members and their alternates by mail ballot. Each handler shall be entitled to cast only one vote for each nominee to be elected in the district in which he handles prunes, which vote shall be weighted by the volume of prunes handled by such handler during the then current fiscal year. No handler shall participate in the election of nominees in more than one district in any one fiscal year. If a person is both a grower and a handler of prunes, such person may vote either as a grower or as a handler but not as both.

§ 1029.23 Selection.

From the nominations made pursuant to § 1029.22, or from other qualified persons, the Secretary shall select the 6 grower members of the committee, the 3 handler members of the committee, and an alternate for each such member.

§ 1029.24 Failure to nominate.

If nominations are not made within the time and in the manner prescribed in § 1029.22, the Secretary may, without regard to nominations, select the members and alternate members of the committee on the basis of the representation provided for in § 1029.20.

§ 1029.25 Acceptance.

Any person selected by the Secretary as a member or as an alternate member of the committee shall qualify by filing a written acceptance with the Secretary promptly after being notified of such selection.

§ 1029.26 Vacancies.

To fill any vacancy occasioned by the failure of any person selected as a member or as an alternate member of the committee to qualify, or in the event of the death, removal, resignation, or disqualification of any member or alternate member of the committee, a successor for the unexpired term of such member or alternate member of the committee shall be nominated and selected in the manner specified in §§ 1029.22 and 1029.23. If the names of nominees to fill any such vacancy are not made available to the Secretary within a reasonable time after such vacancy occurs, the Secretary may fill such vacancy without regard to nominations, which selection shall be made on the basis of representation provided for in § 1029.20.

§ 1029.27 Alternate members.

An alternate member of the committee, during the absence or at the request of the member for whom he is an alternate, shall act in the place and stead of such member and perform such other duties as assigned. In the event of the death, removal, resignation, or disqualification of a member, his alternate shall act for him until a successor for such member is selected and has qualified. In the event both a member of the committee and his alternate are unable to attend a committee meeting, the member or the committee may designate any other alternate member from the same district and group (handler or grower) to serve in such member's place and stead.

§ 1029.30 Powers.

The committee shall have the following powers:

(a) To administer the provisions of this part in accordance with its terms;

(b) To receive, investigate, and report to the Secretary complaints of violations of the provisions of this part;

(c) To make and adopt rules and regulations to effectuate the terms and provisions of this part; and

(d) To recommend to the Secretary amendments to this part.

§ 1029.31 Duties.

The committee shall have, among others, the following duties:

(a) To select a chairman and such other officers as may be necessary, and to define the duties of such officers;

(b) To appoint such employees, agents, and representatives as it may deem necessary, and to determine the compensation and to define the duties of each;

(c) To submit to the Secretary as soon as practicable after the beginning of each fiscal period a budget for such fiscal period, including a report in explanation of the items appearing therein and a recommendation as to the rate of assessment for such period;

(d) To keep minutes, books, and records which will reflect all of the acts and transactions of the committee and which shall be subject to examination by the Secretary;

(e) To prepare periodic statements of the financial operations of the committee and to make copies of each such statement available to growers and handlers for examination at the office of the committee;

(f) To cause its books to be audited by a competent accountant at least once each fiscal year and at such time as the Secretary may request;

(g) To act as intermediary between the Secretary and any grower or handler;

(h) To investigate and assemble data on the growing, handling, and marketing conditions with respect to prunes;

(i) To submit to the Secretary such available information as he may request;

(j) To notify producers and handlers of all meetings of the committee to consider recommendations for regulations;

(k) To give the Secretary the same notice of meetings of the committee as is given to its members;

(l) To investigate compliance with the provisions of this part;

(m) With the approval of the Secretary, to redefine the districts into which the production area is divided, and to reapportion the representation of any district on the committee: Provided, That any such changes shall reflect, insofar as practicable, shifts in prune production within the districts and the production area.

§ 1029.32 Procedure.

(a) Six members of the committee, including alternates acting for members, shall constitute a quorum; and any action of the committee shall require the concurring vote of at least 6 members: Provided, That any action relating to regulations authorized by §§ 1029.52 and 1029.53 which would be effective in District 2 shall require the concurring vote of at least 2 members from District 2.

(b) The committee may provide for simultaneous meetings of groups of its members assembled at two or more designated places: Provided, That such meetings shall be subject to the establishment of communication between all such groups and the availability of loud speaker receivers for each group so that each member may participate in the discussions and other actions the same as if the committee were assembled in one place. Any such meeting shall be considered as an assembled meeting.

(c) The committee may vote by telegraph, telephone, or other means of communication, and any votes so cast shall be confirmed promptly in writing: Provided, That if an assembled meeting is held, all votes shall be cast in person.

§ 1029.33 Expenses and compensation.

The members of the committee, and alternates when acting as members, shall be reimbursed for expenses necessarily incurred by them in the performance of their duties under this part and may also receive compensation, as determined by the committee, which shall not exceed $10 per day or portion thereof spent in performing such duties: Provided, That at its discretion the committee may request the attendance of one or more alternates at any or all meetings, notwithstanding the expected or actual presence of the respective members, and may pay expenses and compensation, as aforesaid.

§ 1029.34 Annual report.

The committee shall, prior to the last day of each fiscal period, prepare and mail an annual report to the Secretary and make a copy available to each handler and grower who requests a copy of the report. This annual report shall contain at least: (a) A complete review of the regulatory operations during the fiscal period; (b) an appraisal of the effect of such regulatory operations upon the prune industry; and (c) any recommendations for changes in the program.

EXPENSES AND ASSESSMENTS

§ 1029.40 Expenses.

The committee is authorized to incur such expenses as the Secretary finds are reasonable and likely to be incurred by the committee for its maintenance and functioning and to enable it to exercise its powers and perform its duties in accordance with the provisions of this part during each fiscal period. The funds to cover such expenses shall be acquired by the levying of assessments as prescribed in § 1029.41.

§ 1029.41 Assessments.

(a) Each person who first handles prunes shall, with respect to the prunes so handled by him, pay to the committee upon demand such person's pro rata share of the expenses which the Secretary finds will be incurred by the committee during each fiscal period. Each such person's share of such expenses shall be equal to the ratio between the total quantity of prunes handled by him as the first handler thereof during the applicable fiscal period and the total quantity of prunes so handled by all persons during the same fiscal period. The payment of assessments for the maintenance and functioning of the committe may be required under this part throughout the period it is in effect irrespective of whether particular provisions thereof are suspended or become inoperative.

(b) The Secretary shall fix the rate of assessment to be paid by each such person. At any time during or after the fiscal period, the Secretary may increase the rate of assessment in order to secure sufficient funds to cover any later finding by the Secretary relative to the expenses which may be incurred. Such increase shall be applied to all prunes handled during the applicable fiscal period. In order to provide funds for the administration of the provisions of this part during the first part of a fiscal period before sufficient operating income is available from assessments on the current year's shipments, the committee may accept the payment of assessments in advance, and may also borrow money for such purpose.

§ 1029.42 Accounting.

(a) If, at the end of a fiscal period, the assessments collected are in excess of expenses incurred, such excess shall be accounted for as follows:

(1) Except as provided in subparagraphs (2) and (3) of this paragraph, each person entitled to a proportionate refund of any excess assessment shall be credited with such refund against the operation of the following fiscal period unless such person demands repayment thereof, in which event it shall be paid to him: Provided, That any sum paid by a person in excess of his pro rata share of the expenses during any fiscal period may be applied by the committee at the end of such fiscal period to any outstanding obligations due the committee from such person.

(2) The committee, with the approval of the Secretary, may establish and maintain during one or more fiscal years an operating monetary reserve in an amount not to exceed approximately one fiscal year's operational expenses. Funds in such reserve shall be available for use by the committee for all expenses authorized pursuant to § 1029.40.

(3) Upon termination of this part, any funds not required to defray the necessary expenses of liquidation shall be disposed of in such manner as the Secretary may determine to be appropriate: Provided, That to the extent practical, such funds shall be returned pro rata to the persons from whom such funds were collected.

(b) All funds received by the committee pursuant to the provisions of this part shall be used solely for the purposes specified in this part and shall be accounted for in the manner provided in this part. The Secretary may at any time require the committee and its members to account for all receipts and disbursements.

(c) Upon the removal or expiration of the term of office of any member of the committee, such member shall account for all receipts and disbursements and deliver all property and funds in his possession to his successor in office, and shall execute such assignments and other instruments as may be necessary or appropriate to vest in such successor full title to all of the property, funds, and claims vested in such member pursuant to this part.

RESEARCH

§ 1029.45 Marketing research and development.

The committee, with the approval of the Secretary, may establish or provide for the establishment of marketing research and development projects designed to assist, improve, or promote the marketing, distribution, and consumption of prunes. The expense of such projects shall be paid from funds collected pursuant to § 1029.41.

REGULATIONS

§ 1029.50 Marketing policy.

(a) Each season prior to making any recommendations pursuant to § 1029.51, the committee shall submit to the Secretary a report setting forth its marketing policy for the ensuing season. Such marketing policy report shall contain information relative to:

(1) The estimated total production of prunes within the production area;

(2) The expected general quality and size of prunes in the production area and in other areas;

(3) The expected demand conditions for prunes in different market outlets;

(4) The expected shipments of prunes produced in the production area and in areas outside the production area;

(5) Supplies of competing commodities;

(6) Trend and level of consumer income;

(7) Other factors having a bearing on the marketing of prunes; and

(8) The type of regulations expected to be recommended during the season.

(b) In the event it becomes advisable, because of changes in the supply and demand situation for prunes, to modify substantially such marketing policy, the committee shall submit to the Secretary a revised marketing policy report setting forth the information prescribed in this section. The committee shall publicly announce the contents of each marketing policy report, including each revised marketing policy report, and copies thereof shall be maintained in the office of the committee where they shall be available for examination by growers and handlers.

§ 1029.51 Recommendations for regulation.

(a) Whenever the committee deems it advisable to regulate the handling of any variety or varities of prunes in the manner provided in § 1029.52, it shall so recommend to the Secretary.

(b) In arriving at its recommendations for regulation pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section, the committee shall give consideration to current information with respect to the factors affecting the supply and demand for prunes during the period or periods when it is proposed that such regulation should be made effective. With each such recommendation for regulation, the committee shall submit to the Secretary the data and information on which such recommendation is predicated and such other available information as the Secretary may request.

§ 1029.52 Issuance of regulations.

(a) The Secretary shall regulate, in the manner specified in this section, the handling of prunes whenever he finds, from the recommendations and information submitted by the committee, or from other available information, that such regulations will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act. Such regulations may:

(1) Limit, during any period or periods, the shipment of any particular grade, size, quality, maturity, or pack, or any combination thereof, of any variety or varieties of prunes grown in any district or districts: Provided, That whenever any regulation under this subparagraph prescribes a specific maturity requirement applicable to the handling of any variety of prunes, such maturity requirement shall apply uniformly to all prunes of such variety grown in both districts;

(2) Limit the shipment of prunes by establishing, in terms of grades, sizes, or both, minimum standards of quality and maturity during any period when season average prices are expected to exceed the parity level;

(3) Fix the size, capacity, weight, dimensions, markings, or pack of the container, or containers, which may be used in the packaging or handling of prunes;

(4) Prescribe requirements, as provided in this paragraph, applicable to exports of any variety of prunes which are different from those applicable to the handling of the same variety to other destinations.

(b) The committee shall be informed immediately of any such regulation issued by the Secretary, and the committee shall promptly give notice thereof to growers and handlers.

§ 1029.53 Modification, suspension, or termination of regulations.

(a) In the event the committee at any time finds that, by reason of changed conditions, any regulations issued pursuant to § 1029.52 should be modified, suspended, or terminated, it shall so recommend to the Secretary.

(b) Whenever the Secretary finds, from the recommendations and information submitted by the committee or from other available information, that a regulation should be modified, suspended, or terminated with respect to any or all shipments of prunes in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act, he shall modify, suspend, or terminate such regulation. On the same basis and in like manner the Secretary may terminate any such modification or suspension. If the Secretary finds that a regulation obstructs or does not tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act, he shall suspend or terminate such regulation. On the same basis and in like manner the Secretary may terminate any such suspension.

§ 1029.54 Special purpose shipments.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in this section, any person may, without regard to the provisions of §§ 1029.41, 1029.52, 1029.53, and 1029.55, and the regulations issued thereunder, handle prunes (1) for consumption by charitable institutions; (2) for distribution by relief agencies; or (3) for commercial processing into products.

(b) Upon the basis of recommendations and information submitted by the committee, or from other available information, the Secretary may relieve from any or all requirements, under or established pursuant to §§ 1029.41, 1029.52, 1029.53, or § 1029.55, the handling of prunes in such minimum quantities, or types of shipments, or for such specified purposes (including shipments to facilitate the conduct of marketing research and development projects established pursuant to § 1029.45) as the committee, with approval of the Secretary, may prescribe.

(c) The committee shall, with the approval of the Secretary, prescribe such rules, regulations, and safeguards as it may deem necessary to prevent prunes handled under the provisions of this section from entering the channels of trade for other than the specific purposes authorized by this section. Such rules, regulations, and safeguards may include the requirements that handlers shall file applications and receive approval from the committee for authorization to handle prunes pursuant to this section, and that such applications be accompanied by a certification by the intended purchaser or receiver that the prunes will not be used for any purpose not authorized by this section.

§ 1029.55 Inspection and certification.

Whenever the handling of any variety of prunes is regulated pursuant to § 1029.52 or § 1029.53, each handler who handles prunes shall, prior thereto, cause such prunes to be inspected by the Federal or Federal-State Inspection Service, and certified by it as meeting the applicable requirements of such regulation: Provided, That inspection and certification shall be required for prunes which previously have been so inspected and certified only if such prunes have been regraded, resorted, repackaged, or in any other way further prepared for market. Promptly after inspection and certification, each such handler shall submit, or cause to be submitted, to the committee a copy of the certificate of inspection issued with respect to such prunes. The committee may, with the approval of the Secretary, prescribe rules and regulations modifying the inspection requirements of this section as to time and place such inspection shall be performed whenever it is determined it would not be practical to perform the required inspection at a particular location: Provided, That all such shipments shall comply with all regulations in effect.

REPORTS

(a) Upon request of the committee made with the approval of the Secretary, each handler shall furnish to the committee, in such manner and at such time as it may prescribe, such reports and other information as may be necessary for the committee to perform its duties under this part. Such reports may include, but are not necessarily limited to, the following: (1) The quantities of each variety of prunes received by a handler; (2) the quantities disposed of by him, segregated as to the respective quantities subject to regulation and not subject to regulation; (3) the date of each such disposition and the identification of the carrier transporting such prunes; and (4) the destination of each shipment of such prunes.

(b) All such reports shall be held under appropriate protective classification and custody by the committee, or duly appointed employees thereof, so that the information contained therein which may adversely affect the competitive position of any handler in relation to other handlers will not be disclosed. Compilations of general reports from data submitted by handlers are authorized, subject to the prohibition of disclosure of individual handler's identities or operations.

(c) Each handler shall maintain for at least two succeeding years such records of the prunes received, and of prunes disposed of, by such handler as may be necessary to verify reports pursuant to this section.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

§ 1029.61 Compliance.

Except as provided in this part, no person shall handle prunes, the shipment of which has been prohibited by the Secretary in accordance with the provisions of this part; and no person shall handle prunes except in conformity with the provisions and the regulations issued under this part.

§ 1029.62 Right of the Secretary.

The members of the committee (including successors and alternates), and any agents, employees, or representatives thereof, shall be subject to removal or suspension by the Secretary at any time. Each and every regulation, decision, determination, or other act of the committee shall be subject to the continuing right of the Secretary to disapprove of the same at any time. Upon such disapproval, the disapproved action of the committee shall be deemed null and void, except as to acts done in reliance thereon or in accordance therewith prior to such disapproval by the Secretary.

§ 1029.63 Effective time.

The provisions of this part and any amendments thereto shall become effective at such time as the Secretary may declare above his signature, and shall continue in force until terminated in one of the ways specified in § 1029.64.

§ 1029.64 Termination.

(a) The Secretary may at any time terminate the provisions of this part by giving at least one day's notice by means of a press release or in any other manner in which he may determine.

(b) The Secretary shall terminate or suspend the operation of any and all of the provisions of this part whenever he finds that such provisions do not tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(c) The Secretary shall terminate the provisions of this part at the end of any fiscal period whenever he finds that continuance is not favored by the majority of producers who, during a representative period determined by the Secretary, were engaged in the production area in the production of prunes for market in fresh form: Provided, That such majority has produced for market during such period more than 50 percent of the volume of prunes produced for fresh market in the production area; but such termination shall be effective only if announced on or before March 31 of the then current fiscal period.

(d) The provisions of this part shall, in any event, terminate whenever the provisions of the act authorizing them cease to be in effect.

§ 1029.65 Proceedings after termination.

(a) Upon the termination of the provisions of this part, the committee shall, for the purpose of liquidating the affairs of the committee, continue as trustees of all the funds and property then in its possession, or under its control, including claims for any funds unpaid or property not delivered at the time of such termination.

(b) The said trustees shall (1) continue in such capacity until discharged by the Secretary; (2) from time to time account for all receipts and disbursements and deliver all property on hand, together with all books and records of the committee and of the trustees, to such persons as the Secretary may direct; and (3) upon the request of the Secretary, execute such assignments or other instruments necessary or appropriate to vest in such person, full title and right to all of the funds, property, and claims vested in the committee or the trustees pursuant hereto.

(c) Any person to whom funds, property, or claims have been transferred or delivered, pursuant to this section, shall be subject to the same obligation imposed upon the committee and upon the trustees.

§ 1029.66 Effect of termination or amendment.

Unless otherwise expressly provided by the Secretary, the termination of this part or of any regulation issued pursuant to this part, or the issuance of any amendment to either thereof, shall not (a) affect or waive any right, duty, obligation, or liability which shall have arisen or which may thereafter arise in connection with any provision of this part or any regulation issued under this part, or (b) release or extinguish any violation of this part or of any regulation issued under this part, or (c) affect or impair any rights or remedies of the Secretary or of any other person with respect to any such violation.

§ 1029.67 Duration of immunities.

The benefits, privileges, and immunities conferred upon any person by virtue of this part shall cease upon the termination of this part, except with respect to acts done under and during the existence of this part.

§ 1029.68 Agents.

The Secretary may, by designation in writing, name any officer or employee of the United States, or name any agency or division in the United States Department of Agriculture, to act as his agent or representative in connection with any of the provisions of this part.

§ 1029.69 Derogation.

Nothing contained in the provisions of this part is, or shall be construed to be, in derogation or in modification of the rights of the Secretary or of the United States (a) to exercise any powers granted by the act or otherwise, or (b) in accordance with such powers, to act in the premises whenever such action is deemed advisable.

§ 1029.70 Personal liability.

No member or alternate member of the committee and no employee or agent of the committee shall be held personally responsible, either individually or jointly with others, in any way whatsoever, to any person for errors in judgment, mistakes, or other acts, either of commission or omission, as such member, alternate, employee, or agent, except for acts of dishonesty, wilful misconduct, or gross negligence.

§ 1029.71 Separability.

If any provision of this part is declared invalid or the applicability thereof to any person, circumstance, or thing is held invalid, the validity of the remainder of this part or the applicability thereof to any other person, circumstance, or thing shall not be affected thereby.

Title 16—COMMERCIAL PRACTICES

Chapter I—Federal Trade Commission

[Docket 7678 c.o.]

PART 13—PROHIBITED TRADE PRACTICES

Elmer Candy Company, Inc.

Subpart—Discriminating in price under sec. 2, Clayton Act—Price discrimination under 2(a): § 13.715 Charges and price differentials.

(Sec. 6, 38 Stat. 722; 15 U.S.C. 46. Interprets or applies sec. 2, 49 Stat. 1527; 15 U.S.C. 13) [Cease and desist order, Elmer Candy Company, Inc., New Orleans, La., Docket 7678, May 27, 1960]

This proceeding was heard by a hearing examiner on the complaint of the Commission charging a New Orleans candy manufacturer with discriminating in price in violation of section 2(a) of the Clayton Act by selling its products to some purchasers at higher prices than it sold to their competitors; for example, granting 10 percent and 20 percent price discounts to certain drugstores but none to competing drugstores, some of which sold more of its products than those favored.

Accepting a consent agreement, the hearing examiner made his initial decision and order to cease and desist which became on May 27 the decision of the Commission.

The order to cease and desist is as follows:

In the Matter of Scott-Mitchell House, Inc., a Corporation; and Abraham Linet, Individually and as an Officer of Said Corporation

This proceeding was heard by a hearing examiner on the complaint of the Commission charging Yonkers, N.Y., distributors of housewares, tools, etc., with making such false representations in advertising as that defective, scrapped, manufacturers' reject high speed drills were "Brand New! . . . Top Grade!", and advertising usual prices of various merchandise as reduced from "Reg." prices, which were excessive and fictitious.

The order to cease and desist is as follows:

Proposed Rule Making

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR

Bureau of Indian Affairs

[25 CFR Part 163]

ROADLESS AREAS ON INDIAN RESERVATIONS

Miscellaneous Amendments

Basis and purpose. Notice is hereby given that pursuant to the authority vested in the Secretary of the Interior by section 161 of the Revised Statutes (5 U.S.C. 22), it is proposed to amend 25 CFR Part 163 as set forth below. The purpose of this amendment is to exclude the 105,000 acres on Yakima Reservation known as the Goat Rocks Roadless Area, and the 130,000 acres on the Fort Apache Reservation known as the Mt. Thomas Roadless Area from the list of roadless areas heretofore set forth in § 163.1 of Title 25, CFR; also the 48,000 acres on Yakima Reservation known as the Mount Adams Wild Area is proposed to be excluded from the list of wild areas heretofore set forth in § 163.2 of Title 25, CFR. The Tribe has requested the elimination of these areas to facilitate the economic development of the areas.

It is the policy of the Department of the Interior whenever practicable, to afford the public an opportunity to participate in the rule making process. Accordingly, interested persons may submit written comments, suggestions, or objections with respect to the proposed amendments to the Bureau of Indian Affairs, Washington 25, D.C., within thirty days of the date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

ROGER ERNST,
Assistant Secretary of the Interior.

JUNE 30, 1960.

1. Section 163.1 is amended to provide for the elimination of the Mt. Thomas and Goat Rocks areas and to read as follows:

§ 163.1 Definition of roadless areas.

The National Resources Board defines a roadless area as one which contains no provision for the passage of motorised transportation and which is at least 100,000 acres in forested country and at least 500,000 acres in non-forested country. Under this definition the Secretary of the Interior ordered that the following be established as roadless areas on Indian reservations:

Name of area	Reservation	Approximate acreage
Wind River Mountains	Shoshone	220,000
Mesa Verde	Consolidated Ute	115,000

The boundaries of these areas are indicated in the appendix to this part.[1]

§ 163.2 [Revocation]

2. Section 163.2 is revoked.

3. Section 163.3 is amended to provide for the elimination of the words "wild areas" wherever they appear and to read as follows:

§ 163.3 Roads prohibited.

(a) Within the boundaries of these officially designated roadless areas it will be the policy of the Interior Department to refuse consent to the construction or establishment of any routes passable to motor transportation, including in this restriction highways, roads, truck trails, work roads, and all other types of way constructed to make possible the passage of motor vehicles either for transportation of people or for the hauling of supplies and equipment, unless the requirements of fire protection, commercial use for the Indians' benefit or actual needs of the Indians clearly demand otherwise.

(b) Foot trails and horse trails are not barred. Superintendents of reservations on which roadless areas have been established will be held strictly accountable for seeing that these areas are maintained in a roadless condition. Elimination of any areas or parts of areas from the restriction of this order will be made only upon a written showing of an actual and controlling need.

CROSS REFERENCE: For rights-of-way for highways over Indian lands, see Part 161 of this chapter.

SHELLED ALMONDS

U.S. Standards for Grades[2]

Notice is hereby given that the United States Department of Agriculture is considering the revision of United States Standards for Shelled Almonds (7 CFR, §§ 51.2105 to 51.2132) pursuant to the authority contained in the Agricultural Marketing Act of 1946 (Secs. 202-208, 60 Stat. 1087, as amended; 7 U.S.C. 1621-1627).

[1] The appendix to this part is not codified. It appears, however, at 3 F.R. 709-711, Mar. 22, 1938.

[2] Packing of the product in conformity with the requirements of these standards shall not excuse failure to comply with the provisions of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act or with applicable State laws and regulations.

At present the U.S. Fancy, U.S. Extra No. 1 and the U.S. No. 1 grades permit up to 2 percent, 4 percent and 5 percent, respectively, of split or broken kernels under the tolerance for "other defects." The proposed revision limits to 1 percent the amount of split or broken kernels permitted in each of these three grades.

The fourth change proposed is an increase in the tolerance for kernels damaged by chipping and scratching in the U.S. Select Sheller Run grade from 15 percent to 20 percent.

A number of minor changes in phraseology are included for clarification purposes.

All persons who desire to submit written data, views or arguments for consideration in connection with the proposed standards should file the same with the Chief, Fresh Products Standardization and Inspection Branch, Fruit and Vegetable Division, Agricultural Marketing Service, United States Department of Agriculture, South Building, Washington 25, D.C., not later than July 15, 1960.

The proposed standards, as revised, are as follows:

(6) For other defects. 5 percent, including not more than three-fifths of this amount, or 3 percent, for serious damage.

§ 51.2110 U.S. No. 1 Whole and Broken.

"U.S. No. 1 Whole and Broken" consists of shelled almonds of similar varietal characteristics which are clean and well dried, and which are free from decay, rancidity, insect injury, foreign material, doubles, particles and dust, and free from damage caused by mold, gum, shriveling, brown spot or other means.

(a) In this grade not less than 30 percent, by weight, of the kernels shall be whole. Doubles shall not be considered as whole kernels in determining the percentage of whole kernels.

(b) Unless otherwise specified, the minimum diameter shall be not less than 25/64 of an inch. (See §§ 51.2114 and 51.2115.)

(c) In order to allow for variations incident to proper grading and handling, the following tolerances, by weight, shall be permitted:

(2) For doubles. 35 percent;

(3) For foreign material. Three-tenths of 1 percent (0.30%);

(5) For undersize. 5 percent; and,

(6) For other defects. 5 percent, including not more than three-fifths of this amount, or 3 percent, for serious damage.

§ 51.2111 U.S. No. 1 Pieces.

"U.S. No. 1 Pieces" consists of shelled almonds which are not bitter, which are clean and well dried, and which are free from decay, rancidity, insect injury, foreign material, particles and dust, and free from damage caused by mold, gum, shriveling, brown spot or other means.

(a) Unless otherwise specified, the minimum diameter shall be not less than 25/64 of an inch. (See § 51.2114 and § 51.2115.)

(b) In order to allow for variations incident to proper grading and handling, the following tolerances, by weight, shall be permitted:

(3) For particles and dust. 1 percent; and,

(4) For other defects. 5 percent, including not more than three-fifths of this amount, or 3 percent, for serious damage.

MIXED VARIETIES

§ 51.2112 Mixed varieties.

Any lot of shelled almonds consisting of a mixture of two or more dissimilar varieties which meet the other requirements of any of the grades of U.S. No. 1, U.S. Select Sheller Run, U.S. Standard Sheller Run, U.S. No. 1 Whole and Broken may be designated as: "U.S. No. 1 Mixed;" "U.S. Select Sheller Run Mixed;" "U.S. Standard Sheller Run Mixed;" or "U.S. No. 1 Whole and Broken Mixed," respectively; but no lot of any of these grades may include more than 1 percent of bitter almonds mixed with sweet almonds.

UNCLASSIFIED

§ 51.2113 Unclassified.

"Unclassified" consists of shelled almonds which have not been classified in accordance with any of the foregoing grades. The term "unclassified" is not a grade within the meaning of these standards but is provided as a designation to show that no definite grade has been applied to the lot.

§ 51.2114 Size requirements.

The size may be specified in terms of range in count of whole almond kernels per ounce or in terms of minimum, or minimum and maximum diameter. When a range in count is specified, the whole kernels shall be fairly uniform in size, and the average count per ounce shall be within the range specified. Doubles and broken kernels shall not be used in determining counts. Count ranges per ounce commonly are used shown below, but other ranges may be specified: Provided, That the kernels are fairly uniform in size.

Count Range per Ounce

16 to 18, inclusive.
18 to 20, inclusive.
20 to 22, inclusive.
22 to 24, inclusive.
23 to 25, inclusive.
24 to 26, inclusive.
26 to 28, inclusive.
27 to 30, inclusive.
30 to 34, inclusive.
34 to 40, inclusive.
40 to 50, inclusive.
50 and smaller.

§ 51.2115 Tolerances for size.

(a) When a range is specified as, for example, "18/20," no tolerance for counts above or below the range shall be allowed.

(1) When the minimum, or minimum and maximum diameters are specified, a total tolerance of not more than 10 percent, by weight, may fail to meet the specified size requirements: Provided, That not more than one-half of this amount, or 5 percent, may be below the minimum size specified.

§ 51.2116 Application of tolerances.

The tolerances for the grades are to be applied to the entire lot, and a composite sample shall be taken for determining the grade. However, any container or group of containers in which the almonds are found to be materially inferior to those in the majority of the containers shall be considered a separate lot.

DEFINITIONS

§ 51.2117 Similar varietal characteristics.

"Similar varietal characteristics" means that the kernels are similar in shape and appearance. For example, long types shall not be mixed with short types, or broad types mixed with narrow types, and bitter almonds shall not be mixed with sweet almonds. Color of the kernels shall not be considered, since there is often a marked difference in skin color of kernels of the same variety.

§ 51.2118 Whole.

"Whole" means that there is less than one-eighth of the kernel chipped off or missing, and that the general contour of the kernel is not materially affected by the missing part.

§ 51.2119 Clean.

"Clean" means that the kernel is practically free from dirt and other foreign substance.

§ 51.2120 Well dried.

"Well dried" means that the kernel is firm and brittle, and not pliable or leathery.

§ 51.2121 Decay.

"Decay" means that the kernel is putrid or decomposed.

§ 51.2122 Rancidity.

"Rancidity" means that the kernel is noticeably rancid to the taste.

§ 51.2123 Insect injury.

"Insect injury" means that the insect, web, or frass is present or there is definite evidence of insect feeding.

§ 51.2124 Foreign material.

"Foreign material" means pieces of shell, hulls or other foreign matter which will not pass through a round opening 9/64 of an inch in diameter.

§ 51.2125 Doubles.

"Doubles" means kernels that developed in shells containing two kernels. One side of a double kernel is flat or concave.

§ 51.2126 Split or broken kernels.

"Split or broken kernels" means seven-eighths or less of complete whole kernels but which will not pass through a round opening 9/64 of an inch in diameter.

§ 51.2127 Particles and dust.

"Particles and dust" means fragments of almond kernels or other material which will pass through a round opening 9/64 of an inch in diameter.

§ 51.2128 Injury.

"Injury" means any defect which more than slightly detracts from the appearance of the individual almond, or the general appearance of the lot. The following shall be considered as injury:

(a) Chipped and scratched kernels when the general appearance of the lot is more than slightly affected, or when the affected area on an individual kernel aggregates more than the equivalent of a circle one-eighth inch in diameter.

§ 51.2129 Damage.

"Damage" means any defect which materially detracts from the appearance of the individual kernel, or the general appearance of the lot, or the edible or shipping quality of the almonds. Any one of the following defects or combination thereof, the seriousness of which exceeds the maximum allowed for any one defect shall be considered as damage:

(a) Chipped and scratched kernels, when the general appearance of the lot is materially affected, or when the affected area on an individual kernel aggregates more than the equivalent of a circle one-quarter inch in diameter;

(b) Mold, when visible on the kernel, except when white or gray and easily rubbed off with the fingers;

(c) Gum, when a film of shiny, resinous appearing substance covers more than one-eighth of the surface of the kernel;

(d) Shriveling, when the kernel is excessively thin for its size, or when materially withered, shrunken, leathery, tough or only partially developed: Provided, That partially developed kernels are not considered damaged if more than three-fourths of the pellicle is filled with meat; and,

(e) Brown spot on the kernel, either single or multiple, when the affected area aggregates more than the equivalent of a circle one-eighth inch in diameter.

§ 51.2130 Serious damage.

"Serious damage" means any defect which makes a kernel or piece of kernel unsuitable for human consumption, and includes decay, rancidity, insect injury and damage by mold.

§ 51.2131 Diameter.

"Diameter" means the greatest dimension of the kernel, or piece of kernel at right angles to the longitudinal axis. Diameter shall be determined by passing the kernel or piece of kernel through a round opening.

§ 51.2132 Fairly uniform in size.

"Fairly uniform in size" means that, in a representative sample, the weight of 10 percent, by count, of the largest whole kernels shall not exceed 1.70 times the weight of 10 percent, by count, of the smallest whole kernels.

[Docket No. AO-301-A1]

MILK IN WESTERN COLORADO MARKETING AREA

Decision on Proposed Amendments to Tentative Marketing Agreement and to Order

Pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601 et seq.), and the applicable rules of practice and procedure governing the formulation of marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900), a public hearing was held at Grand Junction, Colorado, on May 16, 1960, pursuant to notice thereof issued on April 15, 1960 (25 F.R. 3422).

Upon the basis of the evidence introduced at the hearing and the record thereof, the Deputy Administrator, Agricultural Marketing Service, on June 20, 1960 (25 F.R. 5774) filed with the Hearing Clerk, United States Department of Agriculture, his recommended decision containing notice of the opportunity to file written exceptions thereto. No exceptions to said recommended decision were filed.

The material issues on the record of the hearing relate to:

1. Class I price.
2. The classification and pricing of other milk.

On the basis of the record of this hearing a provision under which all class prices would have expired May 31, 1960, has been suspended, effective June 1, 1960, pending completion of amendment action on the record.

Findings and conclusions. The following findings and conclusions on the material issues are based on evidence presented at the hearing and the record thereof:

1. The method of determining the Class I price should be continued unchanged at this time.

The Western Colorado Class I price is determined by adding $2.05 each month to the basic formula price for the preceding month. The order provided that this price be effective for the first 18 months of order operation (December 1958 through May 1960) in order to afford a review of the pricing provisions after the order had been in operation a full year.

Producers proposed that these Class I pricing provisions be continued. A handler witness supported their continuation and no testimony was offered in opposition to their continuation.

For an early three months of operation of the order, January, February and March 1959, from 86.5 to 91.7 percent of producer milk was used as Class I milk, the weighted three-month average being 89.2 percent. For the same months of 1960 Class I utilization ranged from 88.6 to 90.2 percent, with a weighted average of 89.3 percent. The ratio of milk supplies to fluid sales has thus maintained a very stable relationship.

Since promulgation of the Western Colorado order, Federal milk marketing orders have been issued for the Great Basin (Salt Lake City) and Colorado Springs-Pueblo areas. Substantially larger volumes of milk are priced under these orders than under the Western Colorado order. The 1959 average Class I price of the Western Colorado order was $5.077, as compared to the $5.25 initial Class I price of the Great Basin order. The Colorado Springs-Pueblo order adds a $2.20 Class I differential to a basic formula price identical with that in the Western Colorado order, so that the Class I price under that order exceeds the Western Colorado price by 15 cents per hundredweight. These orders have not been in effect sufficient time to evaluate their effect on the Western Colorado market.

The question of providing a new expiration date was raised at the hearing, but such action does not appear necessary. Should a significant change occur in the relationship of milk supplies to Class I sales in this market it is evident that there will be opportunity to reconsider pricing provisions at a future hearing. It is therefore concluded that the Class I pricing provisions may be continued without a fixed expiration date.

2. Class II milk should include all of the skim milk and butterfat heretofore defined as Class II milk and Class III milk. The Class II price should be the basic formula price for the current month.

Class II milk now includes all skim milk and butterfat used to produce ice cream, frozen desserts, ice cream mix, frozen dessert mix, yogurt, eggnog, aerated cream, skim condensed milk, whole condensed milk and cottage cheese. Class III is skim milk and butterfat: (1) Used to produce any product other than a fluid milk product or products designated as Class II; (2) in inventory of fluid milk products on hand at the end of the month; (3) accounted for as livestock feeds; (4) in skim milk dumped after prior notification to and opportunity for verification by the market administrator; (5) in shrinkage not to exceed 2 percent of skim milk and butterfat received directly from producers; and (6) in shrinkage of other source milk.

The Class II price under the order is now the basic formula price plus 20 cents. The basic formula price is the higher of (1) the midwest condensery pay price for milk received from dairy farmers during the month, or (2) a butter-powder formula price. The Class III price is the butter-powder formula price minus 13 cents.

The Western Colorado Milk Producers Association proposed that Class II milk and Class III milk be combined into one use class to be designated as Class II and priced at the basic formula level. In support of this proposal producer and handler witnesses stated that it would encourage the use of more Grade A milk by local plants in the manufacturing of ice cream and cottage cheese.

There has been a very substantial reduction during the past year in the amount of milk utilized by pool plants in the manufacture of ice cream. Milk not utilized in fluid milk products, ice cream or cottage cheese must be transported substantial distances to be manufactured into those products now designated as Class III.

In the marketing area there are three nonpool plants making ice cream, two of which also make cottage cheese. The only manufacture of Class III products in the marketing area is butter. However, butter plants buy only cream. Consequently, there is no market for Class III milk as such in the marketing area. In view of the limited outlets for excess milk in this market it is important that handlers accept and utilize the maximum quantities of producer milk for cottage cheese and ice cream.

Health authorities in the marketing area do not require that milk utilized in other than Class I products be obtained from approved Grade A sources. Milk from any source may be used in the various dispositions heretofore contained in Class II or Class III. Grade A milk not needed for fluid disposition in the Western Colorado market must compete for sales with milk from ungraded sources. Lowering the price to the level herein provided will price producer milk at a competitive level for use in these products. It is concluded, therefore, that the price of milk in all such dispositions should be fixed at the same level and be classified as Class II at the basic formula price. Such pricing of milk for manufacturing uses approximates that in the nearby Federal order markets of Great Basin and Colorado Springs-Pueblo.

Rulings on proposed findings and conclusions. Briefs and proposed findings and conclusions were filed on behalf of certain interested parties in the market. These briefs, proposed findings and conclusions and the evidence in the record were considered in making the findings and conclusions set forth above. To the extent that the suggested findings and conclusions filed by interested parties are inconsistent with the findings and conclusions set forth herein, the requests to make such findings or reach such conclusions are denied for the reasons previously stated in this decision.

General findings. The findings and determinations hereinafter set forth are supplementary and in addition to the findings and determinations previously made in connection with the issuance of the aforesaid order and all of said previous findings and determinations are hereby ratified and affirmed, except insofar as such findings and determinations may be in conflict with the findings and determinations set forth herein.

(a) The tentative marketing agreement and the order, as hereby proposed to be amended, and all of the terms and conditions thereof, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the Act;

(b) The parity prices of milk as determined pursuant to section 2 of the Act are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supplies of feeds, and other economic conditions which affect market supply and demand for milk in the marketing area, and the minimum prices specified in the proposed marketing agreement and the order, as hereby proposed to be amended, are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk, and be in the public interest; and

(c) The tentative marketing agreement and the order, as hereby proposed to be amended, will regulate the handling of milk in the same manner as, and will be applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activity specified in, a marketing agreement upon which a hearing has been held.

Marketing agreement and order. Annexed hereto and made a part hereof are two documents entitled respectively,

"Marketing Agreement Regulating the Handling of Milk in the Western Colorado Marketing Area", and "Order Amending the Order Regulating the Handling of Milk in the Western Colorado Marketing Area", which have been decided upon as the detailed and appropriate means of effectuating the foregoing conclusions.

It is hereby ordered, That all of this decision, except the attached marketing agreement, be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. The regulatory provisions of said marketing agreement are identical with those contained in the order as hereby proposed to be amended by the attached order which will be published with this decision.

Determination of representative period. The month of April 1960 is hereby determined to be the representative period for the purpose of ascertaining whether the issuance of the attached order amending the order regulating the handling of milk in the Western Colorado marketing area, is approved or favored by producers, as defined under the terms of the order as hereby proposed to be amended, and who, during such representative period, were engaged in the production of milk for sale within the aforesaid marketing area.

Issued at Washington, D.C., this 30th day of June 1960.

CLARENCE L. MILLER,
Assistant Secretary.

Order[1] Amending the Order Regulating the Handling of Milk in the Western Colorado Marketing Area

§ 980.0 Findings and determinations.

The findings and determinations hereinafter set forth are supplementary and in addition to the findings and determinations previously made in connection with the issuance of the aforesaid order and all of said previous findings and determinations are hereby ratified and affirmed, except insofar as such findings and determinations may be in conflict with the findings and determinations set forth herein.

(a) Findings upon the basis of the hearing record. Pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601 et seq.), and the applicable rules of practice and procedure governing the formulation of marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900), a public hearing was held upon certain proposed amendments to the tentative marketing agreement and to the order regulating the handling of milk in the Western Colorado marketing area. Upon the basis of the evidence introduced at such hearing and the record thereof, it is found that:

(1) The said order as hereby amended, and all of the terms and conditions thereof, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the Act;

(2) The parity prices of milk, as determined pursuant to section 2 of the Act, are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supplies of feeds, and other economic conditions which affect market supply and demand for milk in the said marketing area, and the minimum prices specified in the order as hereby amended, are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk, and be in the public interest;

(3) The said order as hereby amended, regulates the handling of milk in the same manner as, and is applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial or commercial activity specified in, a marketing agreement upon which a hearing has been held.

Order relative to handling. It is therefore ordered, that on and after the effective date hereof, the handling of milk in the Western Colorado marketing area shall be in conformity to and in compliance with the terms and conditions of the aforesaid order, as hereby amended, and the aforesaid order is hereby amended as follows:

§ 980.22 [Amendment]

1. Amend § 980.22(l)(2) to read as follows:

(2) On or before the 6th day of each month the minimum price for Class II milk computed pursuant to § 980.51(b) and the Class II butterfat differential computed pursuant to § 980.52(b) each for the previous month; and

2. Amend § 980.41 to read as follows:

§ 980.41 Classes of utilization.

Subject to the conditions set forth in §§ 980.43 and 980.44, the classes of utilization shall be as follows:

(a) Class I milk. Class I milk shall be all skim milk and butterfat (1) disposed of in the form of fluid milk products except those classified pursuant to paragraph (b)(3) and (4) of this section, or (2) not specifically accounted for as Class II utilization.

(b) Class II milk. Class II milk shall be all the skim milk and butterfat: (1) used to produce any product other than a fluid milk product, (2) in inventory of fluid milk products on hand at the end of the month, (3) accounted for as livestock feed, (4) in skim milk dumped after prior notification to and opportunity for verification by the market administrator, (5) in shrinkage not to exceed 2 percent of skim milk and butterfat received directly from producers, and (6) in shrinkage of other source milk.

3. Amend § 980.43 to read as follows:

§ 980.43 Responsibility of handlers and reclassification of milk.

(a) All skim milk and butterfat shall be Class I unless the handler who first receives such skim milk or butterfat can prove to the market administrator that such skim milk or butterfat should be classified as Class II milk.

(b) Any skim milk or butterfat shall be reclassified if verification by the market administrator discloses that the original classification was incorrect.

4. Amend § 980.44(a) to read as follows:

§ 980.44 Transfers.

Skim milk and butterfat disposed of each month from a fluid milk plant shall be classified:

(a) As Class I milk, if transferred in the form of a fluid milk product to a fluid milk plant of another handler, except a producer-handler, unless utilization in another class is claimed by both handlers in their reports submitted for the month to the market administrator pursuant to § 980.30 subject in either event to the following conditions:

(1) The receiving plant has utilized in such class an equivalent amount of skim milk and butterfat, respectively; and

(2) Such skim milk and butterfat shall be classified so as to allocate to producer milk the greatest possible total Class I utilization in the two plants;

5. Amend § 980.44(d) (1) and (3) to read as follows:

(1) The transferring-handler claims Class II utilization in a product specified in § 980.41(b);

(3) Not less than an equivalent amount of skim milk and butterfat was actually used as Class II in such transferor's plant;

6. Amend § 980.45 to read as follows:

§ 980.45 Computation of the skim milk and butterfat in each class.

For each month, the market administrator shall correct for mathematical and for other obvious errors the reports of receipts and utilization for the fluid milk plant(s) of each handler and shall compute the pounds of butterfat and skim milk in Class I milk, and Class II milk for such handler: Provided, That if any of the water contained in the milk from which a product is made is removed before the product is utilized or disposed of by a handler, the pounds of skim milk disposed of in such product shall be considered to be an amount equivalent to the nonfat dry milk solids contained in such product, plus all of the water originally associated with such solids.

7. Amend §980.46 to read as follows:

§ 980.46 Allocation of skim milk and butterfat classified.

After making the computations pursuant to § 980.45 the market administrator shall determine the classification of milk received from producers of fluid milk plant(s) of each handler as follows:

(a) Skim milk shall be allocated in the following manner:

(1) Subtract from the total pounds of skim milk in Class II the pounds of skim milk allocated to shrinkage in skim milk received from producers pursuant to § 980.41(b)(5);

(2) Subtract from the pounds of skim milk remaining in each class, in series beginning with Class II, the pounds of skim milk in other source milk received from a plant at which the handling of milk is fully subject to the pricing and payment provisions of another marketing agreement and order issued pursuant to the Act;

(3) Subtract from the pounds of skim milk remaining in each class, in series beginning with Class II, the pounds of skim milk received from other fluid milk plants according to its classification as determined pursuant to § 980.44(a);

(4) Subtract from the pounds of skim milk remaining in each class, the pounds of skim milk received from other fluid milk plants according to its classification as determined pursuant to § 980.44(a);

(5) Subtract from the pounds of skim milk remaining in each class, in series beginning with Class II, the pounds of skim milk contained in inventory of fluid milk products on hand at the beginning of the month;

(6) Add to the pounds of skim milk remaining in Class II the pounds of skim milk subtracted pursuant to subparagraph (1) of this paragraph; and

(7) Subtract from the pounds of skim milk remaining in each class any amount by which the pounds of skim milk remaining in both classes exceed the pounds of skim milk in milk received from producers in series beginning with Class II. Such excess shall be called "overage".

(b) Butterfat shall be allocated in accordance with the same procedure outlined for skim milk in paragraph (a) of this section.

(c) Determine the weighted average butterfat content of each class of milk computed pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section.

8. Amend § 980.51 to read as follows:

§ 980.51 Class prices.

Subject to the provisions of §§ 980.52 and 980.53 the minimum prices per hundredweight to be paid by each handler for milk received at his fluid milk plant from producers during the month shall be as follows:

(a) Class I milk. The basic formula price for the preceding month plus $2.05.

(b) Class II milk. The basic formula price for the current month.

§ 980.52 [Amendment]

9. Amend § 980.52 to read as follows:

(b) Class II milk. Multiply such price for the current month by 0.120.

§ 980.70 [Amendment]

10. Amend § 980.70(c) to read as follows:

(c) Add a reclassification charge equal to the difference between the Class I price value for the current month and the price value applicable to closing inventory for the preceding month for the skim milk and butterfat subtracted from Class I pursuant to § 980.46(a)(5) and the corresponding step of § 980.46(b) which is not in excess of the skim milk and butterfat remaining in Class II in the previous month pursuant to § 980.46(a)(5) and the corresponding step of § 980.46(b); and

[F.R. Doc. 60-6264; Filed, July 6, 1960; 8:54 a.m.]

[1] This order shall not become effective unless and until the requirements of § 900.14 of the rules of practice and procedure governing proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and marketing orders have been met.

[Reg. Docket No. 162]

TECHNICAL STANDARD ORDERS FOR AIRCRAFT MATERIALS PARTS, PROCESSES, AND APPLIANCES

Oxygen Mask Assembly

Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (§ 405.27, 24 F.R. 2196), a notice of proposed rule making to amend Part 514 of the regulations of the Administrator by adding § 514.69 establishing minimum performance standards for oxygen masks for use on civil aircraft of the United States engaged in air carrier operations, was published in 24 F.R. 8682.

Due consideration was given to all comments received and as a result, the FAA Standard in the original proposal is being replaced by an industry standard recently made available. As the change is of a substantive nature, this new proposal will replace the notice of proposed rule making, 24 F.R. 8682, which is hereby withdrawn.

Interested persons may participate in the making of the proposed rule by submitting such written data, views or arguments as they may desire. Communications should be submitted in duplicate to the Docket Section of the Federal Aviation Agency, Room B-316, 1711 New York Avenue NW., Washington 25, D.C. All communications received on or before August 22, 1960, will be considered by the Administrator before taking action on the proposed rule. The proposals contained in this notice may be changed in light of the comments received. All comments submitted will be available, in the Docket Section, for examination by interested persons when the prescribed date for return of comments has expired. This proposal will not be given further publication as a draft release.

This amendment is proposed under the authority of sections 313(a) and 601 of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 (72 Stat. 752, 775; 49 U.S.C. 1354(a), 1421).

In consideration of the foregoing it is proposed to amend Part 514 as follows:

By adding § 514.69 as follows:

§ 514.69 Oxygen mask assembly, continuous flow, passenger (for air carrier aircraft)—TSO–C64.

(a) Applicability—(1) Minimum performance standards. Minimum performance standards are hereby established for passenger oxygen masks which are to be approved for use on civil aircraft of the United States. New models of passenger oxygen masks manufactured for installation on civil aircraft on or after the effective date of this section shall meet the standards set forth in AIA National Aircraft Standard, NAS 1179, "Oxygen Mask Assembly, Passenger," dated December 1959,[1] with exceptions to the standard listed in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph.[2] Passenger oxygen mask models approved by the Administrator prior to the effective date of this section may continue to be manufactured under the provisions of their original approval.

(2) Exceptions. (i) The following specifically numbered subparagraphs in NAS 1179 do not concern minimum performance and therefore are not essential to compliance with this section: Parts 2.0 in its entirety, 3.1.1, 3.1.2, 3.1.3.7, 3.1.8, 3.1.10, 3.1.12, 3.2.1, 3.2.4, 3.3.7.1, 3.3.10, 3.3.11 in its entirety, 4.1.7.2, 4.1.7.3, 4.1.7.4, 4.1.9 in its entirety, 4.1.11, 4.2, 4.3.5, and 5.2 through 5.8.

(ii) Revisions to subparagraphs of NAS 1179 noted herein shall be a part of this standard.

(i) 1.1 Purpose

Replace text by: This specification defines the minimum requirements for the design, construction, and performance of a continuous flow oxygen mask for emergency use by passengers in civil aircraft operating at cabin pressure altitudes above 25,000 feet and up to and including 40,000 feet.

(ii) 1.2 Description

Add to the end of the first paragraph: Other acceptable methods for determining the oxygen percentage in the inspired gas include gas measurements made directly on inspired gas and in tests at altitude on human subjects, such as oximeter measurements. When an oximeter is used, arterial saturation values of 98, 95, 89, and 79, shall be considered to correspond to oxygen partial pressures in the inspired gas of 149, 122, 100, and 83.8 mm. Hg, respectively.

INTERIM POLICY ON VHF TELEVISION CHANNEL ASSIGNMENTS; TELEVISION ENGINEERING STANDARDS

Further Notice of Proposed Rule Making

1. Pursuant to our notice of extension of time for filing comments in the above-entitled proceeding (FCC 60-668) issued on June 9, 1960 there are attached Field Strength Charts[1] for Channels 2-6 and Channels 7-13. These charts are substituted for similar charts previously released in this proceeding.

2. The charts for Channels 2-6 are the same as those issued with our May 5, 1960, notice except for the label. The charts for Channels 7-13 were derived by merging the present high VHF Ad Hoc groundwave curves with the latest RPAC tropospheric curves.

3. The charts may be used for the preparation of comments and data in this proceeding and, in the absence of more refined data with respect to radio wave propagation, are proposed to replace the Field Strength Charts for the VHF channels in § 3.699 of the Commission's rules. The Commission will continue to seek additional data and measurements as well as refinements of the methods of analysis and prediction, in an effort to improve the accuracy and reliability of these charts.

Pursuant to section 4 of the Act of August 27, 1958 (7 U.S.C. 1904) and the statement of policy thereunder in 9 CFR 181.1, the following table lists the establishments operated under Federal inspection under the Meat Inspection Act (21 U.S.C. 71 et seq.) which were officially reported during the period of June 1 to June 24, inclusive, as humanely slaughtering and handling the species of livestock respectively designated for such establishments in the table. This listing is a supplement to the publication issued on June 28 (25 F.R. 5954) and represents those establishments and species which were reported too late to be included in the earlier publication, or which have come into compliance with respect to species indicated since the official June 1 report was completed. The establishment number given with the name of the establishment is branded on each carcass of livestock inspected at that establishment. The table should not be understood to indicate that all species of livestock slaughtered at a listed establishment are slaughtered and handled by humane methods unless all species are listed for that establishment in the table. Nor should the table be understood to indicate that the affiliates of any listed establishment use only humane methods:

Bureau of Foreign Commerce

[Case No. 270]

OFFICE APPLIANCE CO. (1955) LTD. ET AL.

Order Revoking Export Licenses and Denying Export Privileges

In the matter of The Office Appliance Company (1955) Ltd., P. S. Chow, Alexandra House, 18 Chater Road, Hong Hong; Commercial Appliance Company, W. W. Sung, 13 Wellington Street, Hong Kong; respondents, Case No. 270.

By charging letter of December 18, 1959, the Director, Investigation Staff, Bureau of Foreign Commerce, has charged the respondents, The Office Appliance Company (1955) Ltd., P. S. Chow, Commercial Appliance Company, and W. W. Sung, with violations of the Export Control Act of 1949, as amended, and regulations promulgated thereunder, in connection with unauthorized reexportations and transshipments to Communist China of sixteen (16) calculating machines which were licensed for export from the United States to Hong Kong as the ultimate destination.

On January 13, 1960 the charging letter was duly served upon the respondents, The Office Appliance Company (1955) Ltd., and P. S. Chow. By their answers, dated January 25, 1960, to the charging letter, these respondents have admitted the charges therein against them and have submitted reasons in mitigation thereof. By letter of April 15, 1960 from their attorneys to the Director, Investigation Staff, they have, without prejudice and for the purpose of this compliance proceeding only, admitted the facts and charges in the charging letter, waived oral hearing thereon before a Compliance Commissioner, and consented to the entry of an order against them under which, in substance, both respondents would be denied all export privileges for the period of two years, with curtailment of the effective denial to six months in the case of The Office Appliance Company (1955) Ltd. and twelve months in the case of P. S. Chow. On May 2, 1960 the Director, Investigation Staff, agreed to this consent order. On May 4, 1960, in accordance with § 382.10 of the Export Regulations, the Compliance Officer to whom this matter had been assigned held an informal conference, with the attorneys for the aforesaid respondents present, when the attorney of the Department of Commerce General Counsel's Office informally presented evidence in this case.

Service of the charging letter upon respondents, Commercial Appliance Company and W. W. Sung, was effected within the terms of § 382.3(b) of the Export Regulations. On January 13, 1960, the charging letter was transmitted by registered mail in Hong Kong to each of the aforesaid respondents at their last known address. The Hong Kong Post Office returned these, marked "Unclaimed". Further efforts by the Hong Kong Post Office and U.S. Government authorities to deliver the charging letter to these respondents were unsuccessful inasmuch as these respondents could not be located at their last known address or other locations. No answers have been filed by Commercial Appliance Company and W. W. Sung. Consequently, they were deemed to be in default within the terms of § 382.4 of the Export Regulations. The matter against these respondents came on for hearing on May 4, 1960, before the Compliance Commissioner to whom the case had been assigned, at which hearing the attorney of the Department's General Counsel's Office presented evidence in support of the charges against these respondents. In accordance with § 382.7 of the Export Regulations, notice of this hearing was not given to these respondents and they were not present or represented by counsel, inasmuch as they were in default, had failed to file answers, and had not requested a hearing. Under § 382.4 of the Export Regulations, they have the privilege, at any time after an order may be issued against them, of applying to set aside their default and vacate such order.

On the basis of the foregoing and his review of the pleadings and evidence, the Compliance Commissioner has submitted to me his report and recommendation wherein he has recommended acceptance of the consent order against The Office Appliance Company (1955) Ltd. and P. S. Chow, and the denial to Commercial Appliance Company and W. W. Sung of all export privileges for the duration of such controls.

Now, after considering the entire record including the report and recommendation of the Compliance Commissioner, I hereby make the following findings of fact:

1. During the times herein involved, P. S. Chow and W. W. Sung were residents of Hong Kong. Chow was a director of, and manager of sales and service for, The Office Appliance Company (1955) Ltd., located in Hong Kong and engaged in the business of importing, distributing and selling office machines, equipment and supplies. Sung was the owner of Commercial Appliance Company, located in Hong Kong and engaged in the business of retail sales of office machines, equipment and supplies.

2. During or about June 1957 through August 1958, The Office Appliance Company (1955) Ltd., placed orders with an American manufacturer-exporter for sixteen (16) calculating machines to be exported from the United States to Hong Kong. In support of these orders, there were submitted U.S. Department of Commerce, Bureau of Foreign Commerce, Forms FC–842, entitled "Single Transaction Statement by Consignee and Purchaser." These were signed and executed for The Office Appliance Company (1955) Ltd., by its managing director. They contained representations that the machines were for resale and use in Hong Kong and would not be sold for use outside Hong Kong.

3. During the aforesaid period, on the basis of export license applications submitted by the American manufacturer-exporter which were supported by the aforesaid forms containing said representations, the Bureau of Foreign Commerce issued validated export licenses authorizing the shipments of these machines to Hong Kong as the ultimate destination. The machines were shipped to, and received by, The Office Appliance Company (1955) Ltd. in Hong Kong.

4. During the aforesaid period, The Office Appliance Company (1955) Ltd. and P. S. Chow sold the aforementioned machines to Commercial Appliance Company and W. W. Sung who, in turn, resold and delivered them to a semi-official purchasing agency of the Communist Chinese Government in Hong Kong. The machines were reexported and transshipped to Communist China.

5. Before and at the time of these sales by The Office Appliance Company and P. S. Chow to Commercial Appliance Company and W. W. Sung, all of them knew that the machines would be resold and reshipped to Communist China as the ultimate destination.

6. With respect to each of the exportations of these machines from the United States, the shipper's export declarations, the commercial invoices, and the bills of lading all bore destination control notices to the effect that the commodities were licensed by the United States for Hong Kong as the ultimate destination and that diversion contrary to U.S. law was prohibited. These commercial invoices and bills of lading were received by The Office Appliance Company (1955) Ltd. and P. S. Chow.

7. All of the respondents knew that the machines had been licensed by the United States Government for resale and use in Hong Kong as the ultimate destination, and that their reexportation, transshipment or diversion to Communist China was prohibited under U.S. law and regulations without prior notification to and specific authorization from the U.S. Government.

8. Neither the respondents nor anyone on their behalf notified, or received permission or authorization from, the United States Government for the resales and reexportations of these machines to Communist China.

9. The respondents arranged and carried out these transactions without disclosure of, and in a manner designed to conceal, their true knowledge, intentions and actions. In the course of a routine preliminary end-use check by U.S. Government authorities to verify the representations made in connection with the export license applications, the respondents initially provided false and misleading information and withheld material information. Ultimately, however, the respondents admitted they had knowingly arranged and carried out these transactions for the ultimate sales and deliveries of these machines to Communist China despite, and contrary to, U.S. law and regulations.

From the foregoing, the following are my conclusions:

The respondents, The Office Appliance Company (1955) Ltd., P. S. Chow, Commercial Appliance Company, and W. W. Sung, knowingly caused, aided, abetted and permitted the doing of acts prohibited by, and the omission of acts required by, the U.S. Export Control Act of 1949, as amended, and regulations, orders and licenses issued thereunder; bought, received, sold, disposed of, and financed commodities exported from the United States with knowledge that violations of the Export Control Act, regulations, orders and licenses had occurred, were intended to occur, and would occur; made false and misleading representations and statements, and falsified and concealed material facts, to United States Government authorities in the course of an investigation instituted under the authority of the Export Control Act; and, without authorization from the Bureau of Foreign Commerce, knowingly exported, disposed of, diverted, transshipped and reexported U.S. origin commodities to and for ultimate consignees, uses and destination contrary to the terms, provisions and conditions of export licenses, export control documents, prior representations, and destination control notices related to their exportation from the United States. Thereby, the said respondents have violated §§ 381.2, 381.4, 381.5(a)(1), and 381.6 of the Export Regulations.

In his report, the Compliance Commissioner said:

Compliance orders are not primarily intended to impose penalties. Rather, they are essentially remedial actions, the primary objectives of which are to achieve effective enforcement of the U.S. Export Control Act and the regulations and orders issued thereunder, to deter violations, and to establish corrective values and standards of conduct consistent with the U.S. Government policies set forth in the Act.

These objectives already appear to have been substantially achieved in the case of The Office Appliance Company (1955) Ltd. and P.S. Chow. Standing in their favor are their eventual admissions of wrong-doings, their repentance, their ultimate efforts to cooperate with the U.S. Government, and their promises to avoid recurrences of violations.

The Office Appliance Company (1955) Ltd. has already suffered substantial financial loss as a result of adverse publicity, cancellations of agency representations for some American companies, and decreased sales. Although U.S. Department of Commerce compliance proceedings are not related to actions of the U.S. Treasury Department, it has not escaped notice that, around May 1, 1959, The Office Appliance Company (1955) Ltd. and P. S. Chow were placed on the List of Designated China Nationals by the Foreign Assets Control Division of the Treasury Department.

The facts in this case, particularly the admissions against interest by W. W. Sung in his letters of March 27 and 28, 1959, to P. S. Chow and the American Consulate General's Office in Hong Kong, disclose that Sung conceived the idea of making these sales and reexportations of U.S. origin calculating machines to Communist China, and he induced P. S. Chow to engage in these transactions, despite Chow's initial reluctance to do so. While this does not diminish Chow's responsibility for his violations, in a sense it tends to place more of the culpability on Sung than on Chow.

Thus, it is my considered opinion that it would be reasonable, fair and just to approve the consent order relating to The Office Appliance Company (1955) Ltd. and P. S. Chow and to issue a much stricter order against Commercial Appliance Company and W. W. Sung.

Now, therefore, after careful consideration of the entire record, and being of the opinion that the recommendation of the Compliance Commissioner and the following order are reasonable, fair, just, and necessary to achieve effective enforcement of the Export Control Act and regulations, orders and licenses issued thereunder: It is hereby ordered:

I. All outstanding validated export licenses in which the respondents, The Office Appliance Company (1955) Ltd., P. S. Chow, Commercial Appliance Company, and W. W. Sung, or any of them, appear or participate as purchaser, intermediate or ultimate consignee, or otherwise, are hereby revoked and shall be returned forthwith to the Bureau of Foreign Commerce for cancellation.

II(a). Henceforth and so long as export controls shall be in effect, the respondents, Commercial Appliance Company and W. W. Sung, their successors, or assigns, officers, partners, representatives, agents and employees, hereby are denied all privileges of participating, directly or indirectly, in any manner or capacity, in any exportation of any commodity or technical data from the United States to any foreign destination, including Canada.

II(b). For the period of two years from the date of this order, except as qualified by Parts IV(a) and IV(b), the respondents, The Office Appliance Company (1955) Ltd., and P. S. Chow, their successors or assigns, officers, partners, representatives, agents and employees, hereby are denied all privileges of participating, directly or indirectly, in any manner or capacity, in any exportation of any commodity or technical data from the United States to any foreign destination, including Canada.

II(c). Without limitation of the generality of the foregoing denials of export privileges, participation in an exportation is deemed to include and prohibit participation by them or any of them, directly or indirectly, in any manner or capacity, (a) as parties or as representatives of a party to any validated export license application, (b) in the preparation or filing of any export license application or of any document to be submitted therewith, (c) in the obtaining or using of any validated or general export license or other export control document, (d) in the receiving, ordering, buying, selling, delivering, using, or disposing in any foreign country of any commodities or technical data in whole or in part exported or to be exported from the United States, and (e) in the storing, financing, forwarding, transporting, or other servicing of such exports from the United States.

III. These denials of export privileges shall extend not only to the respondents, but also to any person, firm, corporation, partnership or business organization with which any of them may be now or hereafter related by affiliation, ownership, control, position of responsibility, or other connection in the conduct of trade which may involve exports from the United States or services connected therewith.

IV(a). Six months after the date hereof, without further order of the Bureau of Foreign Commerce, The Office Appliance Company (1955) Ltd. shall have its export privileges restored to it conditionally, the condition for such restoration being that, during the said two year period following the date hereof, the said respondent shall comply in all respects with this order and with all requirements of the Export Control Act of 1949, as amended, and all regulations, licenses and orders issued thereunder.

IV(b). Twelve months after the date hereof, without further order of the Bureau of Foreign Commerce, P. S. Chow shall have his export privileges restored to him conditionally, the condition for such restoration being that, during the said two year period following the date hereof, the said respondent shall comply in all respects with this order and with all requirements of the Export Control Act of 1949, as amended, and all regulations, licenses and orders issued thereunder.

V. The privileges so conditionally permitted to the respondents, The Office Appliance Company (1955) Ltd. and P. S. Chow, under Part IV hereof may be revoked summarily and without notice upon a finding by the Director of the Office of Export Supply, or such other official as may at that time be exercising the duties now exercised by him, that any respondent has knowingly failed to comply with the conditions applicable to him or it as set forth in Part IV hereof, in which event Part II hereof, insofar as it shall apply to such respondents, shall then be and become effective (a) as to The Office Appliance Company (1955) Ltd. for an additional eighteen months thereafter or until two years from the date hereof, whichever shall be later, and (b) as to P. S. Chow for an additional twelve months thereafter or until two years from the date hereof, whichever shall be the later, without thereby precluding the Bureau of Foreign Commerce from taking such other and further action based on such violation or violations as it shall deem warranted. In the event that such supplemental order is issued, such respondents and related parties as are involved therein shall have a right to review thereof, as provided in the Export Regulations.

VI. FREDERICK COUNTY BROADCASTERS ET AL.

Order Designating Applications for Consolidated Hearing on Stated Issues

In re applications of Ralph D. Epperson and Earlene S. Epperson, d/b as Frederick County Broadcasters, Winchester, Virginia, request 1480 kc, 1 kw, Day, Docket No. 13624, File No. BP-12531; Town Radio, Inc., Shippensburg, Pennsylvania, request 1480 kc, 500 w, Day, Docket No. 13625, File No. BP-13240; Jesse J. Goodman, Berryville, Virginia, requests 1480 kc, 1 kw, Day, Docket No. 13626, File No. BP-13360; for construction permits.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D.C., on the 29th day of June 1960;

The Commission having under consideration the above-captioned and described applications;

It appearing, that, except as indicated by the issues specified below, each of the instant applicants is legally, technically, financially, and otherwise qualified to construct and operate its instant proposal; and

It further appearing that pursuant to section 309(b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the Commission, in a letter dated April 19, 1960, and incorporated herein by reference, notified the instant applicants, and any other known parties in interest, of the grounds and reasons for the Commission's inability to make a finding that a grant of any one of the applications would serve the public interest, convenience, and necessity; and that a copy of the aforementioned letter is available for public inspection at the Commission's offices; and

It further appearing that the instant applicants filed timely replies to the aforementioned letter, which replies have not, however, entirely eliminated the grounds and reasons precluding a grant of the said applications and requiring an evidentiary hearing on the particular issues hereinafter specified; and

It further appearing, that, on March 1, 1960, Frederick County Broadcasters filed a "Petition To Return Application" of Jesse J. Goodman, alleging that the transmitter site originally specified in Goodman's application was not available to Goodman; that, therefore, the application was filed on a "site-to-be-determined" basis in contravention of § 3.33 of the Commission rules and should not have been accepted for filing; that Goodman, in response to the Commission's aforementioned letter of April 19, 1960, amended his application on May 9, 1960, to specify a different site and stated, in part, that "to eliminate the objections of Frederick County Broadcasters, I hereby amend my application to specify a new site"; that, on June 7, 1960, Frederick County Broadcasters filed a "Petition To Review Action Accepting Amendment" to the Goodman application in which the petitioner contended, in substance, that, since the site originally specified in the Goodman application was not available, Goodman did not have on file a valid application until May 9, 1960, the date on which Goodman amended to specify the present site, and therefore the application is not entitled to consolidation in the hearing proceeding with the Frederick County Broadcasters' application because the Goodman application was not on file in proper form on the date (January 22, 1960) announced by the Commission's Public Notice as the date on which applications must be substantially complete and on file in order to be considered with the application of the Frederick County Broadcasters; that, by letter dated June 11, 1960, Goodman stated that the matters raised in Frederick County Broadcasters' June 7 pleading were the same as those raised in the March 1 pleading and that his response of May 9 "disposed of the matter and no further comments are warranted in this case"; and

It further appearing that in Goodman's responses, he has not indicated whether the transmitter site originally specified was available for his use or whether he had a reasonable expectation that said site would become available; that, therefore, it cannot be determined on the basis of the information before us whether the Goodman application was, in fact, on a site-to-be-determined basis in contravention of the provisions of § 3.33 when it was tendered for filing on January 22, 1960; and that, accordingly, the questions raised by the pleadings of Frederick County Broadcasters and Goodman's responses thereto must be resolved in the hearing ordered below; and

It further appearing that after consideration of the foregoing and the applicants' replies, the Commission is still unable to make the statutory finding that a grant of the applications would serve the public interest, convenience, and necessity; and is of the opinion that the applications must be designated for hearing in a consolidated proceeding on the issues specified below;

It is ordered, That, pursuant to section 309(b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the instant applications are designated for hearing in a consolidated proceeding, at a time and place to be specified in a subsequent Order, upon the following issues:

1. To determine the areas and populations which would receive primary service from each of the instant proposals and the availability of other primary service to such areas and populations.

2. To determine the nature and extent of the interference, if any, that each of the instant proposals would cause to and receive from each other and all other existing standard broadcast stations, the areas and populations affected thereby, and the availability of other primary service to the areas and populations affected by interference from any of the instant proposals.

3. To determine whether the instant proposal of Town Radio, Inc., would involve objectionable interference with the operation of Station WARK, Hagerstown, Maryland, proposed in the application of the United Broadcasting Company of Western Maryland, Inc. (File No. BP-12395) to increase the daytime power of WARK to one kilowatt, or any other existing standard broadcast stations, the areas and populations affected thereby, and the availability of other primary service to such areas and populations.

4. To determine whether Jesse J. Goodman had a reasonable expectation of getting the transmitter site originally specified in his application and, if not, whether the application of Jesse J. Goodman was filed on a site-to-be-determined basis and subject to dismissal pursuant to § 3.33(a) of the Commission rules.

5. To determine, in the event it is concluded that Jesse J. Goodman's application was not in compliance with § 3.33(a) of the Commission rules at the time of filing, whether said application, as amended, was timely filed for consideration with the other applications herein, pursuant to the provisions of § 1.106(b)(1) of the Commission rules.

6. To determine, in the light of section 307(b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, which of the instant proposals would better provide a fair, efficient and equitable distribution of radio service.

7. To determine, in the light of the evidence adduced pursuant to the foregoing issues which of the instant applications should be granted.

It is further ordered, That United Broadcasting Company of Western Maryland, Inc., licensee of Station WARK, Hagerstown, Maryland, is made a party to the proceeding.

It is further ordered, That, to avail themselves of the opportunity to be heard, the applicants and party respondent herein, pursuant to § 1.140 of the Commission rules, in person or by attorney, shall, within 20 days of the mailing of this Order, file with the Commission in triplicate, a written appearance stating an intention to appear on the date fixed for the hearing and present evidence on the issues specified in this Order.

It is further ordered, That, the issues in the above-captioned proceeding may be enlarged by the Examiner, on his own motion or on petition properly filed by a party to the proceeding, and upon sufficient allegations of fact in support thereof, by the addition of the following issue:

To determine whether the funds available to the applicant will give reasonable assurance that the proposals set forth in the application will be effectuated.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D.C., on the 29th day of June 1960;

The Commission having under consideration the above-captioned and described applications;

It appearing that except as indicated by the issues specified below, each of the instant applicants is legally, technically, financially and otherwise qualified to construct and operate its instant proposal; and

It further appearing that pursuant to section 309(b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the Commission, in letters dated January 19, 1960, and May 23, 1960, and incorporated herein by reference, notified the instant applicants, and any other known parties in interest, of the grounds and reasons for the Commission's inability to make a finding that a grant of any of the applications would serve the public interest, convenience, and necessity; and that copies of the aforementioned letters are available for public inspection at the Commission's offices; and

It further appearing, that the instant applicants filed timely replies to the aforementioned letters, which replies have not, however, entirely eliminated the grounds and reasons precluding a grant and requiring an evidentiary hearing on the particular issues as hereinafter specified; and

It further appearing that the Commission's letter of January 19, 1960 raised a question as to whether the participation of Charles W. Kline, partner in the applicant Radio America (BPH-2858, Chicago, Illinois), in the proposed operation of M. Earlene Stebbins would contravene § 3.240 of the Commission's rules on multiple ownership; that in a reply dated February 5, 1960, M. Earlene Stebbins stated that Mr. Kline's participation as station manager and program director was in keeping with Mr. Kline's capacity as a management consultant for the purpose of assisting and advising in the establishment and organization of the proposed station and that Mr. Kline has no ownership participation nor contemplated any in the proposed Skokie station but only has ownership participation in BPH-2858; but that the Commission is unable to make a determination in this matter on the basis of the data before it and is of the opinion that the question must be resolved in the hearing ordered below; and

It further appearing that M. Earlene Stebbins requested a grant of the three instant applications without hearing, but that the proposed Skokie station would serve only 56 percent of the area within its proposed 1 mv/m contour (as determined by the applicant), and it appears necessary to determine in hearing whether such operations would serve the public interest; and

It further appearing that after consideration of the foregoing and the applicants' replies, the Commission is still unable to make the statutory finding that a grant of the applications would serve the public interest, convenience, and necessity; and is of the opinion that the applications must be designated for hearing in a consolidated proceeding on the issues specified below;

It is ordered, That, pursuant to section 309(b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the instant applications are designated for hearing in a consolidated proceeding, at a time and place to be specified in a subsequent order, upon the following issues:

1. To determine the area and population within the 1 mv/m contour, the area and population therein which would be served by the proposed Skokie, Illinois, station, and the availability of other FM service (at least 1 mv/m) to such proposed service area.

2. To determine the areas and populations within the 1 mv/m contours which may be expected to gain or lose service from the proposed operations of Stations WEHS and WFMT and the availability of other such FM broadcast service to such areas and populations.

3. To determine whether the instant proposal of BPH-2828 would involve objectionable interference with the existing operations of Stations WEHS and WFMT, Chicago, Illinois, or any existing FM broadcast stations, and, if so, the nature and extent thereof, the areas and populations affected thereby, and the availability of other service to such areas and populations.

4. To determine the nature and extent of the interference, if any, that each of the instant proposals would cause to and receive from each other and all other existing FM broadcast stations, the areas and populations affected thereby, and the availability of other FM service to the areas and populations affected by interference from the instant proposals.

5. To determine the nature of the participation of Charles W. Kline in the instant proposal, the extent to which such participation will constitute control of the proposed station, and whether, in the light of Kline's interest in the application of Radio America for a new FM broadcast station in Chicago, Illinois, a grant of the instant application would be in contravention of § 3.240 of the Rules and the Commission's policies promulgated pursuant thereto.

6. To determine, in the light of section 307(b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, which of the instant proposals would best provide a fair, efficient, and equitable distribution of radio service.

7. To determine, in the light of the evidence adduced, pursuant to the foregoing issues, which, if any, of the instant applications should be granted.

It is further ordered, That WHFC, Inc., and the Gale Broadcasting Company, Inc., are made parties respondent with respect to the existing operations of WEHS and WFMT, respectively.

It is further ordered, That to avail themselves of the opportunity to be heard, the applicants, pursuant to § 1.140 of the Commission's rules in person or by attorney, shall, within 20 days of the mailing of this Order, file with the Commission, in triplicate, a written appearance stating an intention to appear on the date fixed for the hearing and present evidence on the issues specified in this Order.

It is further ordered, That, the issues in the above-captioned proceeding may be enlarged by the Examiner, on his own motion or on petition properly filed by a party to the proceeding, and upon sufficient allegations of facts in support thereof, by the addition of the following issue:

To determine whether the funds available to the applicant will give reasonable assurance that the proposals set forth in the application will be effectuated.

Released: July 1, 1960.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[File No. 812-1307]

BOSTON FUND, INC., AND GROTON CO.

Notice of Filing of Application

JUNE 28, 1960.

Notice is hereby given that Boston Fund, Inc. ("Fund"), a registered open-end investment company, and The Groton Company ("Groton"), a personal holding company and an affiliated person of an affiliated person of the Fund, have filed an application pursuant to section 6(c) of the Investment Company Act of 1940 ("Act") for an order of the Commission exempting from the provisions of section 22(d) of the Act the proposed issuance of the Fund's shares at net asset value for substantially all of the assets of Groton, and for an order exempting from the provisions of section 17(a) pursuant to section 17(b) of the Act the sale of such assets to the Fund.

The Fund offers its shares to the public on a continuous basis at net asset value plus varying sales charges dependent on the amount purchased. As of April 30, 1960, the net assets of the Fund amounted to $220,937,856 and it had 13,410,691 shares of capital stock outstanding.

Groton, a Delaware corporation with less than 100 shareholders, is a personal holding company and is exempt from registration under the Act by reason of the provisions of section 3(c)(1) thereof. Frederick Ayer ("Ayer") is president and director of Groton and is a member of the Fund's advisory board. In addition, members of Ayer's family have substantial beneficial interests in Groton, and as co-trustee with others under various trusts he controls or holds with power to vote more than 5 percent of Groton's stock. Pursuant to an agreement between the Fund and Groton, substantially all of the cash and securities owned by Groton having a value of approximately $7,500,000 as of December 31, 1959, will be transferred to the Fund in exchange for shares of its capital stock. The number of Fund shares to be delivered to Groton will be determined by dividing the net asset value per share of the Fund in effect as of the close of business on the last full business day of the New York Stock Exchange before the closing date into the value of the Groton assets to be exchanged. Prior to the closing date, Groton will sell all securities held by it which the Fund does not wish to acquire. Groton shareholders holding all but 1/32 of the outstanding shares will indemnify the Fund against any loss from undisclosed liabilities and will agree not to redeem for three years shares of the Fund aggregating $250,000.00 in net asset value at the closing date.

The value of the assets of Groton will be determined in the same manner as used for calculating net asset value for the purpose of issuance of Fund shares. Since the exchange will be tax free for Groton and its shareholders, the Fund's cost basis for tax purposes on the assets acquired from Groton will be the same as for Groton rather than the price actually paid for the assets by the Fund. However, the unrealized appreciation on the Groton assets is proportionately less than on the Fund's assets, amounting to approximately 17 percent and 24 percent, respectively, as of April 30, 1960.

Pursuant to the provisions of section 2(a)(3) of the Act, Ayer is an affiliated person of the Fund and of Groton, and the latter is an affiliated person of Ayer. Section 17(a) of the Act, in pertinent part, prohibits an affiliated person of a registered investment company (Ayer) or an affiliated person of an affiliated person of a registered investment company (Groton) from selling to such company any security or other property, unless the Commission by order upon application pursuant to section 17(b) of the Act grants an order exempting such proposed transaction from the provisions of section 17(a) of the Act, upon a finding that the terms of the proposed transaction, including the consideration to be paid, are reasonable and fair and do not involve overreaching on the part of any person concerned; and that the proposed transaction is consistent with the policy of the investment company concerned, as recited in its registration statement and reports filed under the Act, and is consistent with the general purposes of the Act.

The application states that the securities acquired will be held by the Fund for investment; that all such securities are consistent with the Fund's investment policy as described in its registration statements and that Groton considers the Fund a good investment medium for its stockholders.

Section 22(d) of the Act provides, in pertinent part, that no registered investment company shall sell any redeemable security issued by it to any person except at a current offering price described in the prospectus, with certain exceptions not applicable here. Under the terms of the Agreement the shares of the Fund are to be issued to Groton and its shareholders at a price other than the public offering price stated in the prospectus.

Section 6(c) of the Act authorizes the Commission by order upon application to exempt, conditionally or unconditionally, any transaction from any provision of the Act or of any rule or regulation thereunder if and to the extent that the Commission finds that such exemption is necessary or appropriate in the public interest and consistent with the protection of investors and the purposes fairly intended by the policy and provisions of the Act.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than July 12, 1960, at 5:30 p.m., e.s.t., submit to the Commission in writing a request for a hearing on the matter accompanied by a statement as to the nature of his interest, the reasons for such request and the issues of fact or law proposed to be controverted, or he may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any such communication should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington 25, D.C. At any time after said date, as provided by Rule O-5 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the Act, an order disposing of the application herein may be issued by the Commission upon the basis of the showing contained in said application, unless an order for hearing upon said application shall be issued upon request or upon the Commission's own motion.

By the Commission.

[SEAL] ORVAL L. DUBOIS,
Secretary.

BROAD STREET INVESTING CORP.

Notice of Filing of Application

JUNE 29, 1960.

Notice is hereby given that Broad Street Investing Corporation ("Broad Street"), a registered open-end investment company, has filed an application pursuant to section 6(c) of the Investment Company Act of 1940 ("Act") for an order of the Commission exempting from the provisions of section 22(d) of the Act the proposed issuance of its shares at net asset value for substantially all of the cash and securities of Morey, Humm & Warwick, Inc. ("Morey") on the basis set forth below.

Shares of Broad Street, a Maryland corporation, are offered to the public on a continuous basis at net asset value plus varying sales charges dependent on the amount purchased.

Morey, a Delaware corporation, is an investment company with six stockholders which has engaged in the business of investing and reinvesting its funds since 1958. Prior to that time, it conducted business as an advertising agency. Morey is exempt from registration under the Act by reason of the provisions of section 3(c)(1) thereof. Pursuant to an agreement between Broad Street and Morey, substantially all of the cash and securities of Morey, with a total value of $499,001 as of April 30, 1960, will be transferred to Broad Street in exchange for shares of stock of Broad Street. The shares acquired by Morey are to be distributed immediately to its shareholders, who intend to take such shares for investment with no present intention of distribution or redemption. The number of shares of Broad Street to be delivered to Morey will be determined by dividing the net asset value per share of Broad Street in effect at the closing time into the value of the Morey assets to be exchanged.

The value of the assets of Morey will be determined in substantially the same manner as used for calculating net asset value for the purpose of issuance of Broad Street's shares. Since the exchange will be tax free for Morey and its shareholders, Broad Street's cost basis for tax purposes on the assets acquired from Morey will be the same as for Morey, rather than the price actually paid by Broad Street for the assets.

Of the assets to be acquired from Morey, Broad Street presently intends to sell, subject to changes in investment conditions and considerations, securities having a value as of April 30, 1960 of $131,602 and a cost basis of $151,555. As of the same date, the securities of Morey to be retained have a value of $367,399 and a cost basis of $372,805, and the net unrealized appreciation on securities owned by Broad Street amounted to $44,063,779, or 23.5 percent of its total net assets.

Applicant points out that the proposed acquisition is in the best interests of its shareholders, taking into account the presence of unrealized depreciation in the portfolio of Morey as compared to the unrealized appreciation existing in the portfolio of Broad Street and because the resulting increase in its assets will tend to reduce per share expenses, since it is furnished investment research and administrative facilities and services at cost.

The application recites that the terms of the entire transaction were arrived at through arm's-length bargaining between Broad Street and Morey. The application further states that there is no affiliation or relationship of any kind between the officers and directors of Broad Street and the officers, directors, and stockholders of Morey.

Section 22(d) of the Act provides, in pertinent part, that no registered investment company shall sell any redeemable security issued by it to any person except at a current offering price described in the prospectus, with certain exceptions not applicable here. Under the terms of the Agreement, however, the shares of Broad Street are to be issued to Morey at a price other than the public offering price stated in the prospectus, which lists a sales charge of 2.22 percent for sales of $250,000 or over.

Section 6(c) of the Act authorizes the Commission by order upon application to exempt, conditionally or unconditionally, any transaction from any provision of the Act or of any rule or regulation thereunder, if and to the extent that the Commisson finds that such exemption is necessary or appropriate in the public interest and consistent with the protection of investors and the purposes fairly intended by the policy and provisions of the Act.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than July 12, 1960 at 5:30 p.m., submit to the Commission in writing a request for a hearing on the matter accompanied by a statement as to the nature of his interest, the reason for such request and the issues of fact or law proposed to be controverted, or he may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any such communication should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington 25, D.C. At any time after said date, as provided by Rule O-5 of the Rules and Regulations promulgated under the Act, an order disposing of the application herein may be issued by the Commission upon the basis of the showing contained in said application, unless an order for hearing upon said application shall be issued upon request or upon the Commission's own motion.

By the Commission.

Secretary.

BROAD STREET INVESTING CORP.

Notice of Filing of Application

JUNE 28, 1960.

Notice is hereby given that Broad Street Investing Corporation ("Broad Street"), a registered open-end investment company, has filed an application pursuant to section 6(c) of the Investment Company Act of 1940 ("Act") for an order of the Commission exempting from the provisions of section 22(d) of the Act the proposed issuance of its shares at net asset value for substantially all of the cash and securities of M.E.W. Corporation ("M.E.W.") on the basis set forth below.

Shares of Broad Street, a Maryland Corporation, are offered to the public on a continuous basis at net asset value plus varying sales charges dependent on the amount purchased. As of May 9, 1960, the net assets of Broad Street amounted to $180,008,973.

M.E.W., a Delaware corporation, is an investment company with two stockholders which engages in the business of investing and reinvesting its funds. M.E.W. is exempt from registration under the Act by reason of the provisions of section 3(c)(1) thereof. Pursuant to an agreement between Broad Street and M.E.W., substantially all of the cash and securities of M.E.W., with a total value of $1,973,449 as of May 9, 1960, will be transferred to Broad Street in exchange for shares of stock of Broad Street. The shares acquired by M.E.W. are to be distributed immediately to its shareholders, who intend to take such shares for investment with no present intention of distribution or redemption. The number of shares of Broad Street to be delivered to M.E.W. will be determined by dividing the net asset value per share of Broad Street in effect at the closing time into the value of the M.E.W. assets to be exchanged.

The value of the assets of M.E.W. will be determined in substantially the same manner as used for calculating net asset value for the purpose of issuance of Broad Street's shares. Since the exchange will be tax free for M.E.W. and its shareholders, Broad Street's cost basis for tax purposes on the assets acquired from M.E.W. will be the same as for M.E.W., rather than the price actually paid by Broad Street for the assets.

Of the assets to be acquired from M.E.W., Broad Street intends to retain in its portfolio, subject to changes in investment conditions and considerations, securities having a value as of May 9, 1960, of $360,000. Of this amount $236,523, or approximately 67.6 percent represented net unrealized appreciation, as compared to net unrealized appreciation on Broad Street's portfolio securities of $45,618,620 or approximately 24.1 percent of their value, as of the same date. The realized but undistributed long-term capital gain of Broad Street on the same date amounted to $1,509,304 or approximately 0.8 percent of its assets. Approximately $497,057 of the securities acquired from M.E.W. will be sold by Broad Street. The net unrealized appreciation on such securities as of May 9, 1960, amounted to $203,711. Since Broad Street will thus acquire these securities at a tax-cost basis less than the price actually paid therefor, their sale after acquisition will result in artificial capital gains and consequent tax liability thereon to the present shareholders of Broad Street. In respect of the securities of M.E.W. that Broad Street presently intends to sell on acquisition and the resulting artificial capital gain thereon, there shall be subtracted from M.E.W. assets an amount equal to 12½ percent of the difference between net unrealized taxable capital gain on said securities and the portion of the realized but undistributed taxable long-term capital gain of Broad Street allocable to the aggregate shares of Broad Street to be issued to M.E.W. In respect of the securities of M.E.W. that Broad Street presently intends to hold following acquisition, there shall be subtracted from M.E.W. assets an amount equal to 12½ percent of the difference between net unrealized taxable capital gain on said securities and the portion of the Broad Street unrealized appreciation applicable to the aggregate shares of Broad Street to be issued to M.E.W. determined on a pro forma basis. The adjustment is intended to offset adverse impact on Broad Street's investors of a possible capital gains tax on artificial gains should Broad Street hereafter sell the securities being acquired.

If the valuation under the agreement had taken place on May 9, 1960, M.E.W. would have received 86,248 shares of Broad Street's stock.

Applicant points out that the proposed acquisition is in the best interests of its shareholders because the resulting increase in its assets will tend to reduce per share expenses, since it is furnished investment research and administrative facilities and services at cost.

The application recites that the terms of the entire transaction were arrived at through arm's-length bargaining between Broad Street and M.E.W. The application further states that there is no affiliation or relationship of any kind between the officers and directors of Broad Street and the officers, directors, and stockholders of M.E.W.

Section 22(d) of the Act provides, in pertinent part, that no registered investment company shall sell any redeemable security issued by it to any person except at a current offering price described in the prospectus, with certain exceptions not applicable here. Under the terms of the Agreement, however, the shares of Broad Street are to be issued to M.E.W. at a price other than the public offering price stated in the prospectus, which lists a sales charge of 2.22 percent for sales of $250,000 or over.

Section 6(c) of the Act authorizes the Commission by order upon application to exempt, conditionally or unconditionally, any transaction from any provision of the Act or of any rule or regulation thereunder, if and to the extent that the Commission finds that such exemption is necessary or appropriate in the public interest and consistent with the protection of investors and the purposes fairly intended by the policy and provisions of the Act.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than July 12, 1960 at 5:30 p.m., submit to the Commission in writing a request for a hearing on the matter accompanied by a statement as to the nature of his interest, the reason for such request and the issues of fact or law proposed to be controverted, or he may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any such communication should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington 25, D.C. At any time after said date, as provided by Rule O–5 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the Act, an order disposing of the application herein may be issued by the Commission upon the basis of the showing contained in said application, unless an order for hearing upon said application shall be issued upon request or upon the Commission's own motion.

2. The issuer has failed to file sales material as required by Rule 258;

B. The offering circular contains untrue statements of material facts and omits to state material facts necessary in order to make the statements made, in the light of the circumstances under which they are made, not misleading, particularly with respect to:

HOLIDAY MINES, INC.

Order Temporarily Suspending Exemption, Statement of Reasons Therefor, and Notice of Opportunity for Hearing

INCORPORATED INCOME FUND

Notice of Filing of Application

JUNE 29, 1960.

Notice is hereby given that Incorporated Income Fund ("Incorporated"), a registered open-end investment company, has filed an application pursuant to section 6(c) of the Investment Company Act of 1940 ("Act") for an order of the Commission exempting from the provisions of Section 22(d) of the Act the proposed issuance of its shares at net asset value for substantially all of the cash and securities of A. E. Dick Contracting Company ("Dick").

Shares of Incorporated, a Massachusetts corporation, are offered to the public on a continuous basis at net asset value plus varying sales charges dependent on the amount purchased. As of March 31, 1960, the net assets of Incorporated amounted to $98,939,788 and 10,952,347 of its shares were outstanding.

Dick, a Pennsylvania corporation, is a personal holding company with twenty-five stockholders which engages in the business of investing and reinvesting its funds. Dick is exempt from registration under the Act by reason of the provisions of section 3(c)(1). Pursuant to an agreement between Incorporated and Dick, substantially all of the securities and other assets, such other assets to be converted to government obligations prior to the close, owned by Dick, with a total value of approximately $2,900,000 as of March 31, 1960, will be transferred to Incorporated in exchange for shares of stock of Incorporated. The application states that the portfolio securities of Dick to be retained by Incorporated meet its investment objectives, and that, subject to its right to dispose of such securities in the event of unforeseen changes, Incorporated intends to retain these securities as investments. The shares of Incorporated acquired by Dick are to be distributed immediately to its shareholders who intend to take such shares for investment with no present intention of distribution or redemption. The number of shares of Incorporated to be delivered to Dick will be determined by dividing the net asset value per share of Incorporated in effect at the close of business on the day preceding the closing date into the value of the Dick assets to be exchanged.

The value of the assets of Dick will be determined in substantially the same manner as used for calculating net asset value for the purpose of issuance of Incorporated's shares. Since the exchange will be tax free for Dick and its shareholders, Incorporated's cost basis for tax purposes on the assets acquired from Dick will be the same as for Dick, rather than the price actually paid by Incorporated for the assets. The unrealized appreciation on the assets to be acquired from Dick exceeds proportionately the unrealized appreciation on Incorporated's present assets. Thus, Incorporated will acquire securities from Dick at a tax-cost basis less than the price actually paid therefor, and if any of the acquired assets are sold in the future, artificial capital gains may be realized and Incorporated's present shareholders will be subject to tax liability thereon.

To provide against the tax consequences of the sale of certain securities of one company immediately upon acquisition and the possible unfavorable tax consequence of a future sale of the other assets acquired from Dick, Incorporated proposes to adjust the aggregate market value of the acquired assets by deducting from such value an amount to be determined by the parties at the closing date. The adjustment shall consist first of an amount equivalent to 12½ percent of unrealized taxable long term capital gain on securities of one company to be sold by Incorporated immediately upon acquisition. The balance of the amount to be deducted shall represent an amount equal to 12½ percent of the increase in the amount of unrealized appreciation allocable to the present shareholders of Incorporated, giving effect to the acquisition of Dick on a pro forma basis and making allowance for the amount of Incorporated's realized undistributed gains allocable to Dick.

As of March 31, 1960, the net unrealized appreciation on the portfolio securities of Dick was approximately $259,327, or approximately 10.6 percent of the value of such securities, as compared with net unrealized appreciation of Incorporated's portfolio securities of $5,313,710, or approximately 5.4 percent of the value of such securities; the net unrealized appreciation on the securities Incorporated intends to sell immediately was $9,725; and the undistributed realized capital gains of Incorporated amounted to approximately $2,434,402. If the transaction had been consummated on March 31, 1960, there would have been a deduction of approximately $8,198 from the value of the assets to be acquired by Incorporated.

The application recites that the terms of the entire transaction were arrived at through arm's-length bargaining between officers of Incorporated and Dick. The application further states that there is no affiliation or relationship of any kind between the officers and directors of Incorporated and the Parker Corporation (Incorporated's investment adviser) and the officers and directors of Dick.

Section 22(d) of the Act provides, in pertinent part, that no registered investment company shall sell any redeemable security issued by it to any person except at a current offering price described in the prospectus, with certain exceptions not applicable here. Under the terms of the Agreement, however, the shares of Incorporated are to be issued to Dick at a price other than the public offering price stated in the prospectus, which lists a sales charge of 2 percent for sales of $500,000 and over.

Section 6(c) of the Act authorizes the Commission by order upon application to exempt, conditionally or unconditionally, any transaction from any provision of the Act or of any rule or regulation thereunder, if and to the extent that the Commission finds that such exemption is necessary or appropriate in the public interest and consistent with the protection of investors and the purposes fairly intended by the policy and provisions of the Act.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than July 12, 1960 at 5:30 p.m., submit to the Commission in writing a request for a hearing on the matter accompanied by a statement as to the nature of his interest, the reason for such request and the issues of fact or law proposed to be controverted, or he may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any such communication should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington 25, D.C. At any time after said date, as provided by Rule O-5 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the Act, an order disposing of the application herein may be issued by the Commission upon the basis of the showing contained in said application, unless an order for hearing upon said application shall be issued upon request or upon the Commission's own motion.

MARKET IMPROVEMENT CO.

Order Temporarily Suspending Exemption, Statement of Reasons Therefor, and Notice of Opportunity for Hearing

I. Market Improvement Company (issuer), a Florida corporation, 6695 Northwest 36th Avenue, Miami, Florida, filed with the Commission on January 2, 1959, a notification on Form 1-A and an offering circular, and subsequently filed amendments thereto, relating to an offering of 222 shares of Class A common voting stock and 1663 shares of Class B common non-voting stock at $100 per share aggregating $188,500 for the purpose of obtaining an exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, pursuant to the provisions of section 3(b) thereof and Regulation A promulgated thereunder.

II. The Commission has reasonable cause to believe that the terms and conditions of Regulation A have not been complied with in that the issuer has failed to file reports on Form 2-A as required by Rule 260 of Regulation A despite requests of the Commission's staff for such filing.

III. It is ordered, Pursuant to Rule 261(a) of the general rules and regulations under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, that the exemption under Regulation A be, and it hereby is, temporarily suspended.

Notice is hereby given that any person having any interest in the matter may file with the Secretary of the Commission a written request for hearing within thirty days after the entry of this order; that within twenty days after receipt of such request the Commission will, or at any time upon its own motion may, set the matter down for hearing at a place to be designated by the Commission, for the purpose of determining whether this order of suspension should be vacated or made permanent, without prejudice, however, to the consideration and presentation of additional matters at the hearing; that if no hearing is requested and none is ordered by the Commission, this order shall become permanent on the thirtieth day after its entry and shall remain in effect unless or until it is modified or vacated by the Commission; and that notice of the time and place for any hearing will promptly be given by the Commission.

REALTY & THEATRE VENTURES, INC.

Order Temporarily Suspending Exemption, Statement of Reasons Therefor, and Notice of Opportunity for Hearing

JUNE 30, 1960.

I. Realty & Theatre Ventures, Inc. (issuer), a New York corporation, 50 Broad Street, New York, N.Y., filed with the Commission on November 18, 1958 a notification on Form 1-A and an offering circular relating to a proposed offering of 200,000 shares of its 1¢ par value Class A stock at $1.50 per share or $300,000 in the aggregate, for the purpose of obtaining an exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, pursuant to section 3(b) and Regulation A promulgated thereunder.

II. The Commission has reasonable cause to believe that:

A. The offering circular, notification and sales literature contain untrue statements of material facts and omit to state material facts necessary in order to make the statements made, in the light of the circumstances under which they are made, not misleading, particularly with respect to:

1. The statements that 180,000 shares of Class B stock had been sold to officers, directors and promoters for $1,800 cash when substantially less cash was in fact paid;

2. The untrue statement in the sales literature that the Securities and Exchange Commission had approved the filing.

B. The issuer failed to cooperate in the making of an investigation by the Commission in connection with this offering.

C. The terms and conditions of Regulation A have not been complied with, in that:

1. A report on Form 2-A was not filed within the period required by Rule 260;

2. A sale or sales of securities were made by means of a written offer purportedly under Regulation A without an offering circular meeting the requirements of Schedule I of Form 1-A having previously or concurrently been given to the person to whom the offer was made in violation of Rule 256(a)(1);

3. A written communication used in connection with the offering contained language stating or implying that the Commission had passed upon the merits or given approval to the securities offered in violation of Rule 259.

D. The offering was made in violation of section 17 of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended.

III. It is ordered, Pursuant to Rule 261 of the general rules and regulations under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, that the exemption under Regulation A be, and it hereby is, temporarily suspended.

Notice is hereby given that any person having any interest in the matter may file with the Secretary of the Commission a written request for hearing within thirty days after the entry of this order; that within twenty days after receipt of such request the Commission will, or at any time upon its own motion may, set the matter down for hearing at a place to be designated by the Commission, for the purpose of determining whether this order of suspension should be vacated or made permanent, without prejudice, however, to the consideration and presentation of additional matters at the hearing; that if no hearing is requested and none is ordered by the Commission, this order shall become permanent on the thirtieth day after its entry and shall remain in effect unless or until it is modified or vacated by the Commission; and that notice of the time and place for any hearing will promptly be given by the Commission.

PART 601—DESIGNATION OF THE CONTINENTAL CONTROL AREA, CONTROL AREAS, CONTROL ZONES, REPORTING POINTS, AND POSITIVE CONTROL ROUTE SEGMENTS

Modification of Control Area Extension

On December 29, 1959, a notice of proposed rule making was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (24 F.R. 10915) stating that the Federal Aviation Agency was considering an amendment to § 601.1166 of the regulations of the Administrator which would modify the Mobile, Ala., control area extension.

The notice stated that the present Mobile control area extension is designated within a 25-mile radius of Brookley AFB, with a 25-mile extension to the northwest and that the Federal Aviation Agency was considering a modification to the area that would include additional airspace south of Brookley AFB, bounded on the east by the Pensacola, Fla., control area extension, on the south by Restricted Areas (R-452), (R-153) and Warning Area (W-453), on the west by Long. 88°30'00" W, and on the north by VOR Federal airway No. 22. Further, this modification would provide additional protection to aircraft while operating under IFR conditions when arriving and departing the Brookley AFB. Inadvertently omitted from the Notice was the fact that the present description of the Mobile control area extension excludes that airspace which overlaps Caution Area (C-488).

The Department of the Navy objected to the proposed extension that would overlie Caution Area (C-488).

It was the intent of the proposed modification to include that airspace south of Mobile as control area, bounded on the west by longitude 88°30'00" W., on the south by Restricted Areas (R-452) and (R-153), on the east by the boundary of an area depicted on aeronautical charts as Caution Area (C-488), and on the north by the existing Mobile 25-mile control area extension and Victor 22. Therefore, the Federal Aviation Agency is redesignating the Mobile, Ala., control area extension within a 25-mile radius of Brookley AFB, excluding the portion east of a line extending from latitude 30°21'45" N., longitude 87°47'15" W., northwest to latitude 30°31'00" N., longitude 87°55'00" W., thence along the east shore of Mobile Bay to latitude 30°41'30" N., longitude 87°59'30" W., northeast to latitude 30°50'00" N., longitude 87°48'00" W., thence northeast to latitude 30°52'30" N., longitude 87°45'45" W., and including the airspace south of Mobile bounded on the west by longitude 88°30'00" W., on the northwest by VOR Federal airway No. 22, on the north by the 25-mile radius Mobile control area extension; on the east by a line extending from latitude 30°21'45" N., longitude 87°47'15" W. to latitude 30°15'00" N., longitude 87°41'00" W., and on the south by Restricted Areas (R-452) and (R-153). Although mentioned in the notice, the control area extension 5 miles either side of the 292° True radial of the Mobile VOR extending from the VOR to a point 25 miles northwest, is no longer required in the description since this area beyond the 25-mile radius of Brookley AFB is duplicated in the description of the New Orleans, La., control area extension (§ 601.1025).

No other adverse comments were received regarding the proposed amendment.

Interested persons have been afforded an opportunity to participate in the making of the rule herein adopted and due consideration has been given to all relevant matter presented.

In consideration of the foregoing, and pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (24 F.R. 4530) § 601.1166 (24 F.R. 10556) is amended to read:

§ 601.1166 Control area extension (Mobile, Ala.).

Within a 25-mile radius of Brookley AFB, Mobile, Ala., excluding the portion E of a line extending from latitude 30°21'45" N., longitude 87°47'15" W., thence NW to latitude 30°31'00" N., longitude 87°55'00" W., thence along the E shore of Mobile Bay to latitude 30°41'30" N., longitude 87°59'30" W., NE to latitude 30°50'00" N., longitude 87°48'00" W., thence NE to latitude 30°52'30" N., longitude 87°45'45" W.; and including the airspace S of Mobile bounded on the W by longitude 88°30'00" W., on the NW by VOR Federal airway No. 22, on the N by the Mobile 25-mile radius control area extension, on the east by a line extending from latitude 30°21'45" N., longitude 87°47'15" W. to latitude 30°15'00" N., longitude 87°41'00" W., and on the S by Restricted Areas (R-452) and (R-153).

This amendment shall become effective 0001 e.s.t. August 25, 1960.

PART 609—STANDARD INSTRUMENT APPROACH PROCEDURES

Miscellaneous Alterations

The new and revised standard instrument approach procedures appearing hereinafter are adopted to become effective and/or canceled when indicated in order to promote safety. The revised procedures supersede the existing procedures of the same classification now in effect for the airports specified therein. For the convenience of the users, the revised procedures specify the complete procedure and indicate the changes to the existing procedures. Pursuant to authority delegated to me by the Administrator (24 F.R. 5662), I find that a situation exists requiring immediate action in the interest of safety, that notice and public procedure hereon are impracticable, and that good cause exists for making this amendment effective on less than thirty days' notice.

Part 609 (14 CFR Part 609) is amended as follows:

1. The low or medium frequency range procedures prescribed in § 609.100(a) are amended to read in part:

LFR STANDARD INSTRUMENT APPROACH PROCEDURE

Bearings, headings, courses and radials are magnetic. Elevations and altitudes are in feet MSL. Ceilings are in feet above airport elevation. Distances are in nautical miles unless otherwise indicated, except visibilities which are in statute miles. △

If an instrument approach procedure of the above type is conducted at the below named airport, it shall be in accordance with the following instrument approach procedure, unless an approach is conducted in accordance with a different procedure for such airport authorized by the Administrator of the Federal Aviation Agency. PART 609—STANDARD INSTRUMENT APPROACH PROCEDURES

Miscellaneous Alterations

The new and revised standard instrument approach procedures appearing hereinafter are adopted to become effective and/or canceled when indicated in order to promote safety. The revised procedures supersede the existing procedures of the same classification now in effect for the airports specified therein. For the convenience of the users, the revised procedures specify the complete procedure and indicate the changes to the existing procedures. Pursuant to authority delegated to me by the Administrator (24 F.R. 5662), I find that a situation exists requiring immediate action in the interest of safety, that notice and public procedure hereon are impracticable, and that good cause exists for making this amendment effective on less than thirty days' notice.

Part 609 (14 CFR, Part 609) is amended as follows:

1. The low or medium frequency range procedures prescribed in § 609.100(a) are amended to read in part:

Title 10—ATOMIC ENERGY

Chapter I—Atomic Energy Commission

PART 40—CONTROL OF SOURCE MATERIAL

Exempted Products; Uranium

The following amendment is designed to relieve persons receiving or possessing uranium contained in aircraft counterweights installed in aircraft from the necessity of obtaining a specific license from the Atomic Energy Commission authorizing such receipt or possession. Under the amendment to § 40.60, the uranium in such counterweights is exempted from the specific licensing requirement of § 40.10 relating to transfers, deliveries and receipt of possession or title. The Commission has found that the transfer, delivery and receipt of possession or title to uranium in such products involve unimportant quantities of source material within the meaning of section 62 of the Atomic Energy Act of 1954, as amended, which are not of significance to the common defense and security, and that such activities can be conducted without adversely affecting public health and safety.

Inasmuch as this amendment is intended to relieve from rather than to impose restrictions under regulations currently in effect and will not adversely affect the public health and safety, the Commission has found that general notice of proposed rule making and public procedure thereon are unnecessary and good cause exists why this amendment should be made effective without the customary period of notice and upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER, Part 40, Title 10, Code of Federal Regulations, "Control of Source Material," is hereby amended as follows:

Section 40.60 Schedule I: Exempted products is amended to include an additional exempted product by the addition of the following new paragraph (i):

(i) Uranium contained in aircraft counterweights installed in aircraft; provided that any such counterweight has been impressed with a statement, clearly legible after plating, which states "Caution-Radioactive Material-Uranium; and provided further that the exemption contained in this paragraph shall not be deemed to authorize the chemical, physical, metallurgical or other treatment or processing of any such counterweight or the installation in, or removal from, an aircraft of any such counterweight, without a specific license from the Commission.

Dated at Germantown, Md., this 30th day of June 1960.

For the Atomic Energy Commission.

A. R. LUEDECKE,
General Manager.

Title 8—ALIENS AND NATIONALITY

Chapter I—Immigration and Naturalization Service, Department of Justice

PART 214—NONIMMIGRANT CLASSES

Waiver of Inadmissibility for Transit Without Visa

The following amendments to Chapter I of Title 8 of the Code of Federal Regulations are hereby prescribed:

The first and third sentences of subparagraph (1) of paragraph (c) of § 214.2 are amended to read as follows:

§ 214.2 Special requirements for admission, extension, and maintenance of status.

* * * * *

(c) Transits—(1) Without visas. Any alien, except a citizen and resident of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics, Estonia, Latvia, Lithuania, Poland, Czechoslovakia, Hungary, Rumania, Bulgaria, Albania, Communist-controlled China ("Chinese People's Republic"), North Korea ("Democratic People's Republic of Korea"), the Soviet Zone of Germany ("German Democratic Republic"), and North Viet-Nam ("Democratic Republic of Viet-Nam"), applying for immediate and continuous transit through the United States, must establish that he is admissible; that he has confirmed and onward reservations to at least the next country beyond the United States (except that, if seeking to join a vessel or aircraft in the United States as a crewman, the vessel or aircraft will depart directly foreign, and his departure will be completed within a maximum of 5 calendar days after his arrival, and, if joining a vessel, the crewman is in possession of, or makes application upon arrival for, a Form I-184 permanent landing permit and identification card), and that he has a document establishing his ability to enter some country other than the United States. * * * The acceptance of the transit privilege constitutes an agreement by the alien and the carrier that he will depart voluntarily from the United States without recourse to any hearing or proceeding provided for in this chapter and that at all times he is not aboard an aircraft which is in flight through the United States he shall be in the custody directed by the district director, provided that if admissibility is established only after exercise of the discretion contained in section 212(d)(3)(B) of the Act the alien shall be in the custody of the Service at carrier expense and must depart on the earliest and most direct foreign-destined plane or vessel.

This order shall become effective on the date of its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Compliance with the provisions of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act (60 Stat. 238; 5 U.S.C. 1003) as to notice of proposed rule making and delayed effective date is unnecessary in this instance because the rule prescribed by the order confers benefits upon the persons affected thereby.

Dated: July 5, 1960.

Commissioner of Immigration and Naturalization.

Title 17—COMMODITY AND SECURITIES EXCHANGES

Chapter II—Securities and Exchange Commission

PART 239—FORMS PRESCRIBED UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT OF 1933

Forms for Registration Statements

On April 5, 1960, the Securities and Exchange Commission announced that it had under consideration a proposed amendment of § 239.22(c)(2) (General Instruction A (rule as to use of Form S-9) which defines the term "fixed charges" as used in General Instruction A and in Instruction 2 to the summary of earnings required by item 3 of the form. The term "fixed charges" has heretofore been defined in clause (ii) to include "an appropriate portion of rentals under long-term leases."

The Commission has considered all of the views and comments received on the proposal and has adopted the amendment in the form stated below. The purpose of the amendment is to establish a definite formula which may be used in determining an appropriate portion of rentals representing the interest factor in rental payments in order that a prospective registrant may determine with reasonable certainty whether it is qualified to use the form. The amendment changes the test from "an appropriate portion of long term rentals" to ""one-third of all rentals reported in Schedule XVI[1] or such other portion as can be demonstrated as representative of the interest factor." The limitation of rentals to "long term leases" has been dropped because of the substantial difference of opinion as to the definition of a "long term lease" and because the presence of the interest factor in rentals is not dependent upon the rental contract extending over any given period of time.

It has been suggested that "delay rentals" paid on leaseholds to retain mineral rights before development of leased acreage are not in the nature of ordinary rental for the use of property. Delay rentals or other items included in rentals in Schedule XVI which can be shown to contain little or no interest factor may properly be excluded under the alternate treatment.

The text of § 239.22(c)(2) (General Instruction A) as amended reads:

(2) The term "fixed charges" shall mean (i) interest and amortization of debt discount and expense and premium on all indebtedness, (ii) one-third of all rentals reported in Schedule XVI, or such other portion as can be demonstrated as representative of the interest factor in the circumstances of a particular case (if an alternative basis is used, explanation should be set forth in the statement required by Exhibit 5 of the Instructions as to Exhibits), and (iii) in case consolidated figures are used, preferred stock dividend requirements of consolidated subsidiaries, excluding in all cases items eliminated in consolidation.

The foregoing action, which is taken pursuant to the Securities Act of 1933, particularly sections 7, 10, and 19(a) thereof, shall become effective August 1, 1960.

By the Commission.

[SEAL] ORVAL L. DUBOIS,
Secretary.

Title 21—FOOD AND DRUGS

Chapter I—Food and Drug Administration, Department of Health, Education, and Welfare

PART 121—FOOD ADDITIVES

Subpart A—Definitions and Procedural and Interpretative Regulations

EXTENSION OF EFFECTIVE DATE OF STATUTE FOR 1,1-BIS(p-CHLOROPHENYL)-2,2,2-TRICHLOROETHANOL IN MINT OIL

The Commissioner of Food and Drugs, pursuant to the authority provided in the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act

[1] Note 5 to Schedule XVI provides that "If the aggregate amount of rents and royalties is not material, a statement to that effect will suffice."

(sec. 6(c), Public Law 85-929; 72 Stat. 1793; 21 U.S.C., note under sec. 342) and delegated to him by the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare (23 F.R. 9009, 25 F.R. 8611) hereby authorizes the use in mint oil of the food additive 1,1-bis(p-chlorophenyl)-2,2,2-trichloroethanol under the conditions prescribed in this order:

Section 121.86 is amended by adding thereto the following item:

§ 121.86 Extension of effective date of statute for certain specified food additives as direct additives to food.

Product	Limits	Specified uses or restrictions
• • •	• •	• • •
1, 1-bis (p-Chlorophenyl)-2, 2, 2-trichloroethanol.	100 parts per million.	As a residue in mint oil from use on fresh mint leaves for control of mites.

Notice and public procedure are not necessary prerequisites to the promulgation of this order, and I so find, since extensions of time, under certain conditions, for the effective date of the food additives amendment to the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act were contemplated by the statute as a relief of restrictions on the food-processing industry.

Effective date. This order becomes effective on the date of signature.

[Reg. Doc. 440]

AIRWORTHINESS DIRECTIVES

Notice of Proposed Rule Making

Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (§ 405.27, 24 F.R. 2196), notice is hereby given that the Federal Aviation Agency has under consideration a proposal to amend Part 507 of the regulations of the Administrator to include an airworthiness directive requiring replacement of the generator static exciter terminal blocks in Lockheed 188 Series aircraft with a type less susceptible to burning.

Interested persons may participate in the making of the proposed rule by submitting such written data, views or arguments as they may desire. Communications should be submitted in duplicate to the Docket Section of the Federal Aviation Agency, Room B-316, 1711 New York Avenue NW., Washington 25, D.C. All communications received on or before August 9, 1960, will be considered by the Administrator before taking action on the proposed rule. The proposals contained in this notice may be changed in light of comments received. All comments submitted will be available, in the Docket Section, for examination by interested persons when the prescribed date for return of comments has expired. This proposal will not be given further distribution as a draft release.

This amendment is proposed under the authority of sections 313(a), 601 and 603 of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 (72 Stat. 752, 775, 776; 49 U.S.C. 1354(a), 1421, 1423).

In consideration of the foregoing, it is proposed to amend § 507.10(a), (14 CFR Part 507), by adding the following:

LOCKHEED. Applies to all Lockheed Model 188 Series aircraft with General Electric Models 3S2795H109B11 and 3S2795H109-B1A1 static exciters installed.

Compliance required not later than December 1, 1960.

The insulating material in the generator static exciter terminal blocks has been burned by heat generated as a result of a loose terminal connecter.

Replace the terminal blocks with General Electric Types 667C17463 and 667C17464 which have improved flame retardant characteristics.

(General Electric Service Bulletin No. 6—Lockheed Electra AC Generating System Controls—covers the procedure for replacement of the terminal blocks. Service Bulletin No. 6 was originally prepared to provide replacement procedures for broken terminal blocks. Accordingly, the sentence, "It is not recommended that static exciter terminal blocks be replaced unless original terminal blocks are damaged mechanically." shall be disregarded.)

Issued in Washington, D.C., on June 30, 1960.

OSCAR BAKKE,
Director, Bureau of Flight Standards.

FEDERAL AIRWAYS, CONTROL AREAS AND REPORTING POINTS

Revocation and Modification of Segments of Federal Airway, Associated Control Areas and Reporting Points

Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (§ 409.13, 24 F.R. 3499), notice is hereby given that the Federal Aviation Agency is considering an amendment to §§ 600.220, 601.220 and 601.4220 of the regulations of the Administrator, the substance of which is stated below.

Red Federal airway No. 20 extends in part from the intersection of the south course of the Youngstown, Ohio, radio range and the northwest course of the Pittsburgh, Pa., radio range to the Pittsburgh radio range station, and from the intersection of the southeast course of the Pittsburgh radio range and the northwest course of the Washington, D.C., radio range to the Washington radio range station. The Federal Aviation Agency has under consideration revocation of these segments of Red 20. The Federal Aviation Agency IFR peak-day airway traffic survey for the period July 1, 1958, through June 30, 1959 showed less than seven aircraft movements on these segments of Red 20. On the basis of this survey it appears that the retention of these airway segments as an assignment of airspace is unjustified and the revocation thereof would be in the public interest. Concurrently with this action, the Federal Aviation Agency is considering modification of the terminating segment of Red 20 which is presently designated from the Washington radio range station to the intersection of the southeast course of the Washington radio range with Red Federal airway No. 77. It is proposed to redescribe this segment to terminate at the intersection of the southeast course of the Washington radio range and the northeast course of the Tappahannock, Va., radio range in order to eliminate reference to Red 77 since the segment of Red 77 from the intersection of the southeast course of the Andrews, Md., AFB, radio range to the Dover, Del., AFB non-directional radio beacon is being considered for revocation. This would be a change in description only and would not alter the length of this segment of Red 20 or its associated control areas. It is also proposed to modify the caption to § 601.4220 relating to Red 20 reporting points to conform to the redesignated airway. In addition, the Columbiana, Ohio, intersection (intersection of the south course of the Youngstown, Ohio, radio range and the northwest course of the Pittsburgh, Pa., radio range), and the Shenandoah, W. Va., intersection (intersection of the east course of the Martinsburg, W. Va., radio range and the northwest course of the Washington, D.C., radio range) would be revoked as designated reporting points.

If these actions are taken, the segments of Red Federal airway No. 20 and associated control areas from the intersection of the south course of the Youngstown, Ohio, radio range and the northwest course of the Pittsburgh, Pa., radio range to the Pittsburgh radio range station, and from the intersection of the southeast course of the Pittsburgh radio range and the northwest course of the Washington, D.C., radio range to the Washington radio range station would be revoked. The terminating segment of Red Federal airway No. 20 would be redescribed to extend from the Washington radio range station to the intersection of the southeast course of the Washington radio range and the northeast course of the Tappahannock, Va., radio range. The caption to § 601.4220 would be amended to conform to the modified airway. The Columbiana, Ohio, and Shenandoah, W. Va., designated reporting points would be revoked.

Interested persons may submit such written data, views or arguments as they may desire. Communications should be submitted in triplicate to the Chief, Air Traffic Management Field Division, Federal Aviation Agency, Federal Building, New York International Airport, Jamaica 30, N.Y. All communications received within forty-five days after publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER will be considered before action is taken on the proposed amendment. No public hearing is contemplated at this time, but arrangements for informal conferences with Federal Aviation Agency officials may be made by contacting the Regional Air Traffic Management Field Division Chief, or the Chief, Airspace Utilization Division, Federal Aviation Agency, Washington 25, D.C. Any data, views or arguments presented during such conferences must also be submitted in writing in accordance with this notice in order to become part of the record for consideration. The proposal contained in this notice may be changed in the light of comments received.

The official Docket will be available for examination by interested persons at the Docket Section, Federal Aviation Agency, Room B-316, 1711 New York

Avenue NW., Washington 25, D.C. An informal Docket will also be available for examination at the office of the Regional Air Traffic Management Field Division Chief.

This amendment is proposed under sections 307(a) and 313(a) of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 (72 Stat. 749, 752; 49 U.S.C. 1348, 1354).

Issued in Washington, D.C., on June 30, 1960.

CONTROL AREAS

Designation of Area Extension

Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (§ 409.13, 24 F.R. 3499), notice is hereby given that the Federal Aviation Agency is considering an amendment to Part 601 of the regulations of the Administrator, the substance of which is stated below.

The Federal Aviation Agency has under consideration a proposal by the Department of Navy to designate a control area extension at New Iberia, La., to include the airspace south of VOR Federal airway No. 20 south alternate, within a 35-mile radius of the New Iberia Naval Auxiliary Air Station. The designation of this control area extension would provide protection for aircraft executing standard departure and arrival procedures on the 126°, 132°, 166°, 232°, and 252° True radials of the New Iberia TACAN and the 156° True radial of the New Iberia VOR. It would also provide protection for aircraft holding on the 166° True radial of the TACAN.

If this action is taken, the New Iberia, La., control area extension would be designated to include the airspace within a 35-mile radius of the New Iberia Naval Auxiliary Air Station (latitude 30°02'15" N., longitude 91°53'02" W.), south of VOR Federal airway No. 20 south alternate.

Interested persons may submit such written data, views or arguments as they may desire. Communications should be submitted in triplicate to the Chief, Air Traffic Management Field Division, Federal Aviation Agency, P.O. Box 1689, Fort Worth 1, Tex. All communications received within forty-five days after publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER will be considered before action is taken on the proposed amendment. No public hearing is contemplated at this time, but arrangements for informal conferences with Federal Aviation Agency officials may be made by contacting the Regional Air Traffic Management Field Division Chief, or the Chief, Airspace Utilization Division, Federal Aviation Agency, Washington 25, D.C. Any data, views or arguments presented during such conferences must also be submitted in writing in accordance with this notice in order to become part of the record for consideration. The proposal contained in this notice may be changed in the light of comments received.

The official Docket will be available for examination by interested persons at the Docket Section, Federal Aviation Agency, Room B-316, 1711 New York Avenue NW., Washington 25, D.C. An informal Docket will also be available for examination at the office of the Regional Air Traffic Management Field Division Chief.

This amendment is proposed under sections 307(a) and 313(a) of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 (72 Stat. 749, 752; 49 U.S.C. 1348, 1354).

Issued in Washington, D.C., on June 30, 1960.

CONTROL AREAS

Designation of Extension

Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (§ 409.13, 24 F.R. 3499), notice is hereby given that the Federal Aviation Agency is considering an amendment to Part 601 of the regulations of the Administrator, the substance of which is stated below.

The Federal Aviation Agency has under consideration a proposal by the Air Transport Association for the designation of a control area extension at Staunton, Va., bounded on the southwest, northwest and northeast by a line extending from a point on the northern boundary of VOR Federal airway No. 140 at latitude 37°58'00" N., longitude 79° 08'45" W., to latitude 38°06'30" N., longitude 79°13'45" W.; thence to latitude 38°25'00" N., longitude 79°00'45" W.; thence to the northern boundary of Victor 140 at latitude 38°15'15" N., longitude 78°39'45" W.; bounded on the southeast by the northern boundary of Victor 140. This control area extension would provide protection for aircraft operating under instrument flight rule conditions while conducting arrival and departure procedures to and from the Shenandoah Valley Airport, Staunton, Va.

If this action is taken, the Staunton, Va., control area extension would be designated as that airspace bounded on the southwest, northwest and northeast by a line extending from a point on the northern boundary of VOR Federal airway No. 140 at latitude 37°58'00" N., longitude 79°08'45" W., to latitude 38°06'30" N., longitude 79°13'45" W.; thence to latitude 38°25'00" N., longitude 79°00'45" W.; thence to the northern boundary of VOR Federal airway No. 140 at latitude 38°15'15" N., longitude 78°39'45" W.; bounded on the southeast by the northern boundary of VOR Federal airway No. 140.

Interested persons may submit such written data, views or arguments as they may desire. Communications should be submitted in triplicate to the Chief, Air Traffic Management Field Division, Federal Aviation Agency, Federal Building, New York International Airport, Jamaica 30, N.Y. All communications received within forty-five days after publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER will be considered before action is taken on the proposed amendment. No public hearing is contemplated at this time, but arrangements for informal conferences with Federal Aviation Agency officials may be made by contacting the Regional Air Traffic Management Field Division Chief, or the Chief, Airspace Utilization Division, Federal Aviation Agency, Washington 25, D.C. Any data, views or arguments presented during such conferences must also be submitted in writing in accordance with this notice in order to become part of the record for consideration. The proposal contained in this notice may be changed in the light of comments received.

The official Docket will be available for examination by interested persons at the Docket Section, Federal Aviation Agency, Room B-316, 1711 New York Avenue NW., Washington 25, D.C. An informal Docket will also be available for examination at the office of the Regional Air Traffic Management Field Division Chief.

This amendment is proposed under sections 307(a) and 313(a) of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 (72 Stat. 749, 752; 49 U.S.C. 1348, 1354).

CONTROL ZONES

Modification

Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (§ 409.13, 24 F.R. 3499), notice is hereby given that the Federal Aviation Agency is considering an amendment to § 601.2270 of the regulations of the Administrator, the substance of which is stated below.

The Enid, Okla., control zone is presently designated within a 5-mile radius of Vance Air Force Base, Enid, Okla., within 2 miles either side of a line bearing 044° True extending from the Vance AFB nondirectional radio beacon to a point 10 miles northeast, and within 2 miles either side of a line extending from the Vance AFB through the Vance AFB VOR to a point 10 miles northwest of the VOR. The Federal Aviation Agency has under consideration a proposal by the Department of Air Force to modify the Enid control zone. The Department of Air Force advises that the Vance AFB radio beacon has been relocated and the instrument approach procedures based on the beacon, at the original location, have been cancelled. Therefore, the northeast control zone extension is no longer required and is proposed for revocation. It is also proposed to designate a control zone extension within 2 miles either side of the 185° True radial of the Vance AFB TACAN (latitude 36°20'45" N., longitude 97°55'10" W.), extending from the 5-mile radius zone to 9 miles south of the TACAN. This modification would provide protection for aircraft conducting prescribed instrument approaches to Vance AFB. In addition, it is proposed to reduce the length of the control zone extension to the northwest by redesignating it within 2 miles either side of the 134° True radial of the Vance AFB VOR extending from the 5-mile radius zone to the VOR. Instrument approach procedures based on the VOR are being revised so that the portion of the extension northwest of the VOR would no longer be required for the protection of aircraft.

If these actions are taken, the Enid, Okla., control zone would be designated within a 5-mile radius of the Vance Air Force Base (latitude 36°20'20" N., longitude 97°55'00" W.), within 2 miles either side of the 185° True radial of the Vance AFB TACAN extending from the 5-mile radius zone to 9 miles south of the TACAN and within 2 miles either side of the 134° True radial of the Vance AFB VOR, extending from the 5-mile radius zone to the VOR.

Interested persons may submit such written data, views or arguments as they may desire. Communications should be submitted in triplicate to the Chief, Air Traffic Management Field Division, Federal Aviation Agency, P.O. Box 1689, Fort Worth 1, Tex. All communications received within forty-five days after publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER will be considered before action is taken on the proposed amendment. No public hearing is contemplated at this time, but arrangements for informal conferences with Federal Aviation Agency officials may be made by contacting the Regional Air Traffic Management Field Division Chief, or the Chief, Airspace Utilization Division, Federal Aviation Agency, Washington 25, D.C. Any data, views or arguments presented during such conferences must also be submitted in writing in accordance with this notice in order to become part of the record for consideration. The proposal contained in this notice may be changed in the light of comments received.

The official Docket will be available for examination by interested persons at the Docket Section, Federal Aviation Agency, Room B-316, 1711 New York Avenue NW., Washington 25, D.C. An informal Docket will also be available for examination at the office of the Regional Air Traffic Management Field Division Chief.

This amendment is proposed under sections 307(a) and 313(a) of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 (72 Stat. 749, 752; 49 U.S.C. 1348, 1354).

Issued in Washington, D.C., on June 30, 1960.

CONTROL ZONES

Withdrawal of Proposal To Modify

In a notice of proposed rule making published in the FEDERAL REGISTER as Airspace Docket No. 59-FW-88 on December 29, 1959 (24 F.R. 10917), it was stated that the Federal Aviation Agency proposed to modify the Oklahoma City, Okla., control zone by revoking the control zone extension 2 miles either side of a direct line between Will Rogers Municipal Airport and Tinker Air Force Base. Subsequent to publication of this Notice it has been determined that modification of standard instrument approach procedures at Will Rogers Airport and Tinker AFB may be accomplished which would provide for additional reduction of the control zone. Therefore, this Notice is being withdrawn pending approval of the modified instrument approach procedures, and a new Notice proposing redesignation of this control zone will be published in the near future.

In consideration of the foregoing and pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (§ 409.13, 24 F.R. 3499), notice is hereby given that the proposal contained in Airspace Docket No. 59-FW-88 is withdrawn.

CONTROL ZONES

Withdrawal of Proposal to Modify

In a notice of proposed rule making published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on January 13, 1960 (25 F.R. 251), it was stated that the Federal Aviation Agency proposed to designate a control zone at Kokomo, Ind., within a 5-mile radius of Kokomo Municipal Airport, and within 2 miles either side of the 136° True bearing of the Kokomo radio beacon, extending from the 5-mile radius zone to 12 miles southeast of the radio beacon. In view of the fact that weather reporting service will not be available on a continuous basis at the Kokomo Municipal Airport, the proposal contained in the notice is being withdrawn.

In consideration of the foregoing, the notice of proposed rule making contained in Airspace Docket No. 59-KC-63 is hereby withdrawn.

CONTROL ZONES

Modification

Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (§ 409.13, 24 F.R. 3499), notice is hereby given that the Federal Aviation Agency is considering an amendment to § 601.2302 of the regulations of the Administrator, the substance of which is stated below.

The Federal Aviation Agency has under consideration a proposal by the Department of the Navy to modify the Willow Grove, Pa., control zone by designating an extension within 2 miles either side of the Yardley, Pa., VOR 246° True radial from the 5-mile radius zone to the VOR to provide protection for aircraft executing VOR standard instrument approaches to the Johnsville NAS. The Willow Grove, Pa., control zone is presently designated within a 5-mile radius of a point located at latitude 40°11'40" N., longitude 75°06'25" W., and within 2 miles either side of the northeast and northwest courses of the Willow Grove (Navy) radio range extending from the radio range station to points 10 miles northeast and northwest.

Concurrently, the Federal Aviation Agency proposes to additionally modify this control zone by increasing the present northwest and northeast extensions to 12 miles northwest and northeast of the radio range in order to provide adequate protection for aircraft executing radio range standard instrument approaches.

If these actions are taken, the Willow Grove, Pa., control zone would be designated within a 5-mile radius of a point at latitude 40°11'40" N., longitude 75°06'25" W., within 2 miles either side of the northeast and northwest courses of the Willow Grove (Navy) radio range extending from the 5-mile radius zone to 12 miles northeast and northwest of the radio range, and within 2 miles either side of the 246° True radial of the Yardley, Pa., VOR extending from the 5-mile radius zone to the VOR.

Interested persons may submit such written data, views or arguments as they may desire. Communications should be submitted in triplicate to the Chief, Air Traffic Management Field Division, Federal Aviation Agency, Federal Building, New York International Airport, Jamaica 30, N.Y. All communications received within forty-five days after publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER will be considered before action is taken on the proposed amendment. No public hearing is contemplated at this time, but arrangements for informal conferences with Federal Aviation Agency officials may be made by contacting the Regional Air Traffic Management Field Division Chief, or the Chief, Airspace Utilization Division, Federal Aviation Agency, Washington 25, D.C. Any data, views or arguments presented during such conferences must also be submitted in writing in accordance with this notice in order to become part of the record for consideration. The proposal contained in this notice may be changed in the light of comments received.

The official Docket will be available for examination by interested persons at the Docket Section, Federal Aviation Agency, Room B-316, 1711 New York Avenue NW., Washington 25, D.C. An informal Docket will also be available for examination at the office of the Regional Air Traffic Management Field Division Chief.

This amendment is proposed under sections 307(a) and 313(a) of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 (72 Stat. 749, 752; 49 U.S.C. 1348, 1354).

Issued in Washington, D.C., on June 30, 1960.

CONTROL ZONES AND CONTROL AREAS

Modification and Extension

Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (§ 409.13, 24 F.R. 3499), notice is hereby given that the Federal Aviation Agency is considering an amendment to §§ 601.2083 and 601.1088 of the regulations of the Administrator, the substance of which is stated below.

The Alexandria, Minn., control zone is presently designated within a 5-mile radius of the Alexandria Municipal Airport extending 2 miles either side of the north course of the Alexandria radio range to a point 10 miles north of the radio range, and within 2 miles either side of the 230° and 050° True radials of the Alexandria VOR extending from the Alexandria Airport control zone to a point 10 miles northeast of the VOR. The Federal Aviation Agency has under consideration the modification of the Alexandria control zone by revoking the control zone extension to the north based on the north course of the radio range, realigning the northeast control zone extension based on the VOR, and revoking the portion of the northeast control zone extension which lies northeast of the VOR. The prescribed instrument approach procedure based on the Alexandria radio range is being cancelled. Therefore, the control zone extension based on the radio range would no longer be required for the protection of aircraft, and would be revoked. The prescribed instrument approach procedure based on the Alexandria VOR is being revised to eliminate the requirement for the portion of the control zone extension northeast of the VOR. In addition a one degree change in the alignment of the control zone extension would be necessary to provide adequate protection for aircraft executing the revised instrument approach procedure. Accordingly, the northeast extension of the Alexandria control zone would be redesignated within 2 miles either side of the Alexandria VOR 231° True radial extending from the 5-mile radius zone to the VOR.

The Alexandria control area extension is presently designated from the Alexandria radio range extending 5 miles either side of the north course of the Alexandria radio range to 20 miles north of the radio range; within a 15-mile radius of the Alexandria VOR; and within 5 miles either side of the Alexandria VOR 050° True radial extending from the VOR to a point 25 miles northeast. The Federal Aviation Agency has under consideration modifying the Alexandria control area extension by redesignating it within a 15-mile radius of the Alexandria Municipal Airport and within 5 miles either side of the Alexandria VOR 051° True radial extending from the 15-mile radius area to 15 miles northeast of the VOR. This modification would provide protection for aircraft arriving and departing the Alexandria Municipal Airport during instrument flight rule conditions. It would also reduce the control area extension northeast of the Alexandria VOR.

If these actions are taken, the Alexandria, Minn., control zone would be designated within a 5-mile radius of the Alexandria Municipal Airport (latitude 45°52'15" N., longitude 95°24'00" W.), and within two miles either side of the Alexandria VOR 231° True radial extending from the 5-mile radius zone to the VOR. The Alexandria control area extension would be designated within a 15-mile radius of the Alexandria Municipal Airport and within five miles either side of the Alexandria VOR 051° True radial extending from the 15-mile radius area to 15 miles northeast of the VOR.

Interested persons may submit such written data, views or arguments as they may desire. Communications should be submitted in triplicate to the Chief, Air Traffic Management Field Division, Federal Aviation Agency, 4825 Troost Avenue, Kansas City 10, Mo. All communications received within forty-five days after publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER will be considered before action is taken on the proposed amendment. No public hearing is contemplated at this time, but arrangements for informal conferences with Federal Aviation Agency officials may be made by contacting the Regional Air Traffic Management Field Division Chief, or the Chief, Airspace Utilization Division, Federal Aviation Agency, Washington 25, D.C. Any data, views or arguments presented during such conferences must also be submitted in writing in accordance with this notice in order to become part of the record for consideration. The proposal contained in this notice may be changed in the light of comments received.

The official Docket will be available for examination by interested persons at the Docket Section, Federal Aviation Agency, Room B-316, 1711 New York Avenue NW., Washington 25, D.C. An informal Docket will also be available for examination at the office of the Regional Air Traffic Management Field Division Chief.

This amendment is proposed under sections 307(a) and 313(a) of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 (72 Stat. 749, 752; 49 U.S.C. 1348, 1354).

[Airspace Docket No. 60-WA-172]

POSITIVE CONTROL ROUTE SEGMENTS AND POSITIVE CONTROL AREAS

Designation of Positive Control Area and Redesignation of Positive Control Route Segments

Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (§ 409.13, 24 F.R. 3499), notice is hereby given that the Federal Aviation Agency is considering an amendment to Part 601 and § 601.8001 of the regulations of the Administrator, the substance of which is stated below.

In a notice of proposed rule making published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on May 7, 1960 (25 F.R. 4082), it was stated that the Federal Aviation Agency proposed the adoption of Special Civil Air Regulation No. SR424-C (Draft Release 60-9), to provide for the implementation of positive control of aircraft on an area basis. In Airspace Docket No. 60-WA-85, published as a Notice of Proposed Rule Making in the FEDERAL REGISTER on May 26, 1960 (25 F.R. 4853), it was stated that the Federal Aviation Agency proposed to designate a positive control area in the vicinity of Wilmington, Ohio, bounded on the north by latitude 39°30'00" N., on the south by latitude 39°48'30" N., on the east by longitude 83°00'00" W., and on the west by longitude 83°02'00" W., extending from 24,000 feet MSL to Flight Level 600. This would provide protection for aircraft conducting flight test activities for Wright Air Development Center, Dayton, Ohio, and would permit optimum use of the area by other aircraft.

The Federal Aviation Agency has under consideration the designation of a positive control area encompassing the approximate area of radar coverage of the Chicago, Ill., Indianapolis, Ind., and London, Ohio, long range radar facilities and extending from 24,000 feet MSL to Flight Level 350. The positive control area described herein is the area selected for the initial implementation and evaluation of the positive control area concept. This area was selected because it presents a representative mixture of all types of aircraft operations and an evaluation of positive control in this area should provide a sound basis for expansion of this concept.

It is also proposed to amend the definition of positive control route segments in § 601.8001 to establish a ceiling of 24,000 feet MSL on the portions of positive control route segments which would underlie positive control area. This would eliminate a potential hazard created by uncontrolled aircraft intermingling between 22,000 and 24,000 feet MSL with aircraft transitioning between the underlying positive control routes and the positive control area.

The proposed Wilmington, Ohio, positive control area (Airspace Docket 60–WA–65) would be contained within the lateral limits of the positive control area under consideration in this docket. However, the Wilmington area would extend vertically above Flight Level 350 to Flight Level 600. This positive control area would appear to coincide with several restricted areas, however, prohibited and restricted areas are excluded from positive control areas by definition.

If these actions are taken, the Chicago, Ill.-Indianapolis, Ind., positive control area would be designated as follows:

That area bounded by a line beginning at latitude 41°45'30" N., longitude 88°19'-45" W.,
thence to latitude 41°39'30" N., longitude 88°18'15" W.,
thence to latitude 41°00'00" N., longitude 87°30'00" W.,
thence to latitude 40°32'00" N., longitude 87°40'00" W.,
thence to latitude 39°12'00" N., longitude 87°25'00" W.,
thence to latitude 38°40'00" N., longitude 87°00'00" W.,
thence to latitude 37°51'00" N., longitude 86°00'00" W.,
thence to latitude 37°40'00" N., longitude 87°30'00" W.,
thence to latitude 39°45'00" N., longitude 89°11'00" W.,
thence to latitude 40°18'00" N., longitude 89°00'00" W.,
thence to latitude 41°00'00" N., longitude 89°50'00" W.,
thence to latitude 42°00'00" N., longitude 90°15'00" W.,
thence to latitude 43°00'00" N., longitude 90°09'00" W.,
thence to latitude 43°25'00" N., longitude 89°00'00" W.,
thence to latitude 43°20'00" N., longitude 87°43'20" W.,
thence to latitude 43°14'20" N., longitude 87°44'30" W.,
thence to latitude 43°14'55" N., longitude 87°30'00" W.,
thence to latitude 41°53'00" N., longitude 86°06'00" W., thence to the point of beginning, extending upward from 24,000 feet MSL to Flight Level 350.

In § 601.8001 Positive control route segments, the sentence following the section caption would be amended to read as follows: "The portions of Federal airways described in this subpart and their associated control areas between 17,000 and 22,000 feet MSL inclusive are designated as positive control route segments; the portions of positive control route segments which underlie positive control areas (Part 601, Subpart J) are designated to include the altitudes from 17,000 to but not including 24,000 feet MSL."

Interested persons may submit such written data, views or arguments as they may desire. Communications should be submitted in triplicate to the Chief, Airspace Utilization Division, Federal Aviation Agency, Washington 25, D.C. All communications received within thirty days after publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER will be considered before action is taken on the proposed amendment. No public hearing is contemplated at this time, but arrangements for informal conferences with Federal Aviation Agency officials may be made by contacting the Chief, Airspace Utilization Division. Any data, views or arguments presented during such conferences must also be submitted in writing in accordance with this notice in order to become part of the record for consideration. The proposal contained in this notice may be changed in the light of comments received.

The official Docket will be available for examination by interested persons at the Docket Section, Federal Aviation Agency, Room B–316, 1711 New York Avenue NW., Washington 25, D.C.

This amendment is proposed under sections 307(a) and 313(a) of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 (72 Stat. 749, 752; 49 U.S.C. 1348, 1354).

JET ROUTES

Withdrawal of Proposal To Modify

In a notice of proposed rule making published in the FEDERAL REGISTER as Airspace Docket No. 60–WA–22 on March 5, 1960 (25 F.R. 1966), it was proposed to modify VOR/VORTAC jet route No. 31 by realigning it from Houston, Tex., to Texarkana, Ark. Subsequent to publication of this notice, it has been determined that the modified J–31–V would have insufficient lateral spacing from high altitude terminal operations in the Shreveport, La., area if realigned as proposed therein.

In consideration of the foregoing, the notice of proposed rule making contained in Airspace Docket No. 60–WA–22 is hereby withdrawn.

DEPARTMENT OF LABOR

Bureau of Employment Security

[20 CFR Parts 602, 604]

UNITED STATES EMPLOYMENT SERVICE

Referral of Agricultural Workers in Labor Dispute Situations

A series of labor disputes in agriculture is now in progress in California. Regulations governing the cooperation of the United States Employment Service and States in establishing and maintaining a national system of public employment offices (20 CFR Part 602) provide:

§ 602.2 Placement services.

(b) No person shall be referred to a position the filling of which will aid directly or indirectly in filling a job which (1) is vacant because the former occupant is on strike or is being locked out in the course of a labor dispute, or (2) the filling of which is an issue in a labor dispute. With respect to positions not covered by subparagraph (1) or (2) of this paragraph, any individual may be referred to a place of employment in which a labor dispute exists, provided he is given written notice of such dispute prior to or at the time of his referral.

Identical provision is made in expressing the policies of the United States Employment Service (20 CFR 604.1(i)).

Agricultural employers actually or potentially involved in these disputes have complained that the prohibition against referrals in these regulations operates unfairly to their disadvantage, because of the perishable nature of their product and the lack of a permanent labor force on any single farm sufficient to harvest its crop. They request that the prohibition be revoked or curtailed insofar as it applies to agriculture. Representatives of the agricultural employees involved have responded, however, that any such revocation or curtailment would involve use of the employment service to recruit strikebreakers. Sharply conflicting factual descriptions of the precise way these regulations operate in such disputes have been presented by the contending groups. I have concluded that each of them and any other person who has an interest should be given an opportunity to hear, examine, and respond to the presentation of the others in proceedings so expedited that any relief demonstrated to be necessary can be granted in season to be effective.

Accordingly, under the authority of section 12, 48 Stat. 117, as amended; 29 U.S.C. 49k, and in accordance with section 4(b) of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U.S.C. 1004(b)), notice is hereby given that any interested person may appear before Hearing Examiner Clifford P. Grant at 10:00 a.m., e.d.s.t., July 21, 1960, in hearing room A, Departmental Auditorium, Constitution Avenue, between 13th and 14th Streets NW., Washington, District of Columbia, to present orally data, views, and argument on the question whether the prohibition against referrals in labor dispute situations expressed in 20 CFR 602.2(b) and 604.1(i) should be revoked or curtailed insofar as it applies to agricultural employment.

Every interested person shall have the right to present his data by oral or documentary evidence, to submit such rebuttal evidence and to conduct such cross examination as may be required for a full and true disclosure of the facts. Any interested person who cannot appear in person may submit such data, views, and argument in writing (4 copies) to the Chief Hearing Examiner, United States Department of Labor, 14th Street and Constitution Avenue NW., Washington, D.C., not later than July 18, 1960, where they will be kept available for examination during usual business hours by any other interested person. Oral presentations shall be reported and transcripts will be made available upon request to any interested person on such terms as the Hearing Examiner may provide.

The Hearing Examiner shall have the authority and the duty to administer oaths and affirmations, rule upon offers of proof and receive relevant evidence, regulate the course of the hearing, and dispose of procedural requests or similar matters. Opportunity shall be granted any interested person at the close of the hearing to comment orally on the record as a whole, but provision will not be made to keep the record open for subsequent comment. As soon as the transcription of oral evidence and argument is made, it, together with such written exhibits as may be received in evidence and written submissions filed as herein above provided, shall be certified to the Secretary of Labor for final decision without any proposed or tentative findings, conclusions, or recommendations. The Secretary will give careful consideration to all relevant matter thus presented, together with such other information as may be available to him and will make such amendment to 20 CFR 602.2(b) and 604.1(i) as he may determine to be appropriate.

Signed at Washington, D.C., this 7th day of July 1960.

JAMES T. O'CONNELL,
Acting Secretary of Labor.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[17 CFR Parts 230, 270]

DEFINITION OF PUBLIC OFFERING IN THE CASE OF A SMALL BUSINESS INVESTMENT COMPANY UNDER CERTAIN CIRCUMSTANCES

Notice of Proposed Rule Making

Notice is hereby given that the Securities and Exchange Commission has under consideration the amendment of § 230.151 (Rule 151) under the Securities Act of 1933 and § 270.3c–1 (Rule 3c–1) under the Investment Company Act of 1940 which define the term "public offering" to exclude under certain conditions the offering of the stock of small business investment companies to small business concerns pursuant to the requirements of the Small Business Investment Act of 1958.

Under the former section 304(d) of the Small Business Investment Act, whenever a small business investment company provided capital to a small business concern, the small business investment company was required to offer, and the small business concern was required to purchase, a certain amount of stock of the small business investment company. Public Law 86–502 amends section 304(d) of the Small Business Investment Act, now designated section 304(c), by eliminating the requirement that a small business concern receiving capital from a small business investment company must purchase stock of the investment company. Under the amended provisions of the Act, a small business concern has the right to acquire such stock when capital is provided, but the exercise of such right is optional with the small business concern. The purpose of the amendments to §§ 230.151 and 270.3c–1 (Rules 151 and 3c–1) is to conform the provisions of those rules to the amended provisions of the Act.

The foregoing action is proposed pursuant to the Securities Act of 1933, particularly section 19(a) thereof, and the Investment Company Act of 1940, particularly section 38(a) thereof.

The rules as proposed to be amended read as follows:

§ 230.151 Definition of certain terms used in section 4(1) of the Act.

The term "transactions by an issuer not involving any public offering" as used in section 4(1) of the Act, shall be deemed to include the offer or sale by a small business investment company, licensed under the Small Business Investment Act of 1958, of its capital stock to a small business concern in not more than the amount which the small business concern has the right to acquire, with respect to the particular transaction, under the provisions of section 304(c) of such Act and the rules and regulations thereunder: Provided, That:

(a) The offer or sale is made only in connection with, and as a condition to, the providing of capital to the small business concern by the small business investment company; and

(b) The capital stock acquired by the small business concern in connection with the offer and sale is purchased for investment and not with a view to the distribution thereof.

§ 270.3c–1 Definition of certain terms used in section 3(c)(1) of the Act.

The term "public offering" as used in section 3(c)(1) of the Act shall not be deemed to include the offer or sale by a small business investment company, licensed under the Small Business Investment Act of 1958, of its capital stock to a small business concern in not more than the amount which the small business concern has the right to acquire, with respect to the particular transaction, under the provisions of section 304(c) of such Act and the rules and regulations thereunder: Provided, That:

(a) The offer or sale is made only in connection with, and as a condition to, the providing of capital to the small business concern by the small business investment company; and

(b) The capital stock acquired by the small business concern in connection with the offer and sale is purchased for investment and not with a view to the distribution thereof.

All interested persons are invited to submit views and comments on the proposed amendments, in writing, to the Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington 25, D.C., on or before August 1, 1960. All such views and comments will be available for public inspection.

By the Commission.

[SEAL] ORVAL L. DUBOIS,
Secretary.

[1] The stated effective date is the effective date proposed by Humble.
[2] Includes 0.4467 cent per Mcf for compression deducted by buyer.
[3] The stated effective date is the first day after expiration of the required 30 days' notice.
[4] Suspended for 1 day from July 2, 1960, or from such later date as the suspended rate of West Lake Natural Gasoline Company is made effective in Docket No. RI60-30. (Note: Commission's Notice dated June 21, 1960, made West Lake's rates in Docket No. RI60-30 effective as of June 28, 1960.)
[5] Supersedes Union Oil Co. of California's FPC Gas Rate Schednle No. 9, as amended.
[6] Effective subject to refund insofar as the increased rate pertains to Louisiana Gas Gathering Tax.

In support of their proposed favored-nation rate increases, Humble Oil & Refining Company (Humble) and Texas Pacific Coal and Oil Company (Texas Pacific) cite the favored-nation provisions and the renegotiated increased rates. Humble states that the contracts resulted from arm's-length negotiations and the increased rates are reasonable and in line with others in the area. Humble also states that denial of the increased prices would abrogate the contracts and unjustly enrich El Paso Natural Gas Company at its expense and would be confiscatory. Texas Pacific states that the pricing provisions of its contracts were negotiated at arm's length and were an important consideration to seller in executing the contract.

McElroy Ranch Company (McElroy) and Union Oil Company of California, Agent, et al. (Union Oil), in support of their proposed revenue-sharing type rate increases, cite the contract revenue-sharing provisions and West Lake Natural Gasoline Company's (West Lake) increased 17.0 cents per Mcf resale rate to El Paso Natural Gas Company which is suspended until June 23, 1960, in Docket No. RI60-30, and submit copies of a letter from West Lake advising as to the increased 8.5 cents per Mcf price. In addition, Union Oil states that the price provisions of the contract were negotiated at arm's length and were a material inducement to seller to execute such contract.

In support of its proposed favored-nation rate increase, Associated Oil and Gas Company (Associated Oil) cites the contract favored-nation provisions and submits copies of Tennessee Gas Transmission Company's (Tennessee) letter establishing the increased price. In addition, Associated Oil states that the contract resulted from arm's-length bargaining and the increased price is just and reasonable and in line with other prices Tennessee pays in the area.

In support of its proposed renegotiated rate increase, Union Oil Company of California states that the contract resulted from arm's-length negotiations, the pricing provisions thereof are fair, just and reasonable and that United Gas Pipe Line Company could not purchase new gas reserves in the area at a lower price.

Kerr-McGee Oil Industries, Inc. (Kerr-McGee), in support of its proposed favored-nation rate increase, cites the contract provisions and submits copies of Tennessee Gas Transmission Company's favored-nation letter. In addition, Kerr-McGee states that the contract was negotiated at arm's length and the increased price is fair and reasonable and no higher than necessary to encourage further exploration. Kerr-McGee also states that the increased price is equal to or below prices in recently negotiated contracts for gas sales in the area and cites several certificated 23.6 cents per Mcf initial rates to Tennessee in the area.

Tri-Service Drilling Company, in support of its proposed renegotiated rate increase, submits copies of the amendatory agreements executed pursuant to El Paso Natural Gas Company's contract renegotiation program for its Permian Basin gas purchases eliminating the indefinite pricing clauses from the contracts. No other support is offered for the increase in rate.

In support of its renegotiated rate increase, Kingwood Oil Company (Kingwood) claims that the proposed increased rate does not change the rate or charges made for natural gas sold to Northern Natural Gas Company, since it involves the compensation for liquid hydrocarbons. Kingwood has not submitted the required comparative statement of revenues and other required material for rate change and offers no support.

Woodson Oil Company states, in support of its proposed renegotiated rate increase, that the increased rate will not exceed the value of gas in the area.

The proposed changes may be unjust, unreasonable, unduly discriminatory, or preferential, or otherwise unlawful.

The Commission finds:

(1) It is necessary and proper in the public interest and to aid in the enforcement of the provisions of the Natural Gas Act that the Commission enter upon hearings concerning the lawfulness of the several proposed changes and that the rate schedule and above-designated supplements be suspended and the use thereof deferred as hereinafter ordered.

(2) It is necessary and proper in carrying out the provisions of the Natural Gas Act that Supplement No. 2 to McElroy Ranch Company's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 1, and Supplement No. 1 to Union Oil Company of California, Agent, et al's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 45 be allowed to take effect subject to refund upon the timely filing of their respective agreement and undertaking, as hereinafter ordered.

The Commission orders:

(A) Pursuant to the authority of the Natural Gas Act, particularly sections 4 and 15 thereof, the Commission's rules of practice and procedure and the regulations under the Natural Gas Act (18 CFR, Ch. I), public hearings shall be held upon dates to be fixed by notices from the Secretary concerning the lawfulness of the several proposed increased rates and charges contained in the above-designated rate schedule and supplements.

(B) Pending hearings and decisions thereon, said rate schedule and each of the above-designated supplements is hereby suspended and the use thereof deferred until the date indicated in the above "Rate Suspended Until" column, and thereafter until such further time as it is made effective in the manner prescribed by the Natural Gas Act.

(C) Neither the rate schedule or supplements hereby suspended, nor the rate schedules sought to be altered thereby, shall be changed until these proceedings have been disposed of or until the periods of suspension have expired, unless otherwise ordered by the Commission.

(D) Supplement No. 2 to McElroy Ranch Company's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 1 shall be effective as of July 3, 1960, and Supplement No. 1 to Union Oil Company of California, Agent, et al.'s FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 45 shall be effective as of July 11, 1960; Provided, however, That within 20 days from the date of the issuance of this order, McElroy Ranch Company and Union Oil Company of California, Agent, et al., shall execute and file under Docket Nos. RI60-448 (McElroy) and RI60-451 (Union Oil) with the Secretary of the Commission their respective agreement and undertaking to comply with the refunding and reporting procedure required by the Natural Gas Act and Section 154.102 of the Regulations thereunder (prescribed by Order 215 and 215A). The agreement and undertaking shall be signed by Respondent, or if Respondent is a corporation, signed by a responsible officer thereof accompanied by proper authorization from the Board of Directors and by a certificate showing service of copies upon all purchasers under the rate schedule involved. Unless Respondents (McElroy and Union Oil) are advised to the contrary within 15 days after the filing of such agreement and undertaking, their agreement and undertaking shall be deemed to have been accepted.

(E) Notices of intervention or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D.C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 and 1.37(f)) on or before August 15, 1960.

[1] Contract.
[2] The stated effective date is the first day after expiration of the required statutory notice.
[3] Settlement Agreement.
[4] The stated effective date is that requested by respondent.

In support of its proposed increased rate, Shield states that the new contract will commit additional gas to Trunkline and allow greater flexibility in scheduling the acceptance and delivery of gas over the 20-year term of the contract; the proposed rate does not exceed the price being paid for gas by Trunkline in the same area; and the price increase is necessary to offset the additional expenses of drilling one additional well and to provide the necessary facilities to dehydrate and process the gas. Shield also states that he is now paying a third party 0.5 cents per Mcf for dehydrating the gas whereas the dehydration reimbursement from the buyer amounts to only 0.25 cents per Mcf. The new contract provides for a 1.0 cent per Mcf periodic increase every five years and contains no flexible pricing provision clauses.

In support of its proposed increased rate, Texas Gulf states that the higher prices are provided by contracts agreed upon in arm's-length bargaining; the proposed rates are less than the going price for gas in the area; and such rates represent a lower price than the present market value for equivalent supplies.

In support of higher rates, Union Oil states that the contract was negotiated at arm's length and the contract would not have been executed without the favored-nation clause. Humble states that the proposed rates are provided by contract and are in line with going contract prices in the area. If suspended, Humble requests that the suspension period be limited to one day on the theory that the staff has been investigating Humble's books and records since June 27, 1956, and additional time is not required for investigation.

[1] This order does not provide for the consolidation for hearing or disposition of the several matters covered herein, nor should it be so construed.

Puckett and McGill state that the increased rates are provided by contract and are just and reasonable and not contrary to the public interest.

In support of its proposed increased rate, Jal Oil states that in consideration of the higher price it has agree to delete the favored-nation clause from the contract; it agreed to extend the term of the contract to January 1, 1980; the amendatory agreement was arrived at after arm's-length negotiations; and the cost of doing business has been increasing.

The proposed rate changes may be unjust, unreasonable, unduly discriminatory, or preferential or otherwise unlawful.

The Commission finds: It is necessary and proper in the public interest and to aid in the enforcement of the Natural Gas Act that the Commission enter upon hearings concerning the lawfulness of the several proposed changes and that the above-designated supplements, together with Fred W. Shield's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 8, be suspended, and the use thereof deferred as hereinafter provided.

The Commission orders:

(A) Pursuant to the authority of the Natural Gas Act, particularly sections 4 and 15 thereof, the Commission's rules of practice and procedure and the regulations under the Natural Gas Act (18 CFR Ch. I), public hearings will be held upon dates to be fixed by notice from the Secretary concerning the lawfulness of the several proposed increased rates and charges contained in the above-designated supplements together with Fred W. Shield's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 8.

(B) Pending hearings and decisions thereon, each of the aforementioned supplements and Fred W. Shield's FPC Gas Rate Schedule 8 are suspended and the use thereof deferred until the date specified in the above-designated "Rate Suspended until" column and thereafter until such further time as they are made effective in the manner prescribed by the Natural Gas Act.

(C) Neither the Rate Schedules nor supplements thereto involved in the above-proposed changes shall be changed until the periods of suspension have expired, unless otherwise ordered by the Commission.

(D) Notices of intervention or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D.C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 and 1.37(f)) on or before August 15, 1960.

BLACK HILLS POWER AND LIGHT CO.

Notice of Application

JULY 1, 1960.

Take notice that on June 24, 1960, an application was filed with the Federal Power Commission pursuant to section 204 of the Federal Power Act by Black Hills Power and Light Company ("Applicant") for the issuance of such common shares of Common Stock of Applicant as will equal an aggregate offering price not in excess of $1,000,000, computed on the basis of the market value of Applicant's Common Stock as determined from transactions or quotations in the Over-the-Counter Market on a specified date within 15 days of the date of offering. The exact number of shares to be offered and price will be supplied by amendment. Applicant, having its principal business office at Rapid City, South Dakota, is incorporated under the laws of the State of South Dakota and does business in the States of South Dakota and Wyoming. Applicant proposes to arrange with Dillon, Read & Co., Inc., New York, New York, for the underwriting of such shares of the Additional Common Stock as the stockholders of Applicant may not purchase pursuant to the rights to be issued to them. Applicant did not ask for competitive bids in connection with the sale or underwriting of the aforesaid Common Stock since the Additional Common Stock is to be offered to Applicant's Common Stockholders pursuant to their preemptive rights and since the issuance of the Additional Common Stock will result in proceeds in an amount less than $1,000,000. Applicant states that the proceeds from the issuance and sale of the aforementioned Common Stock will be used for additions and improvements to Applicant's properties.

Any person desiring to be heard or to make any protests with reference to said application should on or before the 26th day of July 1960, file with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D.C., petitions or protests in accordance with the requirements of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10). The application is on file and available for public inspection.

COLUMBIAN FUEL CORP.

[Docket No. G-20578]

Order Reopening Proceeding, Staying Order Accepting Offer of Settlement and Terminating Proceeding, Granting Petition To Intervene and Fixing Hearing

JUNE 30, 1960.

On February 29, 1960, Columbian Fuel Corporation (Columbian Fuel) tendered an Offer of Settlement pursuant to § 1.18 (e) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure. By order issued April 26, 1960, this offer of settlement was accepted by the Commission.

In the order of April 26, 1960, it was stated that: "there are no interveners in this proceeding," whereas, subsequent to Commission action, but prior to issuance of the April 26, 1960 order, on April 22, 1960, a petition to intervene had been filed by the City and County of Denver, Colorado (Denver).

Denver further filed on May 25, 1960, a petition for rehearing of the order of April 26, 1960, requesting that its petition to intervene and rehearing of the order of April 26, 1960, be granted and that the Commission vacate or modify the said order in conformity with its request.

In support of its requested relief, Denver contends that it would uncover through cross-examination facts and evidence which would demonstrate that the settlement between Columbian Fuel and Colorado Interstate is not in the public interest. Denver avers that it should have been allowed to intervene in order to inquire and have determined whether consumers were prejudiced by the settlement terms, such as possible waiver by Colorado Interstate of refunds in return for the possible advantages which Columbian has set forth in its offer of settlement. Denver alleges that since it has not been allowed to intervene, the Commission has deprived itself of evidence without which a finding in the public interest cannot possibly be correctly entered. Finally, Denver argues that the order of April 26, 1960, is clearly unlawful as no finding of justness and reasonableness was made.

Denver in its petition for rehearing has presented allegations which, if supported, may materially affect our decision in this mater. Accordingly, we believe that the public interest would best be served by granting rehearing, granting Denver's petition to intervene, and staying our order of April 26, 1960 for a reasonable time to allow Denver an opportunity to support its above-stated contentions.

The Commission finds:

(1) It is in the public interest that the petition for rehearing of the Commission's order of April 26, 1960 filed by Denver on May 25, 1960, should be allowed; that this proceeding should be reopened; and that a limited hearing should be held to allow Denver the opportunity to offer evidence in support of the contentions it has advanced in its petition of May 25, 1960.

(2) The Commission order of April 26, 1960 accepting the offer of settlement should be stayed until further order of the Commission.

(3) Denver's petition to intervene filed on April 22, 1960, should be granted.

The Commission orders:

(A) The petition filed by Denver on May 25, 1960, requesting rehearing of the Commission's order of April 26, 1960, is hereby granted, this proceeding is hereby reopened and a hearing will be held on July 19, 1960, at 10 a.m., e.d.s.t., in a Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street NW., Washington, D.C., limited to the matters involved in and the issues presented by Denver in its petition for rehearing filed herein on May 25, 1960.

(B) The effectiveness of the Commission's order of April 26, 1960, is hereby stayed until further order of the Commission.

(C) Denver be permitted to become an intervener in this proceeding, subject to the rules and regulations of the Commission: Provided, however, That the participation of Denver shall be limited to the matters involved in and the issues presented in its petition for rehearing filed May 25, 1960: And provided, further, That the admission of Denver shall not be construed as recognition by the Commission that Denver might be aggrieved because of any order or orders of the Commission entered in this proceeding.

By the Commission.

[Docket Nos. RI60-445, RI60-446]

TEXACO SEABOARD, INC., AND TEXACO, INC.

Order Providing for Hearings on and Suspension of Proposed Changes in Rate and Allowing Rate Changes To Become Effective Upon Filing of Motions and Undertakings To Assure Refund of Excess Charges [1]

JUNE 30, 1960.

Texaco Seaboard, Inc., Docket No. RI60-445; Texaco, Inc., Docket No. RI60-446.

On May 31, 1960, the above-named respondents tendered for filing proposed changes in presently effective rate schedules for sales of natural gas subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission. In each filing the natural gas is sold at 14.65 psia. Neither Notice of Change was dated.

The filing by Texaco Seaboard, Inc., is designated Supplement No. 3 to its FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 25, and reflects an increase in rate from 6.9918 cents to 8.5 cents per Mcf, for sales to West Lake Natural Gasoline Co. in the producing area of S. Lake Trammell Field. The effective date is July 1, 1960.[2]

The filing by Texaco, Inc., is designated Supplement No. 13 to its FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 9, and reflects a decrease from 11.7518 cents to 11.3057 cents per Mcf, for sales to Northern Natural Gas Company in the producing area of W. Panhandle Field, Carson County, Texas. The effective date is July 1, 1960.[3]

The filing of Texaco Seaboard, Inc., is based upon a revenue-sharing rate increase for gas sold to West Lake Natural Gasoline Company from leases in the South Lake Trammel Field, Nolan County, Texas, and is requested to be effective as of June 23, 1960, the earliest date that the buyer's related resale rate may be made effective subject to refund in Docket No. RI60-30.

In support of its proposed increase, Texaco cites contractual provisions and states that costs have been increasing due to inflation as shown by the indices of the U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics; exploratory and developmental expenses have increased because of deeper drilling and drilling in more inaccessible places; and the increase is needed to encourage exploration and development.

Texaco, Inc.'s contract of sale with Northern Natural dated August 1, 1948, provides that buyer will pay seller a price equal to the current market price being paid at the wellhead for sweet gas produced in the Texas Panhandle Field, as determined by the Railroad Commission of Texas. Such determinations are made twice a year by the Texas Railroad Commission and Texaco has been filing rate changes in accordance with such determinations.

The last such previous determination was made on November 16, 1959, for a price of 11.7518 cents per Mcf for sweet gas. Texaco filed for such price on November 30, 1959, and the proposed rate was suspended in Docket No. G-20433 until June 1, 1960, because it exceeded the 11.0 cents per Mcf ceiling at 14.65 psia for increased rates in Texas Railroad Commission District No. 10. On April 28, 1960, Texaco filed a motion to put the suspended rate in effect subject to refund.

The latest determination by the Texas Railroad Commission was made on May 16, 1960, and is for a price of 11.3057 cents per Mcf for sweet gas. This is a decrease of 0.4461 cent per Mcf from the previously determined rate of 11.7518 cents per Mcf. The reasons for the decrease in the average price are not stated by Texaco. Consistent with the pricing provisions of its contract, Texaco now files for the lower rate.

The proposed changes may be unjust, unreasonable, unduly discriminatory, or preferential, or otherwise unlawful.

The Commission finds:

(1) It is necessary and proper in the public interest, and to aid in the enforcement of the provisions of the Natural Gas Act, that the Commission enter upon a hearing concerning the lawfulness of the rates, charges, classifications, and services contained in the above-designated supplement, and that said proposed rate schedules be suspended and the use thereof deferred as hereinafter provided.

(2) It is appropriate in the public interest and in carrying out the provisions of the Natural Gas Act that the above proposed rate supplements be made effective as hereinafter provided and that respondents be required to file undertakings as hereinafter ordered and conditioned.

The Commission orders:

(A) Pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 4 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act, and the Commission's regulations under the Natural Gas Act, including rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR Ch. I), public hearings shall be held at a time and date to be fixed by notices from the Secretary of this Commission, concerning the lawfulness of the rates, charges, classifications, and services, subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission, contained in the above-designated supplements.

(B) Pending such hearings and decisions thereon each of the above-designated supplements is hereby suspended, and its use deferred until July 2, 1960, and until such further time as it is made effective in the manner prescribed by the Natural Gas Act.[4]

(C) Neither the supplements hereby suspended, nor the rate schedules sought to be altered thereby, shall be changed until these proceedings have been disposed of or until the periods of suspension have expired, unless otherwise ordered by the Commission.

(D) The above-designated supplements shall be made effective as of July 2, 1960: Provided, however, That within 20 days from the date of issuance of this order, respondents shall execute and file under Docket Nos. RI60-445 and RI60-446 with the Secretary of the Commission their agreements and undertakings to comply with the refunding and reporting procedure required by the Natural Gas Act and § 154.102 of the regulations thereunder (prescribed by Order No. 215 and 215A). Each agreement and undertaking shall be filed by respondent, or if respondent is a corporation, signed by a responsible officer thereof accompanied by proper authorization from the Board of Directors and by a certificate showing service of copies upon all purchasers under the rate schedule involved. Unless respondents are advised to the contrary within 15 days after the filing of such agreements and undertakings, their agreement and undertaking shall be deemed to have been accepted.

(E) Notices of intervention or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D.C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.37(f)) on or before August 15, 1960.

By the Commission (Commissioner Kline dissenting).

JOSEPH H. GUTRIDE,
Secretary.

[F.R. Doc. 60-6302; Filed, July 7, 1960; 8:50 a.m.]

[1] This order does not provide for the consolidation for hearing or disposition of the several matters covered herein, nor should it be so construed.

[2] The stated effective date is 30 days after expiration of the required statutory notice.

[3] The stated effective date is that requested by respondent.

[4] Or in the filing by Texaco Seaboard, Inc., RI60-446 until such time as West Lake's resale rate in RI60-30 may be made effective subject to refund.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[File No. 812-1314]

MASSACHUSETTS INVESTORS TRUST

Notice of Filing of Application for Order of Exemption

JULY 1, 1960.

Notice is hereby given that Massachusetts Investors Trust ("MIT"), a registered open-end diversified investment company, has filed an application pursuant to section 6(c) of the Investment Company Act of 1940 ("Act") for an order of the Commission exempting from the provisions of section 22(d) of the Act the proposed issuance of its shares for substantially all of the cash and securities of Edgemont Securities Corporation ("Edgemont") on the basis set forth below.

Shares of MIT, a Massachusetts common law trust, are offered to the public on a continuous basis at net asset value plus varying sales charges dependent on the amount purchased. As of April 30, 1960, the net assets of MIT amounted to $1,416,990,132.

Edgemont, a Delaware corporation, is a personal holding company with eleven stockholders which engages in the business of investing and reinvesting its funds. Edgemont is exempt from registration under the Act by reason of the provisions of section 3(c)(1) thereof. Pursuant to an agreement between MIT and Edgemont, substantially all of the cash and securities of Edgemont, with a total value of approximately $10,600,000 as of April 30, 1960, will be transferred to MIT in exchange for shares of stock of MIT. The shares acquired by Edgemont are to be distributed immediately to its shareholders who intend to take such shares for investment with no present intention of distribution or redemption. The number of shares of MIT to be delivered to Edgemont will be determined by dividing the net asset value per share of MIT in effect at the close of business on the day preceding the closing date into the value of the Edgemont assets to be exchanged.

The value of the Edgemont assets will be subject to an adjustment designed to protect MIT's shareholders from possible adverse tax consequences of the exchange. Since the exchange will be tax-free for Edgemont and its shareholders, MIT's cost basis for tax purposes on the assets acquired from Edgemont will be the same as for Edgemont, rather than the price actually paid by MIT for the assets. In view of this, provision is made for the following adjustment. If the percentage of the value of the securities of Edgemont representing unrealized appreciation is greater than the percentage of the value of MIT's portfolio securities representing unrealized appreciation, there will be deducted from the value of the Edgemont assets 12½ percent of the amount of such excess unrealized appreciation. This adjustment is intended to safeguard the present shareholders of MIT from bearing a greater capital gains tax on any subsequent sale by MIT of the Edgemont securities than they would bear on the sale of the securities presently in its portfolio.

The application states that since the average capital gains tax rate that would have to be paid by MIT's shareholders cannot be exactly calculated, the figure of 12½ percent used for adjustment purposes was arrived at as a fair compromise between zero and the maximum long term capital gains tax rate of 25 percent.

As of April 30, 1960, the net unrealized appreciation of the Edgemont securities amounted to $9,577,961, or approximately 90 percent of the value of such securities, as compared with net unrealized appreciation on MIT's portfolio securities of approximately $708,495,066, or approximately 50 percent of the value of the net assets of MIT. If the transaction had been consummated on April 30, 1960, the adjustment described above would have resulted in a deduction of approximately $174,380 from the value of Edgemont's assets, and Edgemont's shareholders would have received approximately 761,074 shares of stock of MIT.

The application recites that the terms of the entire transaction were arrived at through arm's length bargaining between the officers of MIT and Edgemont.

Section 22(d) of the Act provides, in pertinent part, that no registered investment company shall sell any redeemable security issued by it to any person except at a current offering price described in the prospectus, with certain exceptions not applicable here. Under the terms of the Agreement, however, the shares of MIT are to be issued to Edgemont at a price other than the public offering price stated in the prospectus, which lists a sales charge of 2.5 percent for sales over $250,000.

Section 6(c) of the Act authorizes the Commission by order upon application to exempt, conditionally or unconditionally, any transaction from any provision of the Act or of any rule or regulation thereunder, if and to the extent that the Commission finds that such exemption is necessary or appropriate in the public interest and consistent with the protection of investors and the purposes fairly intended by the policy and provisions of the Act.

INTERSTATE COMMERCE COMMISSION

QUARTERLY AND ANNUAL REPORTS OF CLASS I AND CLASS II MOTOR CARRIERS OF PROPERTY

JUNE 23, 1960.

By a petition filed with the Commission under date of February 3, 1960, the American Trucking Associations, Inc. asks for a rule to provide for the revision of the operating ratio presently required to be furnished by Class I and Class II motor carriers of property in their annual and quarterly reports to the Commission, and to require the furnishing of a second ratio by such carriers in these reports to be known as "Net Income Ratio." Revision of the present operating ratio would call for the inclusion of the item of income taxes in computation of the "Operating Ratio", and the reporting of a second ratio to be called "Net Income Ratio", which would be computed by dividing the net income transferred to surplus by the total operating revenues.

Revision of the present operating ratio is requested by the petitioner so as to obtain a reflection of the treatment of income taxes as an expense of doing business as recognized in certain court decisions and in accordance with sound and generally accepted accounting principals, and for rate-making and other purposes. The second ratio is requested for the purpose of furnishing a valuable guide to the Commission, carrier management, financial institutions and others interested in an accurate measure of the carrier's financial efficiency.

Upon consideration of the above-described petition, notice is hereby given, in conformity with the terms of section 4(a) of the Administrative Procedure Act, 5 U.S.C. 1003, that the Commission has taken the matter under consideration.

Any interested person may, within 45 days from the date of the appearance of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER, file with the Commission a written statement of views or other representations in regard to the above described proposed changes and may request oral argument or public hearing.

This notice with a copy of petition will be served on all Class I and Class II common and contract motor carriers of property and notice will be given to the general public by depositing a copy in the Office of the Secretary of the Commission, Washington, D.C., and by filing the notice with the Director, Federal Register Division.

By the Commission, division 2.

PART 964—DRIED FIGS PRODUCED IN CALIFORNIA

Order Terminating the Provisions of Amended Marketing Agreement

This action is to terminate, effective August 1, 1960, Marketing Agreement No.

123, as amended, and Order No. 64, as amended (7 CFR Part 964), regulating the handling of dried figs produced in California (hereinafter referred to respectively as the "marketing agreement" and "order"), effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U.S.C. 601–674). The action is being taken, pursuant to section 8c(16)(B) of the act (7 U.S.C. 608c(16)(B)) and the applicable provisions of the marketing agreement and order, on the basis that such termination is favored by a majority of the producers of dried figs who during the 1959–60 crop year have been engaged in the production for market of dried figs in the State of California and that such majority have during such period produced for market more than 50 percent of the volume of such dried figs produced for market within the State of California.

The original marketing agreement and order were issued in March 1955 (20 F.R. 1685). The major regulatory provisions provide for the control of the quality and the volume of the dried figs handled. As contemplated at the time they were issued, the marketing agreement and order have operated in conjunction with the State of California Marketing Order for Dried Figs, as amended July 22, 1953; and the two programs have complemented each other pursuant to the provisions of section 10(i) of the act (7 U.S.C. 610(i)).

For some time the dried fig industry has given serious thought to termination of the marketing agreement and order and to operation only under the State order. On May 20, 1960, the Board of Directors of the California Fig Institute whose membership has for many years included all commercial producers of dried figs, recommended that the Federal program (i.e., the marketing agreement and order) be terminated. On May 24, 1960, the Board of Directors of Valley Fig Growers, a cooperative association whose membership consists of a substantial portion of the dried fig producers who produce a substantial portion of the dried figs produced in California, adopted a resolution favoring termination of the Federal program and declaring that, in the event of a referendum, Valley Fig Growers would vote its entire membership of producers in favor of termination. On June 1, 1960, the Dried Fig Administrative Committee, established under and for the purpose of administering the marketing agreement and order, also considered this matter of termination at an open meeting, and concluded that there existed an overwhelming majority of the entire dried fig industry in favor of such termination. It then unanimously recommended to the Secretary that the marketing agreement and order be terminated at the end of the current crop year (i.e., August 1, 1960). This committee represents the industry as a whole and consists of ten members, of whom five are handler representatives and five are producer representatives. The current members of the committee were recently elected by the groups they represent and selected by the Secretary to serve for a one-year term of office beginning June 1, 1960. They closely reflect the views of the persons whom they represent.

The actions related in the preceding paragraph as taken by the three different organizations are conclusive evidence that a large majority (by numbers and volume of dried fig production) of the producers of dried figs favor termination of the marketing agreement and order. Accordingly, it is hereby found that termination of the marketing agreement and order is favored by a majority of the producers of dried figs who during the crop year beginning August 1, 1959 (i.e., the representative period determined by the Secretary and specified in § 964.86(b) of the marketing agreement and order) have been engaged in the production for market of dried figs in the State of California, and that such majority have during such crop year produced for market more than 50 percent of the volume of such dried figs produced for market within said State.

It is, therefore, ordered, That Marketing Agreement No. 123, as amended, and this Part 964 (Order No. 64, as amended, and the rules and regulations thereunder), regulating the handling of dried figs produced in California, be and they hereby are, terminated, effective on August 1, 1960, pursuant to section 8c(16)(B) of the act (7 U.S.C. 608c(16)(B)) and the applicable provisions of the marketing agreement and order: Provided, That the procedure upon termination of the marketing agreement and order shall be as set forth in § 964.87.

It is hereby further found that it is impracticable, unnecessary, or contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule making procedure, or postpone the announcement of this termination action later than July 15, 1960, or the effective date of this action later than August 1, 1960 (5 U.S.C. 1001–1011), in that: (1) This termination relieves restrictions on the handling of dried figs produced in California; (2) it is mandatory under the act and this regulatory program that the Secretary terminate the marketing agreement and order at the end of the current crop year whenever he finds that such termination is favored by the requisite majority of producers, and in order for such termination to be effective by August 1, 1960, the announcement of such termination must, under the act and the marketing agreement and order, be not later than July 15, 1960; and (3) such termination and announcement thereof should be effected as soon as practical so as to enable interested parties to arrange their future operations accordingly.

(Sec. 5, 48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U.S.C. 608c)

Dated: July 6, 1960.

CLARENCE L. MILLER,
Assistant Secretary.

[Docket No. AO16-A6]

PART 131—HANDLING OF ANTI-HOG-CHOLERA SERUM AND HOG-CHOLERA VIRUS

Order Amending Order, as Amended, Regulating Handling

§ 131.0 Findings and determinations.

The findings and determinations hereinafter set forth are supplementary and in addition to the findings and determinations previously made in connection with the issuance of the order and of the previously issued amendments thereto; and all of said previous findings and determinations are hereby ratified and affirmed except insofar as such findings and determinations may be in conflict with the findings and determinations set forth herein.

(a) Findings upon the basis of the hearing record. Pursuant to the provisions of the Anti-Hog-Cholera Serum and Hog-Cholera Virus Marketing Agreement Act (7 U.S.C. 851 et seq.), and the rules of practice and procedure governing formulation of marketing agreements and marketing orders applicable to anti-hog-cholera serum and hog-cholera virus (9 CFR Part 132), public hearings were held at Kansas City, Missouri, on July 24, 1956, and at Chicago, Illinois, on July 21–22 and December 1–11, 1958, upon proposed amendments to the marketing agreement and the order regulating the handling of anti-hog-cholera serum and hog-cholera virus. Upon the basis of the evidence adduced at the hearings and the record thereof, it is found that:

(1) The said marketing agreement, as amended, and as hereby further amended, and all of the terms and conditions thereof will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act; (2) The order, as amended, and as hereby further amended, and all of the terms and conditions thereof will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act; (3) The said order, as amended, and as hereby further amended, regulates the handling of anti-hog-cholera serum and hog-cholera virus in the same manner as, and contains only such terms and conditions as are contained in a marketing agreement upon which a hearing has been held.

(c) Determinations. It is hereby determined that the agreement, amending the marketing agreement, as amended, regulating the handling of anti-hog-cholera serum and hog-cholera virus, upon which a public hearing has been held, has been signed by handlers who, during the calendar year 1959, handled not less than 75 per centum of the volume of anti-hog-cholera serum and hog-cholera virus which was handled in the current of interstate or foreign commerce or so as directly to burden, obstruct, or affect interstate or foreign commerce.

Order relative to handling. It is therefore ordered, that on and after the effective date hereof, the handling of anti-hog-cholera serum and hog-cholera virus shall be in conformity to and in compliance with the terms and conditions of the aforesaid order, as amended, and as hereby further amended, and the aforesaid order is hereby amended as follows:

§ 131.8 [Amendment]

1. Amend § 131.8 by substituting (1) and (2) for (a) and (b) respectively, and place (a) just prior to the first sentence of the section and add the following at the end of such section:

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (a) of this section a person shall not be classified as a wholesaler, or shall be deleted from the list of qualified wholesalers maintained by the Control Agency, if such person or its subsidiary or affiliate, (1) owns or controls, either directly or indirectly, an interest, in whole or in part, in a dealer, or (2) appoints or utilizes any dealer as his agent in any matter related to the handling of serum or virus, or appoints or utilizes any dealer as a branch house or distributional outlet for serum or virus, either directly or indirectly, or (3) where an interest, in whole or in part, in such person is owned or controlled, either directly or indirectly, by any dealer or dealers: Povided, however, That if such person or its subsidiary or affiliate is a corporation, ownership both direct and indirect by dealers of a combined interest not to exceed 10 percent of the total outstanding stock of all classes of such corporation shall not disqualify such person for wholesaler status: Provided, further, That this paragraph shall not apply to a farmer cooperative association.

2. Add a new § 131.19 to read as follows:

§ 131.19 Farmer Cooperative Association.

"Farmer Cooperative Association" as used in this part means a cooperative association as defined in 12 U.S.C. sec. 1141j(a), including a federation of such cooperative associations and any corporate organization, organized under a cooperative law or operating on a cooperative plan, which is owned and controlled, directly or indirectly, by such farmer cooperative associations or a federation of the same.

3. Amend § 131.51 to read as follows:

§ 131.51 Filing of price list; suspension and cancellation thereof.

(a) Except as provided in § 131.57, each manufacturer and wholesaler handler shall file with the Secretary and the control agency a separate list of his selling prices in the United States, including terms of sale and discounts, to each class of buyer defined in this subpart or under the provisions thereof, other than those specified in § 131.55. Each such handler's prices, discounts, and terms of sale shall be uniform for all buyers in each classification of the trade as defined by the control agency pursuant to this subpart.

(b) Each manufacturer and wholesaler handler's prices shall be deemed not to be uniform for all buyers in each classification of trade if such handler or its subsidiary or affiliate pays, or agrees to pay, to any purchaser of serum or virus patronage dividends or patronage refunds based on such purchases, or pays, or agrees to pay, to any purchaser of serum or virus, refunds based on the volume of purchases of serum or virus, or pays or agrees to pay to any purchaser any other discount or refund not immediately ascertainable from a posted price at the time of sale, or bases upon patronage any payment, right or obligation, either directly, indirectly, prospectively, or retrospectively, or associates with or ties into a sale, or sales, directly, indirectly, prospectively or retrospectively, any consideration, right or obligation, the value of which is not immediately ascertainable from the posted price at the time of sale: Provided, however, That a farmer cooperative association may pay, or agree to pay, patronage dividends.

(c) If the Secretary has reason to believe that any price list, term of sale or discount, in whole or in part, violates the provisions of this section he may immediately suspend the effectiveness of such price list, term of sale or discount, in whole or in part, pending an investigation and shall report such suspension to the control agency, who shall in turn immediately notify the handler whose price filing has been suspended. The Secretary may declare a filed price, term of sale or discount, in whole or in part, to be ineffective, if, after an investigation and opportunity to be heard has been afforded the handler whose price filing is questioned, the Secretary finds from the facts presented during such investigation that such price list, term of sale or discount, in whole or in part, violates the provisions of this section.

4. Amend § 131.54 to read as follows:

§ 131.54 Offers, contracts, sales.

Except as provided in § 131.57, each manufacturer and wholesaler handler shall make no sales unless he has an effective price list, including discounts and terms of sales, as set forth in § 131.51, filed with the control agency. No manufacturer or wholesaler handler shall make any bid, or offer to sell, or enter into an agreement or contract to sell serum or virus, or in any manner sell serum or virus at prices, discounts, or terms of sale different from those set forth in his filed price list which is effective at the time any such bid, offer, agreement, contract, sale or delivery is made. No manufacturer or wholesaler handler or its subsidiary or affiliate shall pay, or agree to pay, to any purchaser of serum or virus, patronage dividends or patronage refunds based on such purchases; or shall pay or agree to pay, to any purchaser of serum or virus refunds based on the volume of purchases of serum or virus; or shall pay, or agree to pay, to any purchaser any other discount or refund not immediately ascertainable from a posted price at the time of sale; or shall base upon patronage any payment, right or obligation, either directly, indirectly, prospectively or retrospectively; or shall associate with or tie into a sale, or sales, directly, indirectly, prospectively or retrospectively, any consideration, right or obligation, the value of which is not immediately ascertainable from the posted price at the time of sale: Provided, however, That a farmer cooperative association may pay or agree to pay patronage dividends. No manufacturer or wholesaler handler shall file a new or amended price list until his most recently filed price list for any class of buyers becomes effective, and no such handler shall withdraw any filed price list prior to the effective date of such price list.

5. Add a new § 131.57 to read as follows:

§ 131.57 Purchases by manufacturers.

A manufacturer of serum or virus may purchase serum or virus from another manufacturer at a negotiated price. Such purchaser shall not sell or offer for sale the purchased product to wholesalers, dealers or consumers at prices (including discounts and terms of sale) lower than the currently effective posted prices for such classes of purchasers of the manufacturer from whom he purchased such product: Provided, however, That in the event such purchaser purchases the same product from two or more manufacturers said purchaser shall not sell or offer for sale such purchased product to wholesalers, dealers or consumers at prices (including discounts and terms of sale) lower than the highest effective prices currently posted by his suppliers for wholesalers, dealers, and consumers. The prices, discounts and terms of sale filed by a manufacturer-buyer for serum or virus shall be uniform for all buyers in each classification of the trade regardless of whether it is of his own manufacture or has been purchased from one or more other manufacturer-handlers.

6. Add a new § 131.58 to read as follows:

§ 131.58 Manufacturer handling.

A manufacturer-handler or its subsidiary or affiliate is prohibited from selling serum or virus to or through any wholesaler or dealer which such manufacturer or its subsidiary or affiliate appoints or utilizes as his agent in any matter related to the handling of serum or virus, either directly or indirectly, or which such manufacturer or its subsidiary or affiliate appoints or utilizes as a branch house or distributional outlet for serum or virus, either directly or indirectly, or in which such manufacturer, its subsidiary or affiliate, owns or controls an interest, either direct or indirect, or which such manufacturer or its subsidiary or affiliate utilizes in any other manner in the handling of serum or virus.

7. Add a new § 131.69 to read as follows:

§ 131.69 Patronage dividends and refunds.

The payment of, or agreement to pay, patronage dividends or patronage refunds based on purchases of serum or virus to the purchaser thereof, or the payment of, or agreement to pay, refunds based on the volume of purchases of serum or virus to the purchaser thereof, or the payment of, or agreement to pay, to any purchaser of serum or virus any other discount or refund not immediately ascertainable from the applicable posted price at the time of sale; or basing upon patronage any payment, right or obligation, either directly, indirectly prospectively or retrospectively; or associating with or tieing into a sale, or sales, directly, indirectly, prospectively or retrospectively, any consideration, right or obligation, the value of which is not immediately ascertainable from the posted price at the time of sale, by manufacturer and wholesaler handlers or their subsidiaries or affiliates is prohibited: Provided, however, That a farmer cooperative association may pay, or agree to pay, patronage dividends.

8. Add a new paragraph (j) to § 131.71 to read as follows:

(j) The payment of, or agreement to pay, patronage dividends, patronage refunds, refunds based on the volume of purchases of serum or virus or other discounts, or refunds not immediately ascertainable from a posted price at the time of sale; or basing upon patronage any payment, right or obligation, either directly, indirectly, prospectively or retrospectively; or associating with or tieing into a sale, or sales, directly, indirectly, prospectively, or retrospectively, any consideration, right or obligation, the value of which is not immediately ascertainable from the posted price at the time of sale; excepting, however, the payment of or agreement to pay, patronage dividends by a farmer cooperative association.

(49 Stat. 781–782; U.S.C. 851–855)

The provisions of this amendatory order shall become effective 30 days after publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER; except that those provisions pertaining to the payment of patronage dividends contained in §§ 131.51, 131.54, 131.69 and 131.71(j) shall become effective on January 1, 1961.

Done at Washington, D.C., this 5th day of July 1960.

TRUE D. MORSE,
Acting Secretary.

[Airspace Docket No. 59–LA–48]

PART 600—DESIGNATION OF FEDERAL AIRWAYS

PART 601—DESIGNATION OF THE CONTINENTAL CONTROL AREA, CONTROL AREAS, CONTROL ZONES, REPORTING POINTS, AND POSITIVE CONTROL ROUTE SEGMENTS

Designation, Modification and Revocation of Federal Airways and Associated Control Areas

On March 5, 1960, a notice of proposed rule making was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (25 F.R. 1963) stating that the Federal Aviation Agency was proposing the following actions: Extension of VOR Federal airway No. 95 and its associated control areas from Farmington, N. Mex., to Kiowa, Colo.; extension of VOR Federal airway No. 89 and its associated control areas from Denver, Colo.; to Alamosa, Colo.; revoke the segment of VOR Federal airway No. 81 and its associated control areas between Grand Junction, Colo., and Salt Lake City, Utah; designate VOR Federal airway No. 484 and its associated control areas from Alamosa to Salt Lake City; and designate VOR Federal airway No. 486 and its associated control areas from Tuba City, Ariz., to Gunnison, Colo.

Although not mentioned in the notice, the revocation of Victor 81 between Grand Junction and Salt Lake City requires an amendment to § 601.1118 which describes the Grand Junction, Colo., control area extension. Additionally, the Parker Restricted Area (R–195) was revoked in Airspace Docket No. 59–LA–65 (24 F.R. 9420) and reference to this restricted area in the description of Victor 81 is no longer required. [Airspace Docket No. 60–FW–43]

PART 601—DESIGNATION OF THE CONTINENTAL CONTROL AREA, CONTROL AREAS, CONTROL ZONES, REPORTING POINTS, AND POSITIVE CONTROL ROUTE SEGMENTS

Modification of Control Zone

The purpose of this amendment to § 601.2249 of the regulations of the Administrator is to modify the Corpus Christi, Tex., control zone.

The present Corpus Christi, control zone is designated within a 3-mile radius of Cliff Maus Airport, Corpus Christi, within 2 miles either side of the northwest course of the Corpus Christi radio range extending from the radio range to the Odem fan marker, and within 2 miles either side of the Corpus Christi VOR 178° and 358° True radials extending from the 3-mile radius zone to a point 10 miles north of the VOR.

The city of Corpus Christi has advised the Federal Aviation Agency that aircraft operations presently conducted at Cliff Maus Airport are to be moved to the new International Airport at Corpus Christi August 8, 1960, thus it is necessary to designate a control zone at Corpus Christi International Airport coincident with commencement of operations so that air traffic control service may be exercised to provide protection for instrument approaches to the airport. The Federal Aviation Agency is modifying the Corpus Christi control zone by redesignating the control zone within a 5-mile radius of the new Corpus Christi International Airport, within 2 miles either side of the 135° True bearing from the Corpus Christi International Airport ILS outer marker compass locator (latitude 27°50'04" N., longitude 97°34'34" W.), extending from the 5-mile radius zone to the ILS outer marker compass locator and within 2 miles either side of the 199° True radial of the Corpus Christi VOR extending from the 5-mile radius zone to the VOR. Concurrent with this action, the ADF and VOR instrument approach procedures to Cliff Maus Airport will be canceled.

This action will result in the Corpus Christi control zone being redesignated within a 5-mile radius of Corpus Christi International Airport (latitude 27°46'00" N., longitude 97°30'00" W.), within 2 miles either side of the 135° True bearing from the Corpus Christi International Airport ILS outer marker compass locator extending from the 5-mile radius zone to the outer marker compass locator and within 2 miles either side of the Corpus Christi VOR 199° True radial extending from the 5-mile radius zone to the VOR. The redescribed control zone is approximately 43 square miles less than the existing control zone at Cliff Maus Airport.

For the reasons stated above, the Administrator finds that a situation exists requiring immediate action in the interest of safety and that notice and public procedure hereon are impracticable, and that good cause exists for making this amendment effective on less than 30 days' notice.

In consideration of the foregoing, and pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (24 F.R. 4530) the following action is taken:

Section 601.2249 (24 F.R. 10583) is amended to read:

§ 601.2249 Corpus Christi, Tex., control zone.

Within a 5-mile radius of Corpus Christi International Airport (latitude 27°46'00" N., longitude 97°30'00" W.), within 2 miles either side of the 135° True bearing from the Corpus Christi International Airport ILS OM extending from the 5-mile radius zone to the OM and within 2 miles either side of the Corpus Christi VOR 199° True radial extending from the 5-mile radius zone to the VOR.

This amendment shall become effective 0001 e.s.t. August 8, 1960.

Issued in Washington, D.C., on July 7, 1960.

GEORGE S. CASSADY,
Acting Director, Bureau of Air Traffic Management.

PART 50—SPECIAL SERVICES AND STUDIES BY THE BUREAU OF THE CENSUS

Fee Structures for Unpublished Data and Enumeration District Maps From 1960 Census of Population and Housing

In accordance with the provisions of section 4 (a) and (c) of the Administrative Procedure Act, it has been found that notice and hearing of this schedule of fees and postponement of the effective date thereof is impracticable and unnecessary for the reason that such procedure, because of the nature of the rules, serves no useful purpose.

In accordance with the provisions of the act authorizing the Department of Commerce to make special statistical surveys and studies, and to perform other specified services upon the payment of the cost thereof, the following fee structures are hereby established. No transcript of any record will be furnished under authority of these acts which would violate existing or future acts requiring that information furnished be held confidential.

§ 50.30 Fee structure for unpublished data from the 1960 Population and Housing Census.

(a) The Bureau of the Census is willing to furnish from the 1960 Census of Population and Housing certain data by census tracts and enumeration districts in advance of publication or from tabulations not to be published, provided there is no serious interruption of the Bureau's regular work program. Specific fees and approximate dates of availability are set for certain kinds of data as listed below. Other special tabulations of data may be arranged by requesting a special cost estimate.

Data available	Date of availability	Fee
1. Preliminary counts of total population and housing units by enumeration districts—copies of former containing unverified counts made in field offices (subject to minor revision).	After July 1, 1960	$1.00 per 75,000 population or fraction thereof.
2. Census tract composition by enumeration district—copies of listings of enumeration districts (ED's) in census tracts for converting ED data to tract totals.	do	$2.00 per 100 tracts or fraction thereof.
3. Preliminary counts of population and housing units by census tracts—copies of hand-posted sheets showing census tract totals.	do	$1.00 per tract.
4. Final counts of total population and housing units by enumeration districts—copies of sheets showing final counts and additional sheets showing ED identification by minor civil division and place.	October through December 1960, and thereafter.	$1.25 per 75,000 population or fraction thereof.
5. Selected population and housing characteristics by census tracts—copies of advance data from complete count tabulations relating to sex, age, other marital status, and relationship, housing units by tenure, color, and vacancy status, condition and plumbing, number of rooms, number of persons and number of persons per room, value of property, and contract rent.	do	$3.50 per 100 tracts or fraction thereof.

§ 50.35 Fee structure for enumeration district maps.

(a) The Bureau of the Census is willing to furnish maps of municipalities and unincorporated places showing boundaries of enumeration districts. Some are available now and all are expected to be available by the end of July. Following is the fee structure:

Population size (1960 Census)	Fee[1] (each)
Less than 25,000	$1.50
25,000–49,999	2.50
50,000–100,000	4.00
Each additional 100,000 or fraction thereof	2.50

This proceeding was heard by a hearing examiner on the complaint of the Commission charging Philadelphia distributors with representing falsely that imported products were made in the United States, through such practices as printing "Manufactured by Bachmann Bros., Inc., * * *" on display cards attached to their Japanese-made "Champion" sunglasses, and through failing to mark cases enclosing the sunglasses with the country of origin.

3. Section 404.606 is amended to read as follows:

§ 404.608 When an application is considered to have been filed.

(a) Date of receipt. Except as otherwise provided in this Subpart G an application is considered to have been filed only as of the date the application is received at an office of the Bureau or by an employee of the Social Security Administration who has been authorized to receive such application at a place other than such office except that:

(1) In cases where the application may be and is submitted to an office maintained by the Foreign Service of the United States (see § 404.606(a)) the application shall be considered to have been filed with the Bureau as of the date it is received at such office of the Foreign Service.

No initial determination, as required by § 404.905 shall be made by the Bureau with respect to such written statement until the claimant files an application on a form prescribed in § 404.602. The Bureau, or the Veterans' Administration Regional Office in the Philippines, as the case may be, shall notify the claimant in writing that an initial determination will be made with respect thereto only if a prescribed application form is filed within 6 months from the date of such notification. If the claimant does not file such prescribed application form within such 6-month period, the claimant shall be deemed to have indicated that the filing of such written statement is not to be considered the filing of an application for purposes of section 202, or 216(i) or 223 of the act or a recomputation of a primary insurance amount, as appears from such written statement.

(b) Written statement filed by person other than the claimant. The provisions of paragraph (a) of this section shall apply to a written statement filed by an individual on behalf of the claimant if:

An application or a request for revision of records of earnings of the Administration filed by a claimant or on his behalf by a person authorized to execute an application under § 404.603 may be withdrawn only if the claimant or such other person files a written notice of such withdrawal and such notice is filed on or before the date of the Bureau's determination upon such application or request. Thereafter, further action will be taken only upon the filing of a new application or request.

SUBCHAPTER B—FOOD AND FOOD PRODUCTS

PART 51—CANNED VEGETABLES; DEFINITIONS AND STANDARDS OF IDENTITY; QUALITY; AND FILL OF CONTAINER

Canned Sweetpotatoes; Order Amending Standard of Identity

In the matter of amending the definition and standard of identity for canned sweetpotatoes with respect to the designation of the optional forms of the vegetable ingredient:

A notice of proposed rule making was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER of May 7, 1960 (25 F.R. 4114), setting forth a proposal by the Princeville Canning Company, St. Francisville, Louisiana, to amend the definition and standard of identity for canned vegetables other than those specifically regulated to provide, in the case of canned sweetpotatoes, for including "halves or halved" as an optional form. The notice invited all interested persons to submit views and comments. Some comments from members of the interested industry recommended that "cuts" or "cut" also be provided as designations to be used on labels in lieu of the term "pieces."

Upon consideration of all views and comments submitted and other relevant information, it is concluded that it will promote honesty and fair dealing in the interest of consumers to amend the definition and standard of identity for canned vegetables other than those specifically regulated (21 CFR 51.990) as hereinafter set forth. Therefore, pursuant to the authority of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (secs. 401, 701, 52 Stat. 1046, 1055, as amended 70 Stat. 919, 72 Stat. 948; 21 U.S.C. 341, 371) and in accordance with the authority delegated to the Commissioner of Food and Drugs by the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare (22 F.R. 1045, 23 F.R. 9500, 25 F.R. 5611): It is ordered, That § 51.990(b) be amended to read as follows:

§ 51.990 Canned vegetables other than those specifically regulated; identity; label statement of optional ingredients.

(b) The table referred to in paragraph (a) of this section is as follows:

I	II	III
Name or synonym of canned vegetable	Source	Optional forms of vegetable ingredient
Sweetpotatoes.	Tuber of the sweetpotato plant.	Whole; mashed; pieces or cuts or cut (longitudinally cut halves may be named on labels as halves or halved in lieu of pieces or cuts or cut).

Any person who will be adversely affected by the foregoing order may at any time prior to the thirtieth day from the date of its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER file with the Hearing Clerk, Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, Room 5440, 330 Independence Avenue SW., Washington 25, D.C., written objections thereto. Objections shall show wherein the person filing will be adversely affected by the provisions of the order deemed objectionable and the grounds for the objections. If a hearing is requested, the objections must state the issues for the hearing. A hearing will be granted if the objections are supported by grounds legally sufficient to justify the relief sought. Objections may be accompanied by a memorandum or brief in support thereof. All documents shall be filed in quintuplicate.

Effective date. This order shall become effective 60 days from the date of its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER, except as to any provisions that may be stayed by the filing of proper objections. Notice of the filing of objections or lack thereof will be announced by publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

PART 121—FOOD ADDITIVES

Subpart G—Radiation and Radiation Sources Intended for Use in the Production, Processing, and Handling of Food

PERMITTED USE OF SOURCES OF RADIATION FOR INSPECTION OF FOODS, FOOD PACKAGES, AND FOR CONTROLLING FOOD PROCESSES

The Commissioner of Food and Drugs has evaluated the data submitted in petitions filed by the General Electric Company, 4855 Electric Avenue, Milwaukee 1, Wisconsin, and by Industrial Nucleonics Corporation, 650 Ackerman Road, Columbus 14, Ohio, and other relevant material concerning safe uses of radiation sources consisting of X-ray devices and the radioactive isotopes strontium 90 and cesium 137. This evaluation has led the Commissioner to conclude that the uses outlined will neither produce radioactivity in the food supply nor cause other deleterious effects therein and to conclude that the following food additive regulation should issue in conformance with section 409 of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act with respect to these sources when used for the purpose of inspection of foods, food packages, and for controlling food processes.

Therefore, pursuant to the provisions of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (sec. 409(c)(1), 72 Stat. 1786; 21 U.S.C. 348(c)(1)), and under the authority delegated to the Commissioner by the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare (23 F.R. 9500), Part 121 is amended by inserting therein a new Subpart G:

§ 121.3001 Sources of radiation used for inspection of foods, food packages, and for controlling food processes.

Sources of radiation for the purposes of inspection of foods, food packages, and for controlling food processes may be safely used under the following conditions:

(a) The radiation source is one of the following:

(1) X-ray tubes producing X-radiation from operation of the tube source at energy levels of 300 kilovolt peak or lower.

(2) Sealed units producing radiations at energy levels of not more than 2.2 million electron volts from one of the following isotopes: Cesium 137, strontium 90.

(b) To assure safe use of these radiation sources, the labels and labeling of the sources shall contain all the following:

(1) Appropriate and accurate information identifying the source of radiation.

(2) Maximum energy levels of the sources.

(3) Adequate directions for installation and use including the statement that no food shall be exposed to the radiation source in excess of 15 minutes.

Any person who will be adversely affected by the foregoing order may at any time prior to the thirtieth day from the date of its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER file with the Hearing Clerk, Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, Room 5440, 330 Independence Avenue SW., Washington 25, D.C., written objections thereto. Objections shall show wherein the person filing will be adversely affected by the order and specify with particularity the provisions of the order deemed objectionable and the grounds for the objections. If a hearing is requested, the objections must state the issues for the hearing. A hearing will be granted if the objections are supported by grounds legally sufficient to justify the relief sought. Objections may be accompanied by a memorandum or brief in support thereof. All documents shall be filed in quintuplicate.

Effective date. This order shall become effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

§ 302.1 Statutory provisions and Executive order; section 212 of the International Claims Settlement Act, and Executive Order 10644.

SEC. 212. (a) The vesting in any officer or agency designated by the President under this title of any property or the receipt by such designee of any earnings, increment, or proceeds thereof shall not render inapplicable any Federal, State, Territorial, or local tax for any period before or after such vesting.

(b) The officer or agency designated by the President under this title shall, notwithstanding the filing of any claim or the institution of any suit under this title, pay any tax incident to any such property, or the earnings, increment, or proceeds thereof, at the earliest time appearing to him to be not contrary to the interest of the United States. The former owner shall not be liable for any such tax accruing while such property, earnings, increment, or proceeds are held by such designee, unless they are returned pursuant to this title without payment of such tax by the designee. Every such tax shall be paid by the designee to the same extent, as nearly as may be deemed practicable, as though the property had not been vested, and shall be paid only out of the property, or earnings, increment, or proceeds thereof, to which they are incidant or out of other property acquired from the same former owner, or earnings, increment, or proceeds thereof. No tax liability may be enforced from any property or the earnings, increment, or proceeds thereof while held by the designee except with his consent. Where any property is transferred, otherwise than pursuant to section 207(a) or 207(b) hereof, the designee may transfer the property free and clear of any tax, except to the extent of any lien for a tax existing and perfected at the date of vesting, and the proceeds of such transfer shall, for tax purposes, replace the property in the hands of the designee.

(c) Subject to the provisions of subsection (b) of this section, the manner of computing any Federal taxes, including without limitation by reason of this enumeration, the applicability in such computation of credits, deductions, and exemptions to which the former owner is or would be entitled, and the time and manner of any payment of such taxes and the extent of any compliance by the designee with provisions of Federal law and regulations applicable with respect to Federal taxes, shall be in accordance with regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury to effectuate this section. Statutes of limitations on assessments, collection, refund, or credit of Federal taxes shall be suspended with respect to any vested property or the earnings, increment, or proceeds thereof, while vested and for six months thereafter; but no interest shall be paid upon any refund with respect to any period during which the statute of limitations is so suspended.

(d) The word "tax" as used in this section shall include, without limitation by reason of this enumeration, any property, income, excess-profits, war-profits, excise, estate, and employment tax, import duty, and special assessment; and also any interest, penalty, additional amount, or addition thereto not arising from any act, omission, neglect, failure, or delay on the part of the designee.

[Section 212, International Claims Settlement Act of 1949, as added by Act of August 9, 1955 (Pub. Law 585, 84th Cong., 69 Stat. 562)]

By virtue of the authority vested in me by Title II of the International Claims Settlement Act of 1949, as added by Public Law 285, 84th Congress, approved August 9, 1955 (69 Stat. 562), and by section 301 of title 3 of the United States Code, and as President of the United States, it is ordered as follows:

SECTION 1. The Attorney General, and, as designated by the Attorney General for this purpose, any Assistant Attorney General are hereby designated and empowered to perform the functions conferred by the said Title II of the International Claims Settlement Act of 1949 upon the President, and the functions conferred by that title upon any designee of the President.

SEC. 2. The Attorney General is hereby designated as the officer in whom property shall vest under the said Title II.

SEC. 3. As used in this order, the term "functions" includes duties, powers, responsibilities, authority, and discretion, and the term "perform" may be construed to include "exercise".

§ 302.1–1 Definitions.

(b) Attorney General. The term "Attorney General" includes the officer in whom property is vested pursuant to Title II of the International Claims Settlement Act of 1949, as amended. The term also includes the officer, including any Assistant Attorney General designated by the Attorney General for this purpose, designated and empowered pursuant to Executive Order No. 10644 to perform the functions conferred by Title II upon the President of the United States and the functions conferred by such Title upon the designee of the President.

(c) Commissioner. The term "Commissioner" means the Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

(d) Person. The term "person" includes a natural person, partnership, association, other unincorporated body, corporation, or body politic, having or claiming an interest in vested property or liable or charged with liability for internal revenue tax in connection with such property.

(e) Former owner. The term "former owner" means the owner immediately prior to vesting and any successor in interest by inheritance, devise, bequest, or operation of law, of such owner.

(f) Property. The term "property" means any property, right, or interest, including earnings, increment, or proceeds thereof.

(g) Act. The term "Act" means the International Claims Settlement Act of 1949, as amended by the Act of August 9, 1955 (Pub. Law 285, 84th Cong., 69 Stat. 562).

(h) Tax. The term "tax" includes, but is not limited to, any property, income, excess-profits, war-profits, excise, estate, and employment tax, import duty, and special assessment; and also any interest, penalty, additional amount, or addition thereto not arising from any act, omission, neglect, failure, or delay on the part of the Attorney General.

§ 302.1–2 Application of regulations.

(a) Property covered. The regulations in this part are applicable in connection with property vested in the Attorney General pursuant to section 202 (a) of the Act and in connection with the net proceeds of any property described under section 202(b) of such Act which was vested in the Attorney General after December 17, 1941, pursuant to the Trading With the Enemy Act, as amended (40 Stat. 411).

(b) Taxes covered. The regulations in this part are applicable to any internal revenue tax with respect to (1) property vested in the Attorney General or any action or transaction incidental to such property, or (2) any person whose property is so vested or any action or transaction of such person, whether the tax is applicable in respect of the period of vesting or any other period.

§ 302.1–3 Protection of internal revenue prior to tax determination.

(a) Suits and claims for return of vested property—(1) General. The provisions of this paragraph apply in cases where there has been neither a final nor a tentative determination of internal revenue tax liability. See paragraphs (e) and (f) of § 302.1–4. In such cases vested property (including property vested pursuant to section 202(a) of the Act which is subject to divestment by reason of its ownership by a natural person) shall not be returned or divested except in accordance with this paragraph.

(2) Notice to Commissioner—(i) Suits for recovery. Where suit for the return of vested property has been instituted pursuant to section 207(a) of the Act, the Attorney General shall within a reasonable time after answer has been filed or after beginning of the trial of the case notify the Commissioner in writing of the property involved and the name, address, citizenship, residence, and business organization of the claimant, and any other pertinent information.

(ii) Return without suit. Where the Attorney General has determined that pursuant to section 207(b) of the Act vested property is to be returned to the claimant, the Attorney General shall notify the Commissioner in writing in the manner prescribed in subdivision (1) of this subparagraph at least 90 days prior to any return of such property.

(3) Return of property—(i) By divestment. Where the Attorney General has determined that property vested pursuant to section 202(a) of the Act was directly owned by a natural person, the Attorney General shall not divest himself of such property and restore it to its blocked status prior to vesting unless there has been a determination of tax liability pursuant to § 302.1–4 and a payment of such tax pursuant to § 302.1–5.

(ii) Without security. Where vested property is the subject of a suit or proceeding pursuant to the Act, it may be returned without security prior to determination of applicable internal revenue taxes and prior to the judgment of the court or to the publication of the order of the Attorney General directing such return to the following described claimants under conditions hereinafter stated:

(a) Residents and domestic enterprises. In the case of claimants who at the time of return are (1) individuals permanently resident in the United States since December 7, 1941, or (2) corporations or other business enterprises organized under the laws of the United States, or any State, Territory, or possession thereof, or the District of Columbia, or doing business in the United States, the Attorney General may without notice to the Commissioner return the property at any time.

(b) Non-residents, etc. In the case of claimants who at the time of return are (1) individuals not permanently resident in the United States since December 7, 1941, or (2) nondomestic corporations or other nondomestic enterprises not doing business within the United States, the property may be returned not less than 90 days after notice by the Attorney General to the Commissioner in a case within subparagraph (2) (i) of this paragraph, or not less than 60 days after notice in a case within subparagraph (2) (ii) of this paragraph, unless within such time the Attorney General is advised otherwise by the Commissioner.

(iii) When security required. Except as provided in subdivisions (i) and (ii) of this subparagraph, vested property shall not be released prior to determination of tax liability without security satisfactory to the Commissioner, but determination of tax liability will be expedited in order that the release of the property or of the security shall not be unnecessarily delayed.

(4) Security. When security is required under subparagraph (3) (iii) of this paragraph, it shall be such of the following as the Commissioner considers necessary:

(i) Bond. A bond of the claimant conditioned upon payment of the full amount of internal revenue taxes determined to be due, filed with the district director in such amount, and with such sureties, as the Commissioner deems necessary. Only surety companies holding a certificate of authority from the Secretary of the Treasury may be used.

(ii) Collateral security. Collateral authorized by law deposited by the claimant in lieu of surety conditioned upon the payment of the full amount of internal revenue taxes determined to be due.

(iii) Reservation of assets. Monies, or if the monies are insufficient, so much of the other property involved, to be reserved by the Attorney General, as will be sufficient in the judgment of the Attorney General to cover any internal revenue tax liability determined by the Commissioner.

(b) Vested property subject to debt claims—(1) Notice to Commissioner. With respect to vested property available for the payment of debt claims pursuant to section 208 of the Act, and with respect to which debt claims have been filed, prior to the allowance of any such claims the Attorney General shall in writing notify the Commissioner of the property involved, the citizenship, residence, business organization and other necessary information concerning the debtor and the aggregate of debt claims filed in respect thereof.

(2) Action by Commissioner. Upon receipt of the notice provided in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph the Commissioner shall, as soon as practicable and not later than 120 days after receipt of notice, unless the time is extended by the Commissioner after notice to the Attorney General, (i) determine the taxes payable by the Attorney General in respect of the debtor, or (ii) advise the Attorney General of the provision, if any, to be made by him for payment of taxes with respect of the debtor.

§ 302.1–4 Computation of taxes.

(a) Detail of employees of the Internal Revenue Service. The Commissioner will detail for the assistance of the Attorney General such employees of the Internal Revenue Service as may be necessary to make the computations under the regulations in this part promptly and accurately.

(b) Relationship of Attorney General and former owner. In the computation of tax liability under the regulations in this part, except as otherwise provided herein, the vesting of property shall not be considered as affecting the ownership thereof; and any act of the Attorney General in respect of such property (including the collection or operation thereof and any investment, sale, or other disposition and any payment or other expenditure) shall be considered as the act of the owner. Nevertheless, except as otherwise provided in the Act or the regulations in this part, insofar as taxes are incident to the vested property during the period of vesting, they shall be payable by the Attorney General, except that to the extent of the value of any of the property returned to the former owner the latter shall be liable for such tax not paid by the Attorney General. While tax incident to nonvested property is collectible out of both vested and nonvested property, the nonvested property will be regarded as the primary source of collection of such tax. In determining the amount of liability to be paid out of property not vested by the Attorney General a computation shall be made covering the taxpayer's full period of liability, but without regard to the vested property, or the income received by, or the operations of, the Attorney General. The amount so computed shall be first asserted against and collected so far as practicable from the taxpayer or out of his property which is not vested. Such part of the total tax liability as is not paid by the taxpayer or collected out of property not vested shall be asserted against the vested property. See § 302.1–5, relating to payment of taxes, and § 302.1–7, relating to claims for credit or refund.

(c) Laws applicable to computations. Except as otherwise specifically provided in the regulations in this part, the computation under the regulations in this part of any internal revenue tax liability shall be in accordance with the internal revenue laws and regulations applicable thereto, including all amendments of such laws or regulations enacted or promulgated prior to determination of the tax.

(d) Periods for which computations made. The amount of income, declared value excess profits, excess profits, capital stock, employment, and excise taxes under the internal revenue laws will be computed for each taxable year or period during all or part of which property is vested prior to the return of the property. In the case of a return of property prior to computation of tax, see § 302.1–3. Where vesting occurs during a taxable year or taxable period, any return filed or computation made covering vested or nonvested property should nevertheless be for the entire year or period. See paragraph (b) of this section. Unless facts are available indicating a liability for taxes for a taxable year or period occurring wholly prior or subsequent to the period of vesting of the property by the Attorney General, the computations under the regulations in this part, both tentative and final, will be made only in respect of years and periods during all or part of which the property is held by the Attorney General.

(e) Tentative computation. In order that the return of property or other appropriate action may not be delayed until the amount of taxes payable is finally computed and paid, a tentative computation of such amount will be made in every case, unless there are circumstances appearing to make such action inappropriate. Such circumstances would include (1) return of the property in accordance with § 302.1–3, (2) notice to the Commissioner by the person to whom the property is returnable or by the Attorney General that such person or the Attorney General, as the case may be, prefers that the return of the property be postponed until the amount of such taxes can be finally computed or (3) belief on the part of the Commissioner that a final computation will not unduly delay the return of, or other appropriate action with respect to, the property. In making any such tentative computation of income, profits, or estate tax, the gross income or the gross estate, as the case may be, as shown by the records of the Attorney General (excluding therefrom items exempt from taxation) shall be considered as the taxable or net income or taxable or net estate, respectively, unless a tax return has been filed or facts are available upon which a more accurate computation can be made. In any case in which a duly authorized officer or employee of the Internal Revenue Service has otherwise computed the amount of taxes payable in respect of any period, such computation will be accepted as a tentative computation, unless the facts clearly indicate that a more accurate computation can be made.

(f) Final computation—(1) General. A final computation of the amount of taxes payable by the person to whom property is returnable, or out of property to be returned, will be made as soon as practicable in every case. In any case in which the amount shown by a tentative computation has been paid, refund or credit of any amount paid in excess of the amount properly due will be made in accordance with the final computation, even though a claim therefor has not been filed, if the period of limitation applicable to the filing of such claim has not expired. However, if it is desired to protect the right to any credit or refund determined to be due, a claim for credit or refund should be filed. The sufficiency of any such claim in respect of an amount paid in accordance with a tentative computation under the regulations in this part will not be questioned solely because facts upon which a more accurate computation could be made are not available or cannot be established at the time such claim is filed. Any such claim in respect of an amount paid in accordance with a final computation must, however, clearly set forth in detail under penalties of perjury all the facts relied upon in support of the claim and must conform to the regulations applicable to an ordinary claim for refund or credit. See § 302.1–7 relating to claims for credit or refunds.

(2) Information required—(i) Income and profits taxes. The following information submitted under penalties of perjury by or for the taxpayer is necessary in each case for a final computation, for each taxable year for which the computation is to be made:

(a) All income (other than income received by the Attorney General) from sources within the United States, or if no such income has been received, then a statement to that effect, except that in the case of a citizen or resident of the United States, income from sources without as well as within the United States must be shown.

(b) If a return of such income has been made, then the following data in respect of such return:

(1) The taxable year for which the return was made and the tax (whether income, declared value excess profits, or excess profits tax) paid;

(2) The name of the taxpayer for whom the return was made;

(3) The name of the agent or other person (if any) by whom such return was made;

(4) The office of the district director in which such return was filed.

(c) Such other facts as may be required, from time to time, by the Commissioner.

(ii) Other taxes. Except as otherwise provided in subdivision (i) of this subparagraph, in order to make a final computation of the amount of any internal revenue tax payable by return in any case, the usual return should be filed, together with the supporting documents required by the regulations pertaining to the tax.

(g) Tax returns—(1) General. In many cases allowance of deductions and credits is contingent upon the making of a return in accordance with the applicable internal revenue law. The submission of evidence relative to income or profits tax in accordance with subdivisions (a) and (c) of paragraph (f)(2)(i) of this section will be considered as the making of the return required by any such law, only (i) for any taxable period, ending on or before December 31, 1946, during all or part of which all or part of the property of the taxpayer was held by the Attorney General, or (ii) for any taxable period ending within one year from the date of the first return to the taxpayer of any part of the property held by the Attorney General, whichever period ends later. In all other cases a return will be required in accordance with the applicable internal revenue law and regulations. In the case of returns where property is vested during a taxable year or period, see paragraph (d) of this section.

(2) Estates and trusts. In the case of estates and trusts the fiduciaries shall file returns, including information returns as required by section 147 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1939 or section 6041 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954.

(3) Income tax forms to be used—(i) General. In the case of taxpayers engaged in trade or business in the United States Forms 1040B and 1120, as may be appropriate, shall be used. Where the taxpayer is not engaged in trade or business in the United States, Form M797 may be used in lieu of Forms 1040NB, 1040NB–a, and 1120NB.

(ii) Definition. When used in subdivision (i) of this subparagraph, the term "engaged in trade or business in the United States" includes the managing and renting of real estate in the United States by an agent of the Attorney General or of the former owner duly authorized to execute rental agreements and to pay all taxes and charges incident to the repair and maintenance of such property, but does not include the mere renting or leasing of property under agreement requiring the lessee or occupant to pay taxes and to make repairs or improvements.

§ 302.1–5 Payment of taxes.

(a) Pursuant to tentative computations. The amount of taxes shown by a tentative computation, shall be paid by the Attorney General or the taxpayer, as the case may be, to the district director as soon as practicable after the tentative computation has been made. It will not be necessary, however, for the payment by the Attorney General to be made prior to the return of property if an amount sufficient to cover all internal revenue taxes is retained from the property by the Attorney General.

(b) Pursuant to final computations. Upon a final computation of internal revenue taxes properly payable, the amount thereof remaining unpaid shall be paid by the Attorney General to the district director as soon as practicable after the final computation has been made, or, in case the property has been returned to the former owner, by such owner. If the final amount of internal revenue taxes properly payable is less than the amount previously paid, the difference shall be credited or refunded in accordance with the provisions of the regulations in this part and other applicable regulations. A final computation will not prohibit a subsequent recomputation if it is determined that the amount shown by the final computation is erroneous.

(c) Deficiency procedure. The Attorney General shall pay internal revenue taxes without regard to the provisions of law relating to the sending of a deficiency notice by certified or registered mail or to notice and demand.

§ 302.1–6 Interest and penalties.

(a) Liability for interest and civil penalties. Under subsection (d) of section 212 of the Act there is no liability for interest or penalty on account of any act or failure of the Attorney General. Such subsection is not applicable to interest or penalties payable in respect of any act or failure during the period prior to the vesting of the property by the Attorney General, or after the return of the property, or during the period during which the property was vested by the Attorney General on account of an act or omission of any person other than the Attorney General.

(b) Adjustment. In case of any assessment or collection, or credit or refund, of interest or a civil penalty contrary to section 212 (c) or (d) of the Act, proper adjustment shall be made.

§ 302.1–7 Claims for credit or refund.

(a) Time for filing claims. Claims for credit or refund must be filed within the period prescribed by section 322 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1939 or by section 6511 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as modified by section 212(c) of the Act. Any such claim must contain a detailed statement under penalties of perjury of all the facts relied upon in support of the claim and should be filed with the district director of the district in which the tax was paid. See paragraph (f)(1) of § 302.1–4 relating to final computation.

(b) Attorney General acting for taxpayer. Any act of the Attorney General for, or on behalf of, a taxpayer in respect of any claim under the regulations in this part will be considered as the act of such taxpayer, unless such taxpayer notifies the Commissioner in writing, by the filing of a claim for refund or credit or otherwise, that he does not ratify such act. See paragraph (b) of § 302.1–4 relating to relationship of Attorney General and former owner.

(c) Refund payable to Attorney General. All refund of taxes paid by the Attorney General shall be made directly to that official.

PART 33—DUST COLLECTORS FOR USE IN CONNECTION WITH ROCK DRILLING IN COAL MINES

Procedures for Testing for Permissibility

On pages 2014–17 of the FEDERAL REGISTER of March 9, 1960, there was published a notice and text of proposed revision of the regulations of Subchapter E of Title 30, Code of Federal Regulations, prescribing procedures for testing for permissibility and approving Dust Collectors for Use in Connection with Rock Drilling in Coal Mines.

Interested persons were given 30 days within which to submit written comments, suggestions, or objections concerning the proposed revision. Several suggestions to revise the text were received.

To permit unlimited discussion of the suggested changes by interested persons, the Bureau of Mines called a meeting, which was held at the Central Experiment Station, Bureau of Mines, Pittsburgh, Pa., on May 11, 1960. As a result of the discussions at the meeting and consideration of all relevant material presented pursuant to the notice, the following changes in the proposed regulations are made:

1. In § 33.6 paragraph (d) subparagraph (1), the title of the subparagraph is changed to read: "Details of all dust-collector parts".

2. In § 33.11 paragraphs (b), (c), and (d) are redesignated paragraphs (c), (d), and (e), respectively, and a new paragraph (b) is inserted after paragraph (a).

3. In § 33.37 a new paragraph (d) is inserted.

4. In § 33.38 paragraph (b) after the article "a" in the third line the word "gassy" is inserted.

5. In § 33.38 a new paragraph (c) is inserted.

The proposed revision of the regulations with the above changes are hereby adopted and are set forth below. Because of the safety and health-protective features it is deemed in the public interest that this revision of the regulations shall be effective on the date of publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

MARLING J. ANKENY,
Director, Bureau of Mines.

Subpart A—General Provisions

§ 33.1 Purpose.

The regulations in this part set forth the requirements for dust collectors used in connection with rock drilling in coal mines to procure their certification as permissible for use in coal mines; procedures for applying for such certification; and fees.

§ 33.2 Definitions.

As used in this part:

(a) "Permissible," as applied to a dust collector, means that it conforms to the requirements of this part, and that a certificate of approval to that effect has been issued.

(b) "Bureau" means the United States Bureau of Mines.

(c) "Certificate of approval" means a formal document issued by the Bureau stating that the dust collector unit or combination unit has met the requirements of this part, and authorizing the use and attachment of an official approval plate or a marking so indicating.

(d) "Certificate of performance" means a formal document issued by the Bureau stating that a dust-collecting system has met the test requirements of Subpart C of this part and therefore is suitable for use as part of permissible units.

(e) "Dust-collector unit" means a complete assembly of parts comprising apparatus for collecting the dust that results from drilling in rock in coal mines, and is independent of the drilling equipment.

(f) "Combination unit" means a rock-drilling device with an integral dust-collecting system, or mining equipment with an integral rock-drilling device and dust-collecting system.

(g) "Dust-collecting system" means an assembly of parts comprising apparatus for collecting the dust that results from drilling in rock and is dependent upon attachment to other equipment for its operation.

(h) "Applicant" means an individual, partnership, company, corporation, association, or other organization that designs and manufactures, assembles or controls the assembly of a dust-collecting system, dust-collector unit, or a combination unit, and seeks certification thereof.

§ 33.3 Consultation.

By appointment, applicants or their representatives may visit the Bureau's Central Experiment Station, 4800 Forbes Avenue, Pittsburgh 13, Pennsylvania, and discuss with qualified Bureau representatives proposed designs of equipment to be submitted in accordance with the requirements of the regulations of this part. No charge is made for such consultation and no written report thereof will be submitted to the applicant.

§ 33.4 Types of dust collectors for which certificates of approval may be granted.

(a) Certificates of approval will be granted only for completely assembled dust-collector or combination units; parts or subassemblies will not be approved.

(b) The following types of equipment may be approved: Dust-collector or combination units having components designed specifically to prevent dissemination of airborne dust generated by drilling into coal-mine rock strata in concentrations in excess of those hereinafter stated in § 33.33 as allowable, and to confine or control the collected dust in such manner that it may be removed or disposed of without dissemination into the mine atmosphere in quantities that would create unhygienic conditions.

§ 33.5 Fees for investigation.

(a) The following fees are charged for inspecting, testing, and certifying dust collectors:

(1) Preliminary review of drawings, specifications, and related data, each unit or system	$50
(2) Detailed inspection to determine adequacy of design and materials, each unit or system	50
(3) Detailed inspection to determine adequacy of design and materials relating to changes subsequent to an initial investigation, per man day or fraction thereof [1]	35
(4) Drilling each set of 10 test holes:
(i) First set of 10 test holes drilled, per investigation	135
(ii) Each additional set of 10 test holes drilled, per investigation	75

[1] In addition the applicant shall reimburse the Bureau for necessary travel and subsistence expenses of its representative(s) according to "Standardized Government Travel Regulations" when such Bureau representative(s) is required to be away from official headquarters.

(5) Final examination and recording of drawings and specifications, and issuing certificate of approval or certificate of performance	$65
(6) Examination and recording of drawings and specifications, and issuing extension of certificate of approval or certificate of performance	[1] 50
(7) Design of approval plate or P/T label for certified equipment	25

[1] If only a nominal amount of work is required, the fee will be $20.

(b) Additional fees shall be charged in accordance with the provisions of Part 18 of Subchapter D of this chapter (Bureau of Mines Schedule 2, revised, the current revision of which is Schedule 2F) for examining and testing electrical parts of dust collectors required under § 33.38.

(c) The full fee must accompany an application for certification of a unit or dust-collecting system. The fees charged for each investigation will be in proportion to the work done, and any surplus will be refunded to the applicant.

(d) The fee for an extension of certification to cover modifications of equipment will be determined according to the work required and the applicant will be notified accordingly. The fee must be paid in advance before the investigation will be undertaken.

(e) If the applicant is uncertain as to the amount of fee that should be sent with his application, the information will be furnished him in writing upon request addressed to the Central Experiment Station, 4800 Forbes Avenue, Pittsburgh 13, Pennsylvania, Attention: Chief, Branch of Health Research.

§ 33.6 Applications.

(a) No investigation or testing will be undertaken by the Bureau except pursuant to a written application, in duplicate (except as otherwise provided in paragraph (e) of this section), accompanied by a check, bank draft, or money order, payable to the United States Bureau of Mines, to cover the fees; and all prescribed drawings, specifications, and related materials. The application and all related matters and all correspondence concerning it shall be sent to the Central Experiment Station, Bureau of Mines, 4800 Forbes Avenue, Pittsburgh 13, Pennsylvania, Attention: Chief, Branch of Health Research.

(b) The application shall specify the operating conditions (see § 33.22) for which certification is requested.

(c) Shipment of the equipment to be tested shall be deferred until the Bureau has notified the applicant that the application will be accepted. Shipping instructions will be issued by the Bureau and shipping charges shall be prepaid by the applicant. Upon completion of the investigation and notification thereof to the applicant by the Bureau, the applicant shall remove his equipment promptly from the test site (see § 33.30).

(d) Drawings and specifications shall be adequate in number and detail to identify fully the design of the unit or system and to disclose its materials and detailed dimensions of all component parts. Drawings must be numbered and dated to insure accurate identification and reference to records, and must show the latest revision. Specifications and drawings, including a complete assembly drawing with each part that affects dust collection identified thereon, shall include:

(1) Details of all dust-collector parts. A manufacturer who supplies the applicant with component parts or subassemblies may submit drawings and specifications of such parts or subassemblies direct to the Bureau instead of to the applicant. If the unit or system is certified, the Bureau will supply the applicant with a list, in duplicate, of drawing numbers pertaining to such parts or subassemblies for identification purposes only.

(2) Details of the electrical parts of units designed to operate as face equipment (see § 33.38) in accordance with the provisions of Part 18 of Subchapter D of this chapter (Bureau of Mines Schedule 2, revised, the current revision of which is Schedule 2F).

(3) Storage capacity of the various stages of dust collection in the dust separator.

(4) Net filter area in the dust separator, and complete specifications of the filtering material.

(e) If an application is made for certification of a dust-collector unit or a combination unit that includes electrical parts, and is designed to operate as electric face equipment, as defined in § 33.38, the application shall be in triplicate. One copy of the application shall be marked Attention: Chief, Branch of Electrical-Mechanical Testing.

(f) The application shall state that the unit or system is completely developed and of the design and materials which the applicant believes to be suitable for a finished marketable product.

(g) The applicant shall furnish a complete unit or system for inspection and testing. Spare parts, such as gaskets and other expendable components subject to wear in normal operation, shall be supplied by the applicant to permit continuous operation during test periods. If special tools are necessary to disassemble any part for inspection or test, they shall be furnished by the applicant.

(h) Each unit or system shall be carefully inspected before it is shipped from the place of manufacture or assembly and the results of the inspection shall be recorded on a factory-inspection form. The applicant shall furnish the Bureau with a copy of the factory-inspection form with his application. The form shall direct attention to the points that must be checked to make certain that all parts are in proper condition, complete in all respects, and in agreement with the drawings and specifications filed with the Bureau.

(i) With the application the applicant shall furnish the Bureau with complete instructions for operating and servicing the unit or system and information as to the kind of power required. After the Bureau's investigation, if any revision of the instructions is required a revised copy thereof shall be submitted to the Bureau for inclusion with the drawings and specifications.

§ 33.7 Date for conducting tests.

The date of acceptance of an application will determine the order of precedence for testing when more than one application is pending, and the applicant will be notified of the date on which tests will begin. If a unit or system fails to meet any of the requirements, it shall lose its order of precedence. If an application is submitted to resume testing after correction of the cause of failure, it will be treated as a new application and the order of precedence for testing will be so determined.

§ 33.8 Conduct of investigations, tests, and demonstrations.

(a) Prior to the issuance of a certificate of approval or performance, only Bureau personnel, representatives of the applicant, and such other persons as may be mutually agreed upon, may observe the investigations or tests. The Bureau shall hold as confidential and shall not disclose principles or patentable features, nor shall it disclose any details of drawings, specifications, and related materials. After the issuance of a certificate, the Bureau may conduct such public demonstrations and tests of the unit or system as it deems appropriate. The conduct of all investigations, tests, and demonstrations shall be under the sole direction and control of the Bureau, and any other persons shall be present only as observers, except as noted in paragraph (b) of this section.

(b) When requested by the Bureau, the applicant shall provide assistance in disassembling parts for inspection, preparing parts for testing, and operating combination units.

§ 33.9 Certification of dust-collecting systems.

Manufacturers of dust-collecting systems that are designed for integral use on machines with drilling equipment may apply to the Bureau to issue a certificate of performance for such systems. To qualify for a certificate of performance, the dust-collecting system shall have met satisfactorily the test requirements of Subpart C of this part under specified operating conditions (such as type of drilling equipment, drilling speed, and power requirements) and the construction thereof shall be adequately covered by specifications and drawings officially recorded and filed with the Bureau. Individual parts of dust-collecting systems will not be certified for performance. Certificates of performance may be cited to fabricators of combination units as evidence that further inspection and testing of the dust-collecting system will not be required, provided the dust-collecting requirements of the drilling equipment do not exceed the limits of performance for which the system was certified. Since the Bureau does not sanction the use of the words "permissible" or "approved" except as applying to completely assembled equipment, dust-collecting systems, which have been certified only as to performance, shall not be advertised or labeled in a manner inferring that such systems themselves are permissible or approved by the Bureau. However, a certified system may be advertised as suitable for use on combination units for which certification may be desired if the limits of its performance are cited. Certified dust-collecting systems shall bear labels or tags which shall contain the following: "Performance-tested Dust Collecting System, Bureau of Mines File No. P/T ----------," and name of manufacturer, identifying numbers of the dust-collector parts, and description of the limitations for which performance is certified. The Bureau will assign a P/T file number in the certification letter.

§ 33.10 Certificates of approval or performance.

(a) Upon completion of an investigation, the Bureau will issue to the applicant either a certificate or a written notice of disapproval, as the case may require. No informal notification of approval will be issued. If a certificate is issued, no test data or detailed results of tests will accompany it. If a notice of disapproval is issued, it will be accompanied by details of the defects, with a view to possible correction. The Bureau will not disclose, except to the applicant, any information on a unit or system upon which a notice of disapproval has been issued.

(b) A certificate will be accompanied by a list of the drawings and specifications covering the details of design and construction of the unit or system, including the electrical parts, if applicable, upon which the certificate is based. Applicants shall keep exact duplicates of the drawings and specifications submitted and the list of drawing numbers referred to in subparagraph 1 of paragraph (d) of § 33.6 that relate to the certified unit or system, and these are to be adhered to exactly in production.

§ 33.11 Approval plates.

(a) A certificate of approval will be accompanied by a photograph of a design for an approval plate, bearing the seal of the Bureau of Mines, the name of the applicant, the name of the unit, the approval number or space for the approval number (or numbers if permissibility of electrical parts is involved), spaces for the type and the serial numbers of the unit, conditions of approval, and identifying numbers of the dust-collector parts. When deemed necessary by the Bureau, an appropriate statement shall be added, giving the precautions to be observed in maintaining the unit in an approved condition.

(b) An approval plate for a unit designed for use in a nongassy coal mine shall state that any electrical parts are not certified for use in a gassy coal mine. (See § 33.38(c).)

(c) The applicant shall reproduce the design either as a separate plate or by stamping or molding it in some suitable place on each unit to which it relates. The size, type, and method of attaching and location of an approval plate are subject to the approval of the Bureau. The method of affixing the plate shall not impair the dust-collection or explosion-proof features of the unit.

(d) The approval plate identifies the unit, to which it is attached, as permissible, and is the applicant's guarantee that the unit complies with the requirements of this part. Without an approval plate, no unit has the status of "permissible" under the provisions of this part.

(e) Use of the approval plate obligates the applicant to whom the certificate of approval was granted to maintain the quality of each unit bearing it and guarantees that it is manufactured and assembled according to the drawings and specifications upon which a certificate of approval was based. Use of the approval plate is not authorized except on units that conform strictly with the drawings and specifications upon which the certificate of approval was based.

§ 33.12 Changes after certification.

If an applicant desires to change any feature of a certified unit or system, he shall first obtain the Bureau's approval of the change, pursuant to the following procedure:

(a) Application shall be made as for an original certificate, requesting that the existing certification be extended to cover the proposed changes, and shall be accompanied by drawings, specifications, and related data showing the changes in detail.

(b) The application will be examined by the Bureau to determine whether inspection and testing will be required. Testing will be necessary if there is a possibility that the modification may affect adversely the performance of the unit or system. The Bureau will inform the applicant whether such testing is required, the components or materials to be submitted for that purpose, and the fee.

(c) If the proposed modification meets the requirements of this part and Part 18 of Subchapter D of this chapter (Bureau of Mines Schedule 2, revised, the current revision of which is Schedule 2F) if applicable, a formal extension of certification will be issued, accompanied by a list of new and corrected drawings and specifications to be added to those already on file as the basis for the extension of certification.

§ 33.13 Withdrawal of certification.

The Bureau reserves the right to rescind for cause, at any time, any certification granted under this part.

Subpart B—Dust-Collector Requirements

§ 33.20 Design and construction.

(a) The Bureau will not test or investigate any dust collector that in its opinion is not constructed of suitable materials, that evidences faulty workmanship, or that is not designed upon sound engineering principles. Since all possible designs, arrangements, or combinations of components and materials cannot be foreseen, the Bureau reserves the right to modify the tests specified in this part in such manner to obtain substantially the same information and degree of protection as provided by the tests described in Subpart C of this part.

(b) Adequacy of design and construction of a unit or system will be determined in accordance with its ability (1) to prevent the dissemination of objectionable or harmful concentrations of dust into a mine atmosphere, and (2) to protect against explosion and/or fire hazards of electrical equipment, except as provided in paragraph (b) of § 33.38.

§ 33.21 Modification of test equipment.

For test purposes the unit or system may be modified, such as by attaching instruments or measuring devices, at the Bureau's discretion; but such modification shall not alter its performance.

§ 33.22 Mode of use.

(a) A unit or system may be designed for use in connection with percussion and/or rotary drilling in any combination of the folowing drilling positions: (1) Vertically upward, (2) upward at angles to the vertical, (3) horizontally, and (4) downward.

(b) Dust-collector units may be designed for use with specific drilling equipment or at specific drilling speeds.

§ 33.23 Mechanical positioning of parts.

All parts of a unit that are essential to the dust-collection feature shall be provided with suitable mechanical means for positioning and maintaining such parts properly in relation to the stratum being drilled.

Subpart C—Test Requirements

§ 33.30 Test site.

Tests shall be conducted at the Bureau's Experimental Mine, Bruceton, Pennsylvania, or other appropriate place(s) determined by the Bureau.

§ 33.31 Test space.

(a) Drilling tests shall be conducted in a test space formed by two curtains suspended across a mine opening in such a manner that the volume of the test space shall be approximately 2,000 cubic feet.

(b) No mechanical ventilation shall be provided in the test space during a drilling test, except such air movement as may be induced by operation of drilling- or dust-collecting equipment.

(c) All parts of a unit or system shall be within the test space during a drilling test.

§ 33.32 Determination of dust concentration.

(a) Concentrations of airborne dust in the test space shall be determined by sampling with a midget impinger apparatus, and a light-field microscopic technique shall be employed in determining concentrations of dust in terms of millions of particles (5 microns or less in diameter) per cubic foot of air sampled.

(b) Before a drilling test is started the surfaces of the test space shall be wetted; the test space shall be cleared of airborne dust insofar as practicable by mechanical ventilation or other means; and an atmospheric sample, designated as a control sample, shall be collected during a 5-minute period to determine residual airborne dust in the test space.

(c) A sample of airborne dust, designated as a test sample, shall be collected in the breathing zone of the drill operator during the drilling of each test hole. Time consumed in changing drill steel shall not be considered as drilling time and sampling shall be discontinued during such periods.

§ 33.33 Allowable limits of dust concentration.

(a) The concentration of dust determined by the control sample shall be subtracted from the average concentration of dust determined by the test samples, and the difference shall be designated as the net concentration of airborne dust. Calculations of the average concentration of dust determined from the test samples shall be based upon the results of not less than 80 percent of each set of 10 test samples.

(b) Under each prescribed test condition, the net concentration of airborne dust at each drill operator's position shall not exceed 10 million particles (5 microns or less in diameter) per cubic foot of air when determined in accordance with the method given in paragraph (a) of § 33.32.

§ 33.34 Drilling test.

(a) A drilling test shall consist of drilling a set of 10 holes with each drill involved under the specified operating conditions. The drilling of all sets of holes shall begin simultaneously and drilling shall continue until all holes are completed.

(b) Holes shall be drilled to a depth of 4 feet plus or minus 2 inches and shall be spaced so as not to interfere with adjacent holes. Each hole may be plugged after completion.

(c) Receptacles and filters for collecting drill cuttings shall be emptied and cleaned before each drilling test is started.

(d) Holes designated as "vertical" shall be drilled to incline not more than 10 degrees to the vertical. Holes designated as "angle" shall be drilled to incline not less than 30 and not more than 45 degrees to the vertical. Holes designated as "horizontal" shall be drilled to incline not more than 15 degrees to the horizontal.

§ 33.35 Methods of drilling; dust-collector unit.

(a) General. All drilling shall be done with conventional, commercial drilling equipment—pneumatic-percussion, hydraulic-rotary, and/or electric-rotary types—in accordance with the applicant's specifications.

(b) Pneumatic-percussion drilling. A stoper-type drill with a piston diameter of 2½ to 3 inches shall be used for roof drilling. A hand-held, sinker-type drill with a piston diameter of 2½ to 3 inches shall be used for down drilling and also for horizontal drilling, except that the drill shall be supported mechanically. Compressed air for operating the drill shall be supplied at a gage pressure of 85–95 pounds per square inch. Drill bits shall be detachable, cross type with hard inserts, and shall be sharp when starting to drill each set of 10 holes. In roof drilling, 1¼- and 1½-inch diameter drill bits shall be used; in horizontal and down drilling, 1¾-inch diameter bits shall be used. The drill steel shall be ⅞-inch hexagonal and of hollow type to permit the introduction of compressed air through the drill steel when necessary to clean a hole during drilling.

(c) Rotary drilling. A hydraulic-rotary drill with a rated drilling speed of 18 feet per minute free lift, capable of rotating drill steel at 900 revolutions per minute with 100 foot-pounds torque, and having a feed force of 7,000 pounds, shall be used for roof drilling. An electric-rotary drill, supported by a post mounting, with a rated drilling speed of 30 inches per minute and powered by a 2.25 horsepower motor, shall be used for horizontal drilling. For roof drilling, the bits shall be hard-tipped, 1⅜ and 1½ inches outside diameter, and 1¼-inch auger-type drill steel shall be used. For horizontal drilling, the bits shall be hard-tipped, 2 inches outside diameter, and 1¾-inch auger-type drill steel shall be used. Drill bits shall be sharp when starting to drill each set of 10 holes.

§ 33.36 Method of drilling; combination unit or dust-collecting system.

Drilling shall be conducted in accordance with the applicant's specifications and operating instructions. If special drill bits or drill steel are required, they shall be furnished to the Bureau by the applicant. Otherwise the drill bit and drill steel requirements stated in paragraphs (b) and (c) of § 33.35 shall be complied with for all types of combination units or dust-collecting systems.

§ 33.37 Test procedure.

(a) Roof drilling: Drilling shall be done in friable strata, similar to the roof in the Bureau's Experimental Mine, which tends to produce large scale-like cuttings.

(b) Horizontal drilling: Drilling shall be done in strata comparable in hardness to that of coal-mine draw slate. Holes shall be started near the roof of the test space under conditions simulating the drilling of draw slate in coal mining.

(c) Down drilling: Drilling shall be done in typical mine floor strata with a pneumatic percussion-type drill. Five holes shall be drilled vertically and five holes shall be drilled at an angle.

(d) At the Bureau's discretion drilling in "on site" strata may be acceptable in lieu of strata requirements in paragraphs (a), (b), and (c) of this section. (See § 33.20(a).)

§ 33.38 Electrical parts.

(a) Units with electrical parts and designed to operate as electric face equipment (see definition, § 45.44–1 of this chapter) in gassy coal mines shall meet the requirements of Part 18 of Subchapter D of this chapter (Bureau of Mines Schedule 2, revised, the current revision of which is Schedule 2F), and the examination and testing of the electrical parts shall be entirely separate from the examination and testing of dust-collecting equipment as such.

(b) Units with electrical parts designed to operate only outby the last open crosscut in a gassy coal-mine entry, room, or other opening (including electric-drive units with their controls and push buttons) are not required to comply with the provisions of Part 18 of Subchapter D of this chapter (Bureau of Mines Schedule 2, revised, the current revision of which is Schedule 2F).

(c) Units with electrical parts and designed for operation only in nongassy coal mines are not required to comply with the provisions of Part 18 of Subchapter D of this chapter (Bureau of Mines Schedule 2, revised, the current revision of which is Schedule 2F). (See § 33.11(b).)

Title 32—NATIONAL DEFENSE

Chapter V—Department of the Army

SUBCHAPTER G—PROCUREMENT

PART 606—SUPPLEMENTAL PROVISIONS

Procurement Action Reporting

All of Subpart C—Procurement Action Reporting is revised except § 606.305, which is redesignated as § 606.306, the material therein remaining unchanged:

§ 606.301 General.

§ 606.301–1 Purpose.

This subpart prescribes reports for furnishing information on procurement actions to the Deputy Chief of Staff for Logistics, Headquarters, Department of the Army, and to the Department of Defense.

(a) DD Form 350 (Individual Procurement Action Report). DD Form 350 is designed to provide essential procurement records and statistics through a single uniform reporting program as a basis for required recurring and special reports to the President, the Congress, the Office of Civil and Defense Mobilization, the General Accounting Office, the Renegotiation Board, the Small Business Administration, and other Federal agencies. It also provides the Department of the Army with a wide variety of significant data for procurement policy and management control purposes, and provides the Department of Labor with data required in connection with the administration of the Walsh-Healey Public Contracts Act.

(b) DD Form 1057 (Monthly Procurement Summary by Purchasing Office). This form provides for reporting a monthly summary of all procurement actions without regard to dollar amount. It includes a total of all actions reported on DD Form 350; a breakdown of actions under $10,000; and information with respect to the utilization of small purchases procedures and indefinite delivery type contracts.

§ 606.301–2 Procurement action.

The term procurement action as used in this report refers to any contractual action to obtain supplies, services, or construction which obligates or deobligates Department of the Army appropriated funds. It includes preliminary contractual instruments such as letter contracts; definitive contracts (both new and superseding, and notices of award); purchase orders; job orders; task order; delivery orders; and any other orders against existing contracts, including debit and credit actions that modify a contract, such as amendments, change orders, supplemental agreements, cancellations, terminations, and variations in quantities. The term does not include contracts which do not obligate a firm total dollar amount or do not specify a fixed quantity, such as indefinite delivery type contracts (orders or calls placed against such contracts, however, are to be reported as procurement actions when a firm obligation of funds is made), requisitions, and other means of transferring supplies or services within, or between, the military department or the procurement agencies of the Department of Defense.

§ 606.301–3 Verification of data and preparation of punched cards.

Heads of technical services and ZI army commanders shall be responsible for the review and analysis of DD Form 350 and DD Form 1057, the correction of erroneous reports, and codification of reports for electric accounting machine (EAM) processing. Upon completion of editing, auditing, and codification, the DD Form 350 and DD Form 1057 shall be furnished to the Machine Record Activity of the procuring activity for preparation and submission of the required punched cards.

§ 606.302 Individual procurement action report (reports control symbol CSGCD–525(R–4)).

DD Form 350 shall be prepared for each debit and credit procurement action which obligates or deobligates appropriated funds of $10,000 or more, including each letter contract and each contract superseding a letter contract. Procurement actions which are not to be reported under this subpart include:

(a) Procurement actions which have a dollar amount of $10,000 through $25,000 and which relate to the procurement of perishable subsistence by Military Subsistence Supply Agency regional headquarters;

(b) Rental or lease of real estate;

(c) Civil functions such as Engineer Civil Works which shall be reported in accordance with procedures prescribed by the Chief of Engineers; and

(d) Orders placed against contracts entered into by the Military Petroleum Supply Agency (MPSA), which will be reported by MPSA.

§ 606.303 Preparing agencies and submission instructions.

(a) Reports shall be prepared by the purchasing office effecting the procurement and forwarded without letter of transmittal, by airmail, where appropriate, as follows:

(1) Purchasing offices under the jurisdiction of the technical services and purchasing offices under the jurisdiction of the ZI armies shall forward the original DD Form 350 to the head of the procuring activity and a copy of the DD Form 350 to the Deputy Chief of Staff for Logistics, ATTN: Chief, Army Procurment Statistics, Procurement Division, Department of the Army, Washington 25, D.C., within 4 working days after the date (Item 10) of the procurement action being reported. General depots shall prepare and forward a separate DD Form 350 for each procuring technical service in the depot when funds of that service are cited and that technical service shall be designated in the heading of the DD Form 350, Item 4.

(2) Purchasing offices under the jurisdiction of the Chief of the National Guard Bureau; the Commanding General, Military District of Washington, U.S. Army; and the Commanding Generals, United States Army, Alaska; United States Army, Caribbean; United States Army, Hawaii; United States Army, Japan; United States Army, Europe (Rear)/Communications Zone; or a Staff Agency in the Department of the Army (other than a technical service) shall assemble and forward, monthly, original DD Forms 350 to the Deputy Chief of Staff for Logistics, ATTN: Chief, Army Procurement Statistics, Procurement Division, Department of the Army, Washington 25, D.C., and a copy of each DD Form 350 to the Head of the Procuring Activity or Staff Agency concerned, no later than the 5th working day after the close of the month being reported.

NOTE: For procurement actions effected during the month of June only, the above reporting dates are extended 10 additional calendar days.

(b) When the action reported has a value of $500,000 or more, or involves Military Assistance Program funds obligated or deobligated by oversea commands, one additional copy of the DD Form 350 shall be forwarded to the Deputy Chief of Staff for Logistics, ATTN: Chief, Army Procurement Statistics, Department of the Army, Washington 25, D.C.

(c) For each procurement action relating to a contract subject to the Walsh-Healey Public Contracts Act (Subpart F, Part 12 of this chapter), three additional copies of the top portion (first 13 items) of the DD Form 350 shall be prepared and forwarded directly to the Department of Labor, ATTN: Wage and Hour, and Public Contracts Division, Washington 25, D.C.

§ 606.304 Detailed instructions for preparing "Individual Procurement Action Report" (DD Form 350).

NOTE: Detailed instructions for preparation of DD Form 350 are explained under the item numbers below, which correspond to the numbers of the item headings on the face of the form.

(a) Item 1—Report number. The report number is the serial number assigned by the preparing office to each DD Form 350. It is determined by consecutively numbering reports from the beginning of each fiscal year, starting with number one, and by adding to this number a hyphen followed by the last two digits of the fiscal year. Where more than one activity in a purchasing office utilizes the same station number, the purchasing office shall assign blocks of numbers to each activity to avoid duplication of report numbers. Enter the number assigned. In addition, enter the number of the last previous procurement action report relating to the contract involved.

(b) Item 2—Basic contract number. Enter the basic contract number, such as DA–36–039–SC–66000. For a delivery order issued against a General Services Administration indefinite delivery type contract, enter the GSA contract number in this item and the delivery order number in Item 3.

(c) Item 3—Modification or other identification number. Enter the identification and number of letter contract amendments, delivery orders against indefinite delivery type contracts, contract change notifications, change orders, supplemental agreements, and other modifying actions, such as D.O. No. 33, C.O. No. 2, Mod. No. 35, Further Order No. 3, Amendment No. 1, etc.

(d) Item 4—Purchasing office and mailing address. Enter sufficient detail to establish the identity and mailing address of the purchasing office submitting the report.

(e) Item 5—Contractor. Enter the complete name and office address (street, city, and State or country) of the concern or division of the concern involved. Also enter the name of the parent company if the concern is a division. The contractor code number will be entered by the responsible personnel at Chief of Technical Service level or Headquarters, ZI army level.

(f) Item 6—Principal place of performance. Enter the actual location of the plant or place of business where the items will be produced or supplied or where the service will be performed. Principal place of performance, in general, refers to the prime contractor's final assembly point of a manufactured article, construction site, or place where a service is performed for the Government.

(1) Regular dealers normally ship from stock, in which case the place of performance is the regular dealer's location. Regular dealers also ship from subcontractors who produce the items, in which case the place of performance is the subcontractor's location.

(2) If more than one location is involved, show the location involving the largest dollar amount of procurement.

(3) For construction contracts, report the actual site of construction.

(4) In cases where the places of performance will be varied or unknown, enter the home office location of the contractor.

(5) Where set-aside preference is given, the principal place of performance shall be the city and State of the labor surplus or major disaster area which determined the preference.

(6) If the place of performance is a base, post, camp, or station, enter its name and the city and State in which located or the nearest city thereto.

(g) Item 7—Description of commodity or service. Enter brief description of commodity or service. When the description of a commodity or service is classified, enter only the word "classified".

(1) When an increase or decrease in funds is the result of price redetermination, change in fixed fee, contract termination, engineering changes, overruns, accelerated amortization, or continuation of research and development, specify the equipment or service procured under the basic contract, such as "Price Redetermination for M-60 Tanks," "Termination of Contract for XT-1410 Transmissions," "Engineering Changes on Power Plants," etc.

(2) Enter the Federal Supply Classification or Service Code as stated in DA Supply Bulletin 708-401.

(h) Item 8—Synopsis of proposed procurement. Check Sub-Item A if the proposed procurement action was synopsized and enter the IFB or RFP number in the space provided. If the procurement action was not synopsized, check as appropriate one of Sub-Items 1 through 17, which identifies the permissive ASPR authority (§ 1.1003-1 (a) through (q) of this title) for not synopsizing the action; Sub-Item 18 if the action is made pursuant to the terms of an existing contract but not increasing the scope of work; or Sub-Item 19 if the action was estimated to be under $10,000 at the time of solicitation but amounted to $10,000 or more at the time of award.

(i) Item 9—DD Claimant Program Number. Check the appropriate DDCP number that identifies the commodity described in Item 7.

(1) If the description in Item 7 is for research and development, the objective of the research and development shall control the DDCP number to be checked; e.g., if the objective of the research and development is a guided missile, check Sub-Item A-2. If the description in Item 7 is for basic research that cannot be identified with a particular claimant program, check Sub-Item S-1.

(2) Contracts for ship repair, IRAN and modification of aircraft, overhaul of engines, and like services shall be identified with a particular claimant program where possible. If a particular claimant program cannot be identified check Sub-Item S-1.

(j) Item 10—Date of this action. Enter the day, month, and year when a mutually binding agreement was reached. This shall be the effective date for fiscal obligation purposes. As a general rule, this occurs when a notice of award or fully executed document is manually delivered or placed in the mail to the contractor. In the case of letter contracts the date to be entered in this block is the date when the signed copy is received from the contractor.

(k) Item 11—Estimated completion date. Enter the month and year it is estimated the work called for by the contract will be completed. Words such as "continuous," "indeterminate," "unknown," or "100 days after approval of first article," are not acceptable. For basic contracts, the last delivery date shall govern the entry in this item. For supplemental agreements, the entry shall be governed by the delivery date in the specific supplemental agreement rather than the delivery dates of the basic contract. For engineering changes and spare parts provisioning actions, enter the date of delivery of the last end item involved. Where the estimated completion date is not affected by the action being reported, enter the date of delivery of the last end item involved.

(l) Item 12—Subject to Walsh-Healey Public Contracts Act. Check in accordance with the provisions of the contract. (Subpart F, Part 12 of this title.) If Sub-Item 1 or 2 is checked submit three copies of the top portion of DD Form 350 directly to the Department of Labor, Wage and Hour and Public Contracts Divisions, Washington 25, D.C. (§ 606.303(c)) except for contracts classified Confidential or higher.

(m) Item 13—Value of this action. Enter the net amount of funds obligated or deobligated by the contractual instrument being reported. Amounts will be entered in United States dollars and will be rounded to the nearest dollar. If the action increases the amount of Government obligation, also enter the symbol "DD" (for debit); if the amount of obligation is decreased, enter the symbol "CR" (for credit).

(n) Item 14—Labor surplus or major disaster area. (1) Labor Surplus Area: For definition see Subpart H, Part 1 of this title.

(2) Labor Surplus Industries: See Subpart H, Part 1 of this title for designations of such industries.

(3) Major Disaster Area—is an area so designated under the provisions of Public Law 875, 81st Congress, as amended (42 U.S.C. 1855b) and as implemented by Defense Mobilization Order VII-7 Supplement 1.

(4) Check as appropriate one of Sub-Items 1 through 5 for all actions placed in labor surplus and major disaster areas, labor surplus industries, including labor surplus area certifications furnished by local State Employment Offices, and enter the name of the appropriate area or industry in the space provided. A labor market area takes its name from the central city or cities located therein but also may include many other communities within its boundaries. The Department of Labor publication, "Directory of Important Labor Market Areas," defines all classified labor areas and lists all major communities located within the boundaries of labor market areas.

(5) If Sub-Item 3 is checked, Item 18, Sub-Item 1a also shall be checked.

(6) Check Sub-Item 6 if labor surplus or major disaster area consideration was not involved.

(o) Item 15—Kind of procurement action. Check one of Sub-Items 1 through 9 for each procurement action, including modification of an existing contract or order.

(1) Sub-Item 1—Initial letter contract. Check this sub-item when a new letter contract is executed. (For a letter contract which is designated as a modification to an existing contract, see Sub-Item 6.)

(2) Sub-Item 2—Definitive contract superseding letter contract. Check when applicable. (For a definitive modification which supersedes a letter contract designated as a modification to an existing contract, see Sub-Item 6.)

(3) Sub-Item 3—Definitive contract (including notice of award). Check this sub-item when the first binding document is the instrument containing all the terms and conditions of the agreement.

(4) Sub-Item 4—Order under contract. Check this item when reporting orders against indefinite delivery type contracts, priced exhibits, production lists, job orders, task orders, and the like, where firm obligations are created by the issuance of such documents. This type of instrument and number shall be entered in Item 3.

(5) Sub-Item 5—Provisioning order. This Sub-Item will not be used by the Department of the Army.

(6) Modifications. Check one of Sub-Items 6 through 9, as appropriate, for letter contracts designated as modifications and all other modifications to existing contracts.

(7) Sub-Item 6—Additional work. Check this Sub-Item when additional work is procured by means of a modification to the basic contract or order, as follows:

(i) Bi-lateral contract amendments and supplemental agreements which increase the scope of work of existing contracts but are not authorized by the terms of existing contracts; change orders, and exercise of options for increased quantities or extended performance.

(ii) Amendments to delivery orders, etc., increasing the number or quantity of items.

(iii) Amendments to letter contracts increasing the scope of work, including letter contracts designated as modifications and definitive modifications superseding letter contracts designated as modifications.

(8) Sub-Item 7 — Funding action. Check this sub-item for letter contract amendments and other contract modifications which do not change the scope of work of the existing contract but obligate or deobligate funds. This includes, by way of illustration, incremental funding, overruns on cost reimbursement contracts, and repricing actions covering incentive, price redetermination, and escalation.

(9) Sub-Item 8—Change order. Check this sub-item when reporting contract change notifications, change orders, or supplemental agreements issued pursuant to the "Changes" or "Changed Condition" clause or similar provisions of existing contracts.

(10) Sub-Item 9—Termination or cancellation. Check this sub-item when reporting a termination or cancellation action.

(p) Item 16—Contract placement. Check one of Sub-Items 1 through 5, as appropriate, to show the method used in making the procurement. Letter contract amendments, delivery orders against an activity's own indefinite delivery type contracts, contract change notifications, change orders, supplemental agreements, and other modifying actions made pursuant to the terms of existing contracts shall be reported the same as the basic contract to which they apply.

(1) Sub-Item 1—Intragovernmental. Check this sub-item if the action is an Interservice Interdepartmental action as defined below:

(i) Interservice actions. Include purchase orders or other procurement instruments placed by one Department of Defense activity against indefinite delivery type contracts or agreements executed by another Department of Defense activity. Examples are: (a) Orders placed by one military department against contracts entered into by another military department; (b) orders placed by activities of one military department against contracts entered into by other activities of the same military department, (c) orders placed by a military department or activity (other than single manager activities) against contracts entered into by single manager agencies. All contracts entered into by the Military Petroleum Supply Agency (MPSA), including definite delivery type, shall be reported directly by MPSA, and the Army, Air Force, and other Navy purchasing activities shall not report orders placed against indefinite type petroleum contracts entered into by MPSA. Orders placed by an activity against its own indefinite delivery type contract shall not be reported as interservice actions but shall be reported as advertised or negotiated as appropriate. See Sub-Items 3 and 5.

(ii) Interdepartmental actions. Include procurements from or through departments, agencies, institutions, or corporations of Federal, State, or local governments, other than Department of Defense. State-controlled educational institutions shall not be reported as interdepartmental, but shall be reported as non-profit institutions. See Item 17, Sub-Item 3. Examples are: (a) Orders placed by a military department or activity against contracts entered into by any Federal, State, or local government, agency, institution, or corporation, outside the Department of Defense, (b) contracts placed by a military department or activity with any Federal, State, or local government department, agency, institution, or corporation outside the Department of Defense.

NOTE: When Sub-Item 1 is checked, no entries shall be made in Items 17, 18, 19, and 20.

(2) Sub-Item 3—Advertised. Check this sub-item for new or modifying actions relating to procurement which resulted from acceptance of a bid made by a supplier in response to formal advertisement for bids (Part 2 of this chapter). Check also for orders against a reporting activity's own indefinite delivery type contract and exercise of option provisions in contracts originally placed through formal advertising.

NOTE: When Sub-Item 3 is checked, no entries shall be made in Items 18 and 19.

(3) Sub-Item 4—Small business restricted advertising. Is a form of negotiated procurement conducted in the same way as prescribed for formal advertising under Part 2 of this chapter, except that bids and awards are restricted to small business concerns. When Sub-Item 4 is checked, Item 18, Sub-Item A-1B or Sub-Item D-17A shall be checked, as appropriate, and Item 19, Sub-Item 1 shall be checked.

(4) Sub-Item 5—Negotiated. Check this sub-item for new or modifying actions relating to procurement resulting from negotiation procedures (Part 3 of this chapter). Check also for orders against an activity's own indefinite delivery type contracts and exercise of option provisions in contracts originally placed through negotiation procedures. When Sub-Item 5 is checked, the appropriate negotiation exception shall be checked in Item 18, and the appropriate sub-item of Item 19 shall be checked.

(q) Item 17—Small business. For definition see Subpart G, Part 1 of this title. Letter contract amendments, delivery orders against an activity's own indefinite delivery type contracts, contract change notifications, change orders, supplemental agreements, and other modifying actions shall be reported the same as the basic contract to which they apply.

(r) Awarded to large business. Check one of Sub-Items 1A through 1N if the contractor is a large business concern.

(1) Check Sub-Item 1A only when no small business source, considered technically and financially competent, (i) is on the appropriate bidders list, (ii) has submitted a bid or proposal, and (iii) has been proposed for solicitation by the small business representative of the Small Business Administration or of the purchasing office.

(2) Check one of Sub-Items 1B through 1E, as appropriate, only when there are small business sources for the commodity or service which are considered technically and financially competent, but this procurement was negotiated with a large business concern without solicitation of bids or proposals from small business sources because of considerations fully justified by established Department of Defense policy relating to: (i) Emergency procurement; (ii) maintenance of the mobilization base; (iii) proprietary or process control including patent rights, copyrights, secret process, and control of basic raw material, and standardized equipment negotiated under 10 U.S.C. 2304(a)(13); and (iv) quantitive or delivery requirements of the procurement.

(3) Check one of Sub-Items 1J through 1N on the basis of the facts as determined at the time of the award of the contract. Sub-Item 1N shall not be used if either Sub-Item 1L or 1M is applicable. The term "bid" as used in this section includes proposals under negotiated procurements, as well as formal bids under advertised procurement procedures.

(4) When more than one reason is involved in placing an award with a large, rather than a small business concern, the dominant reason shall be checked. The reasons are listed in order of relative importance.

(5) Check Sub-Item 2, if the award was made to a small business concern.

(6) Check Sub-Item 3, if the award was made to a non-profit institution which is defined as any corporation, foundation, trust, or institution not organized for profit, no part of the net earnings of which inures to the profit of any private shareholder or individual. Included are educational and scientific institutions of a non-profit nature.

(7) Check Sub-Item 5, if the work is to be performed outside of the United States, its possessions, and Puerto Rico.

(s) Item 18—Negotiated under 10 U.S.C. 2304(a) exception. This entry applies only to negotiated procurement actions.

(1) Negotiation of original contracts and of amendments for additional quantities or services shall cite, as authority for such negotiation, the authority of 10 U.S.C. 2304(a) which applies, and as cited in the appropriate Determination and Findings. Negotiations of all other amending actions which are negotiated in accordance with the provisions of the basic contract that have not been made subject to a separate Determination and Findings shall cite, as authority for such negotiation, the authority under 10 U.S.C. 2304(a) which was cited as authority for negotiating the basic contract.

(2) Check Sub-Item 1A to record negotiated actions pertaining to labor surplus area or industry set-asides. Labor Surplus Set-Aside designates a method of procurement whereby a portion of the requirement is withheld from general solicitation (either formally advertised or negotiated), and is reserved for negotiation exclusively with labor surplus area concerns as defined in Subpart H, Part 1 of this title.

(3) Check Sub-Item 1B to record negotiated actions pertaining to small business set-asides made unilaterally by a Department of the Army contracting officer. Small Business Set-Aside designates a method of procurement whereby either the total amount or a portion of a requirement is withheld from general solicitation and is reserved exclusively for small business concerns. These procurements are considered "negotiated" regardless of whether the contract is awarded by negotiation or by formal advertising procedures (Subpart G, Part 1 of this title).

(4) Check Sub-Item 1C to record negotiated actions pertaining to major disaster area set-asides. Major Disaster Area Set-Aside designates a method of procurement whereby either the total amount or a portion of a requirement is withheld from general solicitation and is reserved exclusively for firms located in major disaster areas and is to be performed substantially within such major disaster areas.

(5) Check Sub-Item 1D to record negotiated actions for property or services for experimental, developmental, or research work, or for making or furnishing property for experimentation, test, development, or research involving not more than $100,000 from contractors other than educational institutions.

(6) Check Sub-Item 1E to record the following types of modifying procurement actions executed under the authority of the provisions of a basic contract, negotiations for which were initiated prior to January 1, 1956: change order, supplemental agreements, or contract amendments issued pursuant to contractual provisions relating to changes, changed conditions, price escalation, price redetermination, incentive, and termination for convenience.

(7) Check Sub-Item B, as appropriate, when negotiation was accomplished pursuant to 10 U.S.C. 2304(a) (2), (4), (5), (6), (7), (8), (9), (11), (12), (13), (14), (15), or (16).

(8) Check Sub-Item C, as appropriate, when negotiation was accomplished pursuant to 10 U.S.C. 2304(a)(10). The procurement circumstances applicable to the negotiation as described in § 3.210-2 of this title are set forth as 10-1 through 10-15, representing (i) through (xv). Sub-Item C "10- (Specify code)" will be checked and appropriate number inserted only if additional procurement circumstances are later published in Subchapter A, Chapter I of this title. Check Sub-Item 10-26 if none of the procurement circumstances set forth in § 3.210-2 of this title is applicable.

(9) Check Sub-Item D when negotiation was accomplished pursuant to 10 U.S.C. 2304(a)(17) Sub-Item 17A shall be checked when reporting Joint Small Business Set-Asides pursuant to Public Law 85-536, i.e., set-asides agreed to jointly by the Small Business Administration representative and the Department of the Army contracting officer. Check Sub-Item 17B when any other public law authorized the negotiation and enter the number of the public law. For repurchase actions following default, check Sub-Item 17B and enter the words "Repurchase Action."

(t) Item 18—Extent of competition in negotiation. The purpose of this item is to provide statistics reflecting the extent and kind competition obtained under contracts executed pursuant to the negotiation authorities of Subchapter A, Chapter I of this title. In addition to data on price competition, provision is made to show separately, competition obtained on certain contracts resulting from the participation by numerous firms in precontract briefings and the submission of design and technical proposals incident to the selection of a single contractor with whom final negotiations were conducted.

(1) Check Sub-Item 1 when two or more sources were solicited, i.e., where two or more sources were requested to submit proposals for the purpose of negotiation.

(2) When only one source was solicited, check Sub-Item 2 in reporting procurement actions involving weapon systems, support systems, and other complex equipments specifically identified by the Chiefs of Technical Services, and listed below, as having been negotiated initially by design or technical competition, whether or not price considerations were involved. This includes procurement actions for research, design, development, and production of weapon systems, support systems, and other complex equipments, where industry capability was appraised and the successful contractor was selected by the Government on a competitive basis as a result of technical considerations and negotiations. This item will also be checked for procurement actions covering follow-on procurements of those specifically identified weapon systems, support systems, and other complex equipments, and also for contracts with "Selected Prime Contractors" for spare parts support, engineering and maintenance of such systems and equipments. For example, where under departmental selection procedures, an evaluation was made of technical or design proposals submitted by several different firms and determination was made to conduct further negotiations with only one of the firms, the procurement action report (DD Form 350) covering the resulting contract shall be checked in Sub-Item 2.

NOTE: The following list of missile systems, support systems, and other complex equipment systems have been specifically identified by the chiefs of the technical services as having been negotiated initially by design or technical competition, whether or not price consideration was involved. Where doubt exists as to the Selected Prime Contractor for a specific system, the name of the contractor will be obtained from the technical service having cognizance of the specific system.

[Docket No. AO–300–A1]

MILK IN THE COLORADO SPRINGS-PUEBLO MARKETING AREA

Notice of Recommended Decision and Opportunity To File Written Exceptions to Proposed Amendments to Tentative Marketing Agreement and to Order

Pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601 et seq.), and the applicable rules of practice and procedure governing the formulation of marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900), notice is hereby given of the filing with the Hearing Clerk of this recommended decision of the Deputy Administrator, Agricultural Marketing Service, United States Department of Agriculture, with respect to proposed amendments to the tentative marketing agreement and order regulating the handling of milk in the Colorado Springs-Pueblo marketing area. Interested parties may file written exceptions to this decision with the Hearing Clerk, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D.C., not later than the close of business the 3d day after publication of this decision in the FEDERAL REGISTER. The exceptions should be filed in quadruplicate.

Preliminary statement. The hearing on the record of which the proposed amendment, as hereinafter set forth, to the tentative marketing agreement and to the order, was formulated, was conducted at Colorado Springs, Colorado, on June 21–22, 1960, pursuant to notice thereof which was issued May 31, 1960 (25 F.R. 4919).

The material issues on the record of the hearing relate to:

1. The Class I price;
2. The Class II price;
3. Pool plant requirements and classification of plant definitions;
4. Classification of milk transferred or diverted to nonpool plants;
5. Limitations on diversions;
6. Location adjustments to producers;
7. Administrative charges to partially regulated handlers; and
8. Allocation of packaged sour cream received from plants where it has been classified and priced as Class I under another Federal order.

Inasmuch as the Class I price provision will expire July 31, 1960, immediate consideration is necessary on issue number 1, therefore this decision is confined to this issue. The remaining issues will be considered in a separate decision at a later date.

Findings and conclusions. The following findings and conclusions are confined to material issue number 1 and are based on evidence presented at the hearing and the record thereof:

1. The Class I price provisions should be continued 18 months beyond its present expiration date.

Producers proposed the continuation of the present Class I price. A handler testified in support of producers' proposal. No testimony in opposition was offered.

The Class I price presently is determined by adding $2.20 to the basic formula price for the preceding month. When the order was issued, effective February 1, 1959, this Class I price provision was made effective for a temporary period of 18 months. It was contemplated that after a full year's operation of the order, there should be opportunity to review the Class I price in the light of experience under the order.

Class I sales and producer milk supplies have both increased in the Colorado Springs-Pueblo market in the past year. For the five-month period January through May 1960, Class I sales of pool plants were 12.7 percent higher than those of the comparable period in 1959. Producer receipts in this period were 124.6 percent of those in the same months of 1959. The ratio of producer receipts to Class I sales was 119.2 percent in January–May 1959 and 130.9 percent in January–May 1960.

This higher ratio of increase in production over sales would in most circumstances indicate need for some downward adjustment of the Class I price in order to avoid excessive supplies for the market. There are, however, circumstances in the Colorado Springs-Pueblo market that indicate strongly the need for further experience under the order before arriving at a conclusion concerning the effect over the longer term of present pricing provisions in influencing a proper level of supply for the market.

The most significant factor in the changing supply-sales relationship from early 1959 to early 1960 is the fact that in early 1960 the Fort Carson military installation was supplied by a Denver handler. When this handler became fully regulated under the order, his milk supply was used to fulfill the contract. Local milk previously used to fulfill the contract then had to be classified as Class II. The needs of Fort Carson represent about 10 percent of the Class I sales of local handlers so that the shift of this one contract had a significant impact. At the time of the hearing the Fort Carson contract for the six-month period beginning July 1, 1960, had not yet been awarded.

The trend of producer numbers since the effective date of the order has been quite erratic. There was an increase of 145 producers (42 percent) from February to March 1959, decreases of 81 and 39, respectively, occurred in April and May and there was an increase of 38 in July. In a substantial number of cases producers supplied the market for only a few days, indicating that such producers were primarily associated with other markets, and that this milk was either received to meet the peak demand of an individual handler or that the pool was carrying reserves associated with other markets. Certain issues of this hearing are related to establishing the regular association of producers with the market as a condition of pooling or diversion.

The Colorado Springs-Pueblo market competes for supplies and sales with the substantially larger nearby Denver market. For May 1960, the Colorado Springs-Pueblo Class I price was 45 cents less than the Class I price reported as prevailing in the Denver market. While classification and accounting in Denver differ from Colorado Springs-Pueblo to the point that close comparisons cannot be made, the present Class I price is in reasonable alignment with the neighboring market under present conditions.

Continuation of present pricing provisions for another 18-month period will provide opportunity for a better basis for evaluation of the supply responses to such pricing in the light of developments in this and neighboring markets. It is concluded that the order should so provide.

Rulings on proposed findings and conclusions. A brief and proposed findings and conclusions were filed on behalf of an interested party. This brief, proposed findings and conclusions and the evidence in the record were considered in making the findings and conclusions set forth above. To the extent that the suggested findings and conclusions filed by the interested party are inconsistent with the findings and conclusions set forth herein, the request to make such findings or reach such conclusions are denied for the reasons previously stated in this decision.

General findings. The findings and determinations hereinafter set forth are supplementary and in addition to the findings and determinations previously made in connection with the issuance of the aforesaid order and all of said previous findings and determinations are hereby ratified and affirmed, except insofar as such findings and determinations may be in conflict with the findings and determinations set forth herein.

(a) The tentative marketing agreement and the order, as hereby proposed to be amended, and all of the terms and conditions thereof, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the Act;

(b) The parity prices of milk as determined pursuant to section 2 of the Act are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supplies of feeds, and other economic conditions which affect market supply and demand for milk in the marketing area, and the minimum prices specified in the proposed marketing agreement and the order, as hereby proposed to be amended, are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk, and be in the public interest; and

(c) The tentative marketing agreement and the order, as hereby proposed to be amended, will regulate the handling of milk in the same manner as, and will be applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activity specified in, a marketing agreement upon which a hearing has been held.

Recommended marketing agreement and order amending the order. The following order amending the order regulating the handling of milk in the Colorado Springs-Pueblo marketing area is recommended as the detailed and appropriate means by which the foregoing conclusions may be carried out. The recommended marketing agreement is not included in this decision because the regulatory provisions thereof would be the same as those contained in the order, as hereby proposed to be amended:

1. Delete § 994.51(a) and substitute therefor the following:

(a) Class I milk. During the period through January 1962, the basic formula price for the preceding month plus $2.20.

Issued at Washington, D.C., this 7th day of July 1960.

ROY W. LENNARTSON,
Deputy Administrator.

Notice of Supplemental Order

Notice is hereby given that the Federal Maritime Board has entered, on June 27, 1960, the following Thirty-Fifth Supplemental Order to the original order in this proceeding, dated September 10, 1959, which appeared in the FEDERAL REGISTER of September 23, 1959 (24 F.R. 7656):

Thirty-fifth supplemental order. It appearing that by the original order (as amended) in Docket 869 served September 11, 1959, the Board instituted an investigation into and concerning the reasonableness and lawfulness of the rates, charges, regulations, and practices stated in certain schedules between Pacific Coast ports and Hawaii as well as between Atlantic and Gulf ports and Hawaii; and

It further appearing that said original order, as amended January 7, 1960, provides in part that no change shall be made in rates or other matters which were changed by said tariff schedules, until this investigation has been terminated by final order of the Board, unless otherwise authorized by special permission of the Board; and

It further appearing that on June 15, 1960, Matson Navigation Company filed Special Permission Application No. 61 seeking authority to publish, post and file on less than 30 days' notice, to become effective June 30, 1960, certain consecutively numbered revised pages to Westbound Container Freight Tariff No. 14, F.M.B.-F. (A) The aforementioned provisions shall not apply on goods of a density greater than 50 lbs. per cubic foot.

(B) When shipper exercises the aforementioned option, dock receipt must show the cubic measurement of the shipment as well as the gross weight, otherwise normal class rates as named in Part B shall apply.

2. Where density of goods exceeds 50 lbs. per cubic foot and the charge on a shipment moving under port area pick-up service under class rates, named in Part B of this section, may be reduced by assessing a charge of $1.20 per 100 lbs. plus the applicable rate named in paragraph 3 of this rule, the latter charges shall apply in lieu of charge under class rates.

3. Rates in cents per 100 lbs. to be added to the charge under the optional rate named in paragraph 1 or 2 of this rule. (Table of rates as now shown in paragraph (C) of Special Rule No. 101 will remain the same.)

When a shipment is tendered by shipper at carriers container freight station under provisions of rule 23 (no pick-up service within port area limits) or at container yard under provisions of rule 42 (traffic originating beyond port area limits) under class rates named in Part B of this section and the charge on a shipment may be reduced by assessing a charge of 65 cents per cubic foot or $1.30 per 100 lbs. whichever yields the greater revenue, this latter charge shall apply in lieu of the charge of class rates. Allowances as named in rule No. 23 and No. 42 shall not apply.

II. Establish a new Special Rule No. 206 (Application of Optional Rates to read as follows):

1. Except as otherwise provided herein, when the charge on a shipment moving under port area pick-up service under commodity rates, named in this section, may be reduced by assessing a charge of 60 cents per cubic foot plus the applicable rate named in paragraph 3 of this rule, the latter charge shall apply in lieu of commodity rates.

2. Where density of goods exceeds 50 lbs. per cubic foot and the charge on a shipment moving under port area pick-up service under commodity rates, named in this section, may be reduced by assessing a charge of $1.20 per 100 lbs. plus the applicable rate named in paragraph 3 of this rule, the latter charge shall apply in lieu of commodity rates.

3. Rates in cents per 100 lbs. to be added to the charge under the optional rate named in paragraph 1 or 2 of this rule. (Table of rates now shown in paragraph (C) of Special Rule No. 101 to be inserted here.)

4. When a shipment is tendered by shipper at carriers container freight station under provisions of rule 23 (no pick-up service within port area limits) or at container yard under provisions of rule 42 (traffic originating beyond port area limits) under commodity rates named in this section and the charge on a shipment may be reduced by assessing a charge of 65 cents per cubic foot or $1.30 per 100 lbs. whichever yields the greater revenue, this latter charge shall apply in lieu of the charge of commodity rates. Allowances as named in rule No. 23 and rule No. 42 shall not apply.

It further appearing that the Board having found good cause therefor has on June 27, 1960, granted special permission to publish such changes on not less than one day's notice, under Special Permission No. 3852;

[Docket No. 908]

JAPAN-ATLANTIC AND GULF FREIGHT CONFERENCE; FIDELITY COMMISSION SYSTEM

Notice of Investigation, Hearing, and Prehearing Conference

On June 20, 1960, the Federal Maritime Board entered the following order:

It appearing that pursuant to section 15 of the Shipping Act, 1916 (46 U.S.C. 814) a modification of an agreement has been filed for approval, between the member lines of the Japan-Atlantic and Gulf Freight Conference, providing for the establishment of a Fidelity Commission System, Agreement No. 3103-15; and

It further appearing that a notice of the filing of said modification was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on April 30, 1960 (25 F.R. 3828) and that pursuant to said notice the Isbrandtsen Company, Inc., filed, May 20, 1960, a protest against approval of said modification, alleging (1) that the Board has no statutory authority to approve any dual-rate arrangement not in use on May 19, 1958, (2) that the Fidelity Commission System would contravene decisions of the Board and its predecessors, and (3) that the said System would involve a deferred rebate in violation of section 14 First; and requested if the Board considers that there is any real controversy or uncertainty on the points raised by Isbrandtsen that a declaratory order be issued, under section 5 of the Administrative Procedure Act, stating the legal authority or lack thereof of the Board to consider the approval or disapproval of the present conference filing, under existing law, and

It further appearing that Mr. Hyman I. Malatsky (Himala International) points out that the expression "Fidelity Commission" is a semantic differentiation of "Deferred Rebate" which is prohibited by the Shipping Act, 1916, and

It further apearing that the protests of Imported Hardwood Plywood Association, Inc., and Del Valle, Kahman & Co., point out that practically all Japanese plywood is sold f.o.b., Japan that the freight charges are paid by the U.S. importers, who, accordingly should get the refund,

Now therefore pursuant to sections 14, 15, 16, 17 and 22 of the Shipping Act, 1916, as amended, and in accordance with the Administrative Procedure Act,

It is ordered, That the Board, upon its own motion, enter upon an investigation and hearing to determine whether it should under existing law approve Agreement No. 3103-15, between the member lines of the Japan-Atlantic and Gulf Freight Conference, and

It is further ordered, That each member of said conference be made a respondent in this proceeding, and

It is further ordered, That a copy of this order be served upon each of the respondents, and that notice of such order and hearing herein be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Notice is hereby given that, in accordance with Rule 6(d) of the Board's rules of practice and procedure (46 CFR § 201.94), a pre-hearing conference in this proceeding will be held before an examiner of the Board's Office of Hearing Examiners, on July 19, 1960, at 10 a.m., in Room 4519, New General Accounting Office Building, 441 G Street NW., Washington, D.C. Thereafter a public hearing will be scheduled at a date and place to be announced. Said hearing will be conducted in accordance with the above rules, and a recommended decision will be issued by the examiner.

All persons (including individuals, corporations, associations, firms, partnerships, and public bodies), having an interest in this proceeding and desiring to intervene therein, should notify the Secretary, Federal Maritime Board, promptly and file petitions for leave to intervene in accordance with Rule 5(n), 46 CFR § 201.74, of the above rules.

Dated: July 6, 1960.

By order of the Federal Maritime Board.

Secretary.

COMMON CARRIERS BY WATER

Contracts, Agreements and Understandings; Amendment

Whereas, by order dated April 11, 1960, the Federal Maritime Board directed that every common carrier by water subject to the Shipping Act, 1916, file with it on or before July 15, 1960, certain contracts, agreements and understandings involving the water-borne commerce of the United States; and

Whereas, many common carriers have advised that due to their widespread and far-flung operations involving relationships in innumerable foreign and domestic ports necessitating extensive correspondence with their offices or agents in said foreign and domestic ports in order to resolve questions for, and to advise and assist, such offices or agents and have advised that in many instances it will be impossible to comply with the Board's requirement concerning the assembling, preparation and filing of material pertaining to their contracts, agreements or understandings with stevedores by the presently required date of July 15, 1960;

Now therefore, it is ordered, That the Board's order of April 11, 1960, issued pursuant to section 21 of the Shipping Act, 1916 (46 U.S.C. 820) be, and it is hereby, amended so as to defer, until a date to be specified by the Federal Maritime Board, the filing of contracts, agreements or understandings involving the water-borne commerce of the United States, entered into by any common carrier by water subject to the Shipping Act, 1916, with any stevedore relating to the matters detailed in the basic order of April 11, 1960, all other requirements of said order of April 11, 1960, to remain unchanged.

Dated: July 5, 1960.

Social Security Administration

BELGIUM, MOROCCO, AND GHANA

Findings Regarding Foreign Social Insurance and Pension Systems

Section 202(t)(2) of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 402(t)(2)) authorizes and requires the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare to find whether a foreign country has in effect a social insurance or pension system which is of general application in such country and under which periodic benefits, or the acturial equivalent thereof, are paid on account of old age, retirement or death; and whether individuals who are citizens of the United States but not citizens of such foreign country and who qualify for such benefits are permitted to receive such benefits or the acturial equivalent thereof while outside such foreign country without regard to the duration of the absence.

Pursuant to authority duly vested in him by the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare, the Commissioner of Social Security has considered evidence presented by Belgium, Morocco, and Ghana respectively, relating to the social insurance or pension systems of such countries, from which evidence it appears that:

1. Belgium has a social insurance or pension system of general application in such country which pays periodic benefits, or the acturial equivalent thereof, on account of old age, retirement, or death, but that under such social insurance or pension system citizens of the United States, not citizens of Belgium, who leave Belgium, are not permitted to receive such benefits or equivalent while outside that country without regard to the duration of their absence.

2. Morocco does not have a social insurance or pension system under which benefits are paid on account of old age, retirement, or death.

3. Ghana does not have a social insurance or pension system under which benefits are paid on account of old age, retirement, or death.

Accordingly, it is hereby determined and found that Belgium, Morocco and Ghana do not have in effect a social insurance or pension system which meets the requirements of section 202(t)(2) of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 402 (t)(2)).

It further appearing that in light of the aforementioned circumstances a grant of the subject postponement motion would be appropriate;

Accordingly, it is ordered, This 1st day of July 1960, that the aforementioned "Motion to Postpone Hearing" is granted, and the hearing scheduled for July 15, 1960, is postponed without date pending final action of the Bureau's "Motion to Cancel Hearing and Affirm the Suspension Order."

§ 443.1601 Administration.

In the field, the program will be administered through Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation (hereinafter referred to as "ASC") State and county committees (hereinafter referred to as "State" and "county" committees) and the CSS Commodity Office located at Wirth Building, 120 Marais Street, New Orleans 16, Louisiana (hereinafter referred to as "the New Orleans office"). Forms will be distributed through the offices of the ASC State and county committees. ASC county committees will determine or cause to be determined the quantity and grade of cottonseed, the amount of the loan, and the value of the cottonseed delivered under the loan. Loan documents will be completed in the ASC county office, and copies of such documents will be retained there. All documents will be approved by the ASC county office manager (hereinafter referred to as "county office manager") or other employee of the county office designated by him to act in his behalf. Such designation shall be on file in the ASC county office. Program availability and maturity dates will be those specified hereinafter except that whenever the final date of availability or the maturity date falls on a nonwork day for ASC county offices or the New Orleans office, the applicable final date shall be extended to include the next work day. County office managers, ASC State and county committees, and the New Orleans office do not have authority to modify or waive any of the provisions of this subpart or any amendments thereto.

§ 443.1602 Availability of loans.

(a) General. Loans will be available only to eligible producers on eligible farm-stored cottonseed in accordance with the requirements of this subpart. As provided in § 443.1603, no person shall be eligible to receive nonrecourse price support in excess of $50,000 on 1960-crop cottonseed unless he has qualified for an exemption from the $50,000 limitation on nonrecourse price support contained in Public Law 86-80 through reduction of his production of cotton, and price support in excess of $50,000 to any such person on 1960-crop cottonseed will be made available only through recourse loans.

(b) Area. Loans will be available on cottonseed stored in approved farm storage in all cotton-producing areas, except that no loans will be made in any area where the appropriate ASC State committee determines that the damage hasard to farm-stored cottonseed would not warrant the making of loans.

(c) Time. Loans will be available through January 31, 1961. Notes and chattel mortgages must be signed by the producer and delivered or mailed to the ASC county office on or before that date.

(d) Source. Loans will be made available through the ASC county offices. Disbursements on loans will be made to producers by ASC county offices by means of sight drafts drawn on CCC in accordance with instructions issued by CSS to the ASC State and county committees. Disbursements on loans will be made not later than February 15, 1961, except where specifically approved by the New Orleans office in each instance. The producer shall not present the loan documents for disbursement unless the cottonseed are in existence and in good condition. If the cottonseed are not in existence and in good condition at the time of disbursement, the proceeds shall be promptly refunded by the producer.

§ 443.1603 Eligible producer.

(a) An eligible producer shall be any individual, partnership, corporation, association, trust, estate, or other legal entity, or a State or political subdivision thereof, or an agency of such State or political subdivision, producing cottonseed in 1960 in the capacity of landowner, landlord, tenant, or sharecropper.

(b) No person will be eligible to receive more than $50,000 in nonrecourse price support from CCC on 1960-crop cottonseed unless he has qualified for an exemption from the $50,000 limitation on nonrecourse price support contained in Public Law 86-80 through reduction of his production of cotton. The rules provided in the "Regulations Relating to the $50,000 Limitation of Nonrecourse Price Support for the 1960 Crop of Price Supported Field Crops in Surplus Supply" (25 F.R. 1001), as amended (hereinafter referred to as the "Regulations Relating to the $50,000 Limitation"), shall be applied for the purposes of this subpart to determine whether certain individuals or legal entities are to be treated as one person or as separate persons for the purpose of applying the $50,000 limitation in Public Law 86-80 and whether producers come within the exemption from such limitation through reduction of their production. Any person who, on the basis of a reduction of his production, desires to qualify for an exemption from the $50,000 limitation shall file an application with the ASC county committee in accordance with the Regulations Relating to the $50,000 Limitation. Persons who have not qualified for an exemption from the $50,000 limitation on nonrecourse price support may obtain price support by means of recourse loans on their 1960-crop cottonseed in excess of that which may be tendered for nonrecourse price support.

(c) Eligible producers who are members of cooperative marketing associations may act collectively through their associations in obtaining loans in accordance with the provisions of § 443.1622.

§ 443.1604 Eligible cottonseed.

Eligible cottonseed shall be cottonseed that meet the following requirements:

(a) The cottonseed must have been produced in the United States in 1960 by an eligible producer.

(b) Such cottonseed must have been produced by the person tendering them for a loan, or by the person who delivered the cottonseed to the cooperative association tendering the cottonseed for a loan, and the beneficial interest in the cottonseed must be in such person and must always have been in him or in him and a former producer whom he succeeded before the cottonseed were harvested. Cottonseed tendered by a cooperative association for a loan must have been produced and delivered to the association by its producer-members. Any person tendering cottonseed for a loan must have the legal right to mortgage the cottonseed as security for the loan.

(c) Cottonseed must be sound and clean and must not contain more than 11 percent moisture.

(d) No warehouse receipts shall be outstanding on the cottonseed.

§ 443.1605 Approved storage.

Approved storage shall consist of storage structures located on or off the farm which, as determined by the county office manager, are of such construction as to afford safe storage of cottonseed and afford protection against weather damage, poultry, livestock, and rodents, and reasonable protection against fire and theft.

§ 443.1606 Approved forms.

(a) The documents named in this section, together with the provisions of this subpart and any supplements or amendments thereto, govern the rights and responsibilities of the producers under this program. Loan documents executed by an administrator, executor, or trustee will be acceptable only where valid in law. Documents must have State and documentary revenue stamps affixed when required by law.

(b) Nonrecourse loans: The following documents must be delivered by the producer in support of every nonrecourse loan: Producer's Note and Supplemental Loan Agreement (Form CL-A (Nonrecourse)) and Commodity Chattel Mortgage (Form CL-AA) covering the cottonseed tendered as security for the loan, both executed and delivered within the period prescribed in § 443.1602(c), and such other forms as prescribed by CCC.

(c) Recourse loans: The following documents must be delivered by the producer in support of every recourse loan: Producer's Note and Supplemental Loan Agreement (Form CL-A (Recourse)) and Commodity Chattel Mortgage (Form CL-AA) covering the cottonseed tendered as security for the loan, both executed and delivered within the period prescribed in § 443.1602(c), and such other forms as prescribed by CCC.

§ 443.1607 Determination of quantity.

The quantity of cottonseed at the time a loan is made shall be determined by actual weight or by an estimate based upon measurements. When the weight of cottonseed to be placed under loan is estimated by measurement, 20 cubic feet of cottonseed shall be considered the equivalent of one ton. The quantity delivered in liquidation of the loan shall be the net weight, which shall be the gross weight of the cottonseed less a deduction for any foreign matter in excess of one percent of the gross weight.

§ 443.1608 Liens.

The cottonseed must be free and clear of all liens and encumbrances including any claim the ginner may have against the cottonseed for his regular ginning charge. If liens, ginner's claims, or encumbrances exist on the cottonseed, proper waivers must be obtained.

§ 443.1609 Service charges.

The producer shall pay a service charge of 35 cents per ton on the number of tons placed under a loan, or $3.00, whichever is greater. ASC State committees are authorized to require prepayment of $3.00 of the service charges. No refund of any service charge will be made.

§ 443.1610 Setoffs.

(a) If any installment or installments on any loan made available by CCC on farm-storage facilities or mobile drying equipment are payable, under the provisions of the note evidencing such loan, out of any amount due the producer under the program provided for in this subpart, the producer must designate CCC or the lending agency holding such note as payee of such amount to the extent of such installments, but not to exceed that portion of the amount remaining after deduction of service charges and amount due prior lienholders.

(b) If the producer is indebted to CCC, or if the producer is indebted to any other agency of the United States, and such indebtedness is listed on the county debt record, amounts due the producer under the program provided for in this subpart after deduction of amounts payable on farm-storage facilities or mobile drying equipment and other amounts provided in paragraph (a) of this section, shall be applied, as provided in the Secretary's Setoff Regulations, 7 CFR Part 13 (23 F.R. 3757), to such indebtedness.

(c) Compliance with the provisions of this section shall not deprive the producer of any right he might otherwise have to contest the justness of the indebtedness involved in the setoff action either by administrative appeal or by legal action.

§ 443.1611 Interest rate.

Nonrecourse loans and charges on cottonseed shall bear interest at the rate of 3½ percent per annum from the date of disbursement. Recourse price support advances and charges added thereto shall bear interest at the rate of 6 percent from the date of disbursement of the advance and added charges, except that if any amounts are repaid on or before March 1, 1961, the rate of interest on such amounts shall be at the per annum rate of 3½ percent from the date of disbursement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, where there has been a willful misrepresentation in obtaining a price support advance, such advance and related charges shall bear interest at the per annum rate of 6 percent from the date of disbursement thereof.

§ 443.1612 Transfer of producer's equity.

The producer shall not transfer either his remaining interest in or his right to redeem cottonseed under loan.

§ 443.1613 Safeguarding of the cottonseed.

The producer who places cottonseed under a loan is obligated to maintain the storage structure in good repair and to keep the cottonseed in storage and in good condition until the loan is liquidated.

§ 443.1614 Insurance.

(a) Nonrecourse loans. CCC will not require the producer to insure the cottonseed placed under a nonrecourse loan. However, if the producer does insure such cottonseed and an indemnity is paid thereon, such indemnity shall inure to the benefit of CCC to the extent of its interest after first satisfying the producer's equity in the cottonseed involved in the loss.

(b) Recourse loans. The producer who obtains a recourse farm-storage loan is required to insure at his expense, and at not less than the full market value, the total quantity of collateral under loan. Insurance will be required against loss or damage due to no fewer than the following causes: Fire, lightning, inherent explosion, windstorm, cyclone, and tornado. Any indemnity paid with respect to cottonseed which is collateral for a recourse loan shall inure to the benefit of CCC to the extent of its interest, and the producer shall remain personally liable to CCC for any amount by which the recourse loan, including interest and charges exceeds such indemnity. The producer shall not be relieved of liability if the cottonseed is lost or damaged due to causes for which insurance is not provided.

§ 443.1615 Loss or damage to the cottonseed.

(a) Nonrecourse loans. The producer shall be responsible for any loss in quantity or quality of the cottonseed placed under nonrecourse loan, except that, subject to the provisions of § 443.1614, any physical loss or damage other than shrinkage or natural deterioration occurring after disbursement of the loan funds to the producer, without fault, negligence, or conversion on the part of the producer or any other person having control of the storage structure, and resulting solely from an external cause other than insect infestation or vermin will be assumed by CCC to the extent of the loan plus interest, provided the producer or other person having control of the storage structure has given the county office immediate written notice of such loss or damage, and provided there has been no fraudulent representation made by the producer in the loan documents or in obtaining the loan. No physical loss or damage occurring prior to disbursement of the nonrecourse loan funds to the producer will be assumed by CCC. The date of the draft shall constitute the date of disbursement of the funds.

(b) Recourse loans. The producer is responsible for any loss in quantity or quality of the cottonseed placed under recourse loans.

§ 443.1616 Personal liability.

The making of any fraudulent representations by the producer in the loan documents (whether nonrecourse or recourse) or in obtaining the loan, or the conversion or unlawful disposition by him of any portion of the cottonseed under loan, shall render the producer subject to criminal prosecution under Federal law and render him personally liable for the amount of the loan (including interest as provided in § 443.1611) and for any resulting expense incurred by CCC.

§ 443.1617 Maturity and liquidation of loans.

(a) Nonrecourse loans. (1) Nonrecourse loans mature on March 1, 1961, or upon such earlier date as CCC may make written demand for payment. If the producer does not repay his nonrecourse loan on or before maturity, he shall deliver the mortgaged cottonseed in accordance with instructions issued on behalf of the ASC county committee. The producer may, however, pay off his loan and redeem his cottonseed at any time prior to the delivery of the cottonseed to CCC or removal of the cottonseed by CCC. In the event the farm is sold, there is a change of tenancy, or the producer dies, the cottonseed securing a nonrecourse loan may be delivered before the maturity date of the loan, after obtaining delivery instruction issued on behalf of the ASC county committee, and the cottonseed may be delivered before the maturity date of the loan for other reasons upon prior approval of the Executive Vice President, CCC.

(2) If the producer is directed to deliver cottonseed securing a nonrecourse loan to a point other than the normal delivery point, the producer shall be allowed compensation (as determined by CCC) for the additional cost of hauling the cottonseed any distance greater than the distance from the point where the cottonseed are stored by the producer to the normal delivery point.

(b) Recourse loans. Recourse loans mature on January 31, 1962. The producer is required to repay his recourse loan, plus interest and charges, on or before such maturity date.

§ 443.1618 Settlement on deliveries under nonrecourse loans.

(a) General. The total settlement value of cottonseed delivered under 1960-crop nonrecourse loans by any person who has not qualified for unlimited price support on 1960-crop cottonseed, when added to the amount of nonrecourse loans on 1960-crop cottonseed extended to such person which have been satisfied other than by deliveries and the amounts received by such person from sales of cottonseed to CCC under CCC's 1960 Cottonseed Purchase Program, shall not exceed $50,000. (The rules provided in the Regulations Relating to the $50,000 Limitation shall be applied to determine whether certain individuals or legal entities are to be treated as one person or as separate persons for the purpose of applying the $50,000 limitation.) In the absence of fraud, if a person who has not qualified for unlimited price support delivers a quantity of cottonseed which, if received by CCC as a delivery under nonrecourse price support on cottonseed, would cause the amount of nonrecourse price support extended to such person on 1960-crop cottonseed to exceed $50,000, CCC shall effect settlement for the excess cottonseed in accordance with subparagraphs (1), (2), and (3) of this paragraph (basis point of delivery of the cottonseed to CCC), except that CCC shall not accept the delivery of any excess cottonseed where it is practicable to determine, at the time of delivery, the quantity of cottonseed which would cause the total amount of nonrecourse price support extended to such person on 1960-crop cottonseed to exceed $50,000:

(1) Make available to the borrower a quantity of cottonseed having a settlement value equal to the excess above $50,000.

(2) Sell the excess cottonseed at the market price for the borrower's account and settle with him on the basis of the net proceeds.

(3) When it is not practicable to effect full settlement as provided in subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph, CCC may accept the quantity of excess cottonseed for which settlement has not been so effected at the market value on the date of delivery, as determined by CCC, or the price support value, whichever is lower.

The borrower shall refund to CCC promptly upon demand, any amounts received from CCC on such excess cottonseed in excess of what is due the borrower under subparagraph (1), (2), or (3) of this paragraph. All costs incurred by CCC in connection with such excess cottonseed shall be paid by the borrower.

(b) Method of settlement. If cottonseed securing a nonrecourse loan are delivered to CCC, a complete grade determination will be made by a cottonseed chemist licensed by the U.S. Department of Agriculture, and credit will be given for the settlement value of the cottonseed computed at the applicable settlement rate (see § 443.1621) according to the grade and/or quality so determined for the total quantity delivered. If the settlement value of the cottonseed exceeds the amount due on the loan (excluding interest) by more than $3.00, such excess will be paid to the borrower, except that if the quantity of cottonseed delivered would, if received by CCC as a delivery under nonrecourse price support, cause the amount of nonrecourse price support extended to the borrower on 1960-crop cottonseed to exceed $50,000, and if the borrower has not qualified for unlimited price support, CCC shall effect settlement as provided in paragraph (a) of this section. To avoid administrative costs of making small payments, amounts found due the borrower of $3.00 or less will be paid only upon his request. Payments will be made by sight drafts drawn on CCC by the ASC county office. If the settlement value of the cottonseed is less than the amount due on the loan (excluding interest), the amount of the deficiency, plus interest thereon, shall be paid to CCC by the borrower, except as provided in § 443.1615, and may be set off against any payment which would otherwise be due to him under any agricultural programs administered by the Secretary of Agriculture or any other payments which are due or may become due to the borrower from CCC or any other agency of the United States: Provided, That, to avoid administrative costs of handling small accounts, a deficiency of $3.00 or less, including interest, may be disregarded unless demand therefor is made by CCC.

§ 443.1619 Foreclosure.

(a) Nonrecourse loans. If a producer does not satisfy his loan upon maturity, the holder of the note is authorized to remove the cottonseed securing the loan from storage, and the holder is also authorized to sell the cottonseed in accordance with the provisions of the chattel mortgage (Form CL-AA). If CCC is the holder of the note, then at CCC's election title to the cottonseed shall, without a sale thereof, immediately vest in CCC, and CCC shall have no obligation to pay for any market value which such cottonseed may have in excess of the amount of the loan indebtedness, i.e., the unpaid amount of the note plus interest and charges. Nothing herein shall preclude the making of the following payments to the producer or his personal representative only, without right of assignment to or substitution of any other party: (1) Any amount by which the settlement value of the cottonseed may exceed the principal amount of the loan or (2) the amount by which the proceeds of sale may exceed the loan indebtedness if the loan collateral is sold to third parties rather than CCC acquiring full title to such loan collateral. If the cottonseed removed by CCC from storage is sold at less than the amount due on the loan (excluding interest) and the quantity, grade, or quality of the cottonseed as removed is lower than that on which the loan was computed, the producer shall pay to CCC the difference between the amount due on the loan and the higher of the sales proceeds or the settlement value of the cottonseed removed by CCC, plus interest. The amount of the deficiency may be set off against any payment which would otherwise be due the producer under any agricultural program administered by the Secretary of Agriculture, or any other payments which are due or may become due the producer from CCC, or any other agency of the United States.

(b) Recourse loans. If the cottonseed are not redeemed upon maturity of the recourse loans, or if at any time CCC determines that the cottonseed can no longer be stored because of the danger of deterioration or other reasons, the holder of the note is authorized to remove the cottonseed from storage, and the holder is also authorized to sell the cottonseed securing the note. Upon sale of the cottonseed, the net proceeds will be credited to the producer's recourse indebtedness. Any sum due the producer from the sale of the cottonseed or from an insurance indemnity paid on the cottonseed, after deducting the amount of the loan indebtedness shall be payable only to the producer without right of assignment by him. If the cottonseed are sold at less than the loan indebtedness, the producer shall pay CCC the difference between the loan indebtedness and the sales proceeds of the cottonseed. Such payment shall be made promptly upon demand, unless the cottonseed were sold prior to the maturity date in which event such payment shall be made on the maturity date.

§ 443.1620 Release of the cottonseed under loan.

A producer may at any time obtain the release of cottonseed remaining under loan by paying to CCC the principal amount thereof, plus accrued interest, and any charges that may be due. After payment of the note has been effected, the county office manager shall, in the case of farm-storage loans, execute such release or otherwise make such arrangements as the law may require for the release of chattel mortgage. Partial release of the cottonseed securing nonrecourse loans prior to maturity of the loans may be arranged with the ASC county committee by paying to CCC the amount of the loan, plus charges and accrued interest, represented by the quantity of the cottonseed to be released: Provided, however, That no partial release of cottonseed shall include less than the total quantity of cottonseed stored in any single commingled mass unless the appropriate ASC county committee determines that release of a portion of such commingled mass may be made.

§ 443.1621 Loan and settlement rates.

(a) Nonrecourse loans—(1) Loan rate. Nonrecourse loans on cottonseed shall be made at the rate of $38.00 per ton of eligible cottonseed as defined in § 443.1604.

(2) Basic settlement rate. The basic settlement rate for basis grade (100) cottonseed shall be $38.00 per net ton, f.o.b. railroad cars or trucks at delivery points designated by CCC. The settlement rate for cottonseed grading above or below basis grade (100) shall be $38.00 per ton plus or minus a percentage of such price equal to the percentage by which the grade of such cottonseed is above or below 100. In the case of "off-quality" or "below grade" cottonseed, as defined in the United States Official Standards for Grades of Cottonseed, CCC will sell such cottonseed pursuant to the provisions of the chattel mortgage at the current market price, and the settlement rate shall be the market price per ton determined on the basis of such sale.

(b) Recourse loan rate. Recourse loans on cottonseed shall be made at the rate of $38.00 per ton of eligible cottonseed as defined in § 443.1604.

§ 443.1622 Cooperative marketing associations.

(a) Cooperative marketing associations shall be eligible for loans on 1960-crop cottonseed: Provided, That (1) the association shall not tender for a loan cottonseed of any producer-member if the loan on such cottonseed, together with the nonrecourse price support previously received by such producer, would cause the total nonrecourse price support received by such producer to exceed $50,000; (2) the cottonseed placed under loan are delivered to the association by eligible producers who are members of the association; (3) the association has been granted by such producer-members the legal right to mortgage the cottonseed as security for a loan; (4) the association keeps any cottonseed covered by a chattel mortgage segregated from all cottonseed not covered by the mortgage; (5) the association keeps cottonseed securing nonrecourse loans segregated from cottonseed securing recourse loans; and (6) the association undertakes to pay CCC any amounts due it under the provisions of this program at the time of settlement.

(b) Cooperative associations desiring loans may obtain documents from the ASC county office for the county in which the association is located. The loan and settlement rates to cooperative associations will be the same as those to individual producers, and loans with respect to such associations will otherwise be on substantially the same basis as loans with respect to individual producers.

Title 7—AGRICULTURE

Chapter III—Agricultural Research Service, Department of Agriculture

PART 354—OVERTIME SERVICES RELATING TO IMPORTS AND EXPORTS

Overtime, Night, and Holiday Inspection and Quarantine Activities at Border, Coastal, and Air Ports

Section 354.1 of Part 354, Title 7, Code of Federal Regulations, is further amended to read as follows:

§ 354.1 Overtime work at border ports, seaports, and airports.

(a) Any person, firm, or corporation having ownership, custody or control of plants, plant products, or other commodities or articles subject to inspection, certification, or quarantine under this chapter, and who requires the services of an employee of the Plant Quarantine Division on a holiday or at any other time outside the regular tour of duty of such employee, shall sufficiently in advance of the period of overtime request the Division inspector in charge to furnish inspection, quarantine or certification service during such overtime period, and shall pay the Government therefor at the rate of $5.80 per man-hour per employee as follows: A minimum charge of two hours shall be made for any unscheduled overtime duty performed by an employee on a day when no work was scheduled for him or which is performed by an employee on his regular work day beginning either at least one hour before his scheduled tour of duty or at least one hour after he has completed his scheduled tour of duty, and has left his place of employment. In addition, each period of unscheduled overtime work which requires an employee to perform additional travel for which he would otherwise not be compensated, and each period of holiday duty, may include a commuted travel time period, not in excess of three hours. The amount of this period shall be prescribed in administrative instructions to be issued by the Director of the Plant Quarantine Division for the ports, stations, and areas in which the employees are located, and shall be established as nearly as may be practicable to cover the time necessarily spent in reporting to and returning from the place at which the employee performs such overtime duty if such travel is performed solely on account of such overtime duty. It will be administratively determined from time to time which days constitute holidays.

(b) The Division inspector in charge, in honoring a request to furnish inspection, quarantine, or certification service, shall assign employees to such overtime or holiday duty with due regard to the work program and availability of employees for such duty.

(64 Stat. 561; 5 U.S.C. 576)

The foregoing amendment shall become effective July 10, 1960.

The purpose of this amendment is to increase the hourly rate for overtime services from $5.40 to $5.80 commensurate with salary increases provided in the Federal Employees Salary Increase Act of 1960 (Public Law 86-568).

The purpose of this amended section is to prescribe conditions under which a minimum charge may be made for unscheduled overtime duty, and to provide for a commuted travel time period for any such overtime duty involving additional and otherwise uncompensated travel. Determination of these conditions and travel time period depends entirely upon facts within the knowledge of the Department of Agriculture. It is to the benefit of the public that this amendment be made effective at the earliest practicable date. Accordingly, pursuant to the provisions of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act (60 Stat. 238), it is found upon good cause that notice and public procedure on this amendment are impracticable, unnecessary, and contrary to the public interest and good cause is found for making this amendment effective less than thirty days after publication.

Done at Washington, D.C., this 7th day of July 1960.

Acting Administrator,

In addition, editorial changes have been made.

In accordance with section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act (60 Stat. 238; 5 U.S.C. 1003), notice was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on May 27, 1960 (25 F.R. 4686), that the Secretary of Agriculture had under consideration the revision of the Marketing Quota Review Regulations and the data and recommendations received in response to such notice have been duly considered.

REVIEW COMMITTEE

§ 711.5 Eligibility as member of a panel.

Any farmer who meets the eligibility requirements for county committeeman prescribed in the regulations in Part 7 of Subtitle A of this Title (21 F.R. 8385; 7 CFR 7.1 to 7.42), as amended, in a county within the area of venue for which he is to be appointed shall be eligible for appointment as a member of a review committee panel for such area of venue. If the area of venue consists of only one county or a part of a county, these eligibility requirements must be met in such county or in a nearby county. No farmer whose legal residence is in one State shall be eligible for appointment as a member of a review committee panel for an area of venue in another State.

§ 711.6 Appointment of members of a panel.

The Secretary shall appoint six or more eligible farmers to serve as members of a review committee panel in each area of venue. Notice of appointment shall be sent to the State committee, which shall notify the farmers so appointed and the clerk. Appointments may be made before, during, or after the period in which applications for review of quotas are required to be filed. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Secretary shall have the continuing power to revoke or suspend any appointment made pursuant to the regulations in this part, and subject to the provisions of the act, to make such other appointment deemed proper. The members of review committees appointed for 1960 prior to the effective date of §§ 711.1 to 711.28 shall be deemed to be a panel of members under this paragraph on such effective date: Provided, however, That the members appointed as chairman and vice-chairman for 1960 shall continue in such offices for the balance of their terms of office for 1960.

§ 711.7 Oath of office.

Each farmer appointed to serve as a member of a review committee shall, as soon as possible after appointment, execute an oath of office on such form as may be prescribed by the Deputy Administrator, duly subscribed and sworn to or affirmed before a notary public. No farmer shall serve on a review committee unless such oath of office has been duly executed and filed with the State administrative officer or the clerk. A farmer appointed for consecutive terms to serve as a member of a review committee shall not be required to file a new oath of office after the original filing. If the form of oath of office prescribed by the Deputy Administrator is materially changed, a new oath of office shall be executed if required by the Deputy Administrator.

§ 711.8 Composition of review committee.

(a) Three designated members from the panel constitute a review committee. Three members from the panel shall act as a review committee to hear applications for review for the prescribed area of venue. The State administrative officer shall designate from the panel of members for the prescribed area of venue three members who shall act as a review committee to hear specific applications and shall designate one of these three members as chairman of the review committee and another member as vice-chairman. Where the number of applications pending require two or more review committees for prompt disposition of such applications, the State administrative officer shall designate the members of each review committee, the chairman and vice-chairman thereof, and the specific applications to be heard by each review committee. Two or more review committees may hear applications concurrently in an area of venue. In the absence of the chairman, the vice-chairman shall perform the duties and exercise the powers of the chairman. The State administrative officer shall notify members of each review committee of the schedule of hearings. No member shall serve in any case in which a quota will be reviewed for a farm in which such member, any of his relatives or business associates is interested, nor shall any member serve where he had acted as State, county, or community committee member on a quota to be reviewed by the review committee.

(b) Only two members present to commence hearing. Where only two members of a review committee are present to commence a hearing, although three members were scheduled to hear the application, at the request of or with the consent of the applicant in writing, a hearing conducted by two members of the review committee shall be deemed to be a regular hearing of the review committee as to such application. The determination made by such members shall constitute the determination of the review committee. In the event such members cannot agree upon a determination, such fact shall be set forth in writing and a new hearing scheduled by the State administrative officer. If the applicant does not consent in writing to a hearing conducted by two members of the review committee, the hearing shall be rescheduled.

(c) Only two members remain to complete a hearing. Where only two members of a review committee remain to complete a hearing commenced with three members, due to serious illness, death, or other cause which prevents one of the members from completing the hearing within a reasonable time, at the request or with the consent of the applicant in writing, the remaining two members of the review committee shall henceforth constitute an entire review committee for the purpose of such hearing. In the event such members cannot agree upon a determination, such fact shall be set forth in writing and a new hearing scheduled by the State administrative officer. If the applicant does not consent in writing to completion of the hearing by two members of the review committee, the hearing shall be rescheduled.

(d) Reopened or remanded hearings. In the case of a reopened or remanded hearing, if any member of the review committee is no longer in office because of death, resignation, or ineligibility, the State administrative officer shall designate another member of the review committee panel to serve on the review committee. If a hearing held pursuant to § 711.8 (b) or (c) is reopened or remanded and only one review committee member is available to hear such reopened or remanded hearing, the State administrative officer shall designate two additional members from the review committee panel to serve on the review committee.

§ 711.9 Term of office.

Appointment as a member of a review committee panel shall be for a term of one calendar year. A member may be reappointed for succeeding terms. Notwithstanding the foregoing, a review committee shall continue in office to conclude hearings before it which are begun during such year and make final determinations thereof, or to hold a reopened hearing, or to conclude a hearing remanded to it by a court.

§ 711.10 Compensation.

The members designated as review committeemen shall receive compensation when serving at the same rate as that received by the members of the county committee which established the quotas sought to be reviewed. No member of a review committee shall be entitled to receive compensation for services as such member for more than thirty days in any one year. Payment of compensation, reimbursement for travel expenses and rates therefor, shall be made under such conditions as may be prescribed by the Deputy Administrator.

§ 711.11 Effect of change in composition of review committee.

Nothing contained in §§ 711.5 to 711.10 relating to any vacancy or revocation or suspension of appointment and nothing done pursuant thereto shall be construed as affecting the validity of any prior hearing conducted or determination made in accordance with the regulations in this part, in which the member of the review committee whose office has become vacant participated, or as affecting in any way court proceeding which may be instituted to review such determination.

JURISDICTION

§ 711.12 Area of venue and jurisdiction.

An area of venue for a review committee shall be established by the State committee taking into consideration the requirement of section 363 of the act that review committee members must be from the county in which the quota was established or from nearby counties, the prompt handling of applications for review, transportation problems and the limit of 30-day service by review committeemen in any one year. An area of venue may consist of all or part of a county, or more than one county within a State. A review committee shall have jurisdiction to hear timely filed applications respecting quotas established or denied by official written notice for farms within its area of venue. In all cases, the review committee shall consider only such matters as, under applicable provisions of the act and regulations of the Secretary, are required or permitted to be considered by the county committee in the establishment of the quota sought to be reviewed.

APPLICATION FOR REVIEW OF QUOTA

§ 711.13 Manner and time of filing.

Any farmer who is dissatisfied with his quota may, within fifteen days after the date of mailing to him of notice of such quota on Form MQ–24, "Notice of Farm Acreage Allotment and Marketing Quota," or Form MQ–93, or other official notice of farm marketing excess, file a written application for review thereof by the review committee. Such review may include any of the factors applicable to the quota as defined in § 711.2(d): Provided, however, That any determination of the county committee, such as the farm acreage allotment, which has previously been reviewed by a review committee and has become final, shall not be reconsidered in a subsequent review proceeding. Unless application for review is made within such period, the original determination of the quota shall be final. An application shall be in writing and addressed to, and filed with, the county office manager for the county from which the notice of quota was received. Any application (Form MQ–53 available on request) whether made on Form MQ–53 or not, shall contain the following:

(1) Date of application and commodity (including type where applicable, e.g. upland cotton, flue-cured tobacco).

(2) Correct full name and address of applicant.

(3) Brief statement of each ground upon which the application is based.

(4) A statement of the amount of quota which it is claimed should have been established.

(5) Signature of applicant.

§ 711.14 Examination by county committee.

As soon as practicable, the county committee and county office manager shall examine the applications and the following action shall be taken:

(a) If the application is not filed within the prescribed 15-day period the county office manager shall send a notice of untimely filing on Form MQ–54 by certified mail to the applicant at the address shown on the application;

(b) If the increase, adjustment or other determination requested in the application is found to be proper in whole or in part, the county committee shall notify the applicant thereof and, upon withdrawal of the application by the applicant, shall revise the quota within the limits of the act and the regulations for the commodity and mail a notice of revised quota to the applicant. Where any such adjustment is approved as provided in the applicable regulations for the commodity, a charge of the amount so approved, but not to exceed the amount approved by the review committee if the application is not withdrawn, shall be made against applicable available reserve acreages;

(c) If the application does not contain substantially the information required under § 711.13, the county office manager shall send a notice of insufficiency on Form MQ–55 by certified mail to the applicant at the address shown on the application. The applicant may file an amended application within 15 days from the date of mailing the notice of insufficiency;

(d) All applications which are not withdrawn by the applicant and which are not disposed of under paragraphs (a) to (c) of this section shall be listed and a report thereof sent to the State administrative officer with a request that hearings be scheduled. The county committee, in each case scheduled for a hearing on the merits, shall prepare a written answer to the application setting forth all of the pertinent facts relating to the case, pointing out the provisions of applicable regulations under which the quota being reviewed was established, explaining the data used, how the quota was established, pointing out why the quota should not be revised, if such be the case, and any other matters deemed pertinent. The answer shall set forth the foregoing so as to include all the issues of fact which are known to be in dispute. In each case scheduled for a hearing under § 711.19(b), the county committee shall prepare an appropriate written answer.

§ 711.15 Withdrawal of applications.

An application may be withdrawn upon the written request of the applicant. Any application so withdrawn shall be endorsed by the clerk "Dismissed at the request of the applicant."

§ 711.16 Amendments.

Upon due request, and within the discretion of the review committee, the right to amend the application and all procedural documents in connection with any hearing, shall be granted upon such reasonable terms as the review committee may deem right and proper.

HEARING AND DETERMINATION

§ 711.17 Place and schedule of hearing.

The place of hearing shall be in the office of the county committee through which the quota sought to be reviewed was established, or such other appropriate place in the county as may be designated by the State administrative officer, or by the review committee in cases arising under § 711.20: Provided, however, That the place of hearing may be in some other county if agreed to in writing by the applicant. The State administrative officer shall schedule applications for hearings and forward such schedule to the clerk.

§ 711.18 Notice of hearing.

The clerk shall give written notice on Form MQ–56 to the applicant by depositing such notice in the United States mail, certified and addressed to the last known address of the applicant at least ten days prior to the time appointed for the hearing and copies of such notice shall also be sent to the county committee and the State office. If the applicant requests waiver of such ten day period, the hearing may be scheduled earlier upon consent of the other interested parties. The notice of the hearing shall specify the time and place of the hearing, contain a statement of the statutory authority for the hearing, state that the application will be heard by the review committee duly appointed for the area of venue in which the applicant's farm is located, and that a verbatim transcript may be obtained by the applicant if he makes arrangement therefor before the hearing and pays the expense thereof.

§ 711.19 Order of dismissal.

(a) Review committee examination of notices of insufficiency and untimely filing. The review committee shall examine each application where a notice of insufficiency or untimely filing was sent. If it concurs in the action taken by the county office manager, an order of dismissal on Form MQ–57 shall be issued, as provided in § 711.24. If it does not concur, the State administrative officer shall be advised and shall schedule a hearing.

(b) Hearing on issues of timely filing, sufficiency of application, or failure to appear at a scheduled hearing. The applicant may file a written request for a hearing on issues of timely filing, sufficiency of the application, or failure to appear at a scheduled hearing, with the clerk within 15 days after the date of mailing of the order of dismissal giving the reasons why he believes a hearing should be held and the State administrative officer shall schedule a hearing as to such issues. Such hearing shall also include a determination on the merits of any application found to be timely filed and sufficient, and, where applicable, the applicant shows that with the exercise of due diligence he was unable to appear at his scheduled hearing.

§ 711.20 Continuances.

Hearings shall be held at the time and place set forth in the notice of hearing or in any subsequent notice amending or superseding the prior notice, but may, without notice other than an announcement at the hearing by the chairman of the review committee, be continued from day to day or adjourned to a different place in the county or to a later date or to a date and place to be fixed in a subsequent notice to be issued pursuant to § 711.18. In the event a full committee of three is not present, those members present, or in the absence of the entire committee, the clerk, shall postpone the hearing unless the hearing is held pursuant to § 711.8 (b) or (c). There shall not be a continuance for lack of a full committee in the case of a reopened or remanded hearing where the hearing was initially held pursuant to § 711.8 (b) or (c) and the two review committeemen who previously held the hearing are present and eligible to serve.

§ 711.21 Conduct of hearing.

(a) Open to public. Except as otherwise provided in §§ 711.1 to 711.28, each hearing shall take place before the entire review committee and shall be presided over by the chairman of such committee. The hearing shall be open to the public and shall be conducted in a fair and impartial manner and in such a way as to afford the applicant, members of the appropriate county and community committees, and appropriate officers and agents of the Department of Agriculture, and all persons appearing on behalf of such parties, reasonable opportunity to give and produce evidence relevant to the quota being reviewed.

(b) Consolidation of hearings. Wherever practicable, two or more applications relating to the same commodity and the same farm shall be consolidated by the review committee on its own motion or at the request of the State administrative officer and heard at the same time on the same record.

(c) Representation. The applicant and the Secretary may be represented at the hearing. The county committee shall be present or represented at the hearing.

(d) Order of procedure. At the commencement of the hearing, the chairman of the review committee shall read or cause to be read the pertinent portions of the application for review. The written answer of the county committee shall be submitted and shall be made a part of the record of the hearing. If the applicant asserts and shows to the satisfaction of the review committee that he has not been informed of the county committee's position in time to afford him adequate opportunity to prepare and present his case, the review committee shall continue the hearing, without notice other than announcement thereof at the hearing, for such period of time as will afford the applicant reasonable opportunity to meet the issues of fact and law involved. After answer by the county committee and following such continuance, if any, as may be granted by the review committee, evidence shall be received with respect to the matters relevant to the quota under review in such order as the chairman of the review committee shall prescribe. The review committee may take official notice of relevant publications of the Department of Agriculture and regulations of the Secretary.

(a) Submission of evidence. The burden of proof shall be upon the applicant as to all issues of fact raised by him. Each witness shall testify under oath or affirmation. The review committee shall confine the evidence to pertinent matters and shall exclude irrelevant, immaterial, or unduly repetitious evidence. Interested persons shall be permitted to present oral and documentary evidence, to submit rebuttal evidence, and to conduct such cross-examination as may be required for a full and true disclosure of the facts. The hearing shall be concluded within such reasonable time as may be determined by the review committee.

(f) Transcript of testimony. The review committee shall provide for the taking of such notes including but not limited to stenographic reports or recordings at the hearing as will enable it to make a summary of the proceedings and the testimony received at the hearing. The testimony received at the hearing shall be reported verbatim and a transcript thereof made if (1) the applicant requests such transcript prior to the time the hearing begins and provides for its preparation and for the payment of the expense thereof, or (2) the State committee representative requests that such transcript be made and provides therefor. Immediately upon the completion of any such verbatim transcript, three legible copies thereof shall be furnished to the review committee and one copy shall be furnished to the State office without charge. The clerk shall certify that the summary of the testimony or the verbatim transcript is accurate to the best of his knowledge and belief.

(g) Written arguments and proposed findings. The review committee shall permit the applicant, the members of the appropriate county and community committees, and appropriate officers and agents of the Department of Agriculture to file written arguments and proposed findings of fact and conclusions, based on the evidence adduced at the hearing, for the consideration of the review committee within such reasonable time after the conclusion of the hearing as may be prescribed by the review committee. Such written arguments and proposed findings shall be filed in triplicate with the clerk and an additional copy thereof shall be provided to the other party.

§ 711.22 Nonappearance of applicant.

(a) If, at the time of the hearing, the applicant is absent and no appearance is made on his behalf, the review committee shall, after a lapse of such period of time as it may consider proper and reasonable, have the name of the absent applicant called in the hearing room. If, upon such call, there is no response, and no appearance on behalf of such applicant and no continuance has been requested by the applicant, the review committee shall thereupon close the hearing as to such applicant, and, without further proceedings in the case, make an order dismissing the application.

(b) If, at a hearing which is reopened pursuant to § 711.25 or remanded by a court, the applicant is absent and no appearance is made on his behalf, the review committee shall continue the hearing for a reasonable period of time and if the applicant does not appear at such continued hearing, the review committee shall make a determination on Form MQ–58.

§ 711.23 Determination by review committee.

As soon as practicable after hearing on an application, including a hearing on an order of dismissal, the review committee shall make a determination upon the application. If it is determined by the review committee that the application should be denied, the review committee shall so indicate. If it is determined that the application should be granted in whole or in part, the review committee shall establish the quota which it finds to be proper. Each determination made by the review committee shall be in writing, shall contain specific findings of fact and conclusions, together with the reasons or basis therefor, and shall be based upon and made in accordance with reliable, probative, and substantial evidence adduced at the hearing. The concurrence of two members of the review committee shall be sufficient to make a determination. The written determination shall contain such subscription by each member of the review committee as will indicate his concurrence therein or his dissent therefrom. In case of an increase in the quota, the review committee shall specifically state in the determination in what respect, if any, the county committee has failed properly to apply the act and regulations of the Secretary thereunder. If such increase is based upon evidence not available to the county committee, the findings of the review committee shall so indicate. The appropriate county office manager shall make available to the review committee such clerical and stenographic assistance as may be required.

§ 711.24 Service of determination.

A copy of the determination or of any order dismissing the application, certified by the clerk as a true and correct copy of the signed original, shall be served upon the applicant by sending the same by certified mail addressed to the applicant at his last known address. The copy of the determination or order shall contain at the top thereof substantially the following statement: "To all persons who, as operator, landlord, tenant, or sharecropper, are or will be interested in the above-named commodity on the above-identified farm in the year for which the marketing quota being reviewed is established" and such statement shall constitute notice to all such persons. The clerk shall make a notation on the original determination or order of the date and place of such mailing. The clerk forthwith shall forward two copies of such determination or order to the State office, and one copy to the county committee. The determination of the review committee does not become final until the maximum period for reopening of hearing under § 711.25 has expired without any reopening; or if reopened thereunder, such determination becomes final upon issuance of a new determination pursuant to the reopened hearing, subject to further appeal to a court by the applicant.

§ 711.25 Reopening of hearing.

(a) Upon motion of review committee. Upon its own motion within fifteen days from the date of mailing to the applicant of a copy of the determination of the review committee on Form MQ–58 the review committee may reopen a hearing for the purpose of taking additional evidence or of adding any relevant matter or document.

(b) Upon written request based on new evidence. Upon written request by the applicant, the county committee, or other interested parties, to the review committee within fifteen days from the date of mailing to the applicant of a copy of the determination of the review committee on Form MQ–58, the review committee shall reopen the hearing for the purpose of taking additional evidence or of adding any relevant matter or document if such evidence or documents constitute new evidence not available to the parties at the time of the hearing.

(c) Upon written notice by the Secretary. Upon written notice by the Secretary or on his behalf by the Deputy Administrator to the review committee within forty-five days from the date of mailing to the applicant of a copy of the determination of the review committee on Form MQ–58, the hearing shall be deemed reopened and the State administrative officer shall schedule the reopened hearing.

(d) Schedule of reopened hearing. Schedule of and notice of any reopened hearing shall follow the requirements of §§ 711.17 and 711.18 insofar as practicable. Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraphs (a), (b), and (c) of this section, no hearing shall be reopened after an appeal to a court pursuant to section 365 of the act has been timely filed by the applicant. No special hearing to contest a reopening of a hearing shall be scheduled; however, the applicant may present evidence and arguments to contest the reopening when the reopened hearing is held.

§ 711.26 Record of hearing.

The record of the proceedings shall be prepared by the clerk and shall consist of the following:

(a) All procedural documents in the case under review, including the application and written notices of quota and hearing and any other written notice in connection with the application.

(b) Copies of such pertinent proclamations, announcements, general regulations, regulations in this part, and apportionments, national, State, or county, issued by the Secretary in respect to the quota in question, as may be presented at the hearing by or on behalf of the Secretary.

(c) The answer of the county committee to the allegations contained in the application.

(d) The summary of the proceedings and the testimony prepared by the review committee if a verbatim transcript is not made, or a transcript of the testimony where a verbatim transcript is made, in accordance with § 711.21(f), to which shall be annexed any documentary evidence received at the hearing.

(e) Any written arguments or proposed findings of fact and conclusions filed in connection with the hearing.

(f) The written determination of the review committee.

(g) A list of all papers included in the record and a certificate by the clerk stating that such record is true, correct, and complete.

Any interested person desiring a copy of the record or any part thereof shall be entitled to same upon application to the clerk and upon payment of the actual cost of supplying such copy.

COURT PROCEEDINGS

§ 711.27 Procedure in the case of court proceedings.

Upon the institution of any suit against the review committee for the purpose of reviewing its determination upon any application for review, the review committee is required by section 365 of the act to certify and file in court a transcript of the record upon which the determination was made, together with the findings of fact made by the review committee. Any suit for review is required to be instituted by the applicant within fifteen days after a notice of the review committee's determination is mailed to him. Such suit may be instituted in the United States District Court or in any court of record of the State having general jurisdiction, sitting in the county or the district in which the applicant's farm is located. The bill of complaint in such proceeding may be served by delivering a copy thereof to any member of the review committee. Any member of the review committee served with papers in such suit shall immediately forward such papers to the clerk. No member of the review committee shall appear or permit any appearance in his behalf or in behalf of the review committee, or take any action in respect to the defense of such suit, except in accordance with the instructions from or on behalf of the Secretary.

Notwithstanding the provisions of §§ 711.1 to 711.27, the Caribbean Area Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee (hereinafter referred to as the "ASC Committee") shall perform, insofar as applicable, the duties and assume such responsibilities and be subject to the limitations as are otherwise required of State and county committees except as provided herein. The Director, Caribbean Area ASC office, shall recommend members of the review committee panel, the areas of venue, and perform the functions of the State administrative officer. Any farmer who is eligible to vote in a referendum for which a quota has been proclaimed shall be eligible for appointment as a member of a review committee panel. The clerk shall be the ASC district supervisor of the district in which the review committee will hold its hearings. Where it is impractical or impossible to use the United States mail to serve the applicant with notice of hearing or determination or order, use shall be made of such other method of service as is available. However, when such other method is used, the ASC Committee shall make provision for keeping an accurate record of the date and method of delivery to the applicant.

PART 728—WHEAT

Subpart—Regulations Pertaining to Farm Acreage Allotments for 1960 and Subsequent Crops of Wheat

1961 FARM BASE ACREAGE AND ALLOTMENT DETERMINATIONS

Basis and purpose. The amendments herein are issued pursuant to and in accordance with the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended. The first amendment is primarily for clarification to state that in the determination of base acreages and acreage allotments the special provisions in the regulations for computing base acreages and allotments for a small number of farms involving exceptional situations have been determined to reflect adequately the statutory factors for determining allotments. The second amendment is for the purpose of providing for the determination of a computed farm base acreage for 1961 for an old farm having a crop-rotation system under which the acreage devoted to the production of wheat for harvest as grain has varied in a set pattern from year to year over a three- or four-year period.

County committees are preparing to compile data and determine 1961 base acreages preparatory to the establishment of 1961 wheat acreage allotments, and the amendment herein is an integral part of the regulations for determining base acreages and acreage allotments. Accordingly, it is hereby found and determined that compliance with the public notice, procedure, and 30-day effective date provisions of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act is impracticable and contrary to the public interest. Therefore, the amendment herein shall become effective upon its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

1. Section 728.1017a(a) is amended by striking the period at the end of the last sentence thereof and adding the following language: ", for substantially all farms. For the small number of farms where special provisions are necessary as provided in subparagraphs (4), (5), (6), and (7) of paragraph (b) of this section, the computed base acreage determined in accordance with the provisions of such subparagraphs have been determined adequately to reflect these factors."

2. A new subparagraph (7) is added to § 728.1017a(b) to read as follows:

(7) For any old farm having a crop-rotation system under which the acreage devoted to the production of wheat for harvest as grain has varied in a set pattern from year to year over a three or four-year period, the previous base acreage selected by the county committee as applicable for 1961 for such farm under such rotation system.

Title 9—ANIMALS AND ANIMAL PRODUCTS

Chapter I—Agricultural Research Service, Department of Agriculture

SUBCHAPTER D—EXPORTATION AND IMPORTATION OF ANIMALS AND ANIMAL PRODUCTS

PART 97—OVERTIME SERVICES RELATING TO IMPORTS AND EXPORTS

Overtime, Night and Holiday Inspection and Quarantine Activities at Border, Coastal and Air Ports

Pursuant to the authority conferred by the Act of August 28, 1950 (64 Stat. 561; 5 U.S.C. 576), § 97.1 of Part 97, Title 9, of the Code of Federal Regulations is further amended to read as follows:

§ 97.1 Overtime work at border ports, seaports, and airports.

Any person, firm, or corporation having ownership, custody or control of animals, animal byproducts, or other commodities subject to inspection, certification, or quarantine under this subchapter and Subchapter G of this chapter, and who requires the services of an employee of the Animal Inspection and Quarantine Division on a holiday, or at any other time outside the regular tour of duty of such employee, shall sufficiently in advance of the period of overtime request the Division inspector in charge to furnish inspection, certification or quarantine service during such overtime period and shall pay the Administrator of the Agricultural Research Service at the rate of $5.80 per man-hour per employee as follows: A minimum charge of two hours shall be made for any unscheduled overtime duty performed by an employee on a day when no work was scheduled for him or which is performed by an employee on his regular work day beginning either at least one hour before his scheduled tour of duty or at least one hour after he has completed his scheduled tour of duty, and has left his place of employment. In addition, each such period of unscheduled overtime work which requires an employee to perform additional travel for which he would otherwise not be compensated, and each period of holiday duty, may include a commuted travel time period, not in excess of three hours. The amount of this period shall be prescribed in administrative instructions to be issued by the Director of the Animal Inspection and Quarantine Division for the ports, stations, and areas in which the employees are located, and shall be established as nearly as may be practicable to cover the time necessarily spent in reporting to and returning from such overtime duty if such travel is performed solely on account of such overtime duty. It will be administratively determined from time to time which days constitute holidays.

Purpose. The purpose of this amendment is to increase the hourly rate for overtime services from $5.40 to $5.80 commensurate with salary increases provided in the Federal Employees Salary Increase Act of 1960 (Public Law 86-568). It is to the benefit of those who require such overtime services, as well as the public generally, that this amendment be made effective at the earliest practicable date. Accordingly, pursuant to the provisions of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act (60 Stat. 238), it is found upon good cause that notice and public procedure on this amendment are impracticable, unnecessary, and contrary to the public interest, and good cause is found for making this amendment effective less than 30 days after publication.

Effective Date. The foregoing amendshall be effective July 10, 1960.

PART 10—CRITERIA AND PROCEDURES FOR DETERMINING ELIGIBILITY FOR ACCESS TO RESTRICTED DATA OR DEFENSE INFORMATION WITHIN INDUSTRY

The following regulations of the Commission establishing the criteria and procedures for resolving questions concerning the eligibility of an individual who is not an AEC employee or applicant for AEC employment for access to Restricted Data pursuant to the Atomic Energy Act of 1954, as amended, or for access to defense information, are published to implement Executive Order 10865, 25 F.R. 1583 (February 24, 1960). It should be noted that these rules relate to personnel employed by or applicants for employment with AEC contractors, agents, access permittees, and licensees of the AEC, while the rules contained in Part 4 of the Atomic Energy Commission's rules and regulations relate to criteria and procedures for resolving questions concerning the eligibility of an individual for security clearance for AEC employment under the Atomic Energy Act of 1954, as amended.

Because these regulations relate to the performance of AEC functions as described in section 4(2) of the Administrative Procedure Act of 1946, 5 U.S.C. section 1003(2), the Commission has found that general notice of proposed rulemaking and public procedure thereon are not required and that good cause exists why these rules should be made effective immediately without the customary period of prior notice.

Because of the important nature of the regulations contained herein, the Commission invites written comments from interested members of the public. These comments should be mailed to the General Counsel, U.S. Atomic Energy Commission, Washington 25, D.C.

Pursuant to the Administrative Procedure Act, the following rules are published as a document subject to codification, to be effective immediately upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

§ 10.1 Purpose.

This part establishes the criteria, procedures, and methods for resolving questions concerning the eligibility of an individual for access to Restricted Data pursuant to the Atomic Energy Act of 1954, as amended. The appropriate provisions of this part are also to be used to the extent the Commission has responsibilities under Executive Order 10865, 25 F.R. 1583 (February 24, 1960).

§ 10.2 Scope.

The criteria and procedures outlined in this part shall be used in those cases in which there are questions of eligibility for AEC access authorization involving:

(a) Those employees (including consultants) of, and those applicants for employment with, contractors and agents of the Atomic Energy Commission;

(b) Access permittees and licensees of the AEC and their employees (including consultants) and applicants for employment; and

(c) Those other persons designated by the General Manager of the Atomic Energy Commission.

§ 10.3 Reference.

The pertinent sections of of the Atomic Energy Act of 1954 are as follows:

SEC. 141. Policy. It shall be the policy of the Commission to control the dissemination and disclosure of Restricted Data in such a manner as to assure the common defense and security * * *

SEC. 145. Restriction. (a) No arrangement shall be made under section 31, no contract shall be made or continued in effect under section 41, and no license shall be issued under section 103 or 104, unless the person with whom such arrangement is made, the contractor or prospective contractor, or the prospective licensee agrees in writing not to permit any individual to have access to Restricted Data until the Civil Service Commission shall have made an investigation and report to the Commission on the character, associations, and loyalty of such individual, and the Commission shall have determined that permitting such person to have access to Restricted Data will not endanger the common defense and security.

(b) Except as authorized by the Commission or the General Manager upon a determination by the Commission or General Manager that such action is clearly consistent with the national interest, no individual shall be employed by the Commission nor shall the Commission permit any individual to have access to Restricted Data until the Civil Service Commission shall have made an investigation and report to the Commission on the character, associations, and loyalty of such individual, and the Commission shall have determined that permitting such person to have access to Restricted Data will not endanger the common defense and security.

(c) In the event an investigation made pursuant to subsections (a) and (b) of this section develops any data reflecting that the individual who is the subject of the investigation is of questionable loyalty, the Civil Service Commission shall refer the matter to the Federal Bureau of Investigation for the conduct of a full field investigation, the results of which shall be furnished to the Civil Service Commission for its information and appropriate action.

(d) If the President deems it to be in the national interest, he may from time to time cause investigations of any group or class which are required by subsections (a) and (b) of this section to be made by the Federal Bureau of Investigation instead of by the Civil Service Commission.

(e) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsections (a) and (b) of this section, a majority of the members of the Commission shall certify those specific positions which are of a high degree of importance or sensitivity and upon such certification the investigation and reports required by such provisions shall be made by the Federal Bureau of Investigation instead of by the Civil Service Commission.

(f) The Commission shall establish standards and specifications in writing as to the scope and extent of investigations to be made by the Civil Service Commission pursuant to subsections (a) and (b) of this section. Such standards and specifications shall be based on the location and class or kind of work to be done, and shall, among other considerations, take into account the degree of importance to the common defense and security of the Restricted Data to which access will be permitted.

(g) Whenever the Congress declares that a state of war exists, or in the event of a national disaster due to enemy attack, the Commission is authorized during the state of war or period of national disaster due to enemy attack to employ individuals and to permit individuals access to Restricted Data pending the investigation report, and determination required by section 145b, to the extent that and so long as the Commission finds that such action is required to prevent impairment of its activities in furtherance of the common defense and security.

SEC. 161. General provisions. In the performance of its functions the Commission is authorized to:

(a) Establish advisory boards to advise with and make recommendations to the Commission on the legislation, policies, administration, research and other matters: Provided, That the Commission issues regulations setting forth the scope, procedure, and limitations of the authority of each such board.

* * * * * *

(c) Make such studies and investigations, obtain such information, and hold such meetings or hearings as the Commission may deem necessary or proper to assist it in the administration or enforcement of this act, or any regulations or orders issued thereunder. For such purposes the Commission is authorized to administer oaths and affirmations, and by subpoena to require any person to appear and testify, or to appear and produce documents, or both, at any designated place. No person shall be excused from complying with any requirements under this paragraph because of his privilege against self-incrimination, but the immunity provisions of the Compulsory Testimony Act of February 11, 1893, shall apply with respect to any individual who specifically claims such privilege. Witnesses subpoenaed under this subsection, shall be paid the same fees and mileage as are paid witnesses in the district courts of the United States.

* * * * * *

(n) Delegate to the General Manager or other officers of the Commission any of those functions assigned to it under this Act except those specified in sections 51, 57a(3), 61, 102 (with respect to the finding of a practical value), 108, 123, 145b (with respect to the determination of those persons to whom the Commission may reveal Restricted Data in the national interest), 145e, and 161a.

§ 10.4 Policy.

It is the policy of the Atomic Energy Commission to carry out its responsibility for the security of the atomic energy program in a manner consistent with traditional American concepts of justice. To this end, the Commission has established criteria for determining eligibility for access authorization and will afford those individuals described in § 10.2 the opportunity for administrative review of questions concerning their eligibility for access authorization.

§ 10.5 Definitions.

As used in this part:

(a) "Access authorization" means an administrative determination that an individual is eligible for access to Restricted Data or defense information;

(b) "Personnel Security Board" means an advisory board appointed by the Manager of Operations and consisting of three members, one of whom shall be designated as Chairman;

(c) "Hearing Counsel" means an AEC attorney assigned to prepare and conduct Personnel Security Board hearings;

(d) "AEC Personnel Security Review Board" means an advisory appeal board located in Washington, D.C., consisting of three members, one of whom shall be designated as Chairman;

(e) "Commission" means the commission of five members or a quorum thereof sitting as a body, as provided by section 21 of the Atomic Energy Act of 1954, as amended.

CRITERIA FOR DETERMINING ELIGIBILITY FOR ACCESS TO RESTRICTED DATA OR DEFENSE INFORMATION

§ 10.10 Application of the criteria.

(a) The decision as to access authorization is a comprehensive, commonsense judgment, made after consideration of all the relevant information, favorable or unfavorable, as to whether the granting of access authorization would endanger the common defense and security and would be clearly consistent with the national interest.

(b) To assist in making these determinations, on the basis of all the information in a particular case, there are set forth in this part a number of specific types of derogatory information. These criteria are not exhaustive but contain the principal types of derogatory information which create a question as to the individual's eligibility for access authorization. While there must necessarily be adherence to such criteria, the Commission is not limited thereto, nor precluded from exercising its judgment that information or facts in a case under its cognizance are derogatory although at variance with, or outside the scope of, the stated categories. These criteria are subject to continuing review and may be revised from time to time as experience and circumstances may make desirable.

(c) When the reports of investigation of an individual contain information reasonably tending to establish the truth of one or more of the items in the criteria, such information shall be regarded as substantially derogatory and shall create a question as to his eligibility for access authorization. Managers of Operations shall refer cases involving substantially derogatory information to the Director, Division of Security, AEC. The Director, Division of Security, AEC, may authorize the granting of access authorization on the basis of the information in the case or may authorize the conduct of an interview with the individual and, on the basis of such interview and such other investigation as he deems appropriate, may authorize the granting of access authorization. Otherwise, a question concerning the eligibility of an individual for access authorization shall be resolved in accordance with the procedures set forth in § 10.20 et seq.

(d) In resolving a question concerning the eligibility or continued eligibility of an individual for access authorization, the following principles shall be applied by the Board:

(1) Where there are grounds sufficient to establish a reasonable belief as to the truth of one or more of the items in Category "A", this shall be the basis for a recommendation for denying or revoking access authorization if not satisfactorily rebutted by the individual.

(2) Where there are grounds sufficient to establish a reasonable belief as to the truth of one or more of the items in Category "B", the extent of activities, the period in which such activities occurred, the length of time which has since elapsed, and the attitudes and convictions of the individual shall be considered in determining whether the recommendation will be adverse or favorable.

§ 10.11 Derogatory information.

(a) Category "A" derogatory information. Category "A" includes those cases in which the individual or his spouse has:

(1) Committed or attempted to commit, or aided, or abetted another who committed or attempted to commit, any act of sabotage, espionage, treason or sedition;

(2) Knowingly established an association with espionage or sabotage agents of a foreign nation; with individuals reliably reported as suspected of espionage or sabotage; with representatives of foreign nations whose interests may be inimical to the interests of the United States, with traitors, seditionists, anarchists, or revolutionists;

(3) Held membership in any organization or group designated by the Attorney General pursuant to Executive Order 10450, as amended, provided the individual did not withdraw from such membership when the organization was so identified, or did not otherwise establish his rejection of its subversive aims; or, prior to the declaration by the Attorney General, participated in the activities of such an organization in a capacity where he should reasonably have had knowledge as to the subversive aims of the organization and did not establish his rejection of its subversive aims. (If an organization has been removed from the Attorney General's list, membership in the organization after such removal shall not be considered as Category "A" derogatory information but may be considered as Category "B" derogatory information.)

(4) Publicly or privately advocated revolution by force or violence to overthrow the Government of the United States or the alteration of the form of Government of the United States by unconstitutional means;

Category "A" also includes those cases in which the individual has:

(5) Deliberately omitted significant information from or falsified his Personnel Security Questionnaire or Personal History Statement concerning a significant matter;

(6) Wilfully violated or disregarded security regulations to a degree which would endanger the common defense and security; or intentionally disclosed classified information to any person not authorized to receive it;

(7) Any mental illness of a nature which in the opinion of competent medical authority may cause significant defect in the judgment or reliability of the individual;

(8) Been convicted of crimes indicating habitual criminal tendencies;

(9) Been, or is, a user of drugs habitually, without adequate evidence of rehabilitation.

(b) Category "B" derogatory information. In evaluating items under this category, the extent of the activities, the period in which such activities occurred, the length of time which has since elapsed, and the attitudes and convictions of the individual shall be considered. Category "B" includes those cases in which the individual or his spouse has:

(1) Advocated totalitarian, fascist, communist or other subversive political ideologies and has not subsequently established his rejection of them.

(2) Associated with persons falling within the provisions of Category "B", subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, when the individual himself did not establish his rejection of such ideologies. (Ordinarily this will not include chance or casual meetings nor contacts limited to normal business or official relations).

(3) Affiliated with any organization or group designated in Category "A", paragraph (a) (3), of this section, provided the individual did not discontinue such affiliation when the organization was so identified or did not otherwise establish his rejection of its subversive aims;

(4) Associated with any person falling within the provisions of Category "A", paragraph (a) (3), of this section, provided the individual did not discontinue such association when the organization was so identified or did not otherwise establish his rejection of its subversive aims. (Ordinarily this will not include chance or casual meetings nor contacts limited to normal business or official relations.)

(5) Parent(s), brother(s), sister(s), spouse, or offspring residing in a nation whose interests may be inimical to the interests of the United States, or in satellites or occupied areas thereof (to be evaluated in the light of the risk that pressure applied through such close relatives could force the individual to reveal sensitive information or perform an act of sabotage); Category "B" also includes those cases in which the individual:

(6) Refuses to serve in the Armed Forces when such refusal cannot be clearly shown to be due to religious convictions;

(7) Has been grossly careless in failing to protect or safeguard any Restricted Data or defense information;

(8) Has abused trust, has been dishonest, or has engaged in infamous, immoral or notoriously disgraceful conduct without adequate evidence of reformation;

(9) Is a sexual pervert or homosexual;

(10) Is a user of alcohol habitually and to excess, or has been such without adequate evidence of rehabilitation;

(11) Refuses, upon the ground of constitutional privilege against self-incrimination, to testify before a Congressional Committee regarding charges of his alleged disloyalty or other misconduct.

PROCEDURES

§ 10.20 Purpose of the procedures.

These procedures establish methods for the conduct of personnel security board hearings and administrative review of questions concerning an individual's eligibility for access authorization pursuant to the Atomic Energy Act of 1954, as amended, and Executive Order 10865, when it has been determined that such questions cannot be favorably resolved by interview or other investigation.

§ 10.21 Suspension of access authorization.

In those cases where information is received which raises a question concerning the continued eligibility of an individual for AEC access authorization, the Manager of the office concerned shall forward to the General Manager, via the Director, Division of Security, AEC, his recommendation as to whether the individual's access authorization should be suspended pending the final determination resulting from the operation of the procedures provided in this part. In making this recommendation the Manager shall consider such factors as the seriousness of the derogatory information developed, the possible access of the individual to classified information, and the individual's opportunity by reason of his position to commit acts adversely affecting the national security. The access authorization of an individual shall not be suspended except by direction of the General Manager.

§ 10.22 Notice to individual.

A notification letter, prepared by the Division of Security, AEC, approved by the Office of the General Counsel, and signed by the Manager of Operations, shall be presented to each individual whose eligibility for access authorization is in question. Where practicable, such letter shall be presented to the individual in person. The letter shall state:

(a) That reliable information in possession of the Commission has created a substantial doubt concerning the individual's eligibility for access authorization;

(b) The information which creates a substantial doubt regarding the individual's eligibility for access authorization shall be as comprehensive and detailed as the national security permits;

(c) In the event the individual desires a Board hearing he must within twenty days of the date of receipt of the notification letter indicate in writing to the Manager from whom he receives such letter that he wishes a hearing before a Personnel Security Board;

(d) That within twenty days of the date of receipt of the notification letter, the individual shall file with the Manager from whom he received such letter his written answer under oath or affirmation, to each item of reported information which raises the question of his eligibility for access authorization;

(e) That, if the individual so requests, a hearing will be scheduled before a Personnel Security Board with due regard for the convenience and necessity of the parties or their representatives for the purpose of affording the individual an opportunity of supporting his eligibility for access authorization;

(f) That, if the individual requests a hearing, he will be notified in writing of the membership of a Personnel Security Board when it is appointed by the Manager;

(g) That the individual will have the right to appear personally before a Personnel Security Board, and present evidence in his own behalf, through witnesses, or by documents, or both, and subject to the limitations set forth in § 10.27(f), be present during the entire hearing and be accompanied, represented and advised by counsel of his own choosing;

(h) That the individual's failure to file a written request for a hearing before a Personnel Security Board, in accordance with paragraphs (c) and (d) of this section, will be considered as a relinquishment by him of the opportunity of availing himself of the hearing and review procedure provided in this part, and that in such event a recommendation as to the final action to be taken will be made by the Manager of Operations and submitted to the General Manager for his decision on the basis of the information in the case without reference to a Personnel Security Board;

(i) His access authorization status until further notice;

(j) The name of the designated AEC official to contact for any further information desired.

§ 10.23 Additional information.

A copy of this part shall be given to the individual with the notification letter.

§ 10.24 Failure of individual to request a hearing.

(a) In the event the individual fails, within the prescribed time, to file a written request for a hearing before a Personnel Security Board, pursuant to § 10.22, a recommendation as to the final action to be taken shall be made by the Manager of Operations to the General Manager on the basis of the information in the case;

(b) The Manager of Operations may for good cause shown, at the request of the individual, extend the time for filing a written request for a hearing or for filing a written answer to the matters contained in the notification letter.

§ 10.25 Selection of AEC Hearing Counsel.

(a) Upon receipt from the individual of his written answer to the notification letter, signifying his desire to appear before a Personnel Security Board and answering under oath or affirmation the allegations contained in the notification letter, an AEC attorney shall forthwith be assigned to act as Hearing Counsel;

(b) Hearing Counsel shall, prior to the scheduling of the Board hearing, review the information in the case and shall request the presence of witnesses and the production of physical evidence in accordance with the provisions of paragraphs (m), (n), (o), and (p) of § 10.27. When the presence of a witness is deemed by the Hearing Counsel to be necessary or desirable to a proper determination of the issues before the Board, the Manager shall make arrangements by subpoena or otherwise for such witnesses to appear, be confronted by the individual, and be subject to examination and cross-examination;

(c) Hearing Counsel is authorized to consult directly with the individual if he is not represented by counsel, or if so represented with his counsel or representative, for purposes of reaching mutual agreement upon arrangements for an expeditious hearing of the case. Such arrangements may include clarification of issues, and stipulations with respect to testimony and the contents of documents and other physical evidence. Such stipulations when entered into shall be binding upon the individual and the Atomic Energy Commission for the purposes of this part. Prior to such consultation the Hearing Counsel shall advise the individual of his right to Counsel or other representation and of the possibility that any statements made by the individual to the Hearing Counsel may be used in subsequent proceedings;

(d) The individual is responsible for producing witnesses in his own behalf or presenting other proof before the board to support his answer and defense to the allegations contained in the notification letter. When requested, however, Hearing Counsel shall assist him to the extent practicable and necessary. In the Hearing Counsel's sound discretion he may request the Manager of Operations to arrange for the issuance of subpoenas for witnesses to attend the hearing in the individual's behalf, or for the production of specific documents or other physical evidence, provided a showing of the necessity for such assistance has been made.

§ 10.26 Appointment of Personnel Security Boards.

(a) Upon receipt of advice from the Hearing Counsel that all arrangements for an expeditious hearing have been completed, the Manager shall forthwith appoint a Personnel Security Board consisting of three members, one of whom shall be designated as the Chairman of the Personnel Security Board;

(b) The personnel of the Board, when practicable as determined by the Manager, shall consist of at least one member who is an attorney and one member who is familiar with the general field of work of the individual;

(c) The personnel of the Board shall be selected from a panel of individuals possessing the highest degree of integrity, ability, and good judgment. Such panels may include employees of the AEC or its contractors but no employee of an AEC contractor shall serve as a member of a Personnel Security Board hearing the case of an employee of, or an applicant for employment with, that contractor;

(d) All persons serving as members of Personnel Security Boards shall have an AEC "Q" clearance;

(e) No person shall serve as a member of a Personnel Security Board who has prejudged the case to be heard; who possesses information that would make it embarrassing to render impartial recommendations or advice; or who for bias or prejudice generated for any reason would be unable to render fair and impartial recommendations or advice;

(f) Immediately upon the appointment of a Personnel Security Board, the Manager will notify the individual of the identity of the members of the Personnel Security Board and of his right to challenge any member for cause, such challenge or challenges, accompanied by the reasons therefor, to be submitted to the Manager within seventy-two hours of the receipt of the notice;

(g) In the event that the individual challenges a member or members of the Personnel Security Board, the justification of the action of the individual shall be determined by the Manager. Where the challenge of the individual is sustained, the Manager shall forthwith appoint such new members as required to constitute a full Personnel Security Board and notify the individual. The individual shall have the right to challenge such new members for cause and such challenge shall be dealt with in the same manner as an original challenge. The Manager shall also notify the individual of his rejection of any challenge. The Personnel Security Board shall convene as soon as is reasonably practicable;

(h) The Manager of Operations shall notify the individual in writing, at least one week in advance, of the date, hour, and place the Personnel Security Board will convene. In the event the individual fails to appear at the time and place specified, a recommendation as to the final action to be taken shall be made by the Manager of Operations to the General Manager on the basis of the information in the case. However, the Manager of Operations may for good cause shown, at the request of the individual, permit the individual to appear before a Personnel Security Board at a newly scheduled date, hour, and place.

§ 10.27 Conduct of proceedings.

(a) The proceedings shall be conducted by the Chairman of the Personnel Security Board in an orderly, impartial, and decorous manner with every effort made to protect the interests of the Government and of the individual and to arrive at the truth. In no case will undue delay be tolerated nor will the individual be hampered by unduly restricting the time necessary for proper preparation and presentation. In performing their duties, the members of the Board shall always bear in mind and make clear to all concerned that the proceeding is an administrative hearing and not a trial;

(b) The proceedings shall be open only to duly authorized representatives of the staff of the Atomic Energy Commission, the individual, his counsel, and such persons as may be officially authorized by the Board. Witnesses shall not testify in the presence of other witnesses;

(c) 1. Hearing Counsel shall examine and cross-examine witnesses and otherwise assist the Board in such a manner as to bring out a full and true disclosure of all facts, both favorable and unfavorable, having a bearing on the issues before the Board. In performing his duties, he shall avoid the attitude of a prosecutor and shall always bear in mind that the proceeding is an administrative hearing and not a trial;

2. Hearing Counsel shall not participate in the deliberations of the Board, and shall express no opinion to the Board concerning the merits of the case. He shall also advise the individual of his rights under these procedures when the individual is not represented by counsel of his own choosing;

(d) The Board may ask the individual, AEC representatives, and other witnesses any supplemental questions which the Board deems appropriate to assure the fullest possible disclosure of relevant and material facts. The proponent of a witness shall conduct the direct examination of that witness;

(e) During the course of the proceedings the Chairman shall rule in open session on all questions presented to the Board for its determination, subject to the objection of any member of the Board. In the event of an objection by any member of the Board, a majority vote of the Board shall be determinative and constitute the ruling of the Chairman. Voting may be either in open or closed session on all questions except recommendations to grant or deny access authorization, which shall be in closed session;

(f) In the event it appears in the course of the hearing that Restricted Data or defense information may be disclosed, it shall be the duty of the Chairman to assure that disclosure is not made to persons who are not authorized to receive it;

(g) The Board shall admit in evidence any matters either oral or written which are material, relevant and competent in determining the issues involved, including the testimony of responsible persons concerning the integrity of the individual. The utmost latitude shall be permitted with respect to relevancy, materiality, and competency. Every reasonable effort shall be made to obtain the best evidence available. Hearsay evidence may for good cause shown be admitted without regard to technical rules of admissibility and accorded such weight as the circumstances warrant;

(h) Testimony of the individual and witnesses shall be given under oath or affirmation, and the individual and witnesses shall be subject to cross-examination. Attention of the individual and the witness shall be invited to 18 U.S.C. 1001 and 18 U.S.C. 1621;

(i) The individual shall be afforded the opportunity of testifying in his own behalf;

(j) The Board shall endeavor to obtain all the facts that are reasonably available in order for it to arrive at its recommendations. If, prior to or during the proceeding, in the opinion of the Board the allegations in the notification letter are not sufficient to cover all matters into which inquiry should be directed, the Board shall recommend to the Manager concerned that, in order to give more adequate notice to the individual, the notification letter should be amended. Any amendment shall be made with the concurrence of the Director, Division of Security, AEC, and the Office of the General Counsel. If, in the opinion of the Board, the circumstances of such an amendment may involve an undue hardship to the individual, because of limited time to answer the new allegations in the notification letter, an appropriate adjournment shall be granted upon the request of the individual;

(k) Unless permitted by paragraphs (l), (m), (n), (o), and (p) of this section, the record may contain no information adverse to the individual on any controverted issue unless (1) the information or its substance has been made available to the individual and he offers no objection to its presentation; or (2) the information or its substance is made available to him and the individual is afforded an opportunity to cross-examine the person providing the information. Information whose admission is not prohibited by this paragraph, or by any other provision of this part, may be received and made a part of the record and may be considered by the Board or officials charged with making determinations under this part;

(l) A written or oral statement of a person relating to the characterization in the notification letter of any organization or person other than the individual may be received and considered by the Board without affording the individual an opportunity to cross-examine the person making the statement on matters relating to the characterization of such organization or person, provided the individual is given notice that it has been received and may be considered by the Board, and is informed of its contents provided such is not prohibited by § 10.27(f);

(m) The individual shall be afforded an opportunity to cross-examine persons who have made oral or written statements adverse to the individual relating to a controverted issue except that any such statement may be received and considered by the Board without affording such opportunity in either of the following circumstances:

(1) The head of the department supplying the statement certifies that the person who furnished the information is a confidential informant who has been engaged in obtaining intelligence information for the Government and that disclosure of his identity would be substantially harmful to the national interest;

(2) The Commission or its special designee for that particular purpose has preliminarily determined, after considering information furnished by the investigative agency as to the reliability of the person and the accuracy of the statement concerned, that the statement concerned appears to be reliable and material, and the Commission or such special designee has determined that failure of the Board to receive and consider such statement would, in view of the access to Restricted Data or defense information sought, be substantially harmful to the national security and that the person who furnished the information cannot appear to testify (i) due to death, severe illness, or similar cause, in which case the identity of the person and the information to be considered shall be made available to the individual, or (ii) due to some other cause determined by the Commission to be good and sufficient.

(n) Whenever procedures under paragraph (m) (1) or (2) of this section are used (1) the individual shall be given a summary of the information which shall be as comprehensive and detailed as the national security permits, and (2) appropriate consideration shall be accorded to the fact that the individual did not have an opportunity to cross-examine such person or persons;

(o) Records compiled in the regular course of business, or other physical evidence other than investigative reports, may be received and considered subject to rebuttal without authenticating witnesses, provided that such information has been furnished to the AEC by an investigative agency pursuant to its responsibilities in connection with assisting the Commission to safeguard Restricted Data or defense information;

(p) Records compiled in the regular course of business, or other physical evidence other than investigative reports, relating to a controverted issue which, because they are classified, may not be inspected by the individual, may be received and considered provided that;

(1) The Commission or its special designee for that purpose has made a preliminary determination that such physical evidence appears to be material;

(2) The Commission or such designee has made a determination that failure to receive and consider such physical evidence would, in view of the access to Restricted Data or defense information sought, be substantially harmful to the national security; and

(3) To the extent that national security permits, a summary or description of such physical evidence shall be made available to the individual. In every such case, information as to the authenticity and accuracy of such physical evidence furnished by the investigative agency shall be considered.

(q) The Board may request the Manager to arrange for additional investigation on any points which are material to the deliberations of the Board and which the Board believes need extension or clarification. In this event, the Board shall set forth in writing those issues upon which more evidence is requested, identifying where possible persons or sources from which evidence should be sought. The Manager shall make every effort through appropriate sources to obtain additional information upon the matters indicated by the Board;

(r) A written transcript of the entire proceedings shall be made by a person possessing appropriate AEC clearance and, except for portions containing Restricted Data or defense information, a copy of such transcript shall be furnished the individual without cost.

§ 10.28 Recommendation of the Board.

(a) The Board shall carefully consider the record and the standards set forth herein. In reaching its determination the Board shall consider the demeanor of the witnesses who have testified before the Board, the probability or likelihood of the truth of their testimony, their credibility, the authenticity and accuracy of documentary evidence, or the lack of evidence upon some material points in issue. If the individual is, or may be, handicapped by the non-disclosure to him of confidential information or by lack of opportunity to cross-examine confidential informants, the Board shall take that fact into consideration. The Board may also consider as part of the record the individual's past employment in the atomic energy program, and the nature and sensitivity of the job he is or may be expected to perform. Possible impact of the loss of the individual's services upon the AEC program shall not be considered by the Board;

(b) The Board shall make specific findings based upon the record as to whether each of the allegations contained in the notification letter is true or false and the significance which the Board attaches to such allegations. These findings shall be supported fully by a statement of reasons which constitute the basis for such findings;

(c) The recommendation of the Board shall be predicated upon its findings. If, after considering all the factors in the light of the criteria set forth in this part, the Board is of the opinion that it will not endanger the common defense and security and will be clearly consistent with the national interest to grant access authorization to the individual, it shall make a favorable recommendation; otherwise, it shall make an adverse recommendation;

(d) The recommendation of the Board shall be determined by a majority vote. In the event of a dissent from the majority, the recommendation of the minority member shall be made a matter of record together with a statement of the reasons leading to his conclusions. The recommendation of the Board shall be submitted to the Manager accompanied by a statement of the reasons leading to the Board's conclusions.

§ 10.29 New evidence.

(a) In the event of the discovery of new evidence by the individual prior to final determination of the individual's eligibility for access authorization, such evidence shall be submitted by the individual or his representative to the Manager of Operations from whom he received his notification letter;

(b) The Manager of Operations with the advice of Hearing Counsel shall review the application for the presentation of new evidence to ascertain its materiality and relevancy and further, that the individual or his representative is without fault in failing to present the evidence before. In the event it is determined that the new evidence should be received, the Manager of Operations shall:

(1) Refer the matter to the Personnel Security Board which had been appointed in the individual's case when the Manager of Operations has not yet transmitted the record to the General Manager. The Board receiving the application for the presentation of new evidence shall determine the form in which it shall be received, whether by testimony before the Board, by deposition, or by affidavit.

(2) In those cases where the Manager of Operations has forwarded the record to the General Manager, the application for presentation of new evidence shall be referred to the General Manager with appropriate comment and recommendations. In the event the General Manager determines that the new evidence should be received, he shall determine the form in which it shall be received, whether by testimony before a Personnel Security Board, by deposition, or by affidavit.

§ 10.30 Actions on the recommendations.

(a) The recommendations of the Board and any dissent therefrom shall be signed by the members of the Board as appropriate, and together with the record of the case, shall be transmitted with the least practicable delay to the Manager of Operations concerned;

(b) Upon receipt of the findings and recommendation of the Board, and the record, the Manager shall forthwith transmit it to the General Manager through the Director, Division of Security, AEC. In those cases where denial of access authorization is recommended by the Board, the Manager of Operations shall forward a statement concerning the effect which denial of access authorization would have upon the atomic energy program;

(c) The General Manager may return the record to the Manager for further proceedings by the Personnel Security Board with respect to specific matters designated by the General Manager;

(d) (1) In the event of a recommendation by the Board for a denial of access authorization, the individual shall be immediately notified in writing of that fact by the General Manager, or his designee, and shall be informed of the Board's findings with respect to each allegation contained in the notification letter. The individual shall also be notified of his right to request a review of his case by the AEC Personnel Security Review Board and of his right to submit a brief in support his contentions. The request for a review shall be submitted to the General Manager within five days after the receipt of the notice. The brief shall be forwarded to the General Manager through the Director, Division of Security, AEC, not later than 10 days after receipt of such notice, unless such time is extended by the General Manager for good cause shown;

(2) Where the individual requests a review of the adverse recommendation, the General Manager shall forthwith send the record, with all findings and recommendations, to the Personnel Security Review Board;

(3) In the event the individual fails to request a review by the AEC Personnel Security Review Board of an adverse recommendation within the prescribed time, the final determination shall be made on the basis of the record with all findings and recommendations;

(e) (1) Where the Board has made a recommendation favorable to the individual and the General Manager proposes to transmit the record to the Personnel Security Review Board for its recommendation, the General Manager shall immediately cause the individual to be notified of that fact and of those matters contained in the notification letter concerning which he desires the advice of the Personnel Security Review Board. He shall further inform the individual that he may submit a brief concerning such matters for the consideration of the Personnel Security Review Board. Such brief shall be filed not later than 10 days from the receipt of the notice by the individual, unless extended for good cause shown. The brief shall be forwarded to the General Manager for transmission to the Personnel Security Review Board.

§ 10.31 Recommendations of the AEC Personnel Security Review Board.

(a) The AEC Personnel Security Review Board shall make its deliberations based upon the record, supplemented by such brief as the individual submits. The Personnel Security Review Board may request such additional briefs as it deems appropriate. In any case where the AEC Personnel Security Review Board determines that additional evidence or further proceedings are necessary, it may return the record to the General Manager with a recommendation that the case be remanded to the Manager of Operations for appropriate action;

(b) In its deliberations, the AEC Personnel Security Review Board shall make its findings and recommendations as to the eligibility of an individual for access authorization on the record supplemented by additional testimony or briefs, as determined by the Board. When additional testimony is taken by the Personnel Security Review Board a verbatim transcript of such testimony shall be made part of the record;

(c) The Personnel Security Review Board shall not concern itself with the possible impact of the loss of the individual's services upon the AEC program;

(d) After its deliberations, the AEC Personnel Security Review Board shall make its findings and recommendations on the record in writing to the General Manager.

§ 10.32 Action by the General Manager.

(a) The General Manager, on the basis of the record accompanied by all recommendations, shall then make a final determination whether access authorization shall be granted or denied, unless the provisions of § 10.27 (m), (n), (o), or (p) have been used, in which case the decision to deny or revoke access authorization may be made only by the Commission;

(b) In making the determination as to whether access authorization shall be granted or denied, the General Manager or Commission shall give due recognition to the favorable as well as the unfavorable information concerning the individual and shall take into account the value of the individual's services to the atomic energy program and the operational consequences of denial of access authorization;

(c) In the event of an adverse determination the General Manager shall notify the individual through the Manager of Operations of his decision that access authorization is being denied or revoked and of his findings with respect to each allegation contained in the notification letter for transmittal to the individual.

§ 10.33 Action by the Commission.

(a) Whenever an individual has not been afforded an opportunity to confront and cross-examine witnesses who have furnished information adverse to the individual under the provisions of § 10.27 (m), (n), (o), or (p) and an adverse recommendation has been made by the General Manager, the Commissioners shall personally review the record and determine whether access authorization shall be granted, denied or revoked, based upon the record;

(b) When the Commission determines to deny or revoke access authorization the individual will be notified through the Manager of Operations of its decision that access authorization is being denied or revoked and of its findings with respect to each allegation contained in the notification letter for transmittal to the individual;

(c) Nothing contained in these procedures shall be deemed to limit or affect the responsibility and powers of the Commission to deny or revoke access to Restricted Data or defense information if the security of the nation so requires. Such authority may not be delegated and may be exercised only when the Commission determines that the procedures prescribed in § 10.27 (m), (n), (o), or (p) cannot be invoked consistently with the national security and such determination shall be conclusive.

§ 10.34 Reconsideration of cases.

(a) Where, pursuant to the procedures set forth in §§ 10.20 to 10.33, the General Manager or the Commission has made a determination granting access authorization to an individual, the individual's eligibility for access authorization shall be reconsidered only when subsequent to the time of the prior hearing, there is new substantially derogatory information or a significant increase in the scope or sensitivity of the Restricted Data or defense information to which the individual has or will have access;

(b) Where, pursuant to these procedures, the Commission or General Manager has made a determination denying access authorization to an individual, the individual's eligibility for access authorization may be reconsidered when there is a bona fide offer of employment requiring access to Restricted Data or defense information and either material and relevant new evidence, which the individual and his representatives are without fault in failing to present before, or convincing evidence of reformation or rehabilitation. Requests for reconsideration shall be submitted in writing to the General Manager through the Manager of Operations having jurisdiction over the position for which access authorization is required. Such requests shall be accompanied by an affidavit setting forth in detail the information referred to above. The General Manager shall cause the individual to be notified as to whether his eligibility for access authorization will be reconsidered and, if so, the method by which such reconsideration will be accomplished;

(c) Where access authorization has been granted to an individual by a Manager of Operations without recourse to the procedures set forth in §§ 10.20 to 10.33, the individual's eligibility for access authorization shall be reconsidered only in a case where subsequent to the granting of the access authorization, new substantially derogatory information has been received or there is a significant increase in the scope or sensitivity of the Restricted Data or defense information to which the individual has, or will have access, and in any other case only with specific prior approval of the Director, Division of Security, AEC.

MISCELLANEOUS

§ 10.35 Terminations.

In the event the individual is no longer an applicant for access authorization or no longer requires access authorization the procedures of this part shall be terminated without a final determination as to his eligibility for access authorization.

§ 10.36 Attorney Representation.

In the event the individual is represented by an attorney or other such representative, the individual shall file with the AEC a document designating such attorney or representative and authorizing such attorney or representative to receive all correspondence, transcripts and other documents pertaining to the proceeding under this part.

§ 10.37 Certifications.

Whenever information is made a part of the record under the exceptions authorized by § 10.27 (m), (n), (o), and (p), the record shall contain certificates evidencing that the determinations required therein have been made.

§ 10.38 Washington Area cases.

In those cases which may arise involving individuals within the Washington Area of AEC operations, an Assistant General Manager designated by the General Manager shall discharge the functions and responsibilities assigned to Managers of Operations in these procedures.

Dated at Washington, D.C., this 1st day of July 1960.

A. R. LUEDECKE,
General Manager.

Title 14—AERONAUTICS AND SPACE

Chapter III—Federal Aviation Agency

SUBCHAPTER C—AIRCRAFT REGULATIONS

[Reg. Docket No. 422; Amdt. 170]

PART 507—AIRWORTHINESS DIRECTIVES

Mooney M20A Aircraft

Evidence of satisfactory service life of the exhaust heater muff assembly, P/N 6363, submitted by the manufacturer is such that AD 59-11-3 may be amended to delete the 50-hour inspection for Mooney M20A aircraft incorporating the part. Accordingly, AD 59-11-3, Amendment 21, 24 F.R. 4590, is being amended by changing the applicability statement to exclude the M20A aircraft having P/N 6363 installed.

Since this amendment imposes no additional burden on any person, notice and public procedure hereon are unnecessary and it may be made effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

In consideration of the foregoing § 507.10(a) (14 CFR Part 507) is amended as follows:

AD 59-11-3 Amendment 21 Mooney Mark 20A aircraft as it appeared in 24 F.R. 4590 is amended:

1. By amending the first sentence of the applicability statement to read "Applies to Mark 20A aircraft through Serial Number 1534."

2. By adding to paragraph (2) the following sentence, "The 50 hour inspection is not required if exhaust heater muff assembly P/N 6362 is installed."

This amendment shall become effective upon the date of its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

(Sec. 313(a), 601, 603; 72 Stat. 752, 775, 776; 49 U.S.C. 1354(a), 1421, 1423)

Issued in Washington, D.C., on July 6, 1960.

SUBCHAPTER E—AIR NAVIGATION REGULATIONS

[Airspace Docket No. 60-WA-115]

PART 600—DESIGNATION OF FEDERAL AIRWAYS

Modification

The purpose of these amendments to §§ 600.6092 and 600.6604 of the regulations of the Administrator is to modify the segments of VOR Federal airways No. 92 and 1504 between Wheeling, W. Va., and Grantsville, Md.

A segment of Victor airways 92 and 1504 presently extends from the Wheeling VOR to the Grantsville VOR via the Uniontown, Pa., VORTAC. The Federal Aviation Agency is decommissioning the Uniontown VORTAC because it is no longer required for navigational purposes in this area. Therefore, it is necessary to realign Victor airways 92 and 1504 and delete all reference to the Uniontown VORTAC in the description of these airways.

This action will result in the segments of Victor airways 92 and 1504 between the Wheeling VOR and the Grantsville VOR being designated via direct radials, station to station. The distance between these two stations is approximately 80 nautical miles which is within the maximum spacing criteria for basic airways. The control areas associated with these airways are so designated that they will automatically conform to the modified airways. Accordingly, no amendment relating to such control areas is necessary.

Since these amendments are minor in nature, compliance with the notice, public procedure, and effective date requirements of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act is unnecessary. However, since it is necessary that sufficient time be allowed to permit appropriate changes to be made on aeronautical charts, these amendments will become effective more than 30 days after publication.

In consideration of the foregoing, and pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (24 F.R. 4530), the following actions are taken:

1. In the text of § 600.6092 (24 F.R. 10514) "Uniontown, Pa., VOR;" is deleted.

2. In the text of § 600.6604 (24 F.R. 10528, 25 F.R. 4077) "Uniontown, Pa., VORTAC;" is deleted.

These amendments shall become effective 0001 e.s.t. August 25, 1960.

[Airspace Docket No. 59-WA-435]

PART 600—DESIGNATION OF FEDERAL AIRWAYS

PART 601—DESIGNATION OF THE CONTINENTAL CONTROL AREA, CONTROL AREAS, CONTROL ZONES, REPORTING POINTS, AND POSITIVE CONTROL ROUTE SEGMENTS

Modification of Federal Airway and Associated Control Areas

On March 26, 1960, a notice of proposed rule making was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (25 F.R. 2589) stating that the Federal Aviation Agency proposed to revoke the east alternates to VOR Federal airway No. 5 from Nashville, Tenn., to Bowling Green, Ky., and from Bowling Green to New Hope, Ky., and to designate a new east alternate to Victor 5 from Nashville to New Hope via the intersection of the Nashville VORTAC 029° True and the New Hope VOR 202° True radials.

Two comments were received regarding the proposed amendments. The Air Line Pilots Association concurred in the action taken herein. The Air Transport Association endorsed the designation of the new east alternate to Victor 5 between Nashville and New Hope. The ATA, however, recommended that this new east alternate be assigned another airway number as a primary airway rather than be designated as an alternate to Victor 5, and also recommended that, instead of revoking the existing east alternates to Victor 5 from Nashville to Bowling Green and from Bowling Green to New Hope, these Victor 5 east alternates should be redesignated between Nashville and Bowling Green via the intersection of the Nashville VOR 029° True and the Bowling Green VOR 174° True radials, and between Bowling Green and New Hope via the intersection of the Bowling Green VOR 063° True and the New Hope VOR 202° True radials. The ATA stated that the retention of the east alternates from Nashville to Bowling Green to New Hope would provide for efficient aircraft operation and air traffic management of north and south bound traffic between Nashville and Bowling Green and between Bowling Green and Louisville, Ky., via New Hope. Consideration of the ATA recommendation indicates that, in conjunction with the existing Victor 5, a three-airway structure would result between Nashville and New Hope. However, the designation of Victor 5 east between Nashville and New Hope in the manner proposed in the notice, in conjunction with Victor 5, will provide an airway structure that will be adequate to accommodate the air traffic en route to or overflying Bowling Green. Therefore, the Federal Aviation Agency is modifying Victor 5 as proposed in the notice.

Although the notice states that the control areas associated with Victor 5 are so designated that they will automatically conform to the modified airway, it is necessary to modify § 601.6005 to correctly reflect the control areas associated with Victor 5.

Interested persons have been afforded an opportunity to participate in the making of the rules herein adopted, and due consideration has been given to all relevant matter presented.

The substance of the proposed amendment having been published, therefore, pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (24 F.R. 4530) and for the reasons stated in the Notice, §§ 600.6005 (24 F.R. 10504, 10874, 25 F.R. 171) and 601.6005 (24 F.R. 10598) are amended to read:

§ 600.6005 VOR Federal airway No. 5 (Jacksonville, Fla., to London, Ont.).

PART 600—DESIGNATION OF FEDERAL AIRWAYS

PART 601—DESIGNATION OF THE CONTINENTAL CONTROL AREA, CONTROL AREAS, CONTROL ZONES, REPORTING POINTS, AND POSITIVE CONTROL ROUTE SEGMENTS

Designation of Federal Airway and Associated Control Areas

On December 10, 1959, a notice of proposed rule-making was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (24 F.R. 9998) stating that the Federal Aviation Agency proposed to designate VOR Federal airway No. 485 and its associated control areas between Los Angeles, Calif., and Oakland, Calif.

The segment of the proposed Victor 485 from Los Angeles to Oxnard, Calif., would, in part, lie outside the continental limits of the United States. Such airspace allocation must be the subject of special coordination procedures. For this reason, this portion of the airway will not at this time be designated, but will again be proposed at a later date. This will result in Victor 485 being designated from Oxnard to Oakland.

The coordinates of the Fellows, Calif., VOR were incorrectly described in the preamble of the notice and are revised to read latitude 35°05'35" N., longitude 119°51'53" W. These changes are minor in nature in that they represent a correction of only 8 seconds of latitude and 5 seconds of longitude and necessitate no change in the proposed amendments. Additionally the commissioning dates of the Priest, Calif., VOR and the Fellows VOR have been rescheduled to June 30, 1960, and July 28, 1960, respectively.

No adverse comments were received regarding the proposed amendments. Interested persons have been afforded an opportunity to participate in the making of the rules herein adopted, and due consideration has been given to all relevant matter presented.

The substance of the proposed amendments having been published, therefore, pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (24 F.R. 4536) and for the reasons stated in the notice, Parts 600 (24 F.R. 10487) and 601 (24 F.R. 10530) are hereby amended as follows:

1. Section 600.6485 is added to read:

§ 600.6485 VOR Federal airway No. 485 (Oxnard, Calif., to Oakland, Calif.).

From the Oxnard, Calif., VOR via the Fellows, Calif., VOR; Priest, Calif., VOR; INT of the Priest VOR 234° True and the Oakland VORTAC 131° True radials to the Oakland, Calif., VORTAC. The portions of this airway which lie within the geographic limits of, and between the designated altitudes of, the Point Mugu Restricted Areas (R-100) and (R-551), and the Point Mugu Warning Area (W-289), are excluded during these areas' time of designation.

2. Section 601.6485 is added to read:

§ 601.6485 VOR Federal airway No. 485 control areas (Oxnard, Calif., to Oakland, Calif.).

All of VOR Federal airway No. 485.

These amendments shall become effective 0001 e.s.t. August 25, 1960.

PART 601—DESIGNATION OF THE CONTINENTAL CONTROL AREA, CONTROL AREAS, CONTROL ZONES, REPORTING POINTS, AND POSITIVE CONTROL ROUTE SEGMENTS

Modification of Control Zone

On April 20, 1960, a notice of proposed rule making was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (25 F.R. 3425) stating that the Federal Aviation Agency was considering an amendment to § 601.2233 of the regulations of the Administrator which would modify the Quonset Point, R.I., control zone.

As stated in the notice, the Quonset Point control zone is presently designated within a 5-mile radius of the Naval Air Station excluding the portion which lies within the Providence, R.I., control zone. The Federal Aviation Agency is designating extensions to the existing control zone based on the 146° True radial of the Navy Quonset VOR extending from the 5-mile radius zone to a point 12 miles southeast of the VOR, and on the 160° True radial of the Navy Quonset TACAN extending from the 5-mile radius zone to a point 9 miles southeast of the TACAN. This action will result in the Quonset Point Control Zone being designated within a 5-mile radius of the Quonset Point NAS (latitude 41°35'55" N., longitude 71°24'50" W.); within 2 miles either side of the 146° True radial of the Navy Quonset VOR, extending from the 5-mile radius zone to a point 12 miles southeast of the VOR; within 2 miles either side of the 150° True radial of the Navy Quonset TACAN, extending from the 5-mile radius zone to a point 9 miles SE of the TACAN, excluding the portion which coincides with the Providence, R.I., control zone.

These amendments shall become effective 0001 e.s.t. August 25, 1960.

(Secs. 307(a), 313(a), 72 Stat. 749, 752; 49 U.S.C. 1348, 1354)

Issued in Washington, D. C., on July 8, 1960.

CHARLES W. CARMODY,
Acting Director, Bureau of Air Traffic Management.

[F.R. Doc. 60-6402; Filed, July 11, 1960; 8:45 a.m.]

Mr. Robert F. Wood of the Newport, R.I., Air Park submitted the following comments, quoted in part, in response to the notice: "I in no way wish to hinder Quonset's operation; however, if this extension were to be put onto being it would force a curtailment of the operations from this field, as this proposed extension would encompass about 40% of our traffic pattern—and in view of the fact we very often have low ceilings here, with the sea fog tapering upward from the ocean inland, it would mean that very often this island would be unnecessarily without air transportation." The proximity of the Newport Air Park to the Quonset Point Control Zone extension was considered at the time plans were formulated for the modified control zone. As a result of this consideration, the Quonset Point VOR instrument approach procedure is being altered five degrees west of its present location. This modified VOR approach procedure will be coincident with the LFR instrument approach procedure. The Federal Aviation Agency recognizes that the control zone extension based on the VOR will still infringe upon the traffic pattern for the Newport Air Park. However, in order to provide full protection for the VOR instrument approach to the Quonset Point NAS, the Federal Aviation Agency considers it necessary to designate the control zone as proposed in the notice.

The Department of the Air Force commented stating that they had no objection to the proposed amendment, and the Air Transport Association advised that they concurred in the action proposed.

Interested persons have been afforded an opportunity to participate in the making of the rules herein adopted, and due consideration has been given to all relevant matter presented.

The substance of the proposed amendments having been published, therefore, pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (24 F.R. 4530) and for the reasons stated in the notice, § 601.2233 (24 F.R. 10582) is amended to read:

§ 601.2233 Quonset Point, R.I., control zone.

Within a 5-mile radius of the geographical center of the Quonset Point Naval Air Station (latitude 41°35'55" N., longitude 71°24'50" W.); within 2 miles either side of the 146° True radial of the Navy Quonset VOR, extending from the 5-mile radius zone to a point 12 miles SE of the VOR; within 2 miles either side of the 150° True radial of the Navy Quonset TACAN, extending from the 5-mile radius zone to a point 9 miles SE of the TACAN, excluding the portion which coincides with the Providence, R.I., control zone.

These amendments shall become effective 0001 e.s.t. August 25, 1960.

The Commission has found that operation of the reactor in accordance with the terms and conditions of the license will not present any undue hazard to the health and safety of the public and will not be inimical to the common defense and security.

Prior public notice of proposed issuance of an operating license for this facility was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on June 16, 1960, 25 F.R. 5403.

In accordance with the Commission's rules of practice (10 CFR Part 2), the Commission will direct the holding of a formal hearing on the matter of issuance of the license upon receipt of a request therefor from the licensee or an intervener within 30 days after the issuance of the license.

Petitions for leave to intervene and requests for a formal hearing shall be filed by mailing a copy to the Office of the Secretary, Atomic Energy Commission, Washington 25, D.C., or by delivery of a copy in person to the Office of the Secretary, Germantown, Maryland, or the AEC's Public Document Room, 1717 H Street, Washington, D.C.

For further details see (1) the application submitted by General Dynamics Corporation and amendments thereto, and (2) a hazards analysis dated June 10, 1960, prepared by the Hazards Evaluation Branch of the Division of Licensing and Regulation, both on file at the AEC's Public Document Room, 1717 H Street NW., Washington, D.C. A copy of item (2) above may be obtained at the AEC's Public Document Room or upon request addressed to the Atomic Energy Commission, Washington 25, D.C., Attention: Director, Division of Licensing and Regulation.

Dated at Germantown, Md., this 1st day of July 1960.

For the Atomic Energy Commission.

R. L. KIRK,
Deputy Director, Division of Licensing and Regulation.

2. The Atomic Energy Commission (hereinafter referred to as "the Commission") finds that:

A. The reactor has been constructed and will operate in conformity with the application and in conformity with the Atomic Energy Act of 1954, as amended (hereinafter referred to as "the Act"), and the rules and regulations of the Commission;

B. There is reasonable assurance that the reactor can be operated without endangering the health and safety of the public;

C. General Dynamics Corporation is technically and financially qualified to operate the reactor;

D. Issuance of a license to possess and operate the reactor will not be inimical to the common defense and security or to the health and safety of the public; and

E. General Dynamics Corporation has submitted proof of financial protection which satisfies the requirements of Commission regulations currently in effect.

3. Subject to the conditions and requirements incorporated herein, the Commission hereby licenses General Dynamics Corporation:

A. Pursuant to section 104c of the Act and Title 10, CFR, Chapter 1, Part 50, "Licensing of Production and Utilization Facilities" to possess and operate the reactor in accordance with the procedures and limitations described in the application;

B. Pursuant to the Act and Title 10, CFR, Chapter 1, Part 70, "Special Nuclear Material" to receive, possess and use up to 8 kilograms of contained uranium 235 in connection with operation of the reactor; and

C. Pursuant to the Act and Title 10, CFR, Chapter 1, Part 30, "Licensing of Byproduct Material", to possess but not to separate such byproduct material as may be produced by operation of the reactor.

4. This license shall be deemed to contain and be subject to the conditions specified in § 50.54 of Part 50 and § 70.32 of Part 70; is subject to all applicable provisions of the Act and rules, regulations and orders of the Commission now or hereafter in effect; and is subject to the additional conditions specified or incorporated below:

A. General Dynamics Corporation shall not operate the reactor except in accordance with the operating specifications contained in Appendix "A", attached hereto.

B. General Dynamics Corporation shall perform inspections of the reactor at reasonable intervals and in such manner as to assure the prompt detection of any fuel element damage.

C. Subject to the provisions of this paragraph 4, General Dynamics Corporation shall operate the reactor and conduct experiments therein only in accordance with the design and performance specifications, the operating limits and procedures, and the description of the experiments set forth in the application.

D. In any case where the specifications, limits, procedures, or experiments described in the application are not consistent with the requirements of this paragraph 4, the requirements contained herein shall govern.

E. General Dynamics Corporation may change or modify the design or performance specifications or operating limits or procedures described in Appendix A to this license only after a request for a license amendment has been prepared and submitted to the Atomic Energy Commission and such license amendment has been issued.

F. General Dynamics Corporation may change or modify the design or performance specifications, the operating limits or procedures, or experiments described in Sections II through VI of the Hazards Summary Report only after issuance of a license amendment authorizing such change or modification or in accordance with the following procedures:

(1) After its review of the proposed change or modification, General Dynamics Corporation shall provide the Commission with a report describing the proposed change or modification including (a) a hazards evaluation of the proposed change or modification and (b) a determination and reasons therefor by General Dynamics Corporation as to whether or not the proposed change or modification may involve hazards greater than, or different from, those analyzed in the Hazards Summary Report or may involve a material alteration of the reactor.

(2) If, within 15 days after the date of acknowledgment by the Division of Licensing and Regulation of receipt of such report, the Commission does not issue any notice to General Dynamics Corporation to the contrary, General Dynamics Corporation may make such change or modification without further approval.

(3) If, within 15 days after the date of acknowledgment by the Division of Licensing and Regulation of receipt of such report, the Commission notifies General Dynamics Corporation that the hazards involved may be greater than or different from those analyzed in the Hazards Summary Report, or that the proposed change or modification may involve a material alteration of the reactor, the change or modification shall not be made until such change has been authorized in writing by the Commission. If a license amendment is necessary to authorize the proposed change or modification the report submitted by General Dynamics Corporation shall be deemed to constitute an application for license amendment.

G. For purposes of this paragraph 4., a proposed change or modification shall be deemed to involve hazards which may be "greater than, or different from, those analyzed in the Hazards Summary Report" if (1) the probability of any type of accident analyzed in the Hazards Summary Report might be increased, or (2) the possible consequences of any type of accident analyzed in the Hazards Summary Report might be increased, or (3) such change or modification might create a credible probability of an accident of a type different from, and all possible consequences of which would not be of a lesser magnitude than each of, the accidents analyzed in the Hazards Summary Report.

H. "Hazards Summary Report" as used in this paragraph 4. is defined as "Enclosure 2, Hazards Summary Report" dated March 1, 1960, submitted by General Dynamics Corporation as a part of its application for license.

I. In addition to those otherwise required under this license and applicable regulations, General Dynamics Corporation shall keep the following records:

(1) Reactor operating records, including power levels.

(2) Records of in-pile irradiations.

(3) Records showing radioactivity released or discharged into the air or water beyond the effective control of General Dynamics Corporation as measured at the point of such release or discharge.

(4) Records of emergency reactor scrams, including reasons for emergency shutdowns.

J. General Dynamics Corporation shall immediately report to the Commission any indication or occurrence of a possible unsafe condition relating to the operation of the reactor.

6. This license is effective as of the date of issuance and shall expire ten years thereafter.

Date of issuance: July 1, 1960.

For the Atomic Energy Commission.

Deputy Director,
Division of Licensing and Regulation.

FEDERAL POWER COMMISSION

[Docket No. DA-131-Arizona]

POWER SITE RESERVES NOS. 83, 242, 590, AND 759, POWER SITE CLASSIFICATION NO. 438, WATER POWER DESIGNATION NO. 4, AND PROJECT NO. 837

Findings of the Commission and Partial Vacation of the Withdrawal Under Section 24 of the Federal Water Power Act

JULY 5, 1960.

The Geological Survey, United States Department of the Interior, has transmitted to the Commission a report resulting from its review of the water-power withdrawals of the Gila River Drainage Basin, Arizona, from the San Carlos Indian Reservation boundary line upstream to the Arizona-New Mexico boundary line, in which it recommends the revocation of the power withdrawals with respect to certain lands within the basin and the restoration to entry, subject to the provisions of section 24 of the Federal Power Act, of additional lands.

The lands are variously withdrawn in Power Site Reserves Nos. 83, 242, 590, and 759, Power Site Classification No. 438, Water Power Designation No. 4, and pursuant to the filing on September 2, 1927, of an application for a preliminary permit for proposed Project No. 837, which application was denied on April 6, 1933.

Findings heretofore made by the Commission in Docket Nos. DA-118-Arizona, DA-128-Arizona, and DA-129-Arizona, respectively, provided for the revocation of the power withdrawals pertaining to the lands described in finding (1) herein.

The Commission in Docket No. DA-118-Arizona also vacated the withdrawal pertaining to certain of the lands reserved in connection with proposed Project No. 837.

It appears that the water supply available in the stretch of the Gila River under consideration is not adequate to satisfy present irrigation requirements of the area.

The greater part of the annual flow occurs in the winter, when irrigation demand is least, and it is deficient in the summer when the demand is greatest. Water conservation and utilization appear to be closely related to flood problems along the Gila River. Because of the flashy nature of the streamflow the proportion of the water resources of the area which can be used effectively under present conditions remains a vital factor in the economy of the area.

Of the several potential dam and reservoir sites located in this stretch of the river the development of the Earven (Camelsback) site—primarily for flood control purposes—appears to be the only one having been considered in recent years.

Because of the nature of the streamflow within the area any power developed would be negligible and dependent on draw-down to meet irrigation requirements.

No plan is known that proposes use of any of the lands in this stretch of the river for power development, the water-power potential of the lands being negligible.

The Commission finds:

(1) Further Commission action with respect to the following-described lands is neither necessary nor appropriate:

[Docket No. RP60-15]

SOUTHERN NATURAL GAS CO.

Order Providing for Hearing and Suspending Proposed Revised Tariff Sheets

JULY 1, 1960.

Southern Natural Gas Company (Southern) on June 2, 1960, tendered for filing First Revised Sheets Nos. 5, 9, 12, 16, 19, 23, 27, and 30 to its FPC Gas Tariff, Sixth Revised Volume No. 1, providing for an annual increase in its rates and charges of $1,312,000, or 1.3 percent. The proposed increased rates would be in addition to a $7.7 million increase in rates subject to hearing in Docket No. G-20509.[1] Southern states that the increase is designed solely to reflect an increase in purchased gas costs resulting from an increase in rate filed by United Gas Pipe Line Company which was suspended until August 13, 1960, by the Commission by order issued March 10, 1960, in Docket No. RP60-2.

The proposed effective date designated by Southern is July 2, 1960. However, Southern offers other alternative effective dates for the proposed filing, depending upon whether the Commission grants Southern's accompanying motion that the instant rate filing be consolidated with the earlier filing subject to proceedings in Docket No. G-20509. Southern proposes that if the requested consolidation is granted, the effective date of the combined increase be postponed from June 1, 1960, to June 12, 1960. Southern states that its computations show that if the G-20509 rates are not placed in effect on June 1, but in lieu thereof the rates filed on June 2 become effective, after suspension, on June 12, the net effect would be that Southern will receive the same revenues as if the G-20509 rates became effective on June 1 and rates filed on June 2 become effective on August 13, 1960.

Upon consideration of Southern's motion for consolidation with Docket No. G-20509, it appears that such motion should not be granted at this time. The proposed June 12 effective date does not appear to be feasible and is objectionable to interested parties.

Comments have been received from twelve or more customer companies, the Georgia Public Service Commission and one industrial resale customer, opposing the proposed increased rates. Some of the complainants request suspension for the full statutory period of five months. The Georgia Commission cites the fact that Georgia law does not permit retroactive adjustment of resale rates of Southern's customers. One customer complains that it would not have sufficient time within which to protect itself by filing higher resale rates if the proposed rates were permitted to become effective on June 12, 1960.

The proposed increased rates and charges contained in the aforementioned revised tariff sheets tendered by Southern on June 2, 1960, may be unjust, unreasonable, unduly discriminatory, preferential, or otherwise unlawful.

The Commission finds: It is necessary and proper in the public interest and to aid in the enforcement of the provisions of the Natural Gas Act, that the Commission enter upon a public hearing concerning the lawfulness of the rates, charges, classifications, and services contained in Southern's FPC Gas Tariff, Sixth Revised Volume No. 1 as proposed to be modified by First Revised Sheets Nos. 5, 9, 12, 16, 19, 23, 27, and 30 to said tariff, as aforementioned, and that said revised tariff sheets and the rates contained therein be suspended and the use thereof deferred as hereinafter provided.

The Commission orders:

(A) Pursuant to the authority of the Natural Gas Act, particularly sections 4 and 15 thereof, the Commission's rules of practice and procedure and the regulations under the Natural Gas Act (18 CFR Ch. I), a public hearing be held on a date to be fixed by notice from the Secretary concerning the lawfulness of the rates, charges, classifications, and services contained in Southern's FPC Gas Tariff, Sixth Revised Volume No. 1, as proposed to be amended by First Revised Sheets Nos. 5, 9, 12, 16, 19, 23, 27, and 30 to said tariff as tendered for filing on June 2, 1960.

(B) Pending such hearing and decision thereon the aforementioned First Revised Sheets Nos. 5, 9, 12, 16, 19, 23, 27, and 30 to Southern's FPC Gas Tariff, Sixth Revised Volume No. 1 are hereby suspended and the use thereof deferred until August 13, 1960, and until such further time as the aforementioned increased rate and charge proposed by United Gas Pipe Line Company may become effective subject to refund in Docket No. RP60-2, and until such further time as said revised tariff sheets may be made effective in the manner prescribed by the Natural Gas Act.

(C) Interested State commissions may participate as provided by Sections 1.8 and 1.37(f) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 and 1.37(f)), by filing petitions for leave to intervene on or before August 15, 1960.

By the Commission.

[1] By order issued December 24, 1959, the Commission suspended the proposed increased rates filed in Docket No. G-20509 until June 1, 1960. On June 1, 1960, Southern filed its motion to make the said rates effective as of that date. No order, however, has been issued on said motion, there being presently pending before the Commission the staff's motion for an interim rate order. The subject proposed increased rates are also in addition to the proposed increased rates subject to hearing and refund in Docket No. G-18512, involving an estimated annual increase of $10.1 million.

BROOMS

Notice of Receipt of Application for Investigation

Notice is hereby given that on June 30, 1960 the United States Tariff Commission received an application from the National Broom Manufacturers and Allied Industries Association for an investigation under section 336 of the Tariff Act of 1930 (19 U.S.C. 1336) of the differences in the costs of production of brooms made of broom corn produced in the United States and of such brooms produced in foreign countries. The foreign brooms are dutiable under paragraph 1506 of the Tariff Act of 1930 at the rate of 25 per centum ad valorem, and applicants seek an increase in duty.

The application is available for public inspection at the office of the Secretary of the Commission in Washington, D.C., and at the Commission's office in New York City located in Room 437 of the Custom House, where it may be read and copied by persons interested.

The Commission is conducting a preliminary inquiry to determine whether a formal investigation for the purposes of section 336 is warranted.

IRON ORE

Notice of Investigation and Hearing

Investigation instituted. The United States Tariff Commission, on the 6th day of July 1960, under the authority of section 7 of the Trade Agreements Extension Act of 1951, as amended, instituted an investigation to determine whether iron ore (including manganiferous iron ore), provided for in paragraph 1760 of the Tariff Act of 1930, is, as a result in whole or in part of the customs treatment reflecting concessions granted thereon under trade agreements, being imported into the United States in such increased quantities, either actual or relative, as to cause or threaten serious injury to the domestic industry producing like or directly competitive products. A resolution requesting this investigation was adopted by the Committee on Finance, United States Senate, on June 30, 1960, and was received by the Commission from the Chairman of the Committee on July 1, 1960.

Public hearing ordered. A public hearing in connection with this investigation will be held beginning at 10 a.m., e.s.t., on October 11, 1960, in the Hearing Room, Tariff Commission Building, Eighth and E Streets NW., Washington, D.C. Interested parties desiring to appear and to be heard at the hearing should notify the Secretary of the Commission, in writing, at least five days in advance of the date set for the hearing.

Issued: July 7, 1960.

Notice of Investigation

Pursuant to a resolution adopted by the Committee on Ways and Means of the House of Representatives, the United States Tariff Commission has instituted a general investigation under the authority of section 332 of the Tariff Act of 1930 (19 U.S.C. 1332) of the conditions of competition in the market areas served by the producers in the Imperial, Palo Verde, and Coachella Valleys and adjoining areas of Southern California between fresh fruits and vegetables produced in such areas and those produced in foreign countries.

The Ways and Means Committee resolution directs the Commission to include in its report of the results of the investigation a summary of the facts obtained in the investigation with regard to domestic production, imports, domestic consumption, United States exports, comparability of the domestic and imported products, and the degree of competition between them with respect to the particular products and geographic areas referred to, and a statement of the United States customs treatment since 1930 with special reference to seasonal rates of duty.

If public hearings in connection with this investigation are deemed appropriate, announcement of such hearings will be made.

Subchapter 810—General Principles of Organization

PART 811—BASIS OF RESPONSIBILITY DISTRIBUTION

811.1—POSTMASTER GENERAL AND DEPUTY POSTMASTER GENERAL

.11 All responsibilities and authorities for performance of the work of the Post Office Department are vested by law in the Postmaster General, who may redelegate them to subordinate officers. The Postmaster General operates through delegation, as provided herein, except as to any matters which he may generally or specifically reserve for his personal decision, notwithstanding formal delegations.

.12 The Deputy Postmaster General functions as full alternate to the Postmaster General with full authority to act in his stead on all matters.

811.2—HEADQUARTERS AND FIELD

.21 The duties assigned to the Department in Washington relate mainly to:

a. Program planning, direction, and review.

b. Establishment of policies, procedures, standards, and other guidances.

c. Operational determinations on matters not logically within the full jurisdiction of field officers.

.22 Field installations are assigned responsibility for:

a. Local decision-making and performance of work in accordance with official delegations and prescribed policies, procedures, and standards.

b. Referral to superior authority of matters requiring higher decision, accompanied by appropriate recommendations.

c. Reporting of performance, special problems, trends, and other operating information necessary for effective planning and action by superior headquarters.

811.3—STAFF OFFICERS AND STAFF UNITS

.31 Staff officers to the Postmaster General and the Deputy operate in behalf of their superiors as extended arms of his personal authority. Staff officers do not have authority in their own right to make decisions on matters within the defined scope of other bureaus and offices. To the extent they participate in such decision-making, they do so as personal representatives of, and in behalf of, their superiors.

.32 Staff officers keep their superiors informed as to significant developments, implications, and needs for action. They may represent their superiors in coordinating developmental plans and programs of an interbureau nature.

.33 Additional duties of a service or control nature may be assigned to staff units, as provided in their individual functional statements.

.34 Staff officers and staff units in subordinate components of organization within the Postal Establishment are expected to operate in accordance with the principles stated in this section.

811.4—FUNCTIONAL BUREAUS

.411 The Bureau of Operations is the sole operating bureau at the departmental level having line responsibility over the field organization.

.412 It carries out the policies and programs of the Postmaster General on all matters pertaining to the provision of postal service within the scope of its functional statements and delegations.

.413 The execution of policies and program by the Bureau of Operations in the field is discharged with the policy guidance, advice, and support of other bureaus and offices acting within the scope of their own functional statements and delegations.

.414 In the event of differences of opinion with other bureaus and offices as to operating policies or actions, the Bureau of Operations is expected to exhaust every means for composing differences. The means for referring these differences for higher decision ordinarily rests with the Bureau of Operations.

.42 Policy and Administrative Bureaus.

.421 The Bureau of Transportation, the Bureau of Finance, the Bureau of Facilities, and the Bureau of Personnel develop or establish policies and programs within their respective areas as defined in their functional statements and delegations. They perform also certain supporting or auxiliary functions as assigned to them in functional statements and delegations. Their mission is to provide the overall policy and program guidance which will contribute to the effectiveness of field operations.

.422 The Bureau of Finance, the Bureau of Facilities, and the Bureau of Personnel develop or establish policies and procedures pertaining to the internal administration of the Department's operations, within the scope of their delegations. They do so in coordination with the appropriate bureaus and offices so that new policies and procedures will realistically serve operating needs and convenience.

811.5—STAFF BUREAU AND OFFICES

.51 Bureau of the Chief Postal Inspector.

.511 The Bureau of the Chief Postal Inspector functions as an independent factfinding and internal auditing arm for the Postmaster General. Its national and field offices are independent of the rest of the Department's organizational structure.

.512 Upon request of other bureaus and offices, or as assigned by the Postmaster General, this bureau also performs in a similar manner in behalf of other bureaus and offices and Regional Operations Directors.

.513 This bureau also exercises certain law enforcement, security, protective, and emergency responsibilities.

.514 Internal auditors stationed in the field operate as an independent group reporting through area audit managers, in turn, to the Director, Internal Audit Division and the Chief Postal Inspector.

.52 Office of the General Counsel.

While the General Counsel serves the Postmaster General and the Department generally on legal matters, he also performs certain administrative functions specifically delegated to him.

.53 Office of Research and Engineering.

The Office of Research and Engineering provides independent research and engineering services for the Post Office Department, including the conduct of research and development, management engineering, and construction engineering activities. Its director serves as the principal advisor to the Postmaster General and the Deputy Postmaster General and the heads of other bureaus and offices on all phases of research and engineering.

PART 812—DELEGATION OF AUTHORITY

812.1—AUTHORITY FOR DELEGATION

.11 All authority for administration of the programs and activities of the Post Office Department is vested by Reorganization Plan No. 3 of 1949 in the Postmaster General. The Postmaster General is authorized by this law to delegate his authority to officers and employees under his direction and supervision.

.12 An Assistant Postmaster General is authorized to act in behalf of the Postmaster General on all matters within the terms of reference of that Assistant Postmaster General. In the absence of an Assistant Postmaster General from duty, his functions shall be discharged by his Deputy Assistant Postmaster General or other designated officer, next in line, who shall use the title of Acting Assistant Postmaster General and sign documents as such. When a designation is to be made to an officer of lesser rank than a Deputy Assistant Postmaster General to act as Assistant Postmaster General, the prior approval of the Postmaster General or the Deputy Postmaster General shall be obtained.

.13 Specific written delegation granting authority for the performance of acts specifically vested in the Postmaster General or in the Post Office Department by statutory or administrative law is sometimes required, such as those which authorize the incurring directly of an obligation on behalf of the United States Government or the certification of vouchers for payment. Evidence of this authority is necessary for audit purposes or to support the validity of official acts in case of legal contest.

812.2—MEDIA OF DELEGATION

.21 All delegations of authority shall be promulgated through officially established media as defined herein. So far as practicable, statements of delegation shall be prepared for inclusion in the Postal Manual or other manuals of regulations and procedures, in the style of such manuals.

.22 Chapter 8 of the Postal Manual shall serve as the general medium for conferring authority to organization units and their heads to perform the duties and responsibilities allocated to them. Such other manuals as are, or may be, officially established shall serve as media for conveying specific operating authorities in connection with specific work processes prescribed by the manuals.

.23 Individual memoranda of delegation, in the format of an Order of the Postmaster General, numbered serially for record purposes, may be issued when promulgation in the form of a manual insert is not appropriate or feasible. Such memoranda shall, however, be kept to a minimum.

.24 In addition to publication in suitable departmental and field service series, delegations shall be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER when required.

812.3—CONTENTS OF DELEGATIONS

.31 Delegations shall ordinarily be made by position title rather than by individual name. The term chief or acting chief or any comparable term need not be used as it will be presumed that the officer acting in the absence of a principal shall have the full authority of that principal.

.32 When authority is delegated to an officer, the officers in line of command above the officer to whom authority is delegated shall have the same authority. This authority shall not extend to associates, deputies, assistant chiefs, assistants to the chief, or other aides to a principal, except on an acting basis as specified in 812.31 or unless specifically authorized.

.33 A delegation shall set forth the specific actions for which an officer has authority as well as limitations and special conditions for exercising the authority. Any delegation of authority shall be subject to any legally prescribed conditions or criteria of execution, whether or not mentioned in the delegation. In addition, conditions or criteria may be administratively included. A delegation may also include a requirement for the making of periodic reports of the exercise of the delegated authority.

812.4—REDELEGATION

.41 An Assistant Postmaster General may redelegate any authority vested in him, except as otherwise provided by law or administrative regulations.

.42 Authority to commit the Post Office Department or the United States Government may be subdelegated by the Deputy Postmaster General or by an Assistant Postmaster General. Other subordinate officers may not redelegate authority to perform acts in accordance with legal requirements.

.43 An officer may redelegate responsibility for the ordinary performance of duties, except as provided in 812.41.

.631 POD Forms 61, Appointment Affidavits, and 62, Oath of Office and Appointment Affidavit, shall be used to ascertain that the personal action being taken conforms with the Civil Service Act and rules and applicable laws pertaining to holding of office, pensions, suitability in connection with any record of discharge or arrest, age, citizenship, and other requirements relating to employment in the Postal Service. No employee shall be assigned to duty if the form indicates that he does not meet the requirements. Appointing officers shall guard against impersonation and determine beyond reasonable doubt that the appointee is the same person who qualified for the appointment. It is incumbent upon officials and supervisors administering oaths of office to become familiar with those organizations in which membership, past or present, may constitute a bar to employment or retention in the Postal Service. (See Part 837.)

.632. The oath of office incident to entrance into the Postal Service (or to a conversion to career status) shall be administered without charge or fee.

PART 313—RESPONSIBILITIES COMMON TO ALL BUREAUS AND OFFICES

b. Keeping superiors properly informed and assisting them with advice and recommendations.

c. Discharging such responsibilities and special tasks as may be assigned to them by superior officers.

313.6—INTERNAL MANAGEMENT

Every unit, consistent with its status, shall carry out its responsibilities for personnel management, administrative management, budgetary administration, and physical security of its immediate operations.

PART 314—RELATIONSHIPS AND CHANNELS OF COMMUNICATION

314.1—FORMAL CHANNELS

.11 General.

A communication sent to a level of higher authority shall ordinarily proceed through each successive point of higher authority without bypassing any. In the same manner an instruction, delegation of authority, or any other communication from a higher level of authority to a lesser level should also proceed through each point. This principle must be followed if each officer who is responsible for an area of activity is to be kept informed of what is going on. An officer who is accountable for any activity must be given an opportunity to pass judgment on matters under his jurisdiction.

.12 Headquarters and field.

.121 General authority and responsibility for field operations is vested in the Assistant Postmaster General, Bureau of Operations, who directly supervises the Regional Operations Director, evaluates his performance, and is his general point of contact with the Department. The formal and official channel of communication and authority from the Post Office Department in Washington to any regional management official, other than postal inspectors in charge, is from the Assistant Postmaster General, Bureau of Operations, to the appropriate Regional Operations Director. However, the Assistant Postmasters General, the General Counsel, the Chief Postal Inspector, and the Director of the Office of Research and Engineering will communicate directly with Regional Operations Directors on all matters on which they represent and act for the Postmaster General and will provide professional and technical leadership for the field activities in the areas of their responsibilities.

.122 The formal channel to a postmaster or to the head of any postal transportation service installation is through the Regional Operations Director.

.123 Formal communications from the field to Washington headquarters shall be through the same channels, in reverse, except that the Regional Operations Director should ordinarily address his own communications to the Assistant Postmaster General, Bureau of Operations.

314.2—INFORMAL CHANNELS

.21 General.

.211 The formal channels of communication need not be followed when routine information is being requested or transmitted. However, channels of communication should never be shortcut on matters requiring discretion or policy determination.

.212 Ordinary business may be conducted across bureau and office lines by "opposite numbers" each acting within the scope of his responsibility. This timesaving practice should be followed routinely on nonpolicy transactions, unless a specific transaction or a category of transactions is reserved for a higher official. Direct communication between opposite numbers is also encouraged during informal, developmental phases of interbureau or interoffice policy, program, and procedural planning. In such cases, the persons involved must not commit their principals without prior consultation.

.213 Any officer who is bypassed in accordance with principles in 314.21 must, however, be kept informed. This may be done orally or by carbon copy, as the situation may require. The information notification must be transmitted without any delay to the officer concerned.

.22 Headquarters and field.

.221 The formal lines of authority and communication governing the relationship of the Washington headquarters to the field establishment are necessary if the responsible officials are to be held administratively accountable. As a matter of practical operation, however, abbreviated channels of communication are authorized in order to bring the several bureaus and offices in Washington in close contact with their functional counterparts in the region. This is to provide direct technical guidance to regional officials.

.222 The Postmaster General relies on the heads of the various bureaus and offices to formulate the directives and guidances for the Regional Operations Directors and their staffs. Certain of these will be issued over the signature of the Postmaster General or the Deputy Postmaster General. As a matter of delegation at national headquarters, most communications from Washington will be issued over the signatures of the various bureau heads, covering matters within their jurisdiction. In any such case, the communication will have the same effect as though it were sent to the Regional Operations Director by the Postmaster General or his Deputy. In either event, the Regional Operations Director shall be responsible for performance.

.223 Functional field staff officers may communicate directly with the corresponding functional bureau or staff office in headquarters. In addition, where specifically authorized in the Department's instructions, they may also directly contact supporting headquarters offices, such as General Counsel, Chief Postal Inspector, Research and Engineering, and Public Relations, on matters of a technical nature not requiring administrative judgment of the Regional Operations Director.

.224 Routine operating reports ordinarily will be sent directly to the respective bureaus and offices for analysis and consideration. The Regional Operations Director will make such additional reports direct to the Assistant Postmaster General, Bureau of Operations, as are required or as he may deem appropriate.

.225 There should be close liaison between the regional officials and the Inspection Service which, as an independent arm of the Postmaster General, does not come under the jurisdiction of the Regional Operations Director. The Inspection Service may be requested to make findings of fact and give recommendations on postal matters.

PART 315—REGIONAL ABBREVIATIONS AND NUMERICAL DESIGNATIONS

The following are the official abbreviations and numerical designations of the fifteen regions of the Post Office Department. They should be used, respectively, when abbreviations or numbers are employed to identify the regions. This does not permit the substitution of abbreviations or numbers in formal reports where names of regions should be used.

Chapter VII—Commodity Stabilization Service (Farm Marketing Quotas and Acreage Allotments), Department of Agriculture

[Amdt. 1]

PART 730—RICE

Marketing Quotas, 1960; Rate of Penalty

The amendment herein is issued under and in accordance with the provisions of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended, to announce the rate of penalty applicable to excess rice produced in the 1960 crop year.

Under the Act the penalty rate per pound on the farm marketing excess is equal to 65 per centum of the parity price per pound for rice as of June 15 of the calendar year in which the crop is produced.

Since the calculation of the penalty rate is a mathematical determination and since farmers have already planted the 1960 crop of rice on their farms and soon will be making plans to harvest such crop, it is imperative that they be notified of the amendment as soon as possible. Accordingly, it is hereby found that compliance with the notice, procedure, and effective date provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U.S.C. 1003) is unnecessary and contrary to the public interest, and the amendment shall become effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Section 730.972 is amended by adding at the end thereof the following sentence: "The rate of penalty applicable to the 1960 crop of rice shall be 3.87 cents per pound, which is 65 per centum of the parity price per pound for rice as of June 15, 1960, which is determined to be 5.96 cents per pound."

(Secs. 356, 375, 52 Stat. 62, as amended; 66, as amended; 7 U.S.C. 1356, 1375)

Issued this 7th day of July 1960.

Acting Administrator,

Chapter IX—Agricultural Marketing Service (Marketing Agreements and Orders), Department of Agriculture

PART 934—FRESH PEACHES GROWN IN DESIGNATED COUNTIES IN WASHINGTON

Waiver of Inspection and Certification

Pursuant to the Marketing Agreement and Order No. 34 (7 CFR Part 934; 25 F.R. 4669), regulating the handling of fresh peaches grown in designated counties in Washington, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601-674), the Washington Fresh Peach Marketing Committee, the administrative agency established under this marketing agreement and order, has recommended the administrative regulations, hereinafter set forth to effectuate the provisions of this marketing agreement and order. It is found that the proposed regulations are in accordance with the provisions of the marketing agreement and order and will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act and, accordingly, such regulations are hereby approved.

It is further found that it is impracticable, unnecessary, and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date hereof beyond the date of publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER (5 U.S.C. 1001-1011), in that (1) shipments of peaches are now being made and limitation of shipment regulations are currently in effect, (2) all shipments of peaches are subject to inspection and certification requirements under § 934.55; and these regulations relieve restrictions with respect to such inspection and certification requirements.

§ 934.110 Waiver of inspection and certification.

(a) Application. Any handler (including a grower-handler packing and handling peaches of his own production), whose packing facilities are located in an area where a Washington State Horticultural Division Inspection Office or Federal-State Inspector is not readily available to perform the required inspection may, prior to shipment, apply to the Committee for a permit authorizing a waiver of inspection. Applications shall be made on forms furnished by the Committee and shall contain such information as the Committee may require including: name and address of applicant, location of packing facility, distance of packing facility from the nearest inspection office, period (by approximate beginning and ending dates) during which applicant expects to ship peaches, estimated quantity of peaches applicant expects to ship to fresh market during such period, manner in which the majority of applicant's fruit will be marketed (i.e., transported by applicant to market, sold at orchard to truckers, etc.), areas or markets to which applicant expects to ship the majority of his peaches. The application shall also contain an agreement by applicant (1) not to ship or handle any peaches unless such peaches meet the grade, size, maturity, container, and all other requirements of the Order in effect at time of handling, (2) to report periodically to the Committee on reporting forms furnished by the Committee the following information on each shipment: quantity, variety, grade, minimum size, container, date of shipment, destination, name and address of buyer or receiver, and such other information as the Committee may specify, (3) to pay applicable assessments on each shipment, and (4) to comply with such other safeguards as the Committee may prescribe.

(b) Issuance of permit. Whenever the Committee finds and determines from the information contained in the application or from other proof satisfactory to the Committee that the applicant is entitled to a waiver from the inspection requirements of the order at time of shipment, the Committee shall issue a permit authorizing the applicant to ship peaches in accordance with these administrative regulations and the terms and conditions of such permit.

(Secs. 1-19, 48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U.S.C. 601-674)

Dated July 8, 1960, to become effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

S. R. SMITH,
Director, Fruit and Vegetable Division, Agricultural Marketing Service.

1. Section 72.2 is amended by changing the heading thereof to read as set forth below and by adding the following provisions at the end of said section:

§ 72.2 Splenetic or tick fever in cattle in described territory in Florida, Texas, Puerto Rico, and the Virgin Islands of the United States; restrictions on movement of cattle.

The amendment imposes certain further restrictions necessary to prevent the spread of splenetic or tick fever. It must be made effective immediately to accomplish its purpose in the public interest. Accordingly, under section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U.S.C. 1003), it is found upon good cause that notice and other public procedure with respect to the amendment are impracticable and contrary to the public interest, and good cause is found for making the amendment effective less than 30 days after publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

SUBCHAPTER K—HUMANE SLAUGHTER OF LIVESTOCK

PART 180—DESIGNATION OF METHODS

Gunshot

Pursuant to the authority conferred by the Humane Slaughter Act of August 27, 1958 (7 U.S.C. 1901 et seq.), § 180.16(b)(1)(ii) of the regulations relating to humane slaughter of livestock (9 CFR 180.16(b)(1)(ii)) is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 180.16 Mechanical; gunshot.

• • • • • •

(b) Facilities and procedure—(1) General requirements for shooting facilities; operator. • • •

(ii) To assure uniform unconsciousness of the animal with every discharge where small-bore firearms are employed, it is necessary to use either hollow pointed or frangible iron plastic composition projectiles. Firearms must be maintained in good repair. For purposes of protecting employees, inspectors and others, it is desirable that all firearms be equipped with safety devices to prevent injuries from accidental discharge. Aiming and discharging of firearms should be directed away from operating areas.

(Sec. 4, 72 Stat. 862; 7 U.S.C. 1904)

This amendment and the designation made thereby shall become effective upon publication hereof for purposes of section 3 of the Act with respect to United States Government contracts for procurement of livestock products under the Act. Section 3 provides in general that after June 30, 1960, no agency or is affiliated, slaughters or handles in connection with slaughter livestock by any methods other than methods designated under the act. The method of slaughtering animals by gunshot with hollow pointed bullets was previously designated as humane under the act following the endorsement by the Advisory Committee established under the act of the principle of such slaughter as humane. The amendment designates as a humane method, slaughter by gunshot with frangible iron plastic composition bullets and thus applies the principle to another type of bullet. This designation provides industry with an additional humane slaughter method which will be acceptable for purposes of section 3 of the act. In order to be of maximum benefit to affected persons, the additional method should be made available for adoption by the industry as soon as possible.

The Department has given the matter careful consideration and it does not appear that new information would be made available to the Department by public rule-making procedure. Therefore under Section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U.S.C. 1003) it is found upon good cause that notice and other public procedure with respect to the amendment are impracticable and unnecessary, and good cause is found for making the amendment effective less than 30 days after publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Done at Washington, D.C., this 8th day of July 1960.

[Amdt. 1]

PART 730—RICE

Marketing Quotas, 1960; Rate of Penalty

The amendment herein is issued under and in accordance with the provisions of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended, to announce the rate of penalty applicable to excess rice produced in the 1960 crop year.

Under the Act the penalty rate per pound on the farm marketing excess is equal to 65 per centum of the parity price per pound for rice as of June 15 of the calendar year in which the crop is produced.

Since the calculation of the penalty rate is a mathematical determination and since farmers have already planted the 1960 crop of rice on their farms and soon will be making plans to harvest such crop, it is imperative that they be notified of the amendment as soon as possible. Accordingly, it is hereby found that compliance with the notice, procedure, and effective date provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U.S.C. 1003) is unnecessary and contrary to the public interest, and the amendment shall become effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Section 730.972 is amended by adding at the end thereof the following sentence: "The rate of penalty applicable to the 1960 crop of rice shall be 3.87 cents per pound, which is 65 per centum of the parity price per pound for rice as of June 15, 1960, which is determined to be 5.96 cents per pound."

Chapter IX—Agricultural Marketing Service (Marketing Agreements and Orders), Department of Agriculture

PART 934—FRESH PEACHES GROWN IN DESIGNATED COUNTIES IN WASHINGTON

Waiver of Inspection and Certification

Pursuant to the Marketing Agreement and Order No. 34 (7 CFR Part 934; 25 F.R. 4669), regulating the handling of fresh peaches grown in designated counties in Washington, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601-674), the Washington Fresh Peach Marketing Committee, the administrative agency established under this marketing agreement and order, has recommended the administrative regulations, hereinafter set forth to effectuate the provisions of this marketing agreement and order. It is found that the proposed regulations are in accordance with the provisions of the marketing agreement and order and will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act and, accordingly, such regulations are hereby approved.

It is further found that it is impracticable, unnecessary, and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date hereof beyond the date of publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER (5 U.S.C. 1001-1011), in that (1) shipments of peaches are now being made and limitation of shipment regulations are currently in effect, (2) all shipments of peaches are subject to inspection and certification requirements under § 934.55; and these regulations relieve restrictions with respect to such inspection and certification requirements.

§ 934.110 Waiver of inspection and certification.

(a) Application. Any handler (including a grower-handler packing and handling peaches of his own production), whose packing facilities are located in an area where a Washington State Horticultural Division Inspection Office or Federal-State Inspector is not readily available to perform the required inspection may, prior to shipment, apply to the Committee for a permit authorizing a waiver of inspection. Applications shall be made on forms furnished by the Committee and shall contain such information as the Committee may require including: name and address of applicant, location of packing facility, distance of packing facility from the nearest inspection office, period (by approximate beginning and ending dates) during which applicant expects to ship peaches, estimated quantity of peaches applicant expects to ship to fresh market during such period, manner in which the majority of applicant's fruit will be marketed (i.e., transported by applicant to market, sold at orchard to truckers, etc.), areas or markets to which applicant expects to ship the majority of his peaches. The application shall also contain an agreement by applicant (1) not to ship or handle any peaches unless such peaches meet the grade, size, maturity, container, and all other requirements of the Order in effect at time of handling, (2) to report periodically to the Committee on reporting forms furnished by the Committee the following information on each shipment: quantity, variety, grade, minimum size, container, date of shipment, destination, name and address of buyer or receiver, and such other information as the Committee may specify, (3) to pay applicable assessments on each shipment, and (4) to comply with such other safeguards as the Committee may prescribe.

(b) Issuance of permit. Whenever the Committee finds and determines from the information contained in the application or from other proof satisfactory to the Committee that the applicant is entitled to a waiver from the inspection requirements of the order at time of shipment, the Committee shall issue a permit authorizing the applicant to ship peaches in accordance with these administrative regulations and the terms and conditions of such permit.

(Secs. 1-19, 48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U.S.C. 601-674)

Dated July 8, 1960, to become effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

PART 72—TEXAS (SPLENETIC) FEVER IN CATTLE

Area Regulated in Florida

Pursuant to the provisions of sections 1 and 3 of the Act of March 3, 1905, as amended, sections 1 and 2 of the Act of February 2, 1903, as amended, and sections 4 through 7 of the Act of May 29, 1884, as amended (21 U.S.C. 111–113, 115, 117, 120, 121, 123, 125); Part 72, Title 9, Code of Federal Regulations, is hereby amended as follows:

1. Section 72.2 is amended by changing the heading thereof to read as set forth below and by adding the following provisions at the end of said section:

§ 72.2 Splenetic or tick fever in cattle in described territory in Florida, Texas, Puerto Rico, and the Virgin Islands of the United States; restrictions on movement of cattle.

• • • Notice is also hereby given that there is reason to believe that said disease may exist in portions of the State of Florida. Therefore, those portions of the State of Florida described in § 72.5a are hereby regulated, and the movement of cattle therefrom into any other State or Territory or the District of Columbia shall be made only in accordance with the provisions of this part and Part 71 of this chapter.

(b) All of the provisions of this part and Part 71 of this chapter which are applicable to quarantined areas shall apply to such regulated areas in the same manner and to the same extent as if they were quarantined.

(Secs. 1, 3, 23 Stat. 1256, as amended, 1265, as amended, secs. 1, 2, 32 Stat. 791, as amended, 792, as amended, secs. 4–7, 23 Stat. 32, as amended; 21 U.S.C. 111–113, 115, 117, 120, 121, 123, 125)

Effective date. The foregoing amendment shall become effective upon issuance.

The amendment imposes certain further restrictions necessary to prevent the spread of splenetic or tick fever. It must be made effective immediately to accomplish its purpose in the public interest. Accordingly, under section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U.S.C. 1003), it is found upon good cause that notice and other public procedure with respect to the amendment are impracticable and contrary to the public interest, and good cause is found for making the amendment effective less than 30 days after publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

(Sec. 4, 72 Stat. 863; 7 U.S.C. 1904)

This amendment and the designation made thereby shall become effective upon publication hereof for purposes of section 3 of the Act with respect to United States Government contracts for procurement of livestock products under the Act. Section 3 provides in general that after June 30, 1960, no agency or instrumentality of the United States shall contract for or procure any livestock products produced or processed by any slaughterer or processor which, in any of its plants or in any plants of any slaughterer or processor with which it is affiliated, slaughters or handles in connection with slaughter livestock by any methods other than methods designated under the act. The method of slaughtering animals by gunshot with hollow pointed bullets was previously designated as humane under the act following the endorsement by the Advisory Committee established under the act of the principle of such slaughter as humane. The amendment designates as a humane method, slaughter by gunshot with frangible iron plastic composition bullets and thus applies the principle to another type of bullet. This designation provides industry with an additional humane slaughter method which will be acceptable for purposes of section 3 of the act. In order to be of maximum benefit to affected persons, the additional method should be made available for adoption by the industry as soon as possible.

The Department has given the matter careful consideration and it does not appear that new information would be made available to the Department by public rule-making procedure. Therefore under Section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U.S.C. 1003) it is found upon good cause that notice and other public procedure with respect to the amendment are impracticable and unnecessary, and good cause is found for making the amendment effective less than 30 days after publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Done at Washington, D.C., this 8th day of July 1960.

Acting Administrator,
Agricultural Research Service.

CARRYOVERS

§ 1.381(a) Statutory provisions; carryovers in certain corporate acquisitions; general rule.

SEC. 381. Carryovers in certain corporate acquisitions—(a) General rule. In the case of the acquisition of assets of a corporation by another corporation—

(1) In a distribution to such other corporation to which section 332 (relating to liquidations of subsidiaries) applies, except in a case in which the basis of the assets distributed is determined under section 334(b)(2); or

(2) In a transfer to which section 361 (relating to nonrecognition of gain or loss to corporations) applies, but only if the transfer is in connection with a reorganization described in subparagraph (A), (C), (D) (but only if the requirements of subparagraphs (A) and (B) of section 354(b)(1) are met), or (F) of section 368(a)(1), the acquiring corporation shall succeed to and take into account, as of the close of the day of distribution or transfer, the items described in subsection (c) of the distributor or transferor corporation, subject to the conditions and limitations specified in subsections (b) and (c).

§ 1.381(a)–1 General rule relating to carryovers in certain corporate acquisitions.

(a) Allowance of carryovers. Section 381 provides that a corporation which acquires the assets of another corporation in certain liquidations and reorganizations shall succeed to, and take into account, as of the close of the date of distribution or transfer, the items described in section 381(c) of the distributor or transferor corporation. These items shall be taken into account by the acquiring corporation subject to the conditions and limitations specified in sections 381 and 382(b) and the regulations thereunder.

(b) Determination of transactions and items to which section 381 applies—(1) Qualified transactions. Except to the extent provided in section 381(c)(20), relating to the carryover of unused pension trust deductions in certain liquidations, the items described in section 381(c) are required by section 381 to be carried over to the acquiring corporation (as defined in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph) only in the following liquidations and reorganizations:

(i) The complete liquidation of a subsidiary corporation upon which no gain or loss is recognized in accordance with the provisions of section 332, but only if the basis of the assets distributed to the acquiring corporation is not required by section 334(b)(2) to be the adjusted basis of the stock with respect to which the distribution is made;

(ii) A statutory merger or consolidation qualifying under section 368(a)(1)(A) to which section 361 applies;

(iii) A reorganization qualifying under section 368(a)(1)(C);

(iv) A reorganization qualifying under section 368(a)(1)(D) if the requirements of section 354(b)(1)(A) and (B) are satisfied; and

(v) A mere change in identity, form, or place of organization qualifying under section 368(a)(1)(F).

(2) Acquiring corporation defined. (i) Only a single corporation may be an acquiring corporation for purposes of section 381 and the regulations thereunder. The corporation which acquires the assets of its subsidiary corporation in a complete liquidation to which section 381(a)(1) applies is the acquiring corporation for purposes of section 381. Generally, in a transaction to which section 381(a)(2) applies, the acquiring corporation is that corporation which, pursuant to the plan of reorganization, ultimately acquires, directly or indirectly, all of the assets transferred by the transferor corporation. If, in a transaction qualifying under section 381(a)(2), no one corporation ultimately acquires all of the assets transferred by the transferor corporation, that corporation which directly acquires the assets so transferred shall be the acquiring corporation for purposes of section 381 and the regulations thereunder, even though such corporation ultimately retains none of the assets so transferred. Whether a corporation has acquired all of the assets transferred by the transferor corporation is a question of fact to be determined on the basis of all the facts and circumstances.

(ii) The application of this subparagraph may be illustrated by the following examples:

Example (1). Y Corporation, a wholly-owned subsidiary of X Corporation, directly acquired all the assets of Z Corporation solely in exchange for voting stock of X Corporation in a transaction qualifying under section 368(a)(1)(C). Y Corporation is the acquiring corporation for purposes of section 381.

Example (2). X Corporation acquired all the assets of Z Corporation solely in exchange for voting stock of X Corporation in a transaction qualifying under section 368(a)(1)(C). Thereafter, pursuant to the plan of reorganization X Corporation transferred all the assets so acquired to Y Corporation, its wholly-owned subsidiary (see section 368(a)(2)(C)). Y Corporation is the acquiring corporation for purposes of section 381.

Example (3). X Corporation acquired all the assets of Z corporation solely in exchange for the voting stock of X Corporation in a transaction qualifying under section 368(a)(1)(C). Thereafter, pursuant to the plan of reorganization X Corporation transferred one-half of the assets so acquired to Y Corporation, its wholly-owned subsidiary, and retained the other half of such assets. X Corporation is the acquiring corporation for purposes of section 381.

Example (4). X Corporation acquired all the assets of Z Corporation solely in exchange for voting stock of X Corporation in a transaction qualifying under section 368(a)(1)(C). Thereafter, pursuant to the plan of reorganization X Corporation transferred one-half of the assets so acquired to Y Corporation, its wholly-owned subsidiary, and the other half of such assets to M Corporation, another wholly-owned subsidiary of X Corporation. X Corporation is the acquiring corporation for purposes of section 381.

(3) Transactions and items not covered by section 381. (i) Section 381 does not apply to partial liquidations, divisive reorganizations, or other transactions not described in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph. Moreover, section 381 does not apply to the carryover of an item or tax attribute not specified in subsection (c) thereof. In a case where section 381 does not apply to a transaction, item, or tax attribute by reason of either of the preceding sentences, no inference is to be drawn from the provisions of section 381 as to whether any item or tax attribute shall be taken into account by the successor corporation.

(ii) If, pursuant to the provisions of subparagraph (2) of this paragraph, a corporation is considered to be the acquiring corporation even though a part of the acquired assets is transferred to one or more corporations controlled by the acquiring corporation, or all the acquired assets are transferred to two or more corporations controlled by the acquiring corporation, then the carryover of any item described in section 381(c) to such controlled corporation or corporations shall be determined without regard to section 381.

Thus, for example, if a parent corporation is the acquiring corporation for purposes of section 381 notwithstanding the fact that, pursuant to the plan of reorganization, it transferred to its wholly-owned subsidiary property acquired from the transferor corporation which the transferor corporation had elected to inventory under the last-in first-out method, then the question whether the subsidiary corporation shall continue to use the same method of inventorying with respect to that property shall be determined without regard to section 381.

(c) Foreign corporations. A foreign corporation may be a distributor, transferor, or acquiring corporation for purposes of section 381. Thus, for example, the net operating loss carryovers of a foreign corporation, determined under the provisions of section 172 and subchapter N, chapter 1 of the Code, may be carried over to a domestic acquiring corporation if the domestic corporation acquires the assets of the foreign corporation in a liquidation or reorganization described in section 381(a) and the requirements of § 1.367–1, if applicable, have been complied with.

(d) Internal Revenue Code of 1939. Any reference in the regulations under section 381 to any provision of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 shall, where appropriate, be deemed also to refer to the corresponding provision of the Internal Revenue Code of 1939.

§ 1.381(b) Statutory provisions; carryovers in certain corporate acquisitions; operating rules.

SEC. 381. Carryovers in certain corporate acquisitions. • • •

(b) Operating Rules. Except in the case of an acquisition in connection with a reorganization described in subparagraph (F) of section 368(a)(1)—

(1) The taxable year of the distributor or transferor corporation shall end on the date of distribution or transfer.

(2) For purposes of this section, the date of distribution or transfer shall be the day on which the distribution or transfer is completed; except that, under regulations prescribed by the Secretary or his delegate, the date when substantially all of the property has been distributed or transferred may be used if the distributor or transferor corporation ceases all operations, other than liquidating activities, after such date.

(3) The corporation acquiring property in a distribution or transfer described in subsection (a) shall not be entitled to carry back a net operating loss for a taxable year ending after the date of distribution or transfer to a taxable year of the distributor or transferor corporation.

§ 1.381(b)–1 Operating rules applicable to carryovers in certain corporate acquisitions.

(a) Closing of taxable year—(1) In general. Except in the case of a reorganization qualifying under section 368(a)(1)(F), the taxable year of the distributor or transferor corporation shall end with the close of the date of distribution or transfer.

(2) Reorganizations under section 368(a)(1)(F). In the case of a reorganization qualifying under section 368(a)(1)(F) (whether or not such reorganization also qualifies under any other provision of section 368(a)(1)), the acquiring corporation shall be treated (for purposes of section 381) just as the transferor corporation would have been treated if there had been no reorganization. Thus, the taxable year of the transferor corporation shall not end on the date of transfer merely because of the transfer; a net operating loss of the acquiring corporation for any taxable year ending after the date of transfer shall be carried back in accordance with section 172(b) in computing the taxable income of the transferor corporation for a taxable year ending before the date of transfer; and the tax attributes of the transferor corporation enumerated in section 381(c) shall be taken into account by the acquiring corporation as if there had been no reorganization.

(b) Date of distribution or transfer. (1) The date of distribution or transfer shall be that day on which are distributed or transferred all those properties of the distributor or transferor corporation which are to be distributed or transferred pursuant to a liquidation or reorganization described in paragraph (b)(1) of § 1.381(a)–1. If the distribution or transfer of all such properties is not made on one day, then, except as provided in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph, the date of distribution or transfer shall be that day on which the distribution or transfer of all such properties is completed.

(2) If the distributor or transferor and acquiring corporations file the statements described in subparagraph (3) of this paragraph, the date of distribution or transfer shall be that day as of which (i) substantially all of the properties to be distributed or transferred have been distributed or transferred, and (ii) the distributor or transferor corporation has ceased all operations (other than liquidating activities). Such day also shall be the date of distribution or transfer if the completion of the distribution or transfer is unreasonably postponed beyond the date as of which substantially all the properties to be distributed or transferred have been distributed or transferred and the distributor or transferor corporation has ceased all operations other than liquidating activities. A corporation shall be considered to have distributed or transferred substantially all of its properties to be distributed or transferred even though it retains money or other property in a reasonable amount to pay outstanding debts or preserve the corporation's legal existence. A corporation shall be considered to have ceased all operations, other than liquidating activities, when it ceases to be a going concern and its activities are merely for the purpose of winding up its affairs, paying its debts, and distributing any remaining balance of its money or other properties to its shareholders.

(3) The statements referred to in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph shall specify the day considered to be the date of distribution or transfer and shall specify, as of such date (i) the nature and amount of the total assets which were distributed or transferred and the dates so distributed or transferred, (ii) the nature and amount of the assets not distributed or transferred and the purpose for which they were retained, and (iii) the date on which the distributor or transferor corporation ceased all operations other than liquidating activities. Such statements shall be attached to the timely filed income tax return of the distributor or transferor corporation for its taxable year ending with such date of distribution or transfer and to the timely filed income tax return of the acquiring corporation for its first taxable year ending after such date, except that, with respect to any income tax return filed before October 11, 1960, any such statement shall be filed before October 11, 1960, with the district director with whom such return is filed.

(4) If—

(i) The last day of the acquiring corporation's taxable year is a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday, and

(ii) The day specified in subpargraph (1) or (2) of this paragraph as the date of distribution or transfer is the last business day before such Saturday, Sunday, or holiday, then the last day of the acquiring corporation's taxable year shall be the date of distribution or transfer for purposes of section 381(b) and this section. For purposes of this subparagraph, the term "business day" means a day which is not a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday, and also means a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday if the date of distribution or transfer determined under subparagraph (1) or (2) of this paragraph is such Saturday, Sunday, or holiday.

(c) Return of distributor or transferor corporation. The distributor or transferor corporation shall file an income tax return for the taxable year ending with the date of distribution or transfer described in paragraph (b) of this section. If the distributor or transferor corporation remains in existence after such date of distribution or transfer, it shall file an income tax return for the taxable year beginning on the day following the date of distribution or transfer and ending with the date on which the distributor or transferor corporation's taxable year would have ended if there had been no distribution or transfer.

(d) Carryback of net operating losses. For provisions relating to the carryback of net operating losses of the acquiring corporation, see paragraph (b) of § 1.381(c)(1)–1.

§ 1.381(c)(1) Statutory provisions; carryovers in certain corporate acquisitions; items of the distributor or transferor corporation; net operating loss carryovers.

SEC. 381. Carryovers in certain corporate acquisitions. • • •

(c) Items of the distributor or transferor corporation. The items referred to in subsection (a) are:

(1) Net operating loss carryovers. The net operating loss carryovers determined under section 172, subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(A) The taxable year of the acquiring corporation to which the net operating loss carryovers of the distributor or transferor corporation are first carried shall be the first taxable year ending after the date of distribution or transfer.

(B) In determining the net operating loss deduction, the portion of such deduction attributable to the net operating loss carryovers of the distributor or transferor corporation to the first taxable year of the acquiring corporation ending after the date of distribution or transfer shall be limited to an amount which bears the same ratio to the taxable income (determined without regard to a net operating loss deduction) of the acquiring corporation in such taxable year as the number of days in the taxable year after the date of distribution or transfer bears to the total number of days in the taxable year.

(C) For the purpose of determining the amount of the net operating loss carryovers under section 172(b)(2), a net operating loss for a taxable year (hereinafter in this subparagraph referred to as the "loss year") of a distributor or transferor corporation which ends on or before the end of a loss year of the acquiring corporation shall be considered to be a net operating loss for a year prior to such loss year of the acquiring corporation. For the same purpose, the taxable income for a "prior taxable year" (as the term is used in section 172(b)(2)) shall be computed as provided in such section; except that, if the date of distribution or transfer is on a day other than the last day of a taxable year of the acquiring corporation—

(1) Such taxable year shall (for the purpose of this subparagraph only) be considered to be 2 taxable years (hereinafter in this subparagraph referred to as the "pre-acquisition part year" and the "post-acquisition part year");

(ii) The pre-acquisition part year shall begin on the same day as such taxable year begins and shall end on the date of distribution or transfer;

(iii) The post-acquisition part year shall begin on the day following the date of distribution or transfer and shall end on the same day as the end of such taxable year;

(iv) The taxable income for such taxable year (computed with the modifications specified in section 172(b)(2)(A) but without a net operating loss deduction) shall be divided between the pre-acquisition part year and the post-acquisition part year in proportion to the number of days in each;

(v) The net operating loss deduction for the pre-acquisition part year shall be determined as provided in section 172(b)(2)(B), but without regard to a net operating loss year of the distributor or transferor corporation; and

(vi) The net operating loss deduction for the post-acquisition part year shall be determined as provided in section 172(b)(2)(B).

§ 1.381(c)(1)–1 Net operating loss carryovers in certain corporate acquisitions.
